

Genius 2561

Chapter 2561

Kyoto time, 9.35am.

The sun, at this time, is slowly starting to warm up.

After sending off Yin Tianbao, who had come to the door specially to compliment him.

At this moment, Lu Nightwolf was leisurely enjoying the warmth of the late winter sun.

However, just as he was closing his eyes and resting his mind, the sound of hurried footsteps suddenly came from the distance.

“Mr. Lu, Mr. Lu, it’s not good.

Someone has suddenly started to frantically raise, the share price of our Nightwolf Group.”

The person who came was none other than Lu Nightwolf’s, chief stock trading master.

It was possible to make even this person anxious and panic.

Obviously it was not a trivial matter either.

With his eyes open, Lu Nightwolf immediately sat up straight.

And the stock trader beside him hurriedly brought the tablet bottom in his hand over.

On it was the rising stocks of the Nightwolf Collection under his name, which was displayed.

And every second, it was buying in frantic amounts of millions.

And along with such a ferocious rising trend.

Although the number of transactions was only a few hundred or a few thousand, there were still too many people.

In time, the two sides went hand in hand, causing the share price to rise even more fiercely.

In just three minutes or so, the volume had already reached billions.

“Gra*s, that one who is not afraid of death, dare to move to destroy my Night Wolf Group’s share price.”

Although after the share price rose, the market value of the entire Night Wolf Group was also rising high.

His Lu Nightwolf’s value had also risen with it.

However, this abnormal fluctuation was not stable.

Once this force that was prying the share price began to sell off.

His Nightwolf Group's entire share price would instantly collapse, and by then, not only would he not earn any money, he would also face huge losses.

Thinking of this, Lu Nightwolf's eyes turned red.

With full of anger, he hissed madly to.

"Quickly, hurry up and sell the shares we have on hand to suppress this rising trend for Laozi."

"D*mn it, don't let me know to catch the black hand behind this.

Or I will make your life worse than death."

Under the anger, Lu night wolf's whole body could not help but tremble.

The gla*s of wine in his hand was even directly dropped heavily on the ground by him.

And that trader, after receiving the order, hurriedly began to operate at a rapid pace.

After about ten minutes or so, the stock price rose abnormally, and only then did it slowly stabilise.

Wiping the cold sweat on his forehead, the trader heaved a sigh of relief.

"Mr. Lu, the share price has been suppressed.

It seems that the other party's capital reserves can't keep up."

Knowing this time, Lu Nightwolf also relaxed slightly.

Spitting darkly, he reached for the red wine on the side and poured a few sips.

"D*mn, how dare you come to touch my Nightwolf Group with this little ability."

Since the other party didn't have much capital reserves, he didn't need to worry about it.

Saying that, Lu Nightwolf then ordered.

"First, slowly press down the share price and pay attention to the rhythm.

We'll eat as much as the other side throws, in any case, we can't let the retail investors appear to panic."

"Yes, Mr. Lu!"

.....

And far over in Kyoto.

Song Zhilan was looking at the computer screen with a calm face as the numbers kept jumping.

While sipping her morning tea, wasn't she tastelessly yawning.

And the booster beside him, full of doubts, asked.

"Mr. Song, just kind of insignificant small business, you just leave it to the people in the stock trading department.

No need to keep such a constant eye on it.”

It was just a ten billion dollar level company.

At the side of Song’s general office work, a random contract drawn out would be worth several times its existence.

And at this moment, Song Zhilan was wearing a satisfied smile and waved her hand.

“Go go go, what do you know, you little girl.

This is one of the few chances I have to help him.”

Hearing this, the booster suddenly brightened up.

Then, like a curious baby, he padded up.

“Him? Chief Song, who are you talking about.”

At this moment, Song Zhilan also realised that he had let his mouth slip.

After setting his face straight, he said with a smug expression.

“What’s a little girl doing prying so much? Watch this handicap.

Decide to allow any slip-ups.”

At the mention of business, the originally mischievous booster instantly showed a serious look on his face.

He then picked up his hand and gave Song’s instructions.

In a flash, hundreds of industry elites throughout the stock trading department moved immediately on hearing the news.

Chapter 2562

Two flowers bloom, one for each.

At this moment, the trader under Lu Nightwolf was still methodically controlling the share price.

However, in the next second, his eyes landed on his head and he looked at the long string of trading data in horror.

At first glance, he thought he had lost his eyesight.

He waited until he looked closer at the screen and then drew a cold breath.

“One hundred million?”

What the hell kind of game was this.

A single transaction, for the amount of half a billion, was bought and sold on the fly.

This was the first time the trader had ever seen such a phenomenon.

At this rate, it would only take a few minutes for the total amount of transactions involved to be enough to buy up the entire Nightwolf Group.

This was exactly the same as when you attack with a slingshot and the other side throws a missile directly at you.

How the hell is this going to work?

This kind of confrontation, which is not at all on the same level, can no longer be compensated for by technology.

