

Genius 2551

Chapter 2551

“Eldest Brother, this kid seems to really have some strength, huh?”

“It’s possible, what nonsense, he’s just read some books on Chinese herbal medicine.

You know, our master is known as the walking physician of Pan Yang.”

Although the words were said, this disciple who had been made the Eldest Brother by the crowd.

At this moment, he also had a difficult look on his face.

All the way until Elder Jiang asked about it, most of the disciples, when asked about the toad’s eyebrow fat, already had their eyes darkened and did not know what to say.

“Senior Brother, what is toad brow fat?”

Faced with the doubts of the senior disciples.

At this moment, Senior Brother could only shake his head with a frown on his face.

When the few people saw that he had an unpleasant expression on his face, they also immediately gave up on pursuing the question.

And then, they shifted their gazes to Lin Mo, quietly waiting for him to make a joke.

Even Senior Brother didn’t know, so how could this Lin Mo possibly know.

Across the table, Lin Mo nodded slightly when he heard this item.

Chinese herbs like this were already extremely offbeat types.

It seemed that this old Chinese doctor, Dr. Jiang, did have a few brushes up his sleeve as well.

Of course, such a question was still not difficult for him, Lin Mo.

After sorting out his thoughts, he coughed lightly before speaking slowly.

“Toad’s eyebrow fat is taken from the toad’s skin gland, which has the effect of opening the body and waking the brain.”

“Mixed with white flour and yellow dandan, it can be used to reduce swelling.”

“Mixed with croton, almonds can be used to treat wind-damaged toothache.”

“Mixed with, fried in wine and asparagus, it can prevent tetanus.”

.....

Originally, Jiang Lao, was still complacent about the fact that this toad brow fat was also something he had found from an extremely cold recipe.

For the first few that Lin Mo had mentioned, the efficacy of toad brow fat, he still knew something about it.

But as Lin Mo spoke more and more without slowing down.

Jiang Lao gradually panicked, and the later ones after that, he still had not even heard of them.

And when Lin Mo said that it was only one kind of efficacy.

Jiang Lao could not help but sweat on his forehead.

This kid, what was in his head?

However, after he came back to his senses.

Across from him, Lin Mo had already stopped the words on his mouth.

“Elder Jiang, am I still right?”

As soon as these words were spoken, the attention of the crowd of disciples was focused on Elder Jiang.

With a slow look of anticipation, they hoped that he would rebuke Lin Mo.

Pointing out his mistakes.

However, at this moment, Elder Jiang himself was also screaming in agony.

As for the effects of this toad’s eyebrow fat, there were only half a dozen that he knew of.

And they had all been finished by Lin Mo.

As for the other ten or so healing effects, he was not in a position to judge, and most of all, he did not dare to verify them.

A little was confirmed that what Lin Mo said was true.

If Lin Mo’s words were proven true, he would lose this old company of his.

After stewing for a long time, he stole a glance at the other two old Chinese doctors.

The latter were also just gloomy, shaking their heads secretly over him.

I guess their thoughts were similar to Jiang’s.

In this way, he chose to retain his side’s face, in the end.

“Lin Mo is right!”

At these words, the crowd was in an uproar.

Did this kid have a level of pharmacological foundation?

Just that just now, the strength of his answers had crushed all their disciples.

Especially about the pharmacology of the toad’s eyebrow fat.

The three old men all thought they didn't know as much as Lin Mo did.

And just when the crowd was in full shock, Lin Mo spoke up.

"Mr. Jiang Lao, isn't it my turn."

At this moment, Old Man Jiang immediately regained his arrogant demeanour.

"And you will tell me."

With that, he waved his big sleeve, waiting to see what Lin Mo could turn up.

And under the gaze of the crowd.

Lin Mo only slowly took out an exquisite golden silk wood box from his pocket.

"This item, I, Lin, have spent a great deal of money.

I got it from a merchant.

Old gentlemen around, please taste it!"

With that, he placed the box on the table with a smile on his face.

As soon as the three old men heard this, their faces also instantly became serious.

Chapter 2552

Waiting for He Lao, after carefully opening the wooden box.

Only to see inside quietly lay a, brightly coloured red flower petal.

At first glance it looked plain, but on closer inspection it was still plain.

This?

Seeing such a flower petal, the three old men frowned.

If they hadn't seen Lin Mo's level of pharmacology.

They would have just thought that this was just an ordinary flower petal.

But looking at Lin Mo's confident and cloudy appearance at this moment, the three old men were momentarily at a loss.

"This item is so exquisitely packaged, plus this kid must be like a hard time for us.

This item must not be simple, you two should not take it lightly."

Being reminded of this by Elder He.

The other two suddenly came to their senses.

What a cunning brat, almost letting himself be fooled.

With this in mind, the three old men watched more carefully.

However, after about ten minutes or so.

The three men looked at each other, and all saw in each other's eyes a look full of doubts.

And as the leader.

The two companions then shifted their gaze to Elder Feng, with their eyes questioning.

