

Genius 2541

Chapter 2541

Overall, Lin Mo was still very satisfied with Di Yun as a teenager.

Although the contact time was not long.

But from the details, he could see that this person was responsible, had a sense of commitment and had strong leadership skills.

And at this moment, Lin Mo saw his preoccupied look, so he spoke out and asked.

“What’s wrong, do you have any doubts?”

After some hesitation, Di Yun took a deep breath before he made up his mind and said.

“Boss, I still have some mates.

Because they’ve been hungry for a long time, people have collapsed and can’t come over here.

So, I thought of

When he said this, he hesitantly glanced at Lin Mo.

The only thing he was afraid of was that he would displease Lin Mo and lose this opportunity to fill his stomach so easily.

Although the words hadn’t finished.

But Lin Mo also guessed what the other party wanted to say.

After standing up, he said with a serious face.

“Di Yun is it, so.

For those who came with you from Hanoi, you can bring them all over.

I will accept them all, regardless of their age.”

“But my request is just one thing.

These people must be clean, if you know what I mean.”

“If there are no other problems, we will meet here at this time tomorrow.”

After hearing this, Di Yun instantly had hot tears in his eyes, and after he gave a heavy mmm.

He made a move to turn around and tell his companion the good news.

And before he could take a step.

Lin Mo then called out to him.

“Wait a minute, go and buy some food first.

Don’t arrive and be too hungry to walk tomorrow.”

With that Lin Mo fetched a pile of cash from Captain Chen and handed it over.

Only Di Yun didn’t accept it.

“Boss, we haven’t officially started work yet.

We can’t take this money!”

Looking at the other party’s sincere eyes, Lin Mo nodded slightly, it seemed that he hadn’t misjudged the person.

Purity of heart, not bad!

“Bean goods, this is an advance payment of wages, you can take it as a deposit.

If you don’t take it, I’m afraid you’ll run away tomorrow.”

Such a lame excuse naturally could not be concealed from Di Yun.

Lifting up that tattered sleeve, he touched a handful of tears straight away.

And only then did he stretch out his hands and result in cash.

“Thank you, boss! We’ll be on time tomorrow!”

After saying that, he turned around with red eyes and ran out.

And when he had just reached the door, he suddenly stopped in his tracks.

Under Lin Mo’s curious gaze.

Di Yun directly, directly knelt down and kowtowed heavily before leaving at a fast pace.

At this moment, Zhang Gong looked at the man’s departing back and spoke out to remind him.

“Mr. Lin, you shouldn’t blame me for talking too much.

These people are not well identified.”

“If Hanoi’s side, comes looking for them, I’m afraid there will be big trouble.”

Being in Pan Yang for many years.

Zhang Gong had come into contact with the forces of the United Provinces many times.

He knew their ways of doing things very well.

If the other side knew that so many youths within their own forces had fled, they would definitely come looking for them.

At that time, this group of youngsters would be a scourge.

However, Lin Mo waved his hand in disbelief at this.

“It doesn’t matter, since I dare to take them in, I naturally have the courage to leave them behind.”

To be precise, this group of teenagers was also an unexpected pleasure.

Originally, Lin Mo purely wanted to recruit a few guards with clean heels.

Instead, he had unexpectedly recruited such a group of teenagers.

The main thing was that they were numerous.

The plan that had been buried in his heart before could now be implemented.

Thinking of this, he could not help but smile.

The two plans that had not been realised in the Southern Realm and Kyoto.

Unexpectedly, after coming to the Great Qu Province, they had come true consecutively.

With a pleasant mood, Lin Mo gave an account of Zhang Gong.

Generally speaking, it was also some matters of shop layout and decoration.

Along with Lin Mo’s side of the conversation.

A stranger suddenly came to the door.

Chapter 2542

“Hello, Mr. Lin.

I am Chairman Wang’s main man, you can just call me Xiaoyin.

Chairman Wang said that the matter of the mineral company has been settled.

Let me take you there.”

As the young man named Xiaoyin finished speaking only.

Lin Mo smiled in surprise.

I didn’t expect this Chairman Wang to be quite efficient, only a day had pa*sed and the matter was already done.

“Boss Zhang, then I’ll thank you for this side of the medical hall.”

Hearing Lin Mo’s address to himself.

Zhang Gong waved his hand repeatedly and said.

“Call me uncle Zhang, or old brother.

Forget about this boss thing.

Don't worry, I will take care of this side."

"Okay, then I'll trouble Uncle Zhang.

Here are two healing pills for internal and external injuries that I developed myself, Uncle Zhang remember to take them."

After saying a goodbye.

Lin Mo then followed Xiao Yin and drove away from the medical hall together.

And as the vehicle drifted away.

Lin Mo and the others then arrived at the Western District.

As soon as they got out of the car, Captain Chen couldn't help but complain.

"What kind of mining power branch is this, all the way over the equipment looks countless.

Not a single worker can be seen.