While wiping his head full of cold sweat, the trader's hand was also tapping on the screen to quickly operate.

At the side of the table, Lu Nightwolf's face was so gloomy that it could drip out.

"Take control of the situation on your side first.

I'll go and think of ways to raise funds, I don't believe that the other side will have a constant flow of funds."

After saying that, he picked up the phone and quickly contacted various savings institutions.

With the existing assets under his name, he used leverage.

A loan of fifty billion was quickly obtained.

But when he confidently injected this money into the stock market, following while buying to increase his chip capital.

The mysterious consortium, whatever it was, also raised its bet again.

In a flash, the single transaction amount surged from one hundred million to five hundred million.

And the share price, which had been fluctuating high and low, once again surged upwards ferociously.

A few seconds later, it suddenly came to a halt.

Without waiting for Lu Nightwolf to react, in the blink of an eye that share price dropped wildly in a cliff-like trend.

At this moment Lu Nightwolf finally realised that something was wrong.

"f*ck, we've been trapped, hurry up and follow the sell-off.

Otherwise we'll lose all our money."

However, by the time he finished speaking, it was already too late.

Market panic had already set in.

A large number of retail investors followed along with the sell-off.

The shares Lu Night Wolf had on hand could not be sold at all.

“It’s over!”

Looking at the declining selling price, and then looking at the high cost price in his own hands.

Lu Nightwolf only felt that the sky was spinning and his mind was blank.

How could this be?

My savings of more than ten years had just gone up in smoke.

How is this possible?

At this moment, Lu Nightwolf only felt like his soul had been pulled out of his body.

His heart was like ashes!

The dealmaker at the side, at first, called out to him with concern.

Seeing no response from him.

Then his eyes turned and he looked at the villa, the expensive decorations.

As an insider, he understood more than anyone what was going on here.

As long as those shares cannot be sold.

That’s just a bunch of numbers.

To put it simply, that means that Lu Nightwolf is bankrupt.

And he still owed the savings institution, a huge sum of fifty billion dollars.

When he thought of this, the trading ambassador simply wasn’t pretending either.

“General Lu, I have been doing my best for the Wild Wolf Group for so many years.

There is no credit but there is also hard work, I am just taking what I deserve.”

After muttering a low voice, he fled the place with his millions of dollars worth of watches and jewellery in his arms.

Good deeds do not go unnoticed, but bad deeds spread a thousand miles.

It only took a day and a night.

The news of Lu Night Wolf’s bankruptcy swept through the entire Pan Yang.

As the saying goes, when the wall falls, everyone pushes.

In addition, when he was in his prime, he was arrogant and domineering, and he had offended a large number of people with his viciousness.

After learning of this news.

Batches and batches of suppliers, retail investors who had been harvested, as well as those debtors continued to flock to Lu Yanhong's villa.

All of a sudden.

The once-unbeatable Pan Yang tycoon instantly became a street rat that everyone shouted at.

Chapter 2563

After learning that his good brother had fallen on hard times.

Yin Tian Bao was the first to rush over.

Just as he approached the villa, he immediately stopped in his tracks.

The most extravagant villa in that Pan Yang at the beginning had now become an empty frame.

What was vaguely visible was that there were still many people carrying tables, chairs and benches, cursing and swearing as they came out of the villa.

Even more ruthlessly, there were some heartless stockholders who felt that it was Lu Nightwolf who had caused them to lose money.

One of them was gnashing his teeth and squatting in the corner to hang a big white.

Such a sight scared Yin Tianbao so much that he couldn't help but back away.

"Old brother, take care, old brother my mind is here."

After silently comforting himself in his heart.

Yin Tianpao then quickly withdrew from this place.

As for Lu Nightwolf at this moment, he was just lost in thought and half-kneeling in the middle of the empty villa.

Staring at the sky-high amount of money owed in front of him.

He smiled.

Even at this point in time, he still did not know who had harmed him.

Under the rebellion of the people, he was already completely disheartened.

"To think that I, Lu, have a lifetime of glory, hahaha!"

"Those who have harmed me, I will find you even as a ghost."

Carrying the broken wine bottle.

Lu Night Wolf shook and slowly stood up.

.....

The line of sight returned to Lin Mo's side.

After finishing all the things.

After a little free time, Lin Mo began to personally teach all the apprentices of the medical school.

As for the content of the teaching.

It was a simple rote memorisation.

Three thick stacks of medical books, all about a foot thick, were memorised within a month.

Those who couldn't complete it were directly rejected.

It was not that Lin Mo was harsh, but this group of youngsters were at the prime age to learn medicine.

It was just that they had started too late, and if they did not rise to the occasion, they would only be ordinary Chinese medicine practitioners in the future.

However, since they had joined Lin Zhi Tang, Lin Mo naturally adopted the principle of elite.

Of course, as long as they were able to study hard, Lin Mo naturally had a solution to the matter of natural ability.