For a moment, Feng Lao's face also looked difficult.

He didn't know this flower petal himself.

After thinking left and right, his eyes suddenly flickered, and then he coughed lightly twice.

"This object is indeed extraordinary, but I was not able to rest well last night, and my thoughts are a bit disorganised."

"Come, Elder Jiang, among the three of us, you are the one with the highest level of pharmacology.

You come and explain it to them.

By the way, let little friend Lin, too, see the strength of our Pan Yang TCM greats."

When Elder Feng mentioned his name.

Elder Jiang then felt that it was going to be bad.

As expected, as Elder Feng finished speaking.

The attention of all the disciples was focused on themselves.

Those pairs of eyes were full of knowledge and anticipation.

The words of excuses that had originally come out of Jiang Lao's mouth were swiftly swallowed back again.

Stiffening his head, he spoke cautiously.

"This item is the Blood Red Flower of the Extreme North."

After saying that, he hurriedly glanced at Lin Mo.

And the latter's face suddenly appeared to change after he finished speaking.

This act instantly gave Elder Jiang infinite confidence.

D*mn, I guessed right.

Thinking like this, a surge of confidence instantly surged to his heart.

Amidst the adoring eyes of the disciples.

Elder Jiang stroked his beard in a taciturn manner.

“Blood Red Flower, as the name implies, is used for blood tonic.”

“According to the herbal scriptures, this flower appears once in a hundred years.

Legend has it that it has the power to raise the dead.”

Speaking here, he couldn't help but add.

“However, that is just a legend.

The general idea is that this word has an extremely strong blood tonic effect.”

Saying this he proudly raised his head and looked towards Lin Mo.

The Snow Red Flower of the Extreme North was not just a nonsense statement from him.

This item was also something that he had only seen from a biased book of mythological tales.

Unexpectedly, it had played a big role today.

As for Lin Mo's side.

After the other party had finished speaking.

He suddenly raised his hand and applauded.

“Awesome, awesome, worthy of being a Pan Yang master of Chinese medicine.”

Faced with Lin Mo's praise.

Elder Jiang's expression was even more arrogant.

After a cold snort, he turned his head to the side.

That condescending look was like that of a true master.

The two of them, Feng Lao and He Lao, were also impressed with Jiang Lao at this time.

I didn't expect that this old man's level of pharmacology had surprisingly improved by leaps and bounds again, and it was difficult for them to look up to him.

“Lin Mo, my master has already given the correct answer.

You should obediently hand over the medical school.”

“Also, as promised, from now on, you are not allowed to set foot in the Southern Realm.”

As the eldest senior brother finished speaking.

The other disciples were also shouting madly.

“Get the hell out of Pan Yang, trash thing.”

“I thought I had much ability, but I didn't think it was just a toad sticking a big onion, what a big tail to pretend to be.”

However, in the face of the crowd's constant mockery.

Lin Mo only smiled faintly.

"Who told you that I had lost.

And who told you that Elder Jiang was right."

Chapter 2553

As Lin Mo finished speaking.

For a moment, the entire scene rose in an uproar.

"You yourself have praised my master, how come you are afraid of losing and don't dare to admit it."

"Villain, if you dare to cheat today, don't mind us not being polite."

Looking at their ugly mouths.

Lin Mo only shook his head indifferently.

"You guys are thinking too much, even if Elder Jiang is right, it's just a draw."

"Also, I'm praising Elder Jiang not because he's right.

Rather, it's pure admiration for his ability to guess blindly."

Elder Jiang's face instantly changed.

"Nonsense Lin Mo, if you say I'm guessing blindly, show me the evidence.

This item is the Extreme North Blood Red Flower."

Lin Mo sighed faintly and shook his head as he spoke.

"It seems that Jiang Lao is also not seeing tears in his coffin."

"Uncle Zhang, go and bring up the red plums from our medical school."

Waiting for him to finish.

On the side, Zhang Gong, who was already holding his face red, hurriedly trotted off.

And at this moment, the three old men felt a great sense of dismay in their hearts.

Being reminded by Lin Mo in such a way, they instantly reacted.

No wonder they had felt that this object looked familiar from the very beginning.

As they looked at each other, the three old men only wanted to leave as soon as possible.

But in front of the disciples, there were still so many onlookers around.

Already they were being roasted on the fire.

And shortly afterwards, Zhang Gong came out holding a pot of bright red plum blossoms.

And on the branches of the male tree were growing dense and bright red plum blossoms.

“Eh, I don’t know, this year is why.

This plum blossom is extraordinarily red.

The three old men may wish to taste them together.”

As soon as he said that, Zhang Gong placed the entire pot of plum blossoms, in front of everyone’s eyes.

And those plum blossoms, in the eyes of the three old men, were actually that blinding.

Things had come to this point.

The ending was already obvious.

The three old men were also red with shame, that is, anger and shame.

And at this moment, Elder Jiang also turned his resentful gaze towards the leader, Elder Feng.