Lord Lin, have we been cheated."

This remark was made.

Lin Mo secretly shook his head at him, signalling for a little peace and quiet.

The interaction between the two was also seen by Little Silver, but to this he only smiled lightly.

"Mr Lin, it's alright.

Team Chen is right, this Western Suburbs Mineral Company is, by nature, a business that is about to close down."

At these words, Captain Chen suddenly showed his displeasure.

And just as he was about to get angry, Lin Mo once again stopped him.

"Let's hear what he has to say first."

The other party, since you were the one sent by Wang Laosan, was bound to be unable to just come to embarrass himself.

Little Silver smiled and nodded towards Lin Mo as he continued to explain.

"Chairman Wang, asked me to bring a message to Mr. Lin Mo.

Because someone is watching, this is the limit of what he can do."

"And President Wang especially explained.

If you encounter any difficulties during the handover process.

You can approach the owner of the mineral company, who is also Chairman Wang's nephew, Wang Xiaochun."

“Of course, the relationship between the two is not known to outsiders, so also Mr. Lin kept it a secret.”

Hearing this, Lin Mo instantly understood.

This trick of repairing the stacks in the open and concealing the stacks in the dark was well played.

It was worthy of being a veteran who had been able to hang out in the position of the president of the Pan Yang Martial Union for so long.

If it wasn't for the presence of outsiders, Lin Mo couldn't help but clap his hands for President Wang.

What he, Lin Mo, needed most was not some strong mineral factory or company.

What he needed most was not a strong mineral plant or company, but a company that he could feel completely at ease with.

This Western Suburbs Minerals was just what he wanted.

“Mr. Xiaoyin, convey this to Chairman Wang on my behalf.

Mr. Lin is very satisfied with this mineral company.

I thank him for his full support.”

And from Xiao Yin's few short words.

Lin Mo could tell that this person had a great relationship with Chairman Wang.

Otherwise it would be impossible to know this core secret.

“Mr. Lin, you're welcome.

I will see you off here.

If there is anything, feel free to contact Wang Xiaochun.”

After speaking gently and elegantly, Little Silver took his leave and departed.

And Lin Mo entered this Western Suburbs Mineral with Captain Chen.

And dared to step into the main door.

The entire hall couldn't be described as cold and empty.

To be precise, it was empty.

The only living person that could be seen was the security guard who was sleeping on the table in the doorman's booth.

When he knocked on the window, the guard just waved his hand impatiently.

“Stop it!”

And then continued his sleeping blows.

At this moment Lin Mo suddenly felt that he had been a bit hasty.

Since no one cared.

Lin Mo simply walked straight into the company.

All the way to the first floor.

Only then did a few workers appear, wearing their uniforms and taking their lunch break.

Hearing the commotion from this side.

A few of them climbed up sleepily.

“Hey, guys here comes someone!”

Chapter 2543

With one of them, the words of warning.

The crowd of workers quickly climbed to their feet.

In just a few breaths, dozens of people were standing in three straight rows.

This quality caused Lin Mo to be staggered.

How fast!

Were these really workers?

And under Lin Mo’s astonished gaze.

Dozens of people bent down and bowed in a neat and tidy manner.

“Good day boss!”

The voice was astounding.

And after the words fell, a sudden sound came from one lift over.

Ding!

The lift door opened and a young man rushed out in a hurry.

While arranging his clothes, he carried his leather shoes.

Under Lin Mo’s unexpected gaze.

The young man quickly sorted out his dress code.

With an excited look, he hurriedly shook Lin Mo’s hands.

“Welcome, Boss Lin, I am Wang Xiaochun.

I’ve been waiting day and night for you to finally come.”

Such a scene was only somewhat familiar to Lin Mo.

It was true, this young man was indeed Wang Laosan's nephew.

Lin Mo looked at this borderline Wang Xiaochun and twitched the corners of his mouth, grinning.

"Hello, Mr. Wang!"

At this moment, he felt even more rash.

"What's wrong with General Wang or not General Wang.

Just call me Xiaochun, the general story of what happened.

Uncle's side has all talked to me."

"We have all the people and things on our side.

Boss Lin, don't worry, the veteran staff in front of you are all brought up by my uncle.

They are completely trustworthy.

As soon as your funds are in place, we can start work at any time."

As his words fell.

A group of old employees behind him, full of expectation, stared at Lin Mo's, waiting for Lin Mo's reply.

emmmmm.....

Originally, Lin Mo thought that handing over this mineral company would require a lot of effort.

I didn't expect the other party to be more active than himself.

This when saved a lot of things.

"Don't worry, the start-up capital, I'll credit your company account in a moment."

As soon as Lin Mo's words fell.

The crowd on the other side instantly cheered up.

Especially that Wang Xiaochun, who was already jumping up and down happily at this point.

"O78k, old brothers, we have money to cheer.

Old geezer, once the front is in place later, you guys hurry up and buy a few barrels of oil and come back.