Just like the group of reservists of the Featherwood Guards.

As long as they passed the heart level test, Lin Mo naturally had a great creation to give to them.

However, just as Lin Mo was teaching.

Outside the door, Zhang Gong walked in anxiously.

"Mr. Lin, Lu Nightwolf has committed suicide by jumping off a building."

Hearing this news, Lin Mo also showed a surprised look on his face.

"Let's go together and take a look!"

"You guys just familiarise yourselves with the book first, and just ask Uncle Zhang if there's anything you don't understand."

Although Zhang Gong's level of medical skills was limited.

But it was more than enough to teach this group of novices who were just starting out.

After the words had fallen, Lin Mo left the medical school with quick steps.

By the time he arrived at his destination.

The room was already filled with passers-by watching the fun.

In the middle of the crowd was Lu Night Wolf, who was covered in blood.

When the crowd noticed that someone was crowding into the crowd, they were impatient.

When they saw the identity of the person who had come, that it was Lin Mo, they instantly shrank back to the sides.

The gossip had already come out.

It was because of the previous targeting of Lin Mo's properties.

As a result, he committed suicide by jumping off a building within a few days.

After receiving this news, the crowd was both respectful and fearful of this No. 1 divine doctor of Pan Yang.

Lin Mo saw that the crowd had given way and nodded politely towards everyone before gesturing.

Then he came to the side of Lu Nightwolf who did not know whether he was alive or dead.

Squatting down, he first probed the man's pulse, which was faintly detectable.

Then he checked his heartbeat, which was also very weak.

As for the injury, one could tell without checking that it must have been a huge impact that shattered the internal blood vessels.

"There's still time to save!"

Even if he had half a foot in Hades, Lin Mo was still confident that he would be able to save him.

With that, he pulled out the Doktor Nine Xuan Needles from his pocket.

With dazzling hand speed, he flew into Lu Night Wolf's body, completely locking his dying life into place.

And when the surrounding crowd saw this, their faces instantly turned pale.

Chapter 2564

"Divine Doctor Lin, this Lu Night Wolf is already dead, so don't waste your time."

"Yes, Divine Doctor Lin, this man has done a lot of evil and oppressed the weak, he is a person who deserves to die."

"This man was already a deserving person, or a social tumour as well."

There was a lot of discussion.

It seemed that only Lu Nightwolf's death would be the best ending for everyone.

It was only in the face of the crowd's persuasion.

Lin Mo once again took out his silver needle.

"Don't worry, all of you, I'm just trying my best.

This is my duty as a physician."

“Even if I, Lin Mo, managed to save Lu Nightwolf, he will still be just a ruined man.

When the time comes, he won't have the ability to do evil again even if he wants to.”

As his words fell.

Only then did the crowd of onlookers shut their mouths and refrain from speaking.

Of course, for Lin Mo to save his life.

No one in the audience believed it.

It was only because of Lin Mo's current social status that no one dared to speak out in mockery.

On Lin Mo's side, after explaining, he focused his full attention on Lu Nightwolf.

With the dual effect of the Nine Solitary Needles and his own divine Needle Technique of Creation.

The only trace of life left in Lu Nightwolf's body was locked in a deadlock.

This also gave Lin Mo more time to heal.

Stopping the bleeding, resolving the stasis, protecting the veins and shrinking the Qi.

All the treatments were done in one go.

After Lu Nightwolf's condition had stabilised.

Only then did Lin Mo take out the natural herbs he had picked from under the Golden Colour Mountain.

After grinding them into juice, he sent this azure medicinal juice into the mouth of the hammered dead Lu Nightwolf.

These medicinal juices were not only able to protect the heart veins, but also had an extremely strong healing effect on internal injuries.

“Do you think the divine doctor Lin will be able to save Lu Night Wolf from death?”

“How is that possible? Do you think Dr. Lin is really a god? He can save even the dead.”

“But looking at his stance, it seems like he really has a chance of playing eh.”

“Don't think blindly, are you out of your mind?”

All of Lin Mo's attention was focused on Lu Nightwolf at this moment, and he simply didn't hear the crowd's questioning.

Of course even if he had heard them, he wouldn't have cared.

When all the preparations were ready.

Tai Ah sheathed his sword and swung his longsword.

After the cold light, a thin wound appeared above Lu Nightwolf's chest.

At the same time, Lin Mo once again flung out flying needles.

After sealing the acupuncture points around the wound, he confirmed that no blood was seeping out.

Only then did he press his hand on the latter's chest.

In the next second, Lin Mo's arm was raised, and countless pieces of shattered internal organs and tiny broken bones.

Under the pull of spiritual power, they were taken out at a rapid pace.

By this time, the passers-by at the scene were already turning pale.

After all, this bloody scene really drew people's discomfort.

And after Lin Mo had finished stitching up the wound.

With one hand, he tapped Lu Nightwolf's chest, and under the effect of his spiritual power, the heart that had stopped beating instantly jerked.