If he hadn’t spoken out to remind him at the beginning, he wouldn’t have been, led astray.

And being stared at by Jiang Lao like this.

The old Chinese doctor Feng did not know what to do for a moment.

The only thing he could do was to turn his annoyance towards Lin Mo and say.

“Lin Mo, how dare he kid swindle us.”

Lin Mo laughed disdainfully.

“Swindle? Old Mr. Feng, you are really going back more and more in life.

The three of you are the most famous physicians in Pan Yang.”

“With just one word from a junior, you’ve all struck your eyes, unable to even distinguish between a plum blossom petal and a herb?”

“Haha, what a slip of the tongue.”

As Lin Mo finished speaking.

The crowd of onlookers also started pointing at this point.

“Che, I thought the Three Elders were so powerful, but it turns out that they are just embroidered pillows.”

“He doesn’t even know the most basic medicinal theory, how dare he interfere with someone opening a medical school.

He’s still an old Chinese doctor, I pooh!”

“In the future, who will still rush to see them. Not even being able to distinguish between herbs and medicines, isn’t that looking for death?”

Listening to the whispering voices around him.

Feng Lao’s face darkened, and after a cold snort, he waved his big sleeve.

“Hmph, Lin Mo’s beam today, we’ve made a deal.

There will be a long day ahead, you wait for me.

Let’s go!”

With that, he turned around and was about to lead his disciples to leave together.

However, before he could lift his footsteps.

Behind him, Lin Mo suddenly stopped to.

“Wait a moment, Old Mr. Feng.”

Old Feng frowned and turned around.

“Why is there still something wrong?”

After being humiliated by Lin Mo in this way, his tone suddenly showed a strong impatience.

Lin Mo didn’t care, he just smiled and fetched a pile of prescriptions that were more than a foot long.

“Please, old Mr Feng, please take a look and see if these are from your hand.”

Seeing this object.

Elder Feng’s originally angry face instantly transformed into one of horror.

After shaking his head.

He hurriedly denied it and said.

“I didn’t write this, it has nothing to do with me.”

This change of heart made the crowd even more suspicious.

Chapter 2554

Faced with Feng Lao’s refusal.

Lin Mo’s eyes glared.

“What’s the matter Feng Lao, you dare not do anything?”

“I don’t know, do you still remember the Yang family’s mother-in-law and daughter-in-law.”

With these words from Lin Mo.

Xu Jiajia then strolled in holding her mother-in-law by the hand.

“Old divine Doctor Feng, we haven’t seen you for a long time, do you still remember us.”

At this moment, when Old Feng saw the two of them, it was as if he had seen a ghost in broad daylight.

His feet couldn’t help but retreat.

Wasn’t this Yang mother supposed to have died a long time ago?

The prescription that he had written himself had started to add other ingredients.

Why was this person still alive?

Under all kinds of complicated thoughts, Feng Lao only felt that the sky was spinning at this time.

If not for the quick eyes and hands of the disciples behind him, he would have fallen to the ground upside down.

Those who kill people are always killed.

At this moment, Lin Mo did not have a half-hearted heart.

With cold eyes and a faint killing intent, he slowly spoke to.

“Yang’s mother is obviously suffering from consumption, how dare you prescribe yellow skin, wuzi, blue flower, this kind of medicine that hurts the lungs.

What are your intentions?”

Accompanied by Lin Mo’s loud rebuke.

The disoriented Feng Lao, panicked, shook his head in denial.

“I didn’t do it, you’re spouting blood.

You’re slandering!”

“Oh, slander? Elder Feng, you really have the cheek to say that.

You sold it to Yang’s mother for several times the price, so I’ll take that as a sign that you’ve lost your money.”

“But you shouldn’t have added the snake gong fruit to it.

You deserve to die!”

At these words, not only the pa*sers-by but also the disciples behind the Three Elders turned pale.

Even ordinary people who didn’t know anything about herbology knew.

This snake fruit was a poison that was specially used to kill insects and rats.

Even at this point in time.

Feng Lao still refused to admit it to death and desperately argued.

“Lin Mo you’re talking nonsense, I didn’t do that.”

Seeing this Lin Mo was too lazy to bother with more words.

“It’s in black and white, and the prescription is signed with your name.

You still want to deny it.”

After saying that, he slammed a thick pile of prescriptions directly onto the latter’s face.

If he hadn’t seen the prescriptions that Xu Jiajia took out.

Lin Mo hadn’t thought that as a physician, his heart could be so black.

It was enough that he had lost his mind, but the most abominable thing was that he wanted to kill and silence her.

His heart is punishable!

At this moment, the breeze was blowing and the yellow paper was flying all over the sky, scattering everywhere.

Looking at the prescription, Feng Lao’s signature was on it.

The crowd was also full of anger.

I never imagined that Feng Lao, who was usually admired and specialized in treating the rich and powerful, would be such a black-hearted physician.

As companions and disciples, they also did not expect that the master who was usually highly respected by them.

He was such a snake hearted person.

