

Genius 2701

Chapter 2701

“There is no need for you to be polite, Chief Tong, what is the reason for inviting you here, Chen Jin has already told you, right?”

At the mention of this matter, there was an instant light in Tong Jun’s eyes as well as those of his other companions.

“Reporting to Lord Zhen Yue, Captain Chen has already spoken to us.”

Prior to this, members of the Martial Alliance and beyond, whether they were retired, or about to retire, were all sour in the teeth after learning about Chen Jin’s matter.

While others were still worried about their future, this Chen had actually hugged the thigh of the head of the Zhen Yue amba*sador.

Although the group of people like Tong Jun had a high pension from the Martial Arts League and were able to live the rest of their lives without worries, their ambition was not here, and the gene of combat had been fully integrated into their bones and blood.

After receiving the news from Chen Jin, they rushed to the city of Heshan without saying a word.

“For special reasons, my identity cannot be made public on Da Qu’s side, so you can either call me Lin Shao or Lin Boss.

As for the rest of the matters, you can just go directly to the Crown Prince!”

Lin Mo was also overjoyed at this time, originally he thought that Cheng Chen could recruit ten or so people and it was already very impressive, but he never thought that now there would be a full sniper team of fifty people.

Only those who have come into contact with the Martial Union know how powerful its members are.

Retirement is not because they are not strong enough, like the few people in front of Tong Jun, picking out a random but people a big family of instructors are more than enough existence.

And the reason they retired was simply because of the successive Martial Union changeover events, where the old had to make way for the newcomers, and under the pa*sing of the fire, they could ensure the superb fighting strength of the Martial Union.

“Yes, Young Lin!”

Tong Jun and the others saluted once more, their eyes burning.

Lin Mo’s deeds had already spread completely within the Martial Union, but anyone with a discerning eye knew that even a single hair of Lin Mo’s leg on the list would definitely lead to a bright future.

What Lin Mo liked most was their neat and tidy aura, which was particularly comforting to watch.

If you look at the prince's men, they are sitting and standing, no contrast, no harm.

On the side, the Crown Prince noticed Lin Mo's disgusted gaze and naturally guessed what Boss Lin had in mind, twisting his head to look at his men, a wry smile suddenly appeared on the Crown Prince's face.

"Brother Tong, well, well, you guys need to change this stance too, it's too conspicuous, don't be hot it's easily recognisable."

Being said by him, Tong Jun several people also felt some sense.

"Brothers all relax a bit and take advantage of these few days to learn from Brother Prince.

Since Young Lin needs to conceal his identity, we naturally need to make changes as well."

Under Tong Jun's greeting, all the members of the sniper group immediately dispersed into a group, and then they followed the cynical look of Fei and the others.

At first they were a little awkward, but under Fei's tutelage, they slowly became natural, smoking cigarettes and drinking wine.

Lin Mo: "????"

I'm f*cking numb! He was not good at learning, but he was bad at learning.

Looking at Lin Mo's defeated face, Prince came up cheaply.

"Brother, how are you?"

Lin Mo sighed breathlessly, "You are an old cow opening the door for a heifer, cow [bleep] to home!"

He hadn't even properly admired the valiant heroism of Tong Jun and the others before he was completely led astray by the crown prince.

But Lin Mo didn't bother to correct him, after all, what the Crown Prince said wasn't without merit, such an obvious symbol of the Martial Alliance's special salute was indeed too conspicuous.

And just as his brain was greening the vine, the Crown Prince's men hurriedly ran in.

"Boss, the Kong family's ransom money has arrived!"

"It's here? I cao, go go go, Brother Tong, let's go check the supplies together first.

When we're done, the reception party side is almost ready!"

With the Crown Prince leading the way, a group of people hurriedly left.

Lin Mo looked at his back and laughed bitterly, he had to say that this kid was indeed a good sociable person, it was only a matter of hours before and after, he had mingled with Tong Jun and the others, and now he was even hooking up with them.

What a talent!

Chapter 2702

With the help of these veteran hands like Tong Jun, the Kong family's war supplies were inspected very deficiently.

"Young Lin, everything is good, except for the fact that it is a little less than new, everything else is not bad!"

Lin Mo nodded, looking at this Kong Xiangtian was also subdued by the Prince's threat.