"Ugh!"

This to this point, Lu Night Wolf, who had already 'died', suddenly heaved a breath.

And then eventually dark red bruised blood continued to seep out.

"This ....."

"So so I'm seeing a ghost? This Lu night wolf is really alive."

Looking at this terrifying scene.

The crowd couldn't help but back away one after another.

After all, a person who has died, suddenly that began to legendary, spitting blood.

But any normal person would find it hard to bear for a moment.

Lin Mo also ignored them.

Directly called for a few apprentices from Lin Zhi Tang to send a single price to carry this Lu night wolf's back.

And the crowd saw Lin Mo leave.

One of the men, who was slightly more daring, first swallowed his saliva.

After suppressing the fear inside.

Only then did he go forward and call out to Lin Mo.

"Divine Doctor Lin, please ask.

Do you still have a spare supply of the herbs you just used on hand?"

As this person opened his mouth.

The other onlookers beside him, he also instantly reacted.

All at once, they cast an expectant gaze at Lin Mo.

Chapter 2565

An outsider looks at the world, an insider looks at the world.

This saying is exactly right.

Under Lin Mo's set of flowing operations.

Everyone in the audience thought that Lin Mo had only stopped the bleeding and stitched up Lu's wounds, and had performed an open-heart surgery.

What really brought him back to life was the herbs that Lin Mo had taken out during the treatment.

Faced with this kind of treasure, which could give them an extra life, who could not covet it.

At this moment, Lin Mo's mind was focused on the body of Lu's night wolf.

Although he had rescued him, there was still a lot of follow-up treatment to be done.

Faced with the pa*serby's enquiry, he didn't think much about it and replied directly.

"This herbal medicine is no longer available, but after a while, I will set up the Jia Leftover Medicine Company.

At that time, if you want it, you can just go and buy it."

After saying this, he followed the apprentices and left the place with quick steps.

However, Lin Mo had never expected this.

This was originally just an invisible word from him, but it had created a huge storm in Pan Yang.

In an instant, the news of the production of the herbs for reviving the dead by Jia Ruang Pharmaceutical Company swept through the city.

All this was still unknown to Lin Mo for the time being.

Once he had sent Lu's wolf to Zhilin Hall, he immediately started the follow-up treatment for him.

Of course, Lin Mo was not saying that he was being selfless and repaying grievances with virtue when he did this.

It was purely because Wang Laosan had told him before.

This man, Lu Nightwolf, might have ties to a major power in the Great Qu Province.

The reason for keeping him alive was purely to get some useful information out of him.

Outside, the holy name of Jia Leftover Pharmaceutical Company spread rapidly.

And after getting the news, hordes of herbalists, medical schools, decoration companies and so on.

In short, businessmen who had previously been oppressed by Lu Night Wolf and did not dare to cooperate with Lin Mo came to the door.

“Doctor Lin, what happened before is all the fault of that D*mned Lu Yewang.

We can’t fight him for such a small business, so why don’t you give us a chance again, Divine Doctor Lin.”

“Yes, if it wasn’t for this man, we would have come to the door long ago to seek cooperation.”

“Doctor Lin, give us another chance to cooperate with Jia Ruang Pharmaceutical Company.”

Faced with the hot eyes of the crowd and the bitterly pleading tone of their voices.

Lin Mo was not soft-hearted, to soft bones like them, wallflower, the more you give them a good face.

The more they would bite the dust.

After a cold snort, Lin Mo said indifferently.

“I should have known better when it comes to what to do.

If you want to cooperate with Jia Ruang Pharmaceutical Company, no problem.

As long as you obtain Chairman Xu’s consent.”

With that he turned his gaze to Xu Jijia, who was not far away with a dumbfounded face.

The people in the room were all businessmen with flexible minds.

Seeing Lin Mo’s words and actions, they instantly understood.

Then a large group of people rushed to Xu Jijia’s body.

How could Xu Jijia, who was facing such a situation for the first time, cope with such a scene?

With the intention of asking for help, she could only tug on Xu Hanxia’s sleeve.

The couple is one.

Xu Hanxia was also at the helm of the large Xu Group.

Faced with this situation, she immediately understood what her husband meant.

With a wicked smile on her face, she moved up to Xu Jijia’s ear, and she quietly spoke.

“Jia Jia, you don’t need to be afraid.

Straighten your back and show your swagger.”

“Just think of them as the Yin family’s group of big bad guys.”

As Six was lost in thought.

In Xu Jijia’s mind, these words of Xu Hanxia kept echoing.

In an instant, her originally obsequious aura suddenly underwent a huge change.

And when the crowd of medicine merchants pleaded bitterly.

Xu Jiajia only replied with a cold look on her face to.

“You guys go back, I will naturally contact you if I need you.

What’s the point of making such a fuss?

Does our medical school still want to do business?”

Chapter 2566

After saying this, Xu Jiajia regretted it a little.