All the time, the people looked at Feng Lao with a different look in their eyes.

Under the fire of anxiety.

Feng Lao suddenly felt a fishy throat.

“Poof.”

After fiercely spitting out a mouthful of blood, his face instantly shrivelled up.

His originally spirited appearance was instantly pale and old.

And this appearance of his did not gain the sympathy of the crowd.

Evil had just come back to haunt him.

Feng Lao opened his mouth and wanted to say something else.

But the words reached his lips and he swallowed them back.

At this moment, there was only endless remorse in his heart.

If he had known this, he should not have listened to that woman's advice.

He shouldn't have gotten carried away with his wealth and shouldn't have come to provoke this Lin Mo.

What a regret!

Slowly negative emotions rushed straight to his mind.

As soon as his consciousness sank, Feng Lao's entire body fell into a coma.

"Hahahaha, this is retribution, isn't it!"

"Serves you right, this kind of vicious hearted physician deserves to be struck by lightning from heaven.

I pooh! What kind of physician, scum of the earth is more like it!"

"Snake and rat, the three old men of Pan Yang are a joke.

They have no skills, but only know how to harm people!"

Along with the crowd under continuous rebuke.

The disciples behind Elder Feng then hurriedly fled the place with their heads hanging in defeat, carrying their master on their backs.

As long as the other two old men, too, only felt that their late days were in jeopardy.

With their disciples, they followed Feng Lao and fled the place under the angry rebuke of the passers-by.

Chapter 2555

"Mr. Lin, they haven't honoured the bet yet!"

Looking at their woefully departing backs.

Zhang Gong spoke out to remind them.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, shook his head with disinterest.

"No matter, they still want their faces."

With that he turned around and came to Yang's mother as well as Chen Jiajia's side.

"Aunty, sister-in-law, I've collected this side of the debt for you."

After her body recovered, Yang's mother looked much better.

Holding Lin Mo's hands, she was full of gratitude, yet she didn't know what to say.

And at that moment, the crowd of onlookers suddenly started to raise their voices.

"Boss Lin, the three-day free consultation you said you would give, can we start now?"

“Of course, all of you are welcome!”

At Lin Mo’s words fell.

A group of people, instantly, formed a long line.

And the news of this spread rapidly throughout Pan Yang.

In an instant, the three old men of Pan Yang, who had been so high and mighty, instantly became like rats in the street.

On the contrary, after the owner of Zhilin Hall smashed the three elders, he was completely on fire.

After receiving the news of the three-day free consultation.

A large number of people came to hear about it, and the whole hall was filled with people.

“It’s time for you to quit smoking, if you keep doing this, you won’t just be coughing and shivering.

In the future, your lungs will grow tumours and it will be the end of everything you said.”

After taking back the silver needles, Lin Mo instructed.

And the patient, who was parked on the bed, sat up and immediately took a few deep breaths.

“Divine Doctor Lin, you really are a god.

This disease has been coughing for almost a year or so.

I didn’t expect it to be solved by a few stitches from you.

Haha, it’s been a long time since I’ve breathed so smoothly.”

“All right, just remember what I said!”

“That’s a must, I’ll quit smoking as soon as I get back, thanks to Divine Doctor Lin.”

With full of joy, the patient happily walked out of the medical hall.

After dealing with the last patient of the day.

Lin Mo couldn’t help but stretch his back, instantly the bones all over his body crunched.

Rubbing his swollen brow, he looked up and saw that the bright moon was already hanging high in the sky.

“What time is it?”

“It’s already twelve-thirty midnight.”

After placing the rice porridge beside Lin Mo’s body, Xu Hanxia was complaining with a face full of reproach.

“You’re still justifying yourself as being ironclad.

Don’t let yourself fall down before the patient is cured.”

Lin Mo scratched the back of his head, revealing a mouth full of big white teeth, and returned with a smile.

“This is the first Chinese medicine hall under my name eh.

Naturally, it has to be run properly.”

“Right, auntie, where’s Xu Jiajia and Uncle Zhang?”

Hearing this, Xu Hanxia couldn’t help but roll her eyes.

“You think they all want to be like you, don’t want to die.

After a long day of work, I told them all to rest first.”

With a resentful smile, Lin Mo then packed up the items on his table.

“Alright, alright, I know I’m wrong, I’m going to rest now.”

.....

And after the shop closed and the lights of the entire medical hall were all out.

The street turned around and two black shadows slowly walked out.

In the front, the young girl looked at the Chi Lin Tang and frowned.

“Uncle, do you think this man is the one we are looking for?”

Behind the young girl, confused eyes, full of concern, spoke.

“I don’t think so, but it only resulted in three rubbish physicians.

Within the Medical Alliance, one can catch a large number of them at random.

And according to the news, that person should have arrived in the two provinces of South Vietnam long ago.”

Hearing this, the young girl shook her head indifferently.

“Our people, who have almost turned that side upside down, have no news of that person at all.”

“Forget it, let’s go ask Yin Tian Bao in a few days.

If there is still no news of that person.