My beloved Dodge supercar, finally on the road again."

"Yes, Mr. Wang!"

Said a group of people, and continued to cheer.

It couldn't be helped, they hadn't started work for more than half a year, and if things continued like this, they wouldn't be able to secure even the most basic of livelihoods.

And Lin Mo's side also counted successfully dealt with the preliminary matters of procurement

This Western Minerals, although the number of people is not large, but only mining this gold-coloured mountain, has been completely sufficient.

The most important thing is that they are a group of trustworthy workers, so they can be used with confidence.

Of course, it would be better if the owner of the mining company could be more reliable.

After the matter was settled here.

Lin Mo saw that they were still celebrating with each other.

So he didn't bother, and after a simple greeting, he left the place.

When he returned home to his villa.

As soon as he got out of the car, he hadn't even walked into the compound.

Several figures suddenly appeared in front of him.

"Martial Alliance Dark Guards, meet Lord Zhen Yue!"

Ten figures, dressed neatly and uniformly.

And they were also top-notch existences in terms of their means of concealment.

If they wouldn't have appeared of their own accord.

Lin Mo wouldn't have even noticed them at first.

"You're welcome, I'll have to ask you all to help take care of the family wife during this next period of time."

"Duty calls!"

With one hand on the waist and one hand on the chest, after performing the salute of the Martial Alliance, several people's figures faded and directly disappeared in place.

And at that moment, Lin Mo also deliberately sensed perceived their scent.

Several people had already disappeared.

Under the spirit of victory, Lin Mo turned his spiritual power.

Six senses, open!

Only then did he perceive that there was a weak and erratic aura around him.

With this, he also put his mind at ease.

With their covert protection, his wife's safety was assured.

Chapter 2544

After briefly explaining the matter of the Martial Union's secret guards with his wife.

The first thing Lin Mo did was to put the $50 million start-up capital into the account of the Western Suburbs Mineral Company.

And after experiencing the communication with Zhang Gong during the day.

Lin Mo suddenly understood.

If he wanted to set up his first Chinese medicine center in Pan Yang smoothly.

It was necessary to set up a medical company at the same time to ensure that the supplies for the Chinese medicine hall were available.

When Jean wanted to set up a medical company, the amount of money involved in the fight was also huge.

There is no hurry at this time.

.....

At night, the moon is on the top of the willow.

Ever since Lin Mo came to Pan Yang, it seemed that nothing had ever gone smoothly for him.

The most annoying thing was that all these things were related to Lin Mo.

Hearing the news reported by his men.

Yin Tianpao also looked puzzled.

"This kid, what's the point of recruiting so many people?"

Does he plan to bring this group of refugees and sweep through the Great Qu Province?"

After muttering a sentence to himself, he shook his head again with a lost smile.

The refugees were all Hanoi refugees, and they had nothing to do with him.

One of the things the Yin family wanted was the Golden Cai Mountain, and the other was the long-established Kang De Chinese Medical Centre.

Unfortunately, these two things were both taken by Lin Mo before anyone else.

What made Yin Tian Bao unhappy was that two of his best men, Rats and Li Fei, had both been destroyed by this Lin Mo.

He had to look at his master to beat the dog.

This new Lord Zhen Yue's heavy behaviour had completely angered him.

And at the side, Dog saw Brother Tianpao's face clouded with uncertainty.

In his anxiety, he said directly and frankly.

“Boss, it’s if it doesn’t work.

I’ll just do him, now that Pao and Li Fei have both been ruined by him.

I, Dog, can’t stand to see it anymore.”

“Big deal, after I kill this kid, I’ll take all the blame alone.”

For Ah Dog’s loyalty.

Yin Tian Bao was still very pleased.

Only for his opinion, Yin Tian Bao, on the other hand, rejected it outright and said.

“Don’t be naive, the people of the Martial Alliance aren’t stupid.

Although I also hate it and would like to bury this kid.

But Lin Mo died in our Pan Yang, even if it wasn’t us who did it.”

“We won’t be able to escape recrimination either.

There are some things that have to be solved by killing someone.

But not so there are things like that.”

“All right, don’t worry about it, go and invite my good brother over first thing tomorrow morning.

Just that I have something I want to ask him for.”

Seeing that the boss’s mind was made up.

Dog didn’t say anything more and silently retreated.

.....

Early the next morning.

Lin Mo rushed straight to Kang De Medical Center.

As for Zhang Gong, he was directing the renovation company to refurbish the shop.

Due to the Yin family’s oppression, all the employees of the entire shop had long since run out.

So everything needed to be done by Zhang Gong himself.

Seeing Lin Mo calling out directly, Zhang Gong enthusiastically walked up.

“Mr. Lin, you’re here so early.”

Meeting again, he was even more convinced of Lin Mo’s.

After seeing Lin Mo’s skills with his own eyes, he was in awe of him.

What convinced him the most was Lin Mo’s skill in pill making.