Originally, he had only been compelled by Hanxia and thought of the Yin family’s oppression during this period of time.

In a moment of anger, he had spoken those words.

Yet when she was filled with worry, fearing that this would affect Lin Enren’s plans.

Instead, the expected outburst from the other group did not happen.

Instead, after a cold rebuke from her.

This group of businessmen, the ingratiating look on their faces, became even more intense.

“Director Xu, this is a small token of appreciation from our Gra*s Crow Medicine Company, please accept it.

If there is a need for it, I will remember to contact us.”

After putting down the heavy box, this person took out the name tag again.

After deliberately opening the box and revealing the large pearl inside, he pretended to put the business card inside.

Only then did he hurriedly close the lid, and without waiting for Xu Jiajia to say anything, he flew away with a face full of ingratiating.

If you have one, you have two.

With a set of smooth and fluid operations completed.

The merchants behind them followed suit.

Expensive herbal medicines, gold and silver jewellery, brand name decorations and so on, such valuable gifts were stuffed over in one go.

Xu Jiajia’s did not refuse even after Xu Hanxia stopped her, and accepted them all as they were.

After all the drug dealers had left, Xu Hanxia said patiently.

Xu Hanxia said patiently.

“Just take these, so they can feel at ease.

Look at them, they are so happy.”

“If you don’t take them, they’ll think there’s no chance of cooperation.

It would be unattractive.”

As she explained.

Xu Jiajia then combined it with the previous scene where the colder she spoke, the more the other party ingratiated themselves.

At this moment, she seemed to have gradually whited out something.

But what exactly it was, she did not know in her heart.

It was still a very vague and ethereal kind of clarity.

And under the circumstances that Xu Jiajia herself was not even aware of.

The aura around his body slowly transformed.

Although it was very faint, it was still captured by Lin Mo.

After exchanging a glance with his wife, the couple smiled in silence.

And Lin Mo’s side was almost finished.

Regarding the matter of Jia Leftover Pharmaceutical Company, Xu Jiajia had already finished handling it.

The other companies that wanted to cooperate with Lin Mo, he directly waved his hand.

He told them to go and talk to Captain Chen and Wang Xiaochun.

It was just as well to bring a little bit of oil to their dry bar.

In just one afternoon.

The originally stagnant industries under Lin Mo’s name instantly returned to normal, and were developing at a rapid pace, by leaps and bounds.

As for Jin Cai Shan’s side.

When Wang Xiaochun’s excavation troops arrived.

Lin Mo then asked Captain Chen to take the group of reserve boys and go to that side for training.

It was just as well that he could help guard the security issues there.

For the medical company, his wife and Xu Jiajia were in charge of the two women.

Of course, Xu Hanxia’s main responsibility is to transfer as much of her management experience to Xu Jiajia before the completion of the company.

At this point in time.

Lin Mo, on the contrary, became the most free person.

Every day he taught the apprentices and went to check on the physical condition of the reserve children.

Find out about the training progress.

Meanwhile.

At the Yin family's side.

Yin Mang, who had been grounded for a long time, was finally released by Yin Tianbao.

The reason for this is that some of his friends of his age from Da Qu are coming to Pan Yang as guests.

As for the other party, they were the young masters and young ladies of Da Qu's top powers.

And the first thing Yin Mang did when he regained his freedom was not to arrange for a reception.

Instead, the first thing he did was to summon Dog.

"Miss Zhao, when will Young Miss Kong He have Duke Ruan and the others arrive?"

Faced with Yin Shao's question.

Ah Dog naturally knew what to say.

"According to the news, Miss Zhao is said to be in Pan Yang already.

And Young Empty and Duke Ruan, upon learning this news, are already on their way here.

In about three to five days, they will be able to arrive."

Learning of this news.

A grim smile suddenly surfaced on Yin Mang's face.

Chapter 2567

"Dog, you send someone to give me Lin Mo's sidekick.

As soon as my friend arrives, I will make Lin Mo's life worse than death."

From being beaten, to apologizing, and later being grounded.

When had Yin Mang ever, ever suffered such a nuisance.

At this moment, all he could think about was getting back at Lin Mo.

On the other hand, Dog's face was torn after hearing Yin Mang's order.

After hesitating for a while, he cautiously asked.

"Young Yin, didn't Brother Tian Bao's side tell us, not to take the initiative to provoke Lin Mo?"

And when the words didn't even fall out of his mouth.

The only thing that answered him was a loud slap.

"Cao, you're f*cking hard-winged now, aren't you.

You dare not even listen to this young man."

"You don't even ask around, my friends are the kind of people who can shake the whole of Da Qu with the stamping of their feet.

Uncle is getting older and less bold.

You know what I mean?"

A Dog looked at Yin Mang with a fierce look in his eyes and subconsciously swallowed the knot in his throat, then nodded his head repeatedly.

Knowing this, Yin Mang then revealed a satisfied smile.