We’ll head straight to Kyoto.”

The words fell.

The man behind him, who was breathing heavily, couldn’t help but clap his mouth.

“It’s fine, news is hidden on this side of Da Qu, and it’s hard to get news from the Chinese side.

It’s uncomfortable, I’ll make a trip to Kyoto myself.”

“Thank you, Uncle!”

“Thanks for nothing, we’re all family!”

With that, the two of them turned and disappeared into the darkness.

Chapter 2556

The next day.

Taking advantage of the soaring heat of Zhilin Hall.

Lin Mo simply sent out the recruitment announcement as well.

“Is this a recruitment drive for physicians and apprentices?”

“Let’s take a look at them. They are under the age of twenty, over twelve, with unlimited talent.

Anyone with a pure heart and a strong will will do.

My little treasure, isn’t he?”

After reading the announcement, a middle-aged woman left the staff at a fast pace.

More and more people then joined the army of people looking for a baby.

By the time the medical hall opened its doors again.

Lin Mo was also taken aback by the sight before him.

Compared to yesterday, there were even more people coming today.

In front of the medical centre, the street was filled with people from end to end.

Some of them were waiting impatiently for Lin Mo to sit in the clinic.

Some how full of anticipation, holding their own children, ready to apply for a job.

“What is this situation?”

Seeing this Lin Mo couldn’t help but ask in shock.

On the side, Zhang Gong explained.

“Mr. Lin, you defeated the three old men yesterday, plus uncovered the true nature of Feng Lao.

The whole of Pan Yang knows about it.”

“Plus after yesterday’s free consultation, all the patients had excellent feedback.

They all say you are a miracle doctor, and this has festered overnight.

The whole city is spreading the word that you are the number one divine doctor in Pan Yang.”

“So that’s it.”

With that, Zhang Gong pointed beyond the gate and shrugged helplessly.

Lin Mo: “.....”

Sloppy ah!

This oozing crowd, how long will one be busy?

However, the sea mouth had already been crossed and the announcement was posted outside the gate.

The only thing that Lin Mo could do at this point was to put his head on the line.

.....

The other side.

The Yin family mansion.

After receiving Yin Tianbao’s invitation.

After Lu Nightwolf had finished the matter at hand, he rushed over at the first opportunity.

“Old Brother Tian Bao, what kind of wind is blowing here.

How dare you invite old brother to your home as a guest.”

With that, Lu Nightwolf walked forward and raised his hand to slam a fist on top of the latter’s shoulder.

And Yin Tianpao struck back in the same way.

After both sides had exchanged greetings, they laughed out loud.

“Old brother, what kind of words are you talking about.

You are the one who has been busy with the Chamber of Commerce.

How can you blame me for not looking for you.”

Accompanied by a grumble from Yin Tianpao, Lu Nightwolf dealt with it with a snort.

“It can’t be helped, as the president of the Chamber of Commerce, there are endless things to do every day.”

“Oh, by the way, on the way over, I heard that a new Chinese medical school has opened over on South Street.

I heard that the three old men have all folded up in their hands.”

At the mention of these people, Yin Tian Bao’s face suddenly turned gloomy when he was originally smiling and happy.

“These three old men with their names should have gone to the ground a long time ago.

If they can’t retire properly, they have to disrupt the order of the Pan Yang medical community.”

He became even more angry at the mention of this matter.

“If it weren’t for this group of old misfits still around, Old Brother Lu and I would have unified and integrated the entire Pan Yang long ago.

It wouldn’t be as disorderly as it is now.”

In response to this Yin Tian Bao’s words.

Lu Nightwolf also looked indignant.

“Old brother, you are right.

It’s a pity, these old undeads, although incompetent.

But the reputation is still there, so it’s not good for us to strike directly.”

“Forget it, it’s not easy for us two brothers to get together for once.

Let’s not mention these unhappy ones.

Let’s have a drink.”

With that, he lifted his gla*s and clinked it with Yin Tian Bao.

The spicy alcohol ran through his body as he repeatedly drank twice.

After exhaling heavily.

The original unhappy mood was also instantly much better.

At this moment, Lu Nightwolf also asked curiously.

“Old brother, looking at you with a heavy heart, you seem to have encountered something unpleasant.

Come and talk to old brother, I promise to set things right for you thoroughly.”

Yin Tian Bao first sighed before he frowned and said.

“This matter, to put it mildly, is related to that Lin Mo!

Ever since this kid came to Pan Yang, he has been fighting against me at every turn.”

Chapter 2557

After a long time.

Yin Tianbao then recounted everything in its entirety.

“Because of this, old brother, I have lost a lot of money.

At the same time, I have lost many of my men.”

After saying this, he picked up his gla*s of wine and drained it in one go.

On the other side, after listening to the whole story, Lu Night Wolf was also frowning.

For this kind of young man with status and background and extraordinary strength, it was indeed somewhat difficult to deal with.

There was no way to kill them, and no way to move them.

Of course it is not easy to deal with, but it is also relative.