Last night, before he went to bed, he tried to take the pills that Lin Mo had given him before he left.

To his surprise, he recovered most of it the next day.

The bruises all over his body had also dissipated after he had applied the external wound medicine.

In all the years of practicing medicine, this was the first time he had come across such a good medicine.

For a while, he looked at Lin Mo in a strange way.

Lin Mo was also a bit overwhelmed by Zhang Gong's hot gaze for a while.

After touching his own face, he confirmed that there was nothing abnormal.

Lin Mo opened his mouth and asked.

"Uncle Zhang, do I just have flowers on my face?"

And opposite Zhang Gong asked directly.

"Master Lin, that healing medicine yesterday, did you really refine it yourself?"

Seeing Lin Mo nod his head with a straight face to confirm.

Zhang Gong immediately stared at Lin Mo with a burning gaze.

"Master Lin, please accept me as your disciple."

Chapter 2545

Lin Mo naturally did not expect it.

Yesterday, this Zhang Gong was fine.

This had turned into this appearance in just one night.

Moreover, the other party's youth was all the same generation of his own uncle's existence.

Lin Mo could not possibly make the other party his disciple.

And facing the reluctant Zhang Gong, Lin Mo finally could only helplessly said.

"Uncle Zhang, it is absolutely impossible for me to take on an apprentice.

But in the future, I will often sit in the medical school."

"At that time, if you have a mind to, you can sit on the sidelines.

If there's anything you don't understand, I can also call you."

After receiving such a result.

Although it was somewhat beautiful that he could not worship Lin Mo as his teacher.

But being able to do so was enough for Zhang Gong to be overjoyed.

With his excitement, he turned around and walked over to the decorators.

“Brothers, be quicker.

Let’s try to renovate as soon as possible.

I’ll have my own red packet to give.”

After this motivation, he still felt unsatisfied and directly helped himself.

When Lin Mo saw this, he could only shake his head helplessly.

Of course as the beginning of the dream practice as a Chinese medicine hall under his name.

Lin Mo naturally will not be preachy.

He was also very interested in the layout and decoration of the medical centre.

This side of the building was busy.

In the distance, crowds of people were already rushing towards this side.

Pa*sers-by, seeing the ragged, dishevelled teenagers, were disgusted and covered their noses.

They covered their noses in disgust and then dodged to the side.

If it was in the past, Di Yun would have been a little embarra*sed.

But this is not the same as in the past.

We already had a job this time, so we would no longer be a street rat.

When they got closer.

Lin Mo also stopped what he was doing.

Yes, he himself commanded and directed to join the decoration brigade as well.

“Here we go!”

Wiping the beads of sweat from his forehead, Lin Mo walked straight out.

Blinking his eyes, the dense crowd was no less than eight hundred in number.

There were just more than the average number of people with light feet and faces without vegetables.

Obviously it was just a sign that they had been hungry for a long time and their bodies were undernourished.

“Is everyone here?”

Faced with Lin Mo’s question.

Di Yun nodded seriously.

And naturally, Lin Mo didn't mind having too many people, on the contrary he still felt vaguely inadequate.

According to his intention, the ideal number of people would be around a thousand.

But Lin Mo, who was insatiable, also knew that.

If there were not enough people, he could make up for it later on.

With this in mind.

Lin Mo walked forward with a smile on his face.

"Di Yun has already told you all about my side, right?"

Just yesterday, I offended the biggest power in Panyang City.

If you guys are worried about retaliation, it's not too late to quit now."

As his words fell.

However, after a few minutes, the group of teenagers just stared at Lin Mo in a daze, none of them speaking.

"Very well, since that's the case, then you guys come with me."

Lin Mo was also very satisfied with the performance of this group of teenagers.

Not to mention how qualified they were.

It was heartiness that Lin Mo valued the most.

Just like that, amidst the astonished gazes of the passers-by.

Lin Mo led the group on a journey of nearly an hour.

Only then did they arrive at an abandoned factory in the suburbs.

"There are many of you and some time.

I can only arrange such accommodation for you all."

"And unfortunately, the abandoned factory building was only bought by, Captain Chen this morning.

If you want to transform it into a residence, you all need to do everything yourselves."

With that said Lin Mo waved his hand towards the opposite side, Captain Chen who was standing on the top floor of the factory building.

And at this moment, although the group of teenagers were tired and already sweating on their foreheads.

But there was indeed a look of yearning revealed in their eyes.

Compared to the days when they were draped in the sky and pillowed on the ground, they were incomparably satisfied to have a shelter from the wind and rain.

Moreover, the youngsters had put down the stone in their hearts by now.

This performance also confirmed that Lin Mo truly wanted to keep them.

Chapter 2546

With the rumbling of the pumping machines.

The real abandoned factory was completely cleaned, inside and out.

Although it was still a bit old, it was exceptionally clean.

Lin Mo's side was also sweating profusely.