"A wise man will live longer, I advise you to be sensible."

With that, he reached out and patted the latter's cheek.

For all this.

Lin Mo had no idea, at this moment, he was still waiting for Song Zhilan's reply.

It had been until the afternoon.

Only then did movement come from the phone on the table.

"The real person's side said that the Promised Secrets could only be pa*sed on to those under the sect.

If it leaks out, the Daoist Sect will definitely take action."

After receiving this news, a smile also instantly appeared on Lin Mo's face.

"Thank True Yu Shu on my behalf!"

After hanging up the phone, Lin Mo immediately went to the reserve's training base without stopping.

"Di Yun you come here for a moment!"

Hearing Lin Mo's call.

Di Yun, who had just finished training and was sweating profusely, came running over without a hitch.

After all this time of training and the medicinal food provided by Lin Mo.

Di Yun, who was already tall and big, had become even bigger and stronger.

He was obviously only 17 or 18 years old, but he was already half a head taller than Lin Mo.

As he got closer, Di Yun's gaze towards Lin Mo was filled with a strong sense of gratitude.

And if it wasn't for their benefactor's hand, most of their group of companions would have died of hunger in other countries.

And the living conditions provided by Lin Mo's benefactor were something they had not even dared to think about before.

As for them, all they had to do was to cooperate with Captain Chen and the other guards in their training.

With plenty of food and clothing, their bodies had become stronger and stronger.

Thinking of this, Di Yun could not help but have his eyes redden.

"Benefactor!"

He called out with gratitude.

He made a move to kneel down and kowtow again.

As for Lin Mo, he instantly stopped him.

"What, hasn't Captain Chen handed you, the Martial Union's bowing posture?"

At these words, Di Yun immediately reacted.

Straightening his back, he put one hand on his waist and hammered one hand on his chest.

Under the tremendous force, a muffled sound came directly on his chest.

"My subordinate, Di Yun, has met Lord Zhenyue Amba*sador."

It was only at this point that Lin Mo nodded his head in satisfaction.

"Not bad, an extraordinary aura.

Remember, no kowtowing in front of me in the future."

And all that answered him was a resounding, "Yes!"

"Very well, it seems you have adapted.

Come with me."

With that Lin Mo took Di Yun to an isolated corner.

"Your future direction, Captain Chen should have told you all about it."

Nodding his head, Di Yun returned with a serious attitude.

"We will become, in the hands of Lord Zhenyue, a sharp blade in the hands of Lord Zhenyue, to cut through the thorns and briars for the Lord.

My subordinates, feeling the love of our benefactor, vow to follow us to the death."

Although he didn't know, what does it mean to be an Amba*sador of Zhen Yue.

But he also had a vague notion that it was an existence that they, the children of the mountains, would never be able to touch in their lifetime.

Under the constant preaching and indoctrination of Captain Chen, coupled with the gratitude for saving his life.

The seed of loyalty and Lin Mo had already taken root in the hearts of these youngsters.

Chapter 2568

Satisfied, he looked at the person he had identified in front of him.

Lin Mo's face also gradually became more serious.

"Sit down! This ambassador grants you a heavenly creation."

Although he did not know what he was up to.

But Di Yun still obediently sat down with his legs crossed.

The next second, he felt a thick palm against his heavenly head.

"No need to be nervous, relax your body and empty your mind!"

With that, after Di Yun took a deep breath, his entire body slowly relaxed.

However, the next second.

A sharp swelling pain came from the brain.

As if it had been hard chiselled through at the same time.

"Bear with it, pull through, and you are a human being.

If you can't, you will only be a person who will be oppressed by them for the rest of your life and be at the mercy of others."

Accompanied by Lin Mo's thunderous prompt.

Di Yun's mind couldn't help but conjure up images of the whole family still being bullied by the forces in front of which.

And in the midst of the memories, the teenager who had been trampled on the ground with his shoe-soled vegetable face suddenly opened his eyes.

"I, Di Yun, will stab through this layer of heaven!"

With a low roar, the pain that made life worse than death instantly dissipated.

The brain became incomparably clear in an instant.

At the same time, two strands of information flew into his memory.

“Creation Dictate, Free and Easy Technique.”

After murmuring a sentence in a low voice.

Di Yun instantly trembled with excitement.

In just one breath, he could feel that the gateway to the martial dao that he could once only look up to.

Now it was within his reach.

Forcibly suppressing the ecstatic feeling in his heart, Di Yun quickly rose and kowtowed heavily towards Lin Mo.

This time, Lin Mo did not stop.

He was the nominal master of Di Yun’s martial arts mind instillation.

It was only logical to accept his obeisance.

“Thank you, Master!”

And at this time, Lin Mo’s face was a little pale.

With his current strength, it was still obviously a little reluctant to use such an enchanting technique.

If it wasn’t for the spiritual power that had been tempered by Doku Jiu Xuan’s needles, he would have fainted on the ground at this moment.