After Lu Night Wolf patted the former's shoulder, he bashfully stated.

"Older brother, you don't need to worry.

This matter is taken care of for you by old brother.

Doesn't he Lin Mo want to develop?"

"In front of my old wolf, I'll make him unable to even jump up."

It was only at this point that Yin Tianpao's frown gradually relaxed a little.

"Then I'll trouble Old Brother more."

Between lifted cups, the crisp sound of clinking resounded through the room.

.....

The conversation was divided into two parts.

At this time, Lin Mo, who was busy and frazzled, did not know that he had already been targeted.

After a busy morning with Zhang Gong and the two of them.

After screening all the children who came to apply for the job, forty-two people were left behind.

Originally, Lin Mo had only planned to recruit ten people, and that was the best he could do.

However, under Zhang Gong's cheap mouth, he revealed Lin Mo's intention to personally train them.

That group of parents instantly exploded.

One after another, they pleaded with Lin Mo to open up more places.

Unable to resist their 'stalking', they had no choice.

Lin Mo ended up accepting forty-two students.

Only then did those wolf-like parents leave, cursing and swearing.

Of course the words were all admonitions to their own children.

The group of children who had only just been admitted were shivering with fear.

Of course, there were also a few teenagers who had studied medicine for a few years and were a little older.

Although the medical skills were not very good.

But Lin Mo didn't expect a place like Panyang City to produce medical geniuses either.

The only way is to cultivate them yourself.

In the afternoon, it was time for the free consultation.

Looking at the endless queue of patients.

Lin Mo only felt his heart pounding.

At this point in time, he didn't even know whether to blame or thank the three old men for making the reputation of Zhilin Hall so famous.

"Uncle Zhang, in the afternoon, you are responsible for taking some of the children.

Although they don't know anything right now.

But you can let them run more errands and take care of the prescriptions as well as the transportation of herbs."

"As for the six children with medical experience, they can just follow me around."

In this way, on the one hand, it would alleviate the problem of shortage of manpower.

On the other hand, it would also allow this group of children who were not yet initiated to have more exposure to the path of medicine.

After giving the order, Lin Mo couldn't even pass the time to eat.

"The six of you will follow me.

You will play beside me later.

Remember to talk less and listen more, it's up to you to learn as much as you can."

After the six children, nodded their heads in a good manner.

Lin Mo then led them to the consultation room without stopping.

"When diagnosing a condition, do not be hasty.

Very often, some diseases have similar symptoms and can easily be misdiagnosed.

So one must be patient, attentive and careful."

"Internal heat, mainly manifests itself in, shortness of breath, self-containment, and white tongue coating.

But you should note that internal heat is divided into internal damp heat and internal deficiency heat, with different classifications and different symptoms ....."

"When cutting the pulse, some patients may be very weak because of the physical condition of the pulse,, crouching big sister congratulations ah, pregnant."

While consulting, Lin Mo while going through the actual case.

The whole process from initial diagnosis to confirming the diagnosis to dispensing medicine and subsequent treatment is patiently explained with the technique of looking, hearing and cutting.

With his superior medical skills, Lin Mo was able to treat all kinds of conditions, always hitting the nail on the head and simplifying them.

Although it slowed down the consultation time.

But the medical skills of the six trainees were growing at a rapid pace.

Chapter 2558

After a busy first two days oh.

The last day of the free consultation and the queue was much smaller.

It was busy until noon.

The disciple of the Three Elders suddenly came to the shop, after cashing in his bets from yesterday.

He then fled the place in a hurry.

After Zhang Gong flipped through the paperwork, his face was pleased.

“Yo, isn’t this the Medical Association Building under the Three Elders’ name!

I heard that they were originally planning to use it as the headquarters of the Pan Yang Medical Association.

Unexpectedly, it was used as a dowry for Mr. Lin.”

After Lin Mo glanced at it, his heart was also moved.

He had planned to prepare a herb supply company for his Lin Zhi Tang.

Now that this building had been delivered to his door, it had added a significant boost to this plan.

With this in mind, he finished dealing with the last patient of the morning.

He turned his head and found the Yang family’s mother-in-law and daughter-in-law.

“Auntie, I’m planning to start a herbal company.

As you know, herbs have very strict requirements for quality control.”

“I don’t have the time to manage it myself, and I’m not sure if I can leave it to others.

So I’m thinking of asking my sister-in-law to help me out by putting the herb company under her name.

Let sister-in-law become the chairman of the company and help manage it.”

Upon hearing this, Yang’s mother didn’t even make a comment.

Xu Jijia directly pushed back and said.

“Mr. Lin, I’ve never even worked a day in someone’s life.

How can I possibly manage a company.

No way no way.”

If it came to farm work, she was a good person and was more handy than most men.

But if she was asked to manage a company, she would not be able to tell the difference.

Lin Mo smiled and said.

“It’s fine, when the time comes, I’ll let hire professional management staff to come over.

Sister-in-law, you only need to check whether their work is serious.