There were too many people and the time was too urgent.

The food for over eight hundred people could only be taken care of by Lin Mo himself.

After carrying all the isolated materials for the decoration, Lin Mo then asked Di Yun to bring a small group of friends and start the meal.

"Boss Lin, I didn't expect you to be such a good cook."

"Hoo hoo hoo, it's so delicious!"

He was already famished, plus he had just consumed a lot of energy.

After devouring the medicinal congee that Lin Mo had made.

The youngsters, who were already sweating profusely, felt inexplicably hot.

"Big brother Di Yun, I'm so hot."

"Me too, I feel as if I've jumped into a furnace."

The leader, Di Yun, was also holding up a wooden plank at this moment and kept agitating.

It was a cold day in the ninth month, and what was even more outrageous was that he was still wearing just a thin short sleeve, yet he could not feel a trace of coolness.

Seeing them in this state.

Lin Mo only secretly sniggered.

After straightening his face and regaining his composure, he then reminded with a bad smile on his lips.

"Hot, huh? There's a big river to the east of the factory, and it shouldn't be frozen at this time of year.

You guys can jump in to cool off if you are in the heat and can't stand it."

When he finished, the teenagers lit up.

Without saying a word, they immediately stood up and took off their coats while rushing towards the big river Lin Mo had mentioned.

When Captain Chen saw this scene, he walked over to Lin Mo with a worried face.

“My lord, will they freeze like this?”

After all, it’s already late winter in this weather.”

Lin Mo, on the other hand, waved his hand indifferently.

“No matter, let them be.

I have secretly added some herbs to their food.

It’s just the right time for them to cleanse themselves while expelling the cold from their bodies and replenishing their vital energy.”

Saying this, Lin raised his hand and waved it in front of his nose.

With a joking tone, he said.

“Can’t you smell it? They’re all going to go rancid if they make up for the bath.”

However, Captain Chen beside him nodded with a serious face, and then laughed out loud.

The two of them were talking to each other in the meantime.

On the other side of the river, the teenagers, led by Di Yun, then flung themselves into the water in quick succession as if they were dumplings.

Even the girls jumped in with their clothes on.

The sound of laughter resounded all around.

Looking at their energetic faces.

Lin Mo smiled faintly.

“I’ve already arranged for their basic living supplies.

They’ll be sent over later.”

“Their food, clothing, and shelter will be a first step for Captain Chen.”

“During this period, Team Chen will take the trouble to wait for them to get well.

I’ll come over again.”

After saying that, Lin Mo left in a hurry.

There was no way, there were too few people under him to do the job.

So he could only trouble them, the guards who had come with him from Kyoto.

He himself, on the other hand, needed to rush back to the medical school to prepare for what was to come.

It must be said that Zhang Gong's urging did have an immediate effect.

By the evening, Lin Mo was back at the medical school again.

The Kang De Chinese Medicine Centre had been completely transformed.

The new style of decoration had been completely installed according to Lin Mo's plan.

"Mr. Lin, take advantage of the fact that the carving master they decorated is still here.

We might as well decide on the name of the shop for our door coupling and point.

So that they can, at that time, hurry up and rush out."

"We'll aim to open tomorrow."

When he said so, Lin Mo also felt that there was a bit of truth to it.

After contemplating for a while, he then asked Zhang Gong to fetch paper and a pen.

After quickly writing, he handed it directly to the wood carving master.

Chapter 2547

The sun rose in the east and the sunrise was in the sky.

Pinpointing the time, Zhang Gong immediately lit the firecrackers in front of him.

A loud sound.

It instantly drew the attention of passers-by.

In no time, the whole front of the Chinese Medicine Hall was filled with spectators.

When I looked at it, I saw two large wooden curtains on the inky blue door.

On the left side, it reads "Create a side, Cloth and clothes!"

On the right, "Cure all diseases, remove illnesses and diseases."

And above the door plaque was draped, a bright red silk.

"Is this a new Chinese medical centre?"

"I heard that it used to be the Kang De Chinese Medicine Center, but the day before yesterday it offended the Yin family.

This wave immediately changed its face to see well."

"Too naive, if you offend the Yin family, you won't be able to get along in Pan Yang.

It's a pity that this Chinese doctor, he's still a good person."

Along with the sound of the crowd's discussion.

Zhang Gong then excitedly led Lin Mo to the middle of the gate.

"Boss, from now on, you'll be the big showcase of our Chinese medicine hall.

Let's unveil it."

With that he handed, the red rope in his hand over.

Lin Mo looked at the, red rope in his hand and was slightly lost in thought.

Previously, he had planned to open the Chinese Medicine Museum in various cities.

He never thought that the first branch of the TCM center would be in this unfamiliar city of Pangyang.

Although there were no guests, and the scene was not grand.

He was also the first step in the realisation of his dream, ah.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo was in a great mood.

With a strong tug on the red rope in his hand.