"Not bad, this old dog will still be honest, Ah Fei will send Kong Zhi away later! Let him have some decency."

"Okay boss, I promise to make him a decent batch and go very peacefully!"

After saying that, Ah Fei pulled out his pistol, intending to give Kong Zhi a direct shooting, only before he took a step, the prince behind him directly kicked him over.

"Cao, do you have some kind of serious illness! Big brother is asking you to return Kong Zhi to the Kong family!"

"Like that! Then I understand. Hehehe!"

Fei's eyes were wise after scratching his head, that naive look, where was the fierce aura of ordering the slaughter of the Kong Family's killer group.

"Che, how stupid, I don't know how I saw him in the first place."

Lin Mo gave a squinty smile, "This point of him probably follows you!"

Ha? With me? I'm so smart, there's no way I could follow me, absolutely no way.

The prince looked at Fei with a silly smile on his face and shook his head firmly.

Lin Mo also paid no attention to these two simple batches, now that the supplies had arrived, it was time for him to lay out the co-ordination.

As he had not expected Chen Fei to be able to recruit so many snipers, there was no armaments provided for them within the warehouse.

The rest of the snipers were assigned to the Prince's men, forming a fifty-man combat team.

This was a good way to bring up this group of rookies with hot weapons under the Crown Prince.

"Alright, you guys get acquainted with each other first, we have a tough battle that we might have to fight in a few days!"

The Rong Li gambling ship was about to start, and the showdown between Lin Mo and Ding Li was coming soon.

When Lin Mo finished finishing his arrangements and finished, the crowd chartered the largest hotel in Heshan City to receive Tong Jun and the others.

The next few days began with the orderly preparation of the battle.

.....

On the other hand, the old man of the Kong family also finally met his third son.

When Kong Zhi, whose head and palms were wrapped in bandages, showed up, Kong Xiangtian's gaze froze, which was too miserable.

"Father, I thought I'd never see you again."

During these days of being tortured by Fei and the Crown Prince, it was the time when he, Kong Zhi, missed his family the most, and at this moment when he saw his father, he, a man in his forties, instantly cried into tears, so aggrieved he said.

Kong Xiangyun looked at the third son heartache and anger indistinctly mixed, anger at his inability to fight ah, with this so many family elite even be captured.

After only a moment, the old man reacted.

"Where are the others? How come you are the only one who came back?"

Didn't I say that I would release all the people of the Kong family back?"

Shameless little boy, how dare you bully me!

When he said this, Kong Zhi cried and squirmed for a long time before he stammered out the whole story.

"All dead?"

Kong Zhi looked at his father's murderous eyes and kept backing away in fear, and when he nodded in awe, the old man's face turned red.

"You... You"

The old man raised his hand and pointed at his son, his arm constantly trembling.

Rumours had already started circulating above the society about this Kong Family a*sa*sins being destroyed by Lin Mo's group, and at that time the old man did not believe it.

How could an elite group of nearly 1,000 people be exterminated just like that?

"The efforts of my Kong family for more than ten years You are a family sinner ah Pfft!"

Kong Xiangtian had a momentary difficulty in accepting this blow, and under the attack of anger, he violently spurted out a mouthful of fresh blood before falling headlong to the ground.

"Father, what happened to you, someone, someone, someone!"

With a sharp cry for help from Kong Zhi, the Kong family was in complete chaos!

Chapter 2703

Not long after the death of his eldest son, the family's ruler suddenly collapsed!

The Kong family, which had been so high and mighty, was instantly plunged into a state of depression, with clouds of sorrow covering the sky.

“Master, the Wu family head is here to see you!”

The butler reported in a soft voice after knocking on the guys.

On the sickbed, Kong Xiangtian with a sickly face nodded gently, “Let him in!”

As the butler turned to leave shortly, a rush of footsteps came from outside the door of the room.

As soon as the door to the room opened, Wu Dao Yi arrived in front of the sickbed with a worried look on his face.

“Elder brother Kong, why are you doing this? If you were to collapse too, your Kong family would be left without a head!”

The two of them had a close personal relationship and their families had many cooperation projects under their names, so this Wu Dao Yi came to visit Elder Kong as soon as he learned of his illness.

Kong Xiangtian forced out a smile and gestured for the Wu family head to take his seat.

“Eh, the family is unfortunate! Out comes Kong Zhi, the sinner!”