Just make sure that the quality control is in place.”

When he finished, his wife Xu Hanxia, who was at the side, also helped to persuade.

“Yes Jia Jia, managing a company sounds difficult, but it’s actually quite simple.

I am the one in charge of managing our Guang Yang Xu Group, look at me now.”

With that she opened her hands easily, with a relaxed and idle look.

Yet even so, Xu Jiajia still had a hesitant face.

“Hanxia, since that’s the case, why don’t you take charge.

I really can’t manage the company.”

Xu Hanxia snorted a laugh.

“Lin Mo and I, we have to go to Hanoi and South Vietnam provinces next.

There are more things waiting for me to assist Lin Mo over there.”

“Just help out, we don’t know our way around in Pan Yang either.”

Under the joint persuasion of the couple.

Only after a long time did Xu Jiajia hesitantly agree to do so.

At this time, Lin Mo and his wife looked at each other and secretly sighed with relief.

What Xu Jiajia did not know was that Lin Mo was actually planning to give her the entire herbal company.

Of course, Lin Mo did not say anything about this, otherwise Xu Jiajia would not have agreed to it.

After this matter was completed.

Lin Mo immediately contacted Song Zhilan, who was far away in Kyoto, and arranged for funding and professional management staff.

By the afternoon, the medical centre was no longer as busy as it had been the previous two days.

Lin Mo simply handed over the task of consultation to Zhang Gong.

He himself took his wife and Xu Jiajia with him to the new office building of the Three Elders.

As for the trainees, they were assigned to Zhang Gong to play second fiddle, and had already unpacked and recited the basic knowledge of pharmacology.

Driving to the city centre.

The entire office building appeared in rough form right before Lin Mo's group's eyes.

The building had thirteen floors in total, with each floor roughly around a thousand square metres.

It was not big, but for a medicinal herb company it was complete.

All that remained was the decoration.

After a brief tour, Lin Mo made a direct announcement.

On the one hand, it was a tender for the building's renovation company.

On the other hand, it was a tender for a partner company.

However, once this announcement was made, it was like a stone sinking into the sea.

Chapter 2559

After the tour of the building.

Lin Mo then asked his wife to take Xu Jiajia back with him.

He himself, on the other hand, went alone to the abandoned factory in the suburbs.

After a few days of renovation.

The factory building had now been transformed into a new home for the Featherwood Guard reserves.

That's right, the Featherwood Guards.

This was also Lin Mo's long-planned plan.

Previously, it had not been implemented in Guangyang and in Kyoto.

On the one hand, it was because of the constraints of the major powers.

On the other hand, there was no opportunity and no manpower to fulfill this plan of his.

Before he came to Daqu United Province, his master, Elder Bai, had also analysed the situation with him.

If he wanted to build his own power, he had to have a trustworthy organisation with high combat power under him to cut through the thorns for him.

Now this plan was slowly being implemented by Lin Mo as well.

When Lin Mo walked in.

Captain Chen as well as his team members were giving the group of teenagers physical training.

“Pick up the pace, there are still three kilometres to go.”

After yelling out.

Team Chen then walked towards Lin Mo at a fast pace.

After both sides got close.

Lin Mo asked with concern.

“Captain Lin has worked hard, how’s it going, is the talent of this group of children still okay?”

Captain Chen, who was dressed in formal attire, also nodded in satisfaction.

“The base to good, after these few days of recuperation, plus basic training.

Their potential is also being developed to the fullest.

But we’ll have to wait for a while longer to see exactly how much weight they have.”

When he finished speaking.

Lin Mo also turned his gaze to the group of teenagers who were jogging.

The originally colourless faces of the eight hundred or so people were now quite red with a shock.

Under the sweat, they were full of youthful vigour.

“Lord Lin, this is just my subordinate’s part of the job, it’s not hard work to say the least.”

After saying that, Captain Chen bowed his body and saluted.

He was actually not without selfishness for being so dedicated to his duties.

Although he was only forty years old, his time limit was about to expire.

After the change in the Martial Alliance was completely over, he would also face the choice of leaving or being transferred.

If it were before.

He would have settled for what came his way.

But now, after the guidance of his elders, he saw a new path.

That was Lin Mo, a talented young man who was already the head of the Zhen Yue Ambassadors at a young age.

That was why Captain Chen had gone to great lengths to bring several of his inner circle and accompany Lin Mo to the Great Qu Province.

The reason for this was the 'merit of being a follower of the dragon'.

Of course, both sides were unaware of this point.

After watching for a while, Lin Mo turned around and said goodbye.

He then went to the Western Suburbs Mineral Company.

Wang Xiaochun, although his personality was a bit unpredictable.

But his efficiency was not bad.

In a few days' time, the company would be fully operational.

Everything was going well, and Lin Mo was relieved.

However, when he returned home in the evening.

His wife was sitting in front of the computer with a frown on her face.

"What's wrong, what's bothering you."

Walking up behind Hanxia.