The silk slowly slid down and in an instant the plaque with the three golden words "Zhilin Hall" appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

"Yes!"

There was a loud shout from the crowd of onlookers.

All passers-by, whether they knew the name or not, applauded.

"Boss, great luck!"

"Boss, great luck!"

Whether they saw the "Chi Lin Tang" or not, the crowd also sent out their wishes.

It was a great way to get a laugh and also a chance to win a prize.

At this moment, Lin Mo was also full of smiles and arched his hand towards everyone.

"Thank you all, and once again, I, Lin, wish everyone good health."

"Boss Lin, if we are in good health.

You're not out of business."

Accompanied by a cajoling sound, the entire group couldn't help but laugh.

The whole scene was hilarious to the point of being lively.

Lin Mo first smiled and nodded towards the person who had started the commotion.

And then he said expansively.

“Lin Mou only runs a medical school to dispel illnesses and diseases, not to make any profit.

If there were no business, I would be happy instead.”

“Thank you, everyone, for coming to show your support.

For the opening of the new pavilion, I, Lin, promise that the first three days of Zhilin Hall will be free of charge for consultation.”

At these words, the crowd applauded and shouted their approval.

Xu Hanxia, who had come to help, and the Yang family’s mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, also brought tea and desserts and distributed them.

Of course, there were also red envelopes to please the crowd, which were also handed out one by one.

The whole scene became even more lively.

Not everyone, however, could see Lin Mo’s good side.

“Humph, arrogant and C*cky.

Who gave you the courage, but to boast of this cure for all diseases.”

Accompanied by an old man’s angry scolding.

The originally lively scene instantly fell silent.

As they turned their heads, they only saw three old men in long clothes outside the crowd, slowly walking with a group of disciples.

“Elder Feng, Elder Jiang, Elder He.

My god, the three oldest of our Pan Yang’s medical skills have come in person?”

“The three old men were already full of ambition for the medical market in Pan Yang.

I heard that they have long had plans to consolidate the Chinese medicine schools in Pan Yang under their own names.

Now once Zhilin Hall opens, they naturally want to come to the door and knock some sense into them.”

“This is hilarious!”

The whispering set in.

The crowd instantly made way for the three old men.

In the middle of the main gate, Lin Mo couldn’t help but frown after seeing the three.

Looking at the aggressive appearance of the comers.

Lin Mo was not stupid enough to think that they had come to congratulate him.

At this moment, Zhang Gong's face instantly changed.

After coming beside Lin Mo, he specified the identity of the three people one by one.

Chapter 2548

Generally speaking, even if there is a bad relationship between the two parties.

It is very rare that the other party will come to the door on the day of opening and cause trouble.

This is to force people to death.

And when Lin Mo found out the identity of the other party.

The feeling of discontent in his heart became even stronger.

The medical standard in Da Qu Province was backward, and this was a recognized fact in the whole of China.

These old Chinese doctors do not think about developing their medical practice every day.

Instead, they put their minds on this kind of deceitfulness and rivalry all day long.

The study of medical science is supposed to be a hundred schools of thought, learning from each other and making mutual progress.

The three old Chinese doctors, however, were so intent on profit that they were not good people either.

And just as Lin Mo was pondering.

The three old men had already arrived at his side.

As the doctor competition had not long ended.

This side of Pan Yang has relatively remote, plus the subordination is not just, and the exchange with the Chinese country is not close.

So the three men only knew that a new doctor saint had appeared in China, but they knew nothing about his name.

Not to mention his face.

So even when they met face to face, the three old men did not recognise Lin Mo.

The old Chinese doctor, Feng, who was at the head of the group, gave a cold snort and then, with a faint glance.

Then with a disdainful tone, he said indifferently.

“Young man, it is valuable for people to have self-knowledge.

Zhang Gong's level of medical skill is not even a tenth of our three old men's level.

Your signboard of healing all diseases, I advise you to take it off.”

“Lest there be an accident and you fall into sin, what do you say?”

With that he raised his chin proudly and quietly waited for Lin Mo’s reply.

The other two old men behind him even wore faces full of disgust the entire time, shaking their heads repeatedly with their eyes closed.

Zhang Gong’s face instantly darkened as he listened to Feng Shen Lao’s words.

And when the other party saw this look on his face, he smiled coldly.

“What’s the matter, saying you’re still not convinced, are you?”

With that level of medical skill, you can barely hold up this small medical school.

Just this package to cure all diseases, you deserve it?”

“You ….. ”

In a moment of anger, Zhang Gong walked straight forward and was ready to argue with Old Chinese Doctor Feng.

Only just before he opened his mouth.

Lin Mo beside him stopped him, and then shook his head secretly towards Zhang Gong.

The other party seemed to be targeting Zhang Gong.

In fact, the most fundamental purpose was to suppress Lin Mo.

For such a person, Lin Mo naturally did not need to be polite.

“Three old gentlemen, today is an auspicious day for the opening of the late generation’s medical school.