Of course what surprised him more was this.

This Di Yun, who had no martial arts roots, had such strong willpower.

“It doesn’t matter, since you were able to resist down, it’s also your destiny to receive the complete heart technique.

However, you must bear in mind that without my permission, the Heart Method is forbidden to be pa*sed out.

If you violate it, the force will not be forgiven.”

“Also, I have not yet asked my master for permission.

I can only take you in as a registered disciple.

The talk of master and disciple will be left aside for now.”

The faint murderous intent came and went as quickly as it came.

Di Yun Di Yun only felt a cold light pierce through his circumference.

After a shiver, he returned with a straight face, “Yes, Di Yun understands!”

“Go on, be diligent and don’t fall short of my reputation as Lin.”

With that, Lin Mo slowly left the place with his hands behind his back.

In situ Di Yun shook off his head, looking at his master's departing back, he once again knelt down and kowtowed to thank him.

The first time he accepted a disciple, a strange feeling suddenly came over him.

Having taken on the power of another person's lifetime of martial arts, he only felt that the responsibility on his shoulders had become a little heavier.

Of course this was also after examining the group of children for a long time.

Only then did he make the decision.

The Decree of Creation was described as a way to change the heavens and enhance their natural abilities.

The Prosperity Technique, an advanced Daoist heart technique, enhances cultivation speed.

With these two sets of heart techniques, Di Yun could slowly keep up with the footsteps he had fallen behind.

Of course how far they could go in the future would depend on their destiny.

With this thought he slowly returned to the villa.

But before he could walk into the courtyard.

A human figure slowly appeared beside him.

"Lord Zhenyue, we have caught some rats that were following the lady.

Would you like to take a look at them?"

Hearing this, Lin Mo frowned.

"Lead the way!"

The words fell.

He then disappeared into the spot with the Martial Alliance's secret guards who were responsible for protecting his wife's safety.

Chapter 2569

Deep in the dense forest.

"My lord, these men have been trailing and watching this lady since this morning."

After briefly reporting the situation, the dark guard retreated to the side.

And in front of him, more than ten punks who had been tied up tightly were now kneeling on the ground and continuously begging for mercy.

"My lord, bypa*s us."

“My lord, we know we’re wrong.”

Lin Mo’s frown grew deeper and deeper when he saw this look on their faces.

The originally pleasant mood was instantly infested with haze.

“Say, what made you come?”

Along with a serious tone, a burst of murderous energy instantly locked around the ten or so people in front of him.

And they were just punks after all.

They were surrounded to death by ten dark guards holding blades.

They had never seen such a scene before.

At this moment, when they were questioned by Lin Mo in a stern voice, they immediately scrambled to give a full account.

“Yes, that b*****d Yin Mang, instructed us.”

“Their Yin family’s Dog, gave me 100,000 yuan, saying that we should spy on Lin Mo’s side.”

“Big brother, we’re just getting paid to do our job, and we’re only in charge of spying.

Give us a break.”

It was the Yin family again!

Originally, Lin Mo had planned to wait until all the matters at hand were settled before he went to clean up the other party.

Unexpectedly, the other party had made the first move instead.

Since this was the case, Lin Mo, whose killing heart had suddenly risen, had no intention of waiting.

If you dare to touch my family, prepare for the thunderous wrath of my Lin.

With this in mind, he subconsciously squeezed the Tai Ah in his hand.

Clang!

As the long sword came out of its body, the ropes on the bodies of more than ten punks broke with a sound.

Of course it wasn’t just the twine that fell to the ground together, but their fingers as well.

“This is the first and last time.

If we meet again, it will be your heads that fall to the ground.

Get out!”

With the last word, the punks felt their hearts jerk.

Not caring about the pain, they picked up the fingers on the ground and fled the place, rolling and crawling.

Leaving the dense forest, they returned to the villa.

Lin Mo first gathered his emotions before he pushed the door open and entered.

After greeting his wife and the Yang family's mother-in-law and daughter-in-law.

He then directly contacted Wang Laosan.

"Chairman Wang, last time I asked you to collect information on the Yin family.

How is it going?"

As Wang Laosan listened to Lin Mo's unpleasant tone over the phone, he was also full of doubts.

This Yin family probably had done something demonic.

"It's ready, I'll have Xiaoyin send it to you."

"By the way, I just received news not long ago.

Yin Tian Bao's side said that there will be a Yin family banquet in a few days and asked me to send the invitation to you.

How about I just push it off for you?"

After all, Wang Laosan was a smart man, and through from Lin Mo's words and the tone of his dissatisfaction.

He then understood that this Lin Mo was planning to run the Yin family's meaning.

That's why Wang Laosan said one more thing to Roar.

However, Lin Mo did not refuse, instead he led the way.

"No need, tell Yin Tianbao that this ambasador will attend on time."

After saying that he hung up the phone.