Lin Mo bent down and reached out, wrapped his wife in his arms and asked softly.

Xu Hanxia first pointed at the computer before she returned in an unhappy voice.

"From the noon our tender information, which had been sent out in a cooperative announcement, up until now.

Not a single reply has been received."

"If it was a cooperation, it would be reasonable for no one to pay attention, after all, we are a new company.

But this renovation tender, no one has replied to this piece, there is an anomaly."

Common sense would dictate.

For a project as large as the office building, the renovation companies should be eager and eager to be the first.

But the situation today was that no one had replied.

After hearing this only Lin Mo smiled and gave his wife a squeeze on the shoulder.

"It's okay, just leave this to me.

It's been a tiring day, you should go and rest first."

Said Lin Mo, lowering his head, in front of his wife's forehead, kissed her once.

He then pushed her to rest.

Chapter 2560

After waiting for his wife, to go upstairs and walk into the room.

Lin Mo went straight to the door and found Wang Laosan.

And as soon as he entered the door, Wang Laosan guessed Lin Mo's purpose for coming.

"Lord Zhen Yue, are you here for that new office building of the Third Elder?"

It was convenient to talk to a smart person.

After nodding, Lin Mo did not hesitate and directly sat down, waiting for the other party's later text.

While Wang Laosan poured tea for Lin Mo, he winked at his beloved Xiao Yin.

After the latter had withdrawn and guarded the surroundings.

Only then did Wang Laosan patiently explain.

"I don't know the exact inside story."

"What I know is that Lu Nightwolf's side has sent word.

The entirety of Lord Lin's estate is sealed off."

"Plus, the incident between you and the Yin family a few days ago was all the rage.

The whole of Pan Yang knows that you are at odds with the Yin family, and they fear the Yin family like a tiger or leopard.

So even if they had the intention, they wouldn't dare to cooperate with Lord Lin."

When Lin Mo heard this, he also understood the true meaning of the matter.

After taking a few sips of tea, he then asked with a puzzled face.

"And who is this Lu Night Wolf?"

"This man is a huge wealthy man in Pan Yang and also the president of the Pan Yang Chamber of Commerce.

The main thing is that he and Yin Tian Bao are brothers.

He is so rude and domineering that the entire Chamber of Commerce is his mouthpiece."

On top of the sofa, Lin Mo smiled coldly.

"Originally, I was thinking that I would wait until I was done with the matter at hand.

Then I would go and have a good encounter with this Yin Tianbao.

I didn't expect that he himself would jump out first."

"Since that's the case, I'll play along with him."

"Thank you, Chairman Wang, for the information, I'll go back first."

And after waiting for Lin Mo to get up.

Wang Laosan suddenly reminded.

"Lord Lin, during this period of time, you should be more careful.

This Lu Night Wolf is ruthless and extreme in his actions.

Although he is not willing to move you head-on, he cannot rule out that he will make a move on those around you."

"I understand, thank you, Chairman Wang.

When Pan Yang is settled, when Pan Yang is settled.

What was promised to you, Lin Mou will definitely fulfil."

With that, Lin Mo directly lifted his steps and left the place.

Left alone where he was, the smiling Wang Laosan was full of smiles, politely retaining one after another.

And on Lin Mo's side.

He was just halfway down the road.

Bad news came one after another.

First, Chen's team contacted him, saying that the suppliers of supplies for the reserves had unilaterally broken their agreement.

They would no longer provide them with any supplies for sale.

At the same time, news also came from Zhang Gong that everyone had disappeared behind closed doors when he went to purchase herbs.

Even on Wang Xiaochun's side, which had been previously booked, the mining auxiliary materials were suddenly out of stock and could not be supplied in time.

"Hmph, it seems that these people are really efficient."

"Since you're looking for death don't blame me, Mister Lin."

After muttering, Lin Mo once again fluctuated Song Zhilan's call.

Early the next morning.

The big-bellied Lu Nightwolf, while wearing a wide pajamas, came to the living room with a spring in his step.

Yesterday one person battle three women, hard let the other defeated even begging for mercy.

Thinking of this he could not help but feel even more smug.

Inside the living room, Yin Tian Bao had been waiting for a long time.

When he saw the visitor, he greeted him with a face full of excitement.

“Old brother, that’s impressive.

It’s only been a day, and all the supplies for all the industries under Lin Mo’s name have been choked off.

At this time, he should be anxious and only jumping to his feet.”

Faced with his praise.

Lu Night Wolf only smiled disdainfully.

“A hairy kid dares to come to my Pan Yang to show off his might.

If not for the backing of the Martial Alliance, he would have been buried in the ground in Pan Yang by now.”

“What you said is very true.

This way, this Lin Mo will become a bird in a cage.

Even if he has great skills, he won’t be able to get out of my hand.”

After being licked by Yin Tian Bao.

Lu night wolf could not help but feel a little drifting.

“Oh, old brother, just relax.

How scenic his road was before Lin Mo came, I’ll let him be as wretched as he is when he rolls out of Pan Yang.”