If you are here to congratulate me, Lin Mo is welcome.”

His tone then took a turn.

“Of course if you have come to cause trouble, sorry, you are not welcome here.

It’s an auspicious day for opening, and I don’t want to cause any trouble.

Please do so!”

With that, Lin Mo directly raised his hand and made a formality to ask to leave.

At these words, the disciples behind the three old men stepped forward with large strides.

“Unbridled, within the city of Pan Yang, I don’t know how many people, who wanted to invite my master, couldn’t do so.

How dare you speak out of turn.”

“Second senior brother doesn’t need to be angry with such a person, just a frog at the bottom of the well.

If our master says a word, he can make it difficult for them to move an inch in Pan Yang.”

“First they offend the Yin family, and now they offend our three old Chinese doctors in Pan Yang.

I see that Zhilin Hall is not far from closing down.”

Only when Elder Feng gestured did the group of disciples stop mocking.

“Young man, being young and vigorous is not a bad thing, but there just has to be a degree of it.

You don’t even know the most basic respect for your elders.

It’s hard to open a medical school in the long run then, young man.”

At this point, Feng Lao’s tone was already laced with a vague sense of threat.

Lin Mo also narrowed his eyes at this point.

“Then what do you want?”

This should have been a sign of Lin Mo’s impatience.

But to the other party’s ears, they thought that Lin Mo was conceding.

With his chin raised proudly, Old Chinese Doctor Feng kept his mouth shut at this time.

His disciple, on the other hand, had the good sense to step forward and act as a sounding board for his master.

Chapter 2549

“Originally, the Master just wanted you to unload this sign that cures all diseases and rip it off.”

“But now well, things are that simple.

Since you have spoken out against Master.

Kneel down, kowtow and apologise.”

And my Master will not pursue you.

At this moment, Zhang Gong couldn’t hold back any longer.

“Elder Feng you guys are going too far.”

At this moment, Old Chinese Doctor Jiang, who was positioned behind him, suddenly gathered his gaze onto him.

“Zhang Gong we didn’t look for trouble with you unexpectedly, but you jumped out on your own first.

After the Pan Yang Chinese Medicine Organization a*sociation discussed and decided.

You, Zhang Gong, have not learned your art well, in order to prevent you from harming people and to ensure the interests of patients.

Therefore, it has been decided to withdraw your qualification to practise medicine.”

“If you are more sensible, hold your tail and carry on obediently.

Otherwise there will be no place for you in this Pan Yang anymore.”

That arrogant look seemed to have strangled Zhang Gong’s lifeline.

Little did he know that if it wasn’t for Lin Mo’s detainment.

Zhang Gong would have left this place long ago.

It was not their turn to expel him.

Looking at their arrogant and domineering appearance, their nostrils were turned to the sky.

Lin Mo’s forehead was blackened, where on earth did these people get their confidence from.

“Excuse me for interrupting.

The qualification to practise medicine is exclusively recognised by the Chinese Medical Union.

That bullsh*t a*sociation of yours doesn’t even have the full power to do so.”

“And, there’s one thing that you guys are thinking wrong.

This package of cures for all diseases is not talking about Zhang Gong Zhang Chinese Medicine.

Rather, it is my humble self, Lin Mo.”

Hearing the first half of his sentence, there was still some anger on the side of the three old men.

However, as Lin Mo finished the second half of his sentence, several people froze in their tracks.

Looking while at Lin Mo’s young face.

It was also unknown, who suddenly puffed out a snort.

Under the chain reaction, the crowd instantly burst into laughter.

“Hahahaha, I’m laughing my a*s off, just you?

Don’t even take a P*ss and look at yourself.”

“Do you know how to use herbs and herbs, do you know how to see, hear and cut, do you know how to use silver needles to remove diseases?

You dare to boast like this.”

“All right, let’s all be quiet.”

Although Elder Feng had also forcibly suppressed his emotions, the corners of his mouth still carried a faint sense of mockery.

“Little friend Lin, you’ve succeeded in this joke.

Perhaps the pharmaceutical industry doesn’t suit you.

But your talent for entertainment is extraordinary.”

Along with his words, another burst of laughter came from behind him.

For Lin Mo’s unknowing words and actions.

They naturally despised it.

The person in question, Lin Mo, on the other hand, raised his hand in feigned indignation and said.

“Since no one believes you when you tell the truth, then let’s see the real thing underhand.

I, Lin Mo, will once again set out the dao and just compete in the art of medicine.

Do you dare?”

The look was like that of someone who had lost his wits in anger.

At this point, one of the three old men who had not spoken, Old Chinese Doctor He, suddenly raised his eyebrows.

“Since little friend Lin is so confident.

It’s not impossible for us to play along with you.”

“Only? We are representatives of Pan Yang Medicine.

If it’s purely a bout, it seems a bit degrading to ourselves.

Might as well I add some stakes.”