And if Yin Tianbao knew what Lin Mo was thinking at this moment, he would definitely cry out injustice.

After all, this was all done privately by Yin Mang.

Even he, Yin Tian Bao, was buried in the drum.

At this moment, he was impatiently banging on the table.

"What about the news from Lu Night Wolf?"

Dog bowed in front of him and replied.

"Boss, according to what the pa*serby said.

Chief Lu was originally dead after he jumped to his death.

But it was saved again by Lin Mo.”

“I also sent someone to pretend to see a doctor and spy on Guo Zhi Lin Tang.

It’s just that there was no sign of Chief Lu.”

Hearing these words, Yin Tian Bao instantly stood up.

The teacup in his hand shattered to the ground with one hand.

“Ridiculous!”

“Do you believe in such nonsense? Do you really think Lin Mo is a god?”

“Hurry up and go investigate the current situation of my Lu Lao brother.

I want to see him alive, and I want to see his corpse.”

Chapter 2570

After Yin Tian Bao calmed down, he pinched his brow in annoyance.

“Also, the group of young masters from Da Qu will be arriving shortly.

Matters regarding the family banquet must be meticulous and give the other party enough face.”

“And about the invitations, those who should be invited have been invited, right?”

Yin Tianbao knew that he could not defeat Lin Mo, plus his good brother had fallen into the other party’s hands.

He then thought, through this family banquet.

He wanted to unite a group of the top rich kids from Da Qu to suppress Lin Mo’s anger.

Across the table, Dog replied to.

“The invitations have been sent to all the people on the invitation list.”

“Also ……….”

Originally, he had wanted to say what Yin Mang had instructed him to do.

But thinking of the other party’s warning, plus the fact that the boss was not quite stable at this time.

He then suddenly stopped his words.

“The other what?”

Seeing that his subordinate was halfway through his sentence, Yin Tian Bao impatiently asked back.

“Nothing? My subordinate just got distracted for a moment.”

“Since it’s nothing, then hurry up and get the job done.”

With that Yin Tian Bao sat down on the sofa again.

Inexplicably he always had an inexplicable sense of urgency.

After shaking off his head, he picked up the whisky beside him and took a hard swig.

He burped, and only then was his mood slightly relieved.

.....

The time pa*sed, three days later.

The Yin family banquet officially began.

Within the city.

Zhao Ziyang, accompanied by her uncle Zhao Yu, walked slowly towards the Yin family.

Her beautiful face drew the sideways glances of the men pa*sing by.

Especially the long, slender legs, wrapped in jeans, accentuated her exquisite figure.

Swallowing the knot in their throats, there were already countless young men who wanted to go up and strike up a conversation.

Only when they saw the fierce-looking bodyguards behind Zhao Ziyang, they instantly wilted.

After many days of fruitless searching, Zhao Feiyang had already given up.

“Uncle, you’re right it seems we still have to rely on the local forces.”

From her initial intention, she had not originally planned to seek help from Yin Tian Bao.

After all, she did not want to leak her grandfather’s condition to the outside world.

It was just that in recent times, as his condition had become more and more serious, it had reached a point where it could not be delayed.

And she couldn’t find the new Sage of Medicine.

In desperation, she could only seek help from the local Yin Tian Bao in Pan Yang.

If there were still no results, she also planned to ask Uncle to go directly to the headquarters of the China Medical Union to find out the news.

At this moment, Yin Tian Bao’s side.

The two young masters of the Kong and Ruan families had arrived early.

Yin Mang had been waiting at the door for a long time, and when he saw the two he greeted them warmly.

“Young Master Kong, Sir Ruan, it’s been a long time.

What have you been up to this time? You haven’t come to see my little brother.”

“You know, I’ve networked with quite a few extremely good ones.

There’s even another earthly beauty, just waiting for the two big brothers to come and think about using it.”

With that he raised his eyebrows with a meaningful gaze.

For this kind of topic, which all men understand, naturally there is no need to say too much.

As soon as the other two heard this, their eyes instantly lit up as well.

It was only that they suddenly thought that the Zhao family’s daughter would soon be coming as well.

Kong Wu suddenly coughed lightly, and then he straightened his face and said in a serious manner.

“Xiao Mang, what are you talking nonsense about.

I am a decent man, Mr. Ruan.

When Miss Zhao comes later, remember not to talk nonsense.”

He reminded him of this.

Ruan Jintian, who was at the side, also instantly reacted.

“Yes extremely, yes extremely, you must not talk nonsense.”

Yin Mang was also well aware of what the two of them had in mind.

Miss Zhao family, Zhao Ziyang was a recognized goddess throughout Da Qu.

In addition to the Zhao family’s power, it was spread all over the world and had countless properties under its name.

Many people of the opposite sex of the same age coveted her.

Even he, Yin Mang, was one of the many secret admirers.

But he also understands how much he has.

The difference between the two was so great that he gave up the luxury of a lazy toad eating the flesh of a swan.