When Lin Mo saw that his opponent had taken the bait, his heart could not help but rejoice.

Of course at this moment, his face still maintained that expression as he spoke resolutely.

“Fine, you guys say, what’s the bet?”

Seeing this the other two old Chinese doctors could not help but secretly give a thumbs up to Chao He Lao, and then it was a mutual smile.

“Little friend Lin, how about this.

The bet is too small, and we can’t pull it off.

These three of me happen to have a newly built building under our names.”

“We’ll let you take advantage of it a little.

If we win, this medical hall will be ours.

If you win, it will be yours.”

When their ears heard such a bet, the disciples behind them suddenly looked anxious.

The difference between the two sides of such a bet was obviously too wide.

On the other hand, Elder Feng waved his hand indifferently, gesturing for them to rest easy.

Only then did he add.

“Of course, if you lose, little friend Lin, you will leave, henceforth, Panyang City.

Never set foot in Da Qu United Province again.”

Chapter 2550

Lin Mo pretended to hesitate for a while before agreeing to the wager proposed by the Three Elders.

And at that moment, the Three Elders were already happy in their hearts.

In their minds, the plan had worked.

As long as they took Lin Mo’s Chinese medical school, their plan to integrate the medical industry in Pan Yang would be basically complete.

The rest of the medical schools are not as difficult to solve as Zhang Gong, but just some soft bones.

..

Of course, the only thing that made them more puzzled was.

The only thing that puzzled them was why the mystery man was so determined to drive Lin Mo out of the territory of the Great Qu Province.

It was just a hairy kid, a small child who had been successfully aroused in a few words, and could not see anything special.

Of course, all this didn’t bother them much.

After all, the other party had offered a five hundred million yuan in compensation for this.

The money and the money are the heart of the people!

However, just when they were joyfully imagining the scene after the victory.

Lin Mo suddenly spoke up.

“In that case, let’s not waste any more time.

Anyway, the bets have already been placed, so let’s leave it up to you guys to decide how the competition will be held.

Save yourself from saying that I’m bullying the elderly.”

As soon as they heard him say something about the elderly.

The disciples behind the three old men made a move to scold him again.

Seeing this, Elder Feng raised his hand with disinterest.

“Young man, it’s just lip service, no need to care, back off.”

“However, little friend Lin is right about one thing.

We don’t want to waste time either, eh

After a moment of contemplation.

Elder Chen smiled faintly.

“If not, let’s use a literary battle as the method used to compete.”

Out of absolute confidence in their own level of medical skills, the other two old men nodded their heads indifferently and agreed.

They could win anything anyway.

The meaning of the literary competition was that both sides would ask each other questions and answer each other’s questions on the science of medicine or pathology.

If one of them fails to answer, he or she loses.

When he heard about this kind of competition.

Lin Mo also nodded his head and agreed.

And after the old three looked at each other, they nodded slightly, of which Elder He slowly stepped forward.

“Both of you, it’s rare to have such a good opportunity.

I’ll start by sparring with little friend Lin, and if there are any unreasonable points.

I would also like to ask you two old men, to correct me.”

The two friends opposite returned with smiles on their faces.

“Elder He is being modest.”

“You are our walking medical book in Pan Yang, we don’t have this ability.”

With their mutual boasting, they didn’t even put Lin Mo in their eyes.

Looking at their arrogant words and actions, Lin Mo could only shake his head slightly.

“It’s too time consuming to go on one by one, you three should go on together!”

At these words.

The three old men instantly put away the smiles on their faces and twisted their heads to focus their eyes, on Lin Mo then.

“Kid, you really don’t know the sky is high.”

“Old Jiang, don’t be angry, since little friend Lin, has this confidence.

As elders, we should agree.”

“Elder Feng is right, that side should respond to what little friend Lin says.”

With one voice and one harmony, the three old Chinese doctors pretended to reluctantly agree.

With a wicked smile on his face, Jiang Lao was the first to speak.

“What use can bile wood be?”

Faced with such a basic can’t-be-basic question.

Lin Mo smiled faintly.

“To clear heat and detoxify the body, to reduce swelling and pain, and to boil soup for internal use.”

Elder Jiang asked again, “What is the pharmacology of shanshu pork?”

Lin Mo: “Slightly warm in nature, sour and astringent in taste, used to nourish the liver and kidneys, astringent to fix dehydration.”

Elder Jiang: “Anti-feng herb!”

Lin Mo: “Warm in nature, bitter and pungent in taste. Dispelling wind, removing dampness, detoxifying and relieving pain”

.....

Under the question and answer from both sides.

Originally, he was still looking at Lin Mo with a disdainful face, waiting for the opportunity for this person to make a fool of himself.

And along with the deepening of Jiang Lao’s question.

The faces of the crowd slowly changed as well.

The herbs involved were getting more and more out of the way, and many of the disciples were already blushing.

On the other hand, on the inside, they were still just answering calmly and methodically.