At the mention of his third son, Elder Kong coughed in anger again.

Seeing this, Wu Dao Yi rushed forward to rub his back and ventilate him.

“Old brother, calm down, it’s not worth it, you mustn’t fall down, if you get angry now, the more that D*mned Lin Mo will be pleased.”

“A great enemy is at hand, we still need to think about our plans going forward!”

After being persuaded by him, Kong Xiangtian’s mood calmed down a little.

Wu Dao Yi was relieved to see this, he was afraid that Kong Lao would just hiccup completely, after these years of cooperation, the Wu family was seeing prosperity, if Kong Lao died their financial road would be cut off.

After Kong Xiangtian took a few breaths of air, the redness on his face gradually receded.

“Eh, old man, I have spent countless resources and more than ten years to thoroughly train up this group of elite killers.

Now that this is being extinguished at the drop of a hat, how can I not be heartbroken!”

Faced with his complaint, Wu Dao Yi nodded in agreement.

“Elder brother Kong, now that it has happened, there is nothing we can change.

At this moment, we still need to find a way to so strangle this Lin Mo.”

“Judging from this Lin Mo’s style of action! This person is ruthless and ruthless, rooting out the gra*s.

If yes does not strike soon, perhaps he might even have to hit on the Kong family.”

Without waiting for him to finish, Elder Kong's mouth was full of fierce intent as he slapped his big hand.

"He dares! But whenever he dares to come to the Annan land realm, I will make him die without a burial place!"

Wu Dao Yi looked stunned, this good reason to lose his temper again, is it so hard to admit that the other side is powerful? The thousands of elites of your people had been wiped out, and you are still being stubborn here.

After all, some people are already dead and rotten, but their mouths are still tough.

For Lin Mo, Kong Xiangtian was actually flustered to the point of panic, two encounters with Lin Mo had perfectly demonstrated his own strength.

This was only superficial, Lin Mo still had the Zhao family behind him, and when he was about to go head to head, he had no idea.

But now that outsiders were present, he could not afford to lose his nerve.

Wu Dao Yi has known Kung Lao for many years, how could he not know his character, just did not bother to point it out, after all, the Kong family is his golden father!

"The strength of the Kong family is naturally evident to all of Da Qu.

If Lin Mo really dared to come to Annan, it would be as easy for you to kill him."

This wave of rainbow farts was very satisfying to Elder Kong.

But Wu Dao Yi instantly turned the tables.

"But that Lin Mo is like a shrinking turtle, hiding far away in Heshan City, too far away for us to make a move, isn't it?"

"That's true, I wonder if Elder Brother Wu has any good way to clear this Lin Mo."

Kong Xiangtian asked curiously.

Since the other party came to the door and mentioned this moment, there must be a solution, otherwise dare that open himself up, the Kong family is not something to be messed with!

Wu Dao Yi smiled mysteriously.

"Kong old brother, good way to not count, but can but can completely solve Lin Mo"

Chapter 2704

After listening to Elder Wu's proposal, a surprised smile instantly appeared on Kong Xiangtian's face.

"This is a good solution, this is a good solution!"

With successive approval, he was close to clapping his hands.

Wu Dao Yi also added with a happy face, the two families shared common interests, and the Kong family's enemies were naturally his Wu family's enemies.

"And brother, isn't Prince Gadrei in Annan? We can ask him to help us if necessary!"

Speaking of this, Kong Xiangtian, who was originally smiling and happy, suddenly showed a difficult expression, a plan he had actually considered before, not that he didn't want to, but he didn't dare.

"At first, after having someone release the news of the Golden Cai Mountain to the Sixth Prince, he still showed a strong interest.

Knowing that later, after there were rumours that Tege had a private appointment with Lin Mo, the Sixth Prince kept his mouth shut about the Golden Cai Mountain."

Wu Dao Yi's face changed when he heard this.

"That's why you asked us to stop our plans for the city of Panyang before?"

"Yes, it was because at this point, if my guess is correct, perhaps this Sixth Prince, has made some sort of deal with Lin Mo."

This was one of the reasons why Kong Xiangtian was scornful of Lin Mo, many things did not need to be stated, just think of the Sixth Prince's change of attitude before and after, was a clear signal that he did not want to touch Lin Mo.

"This is difficult, what secrets does this son have in his body that he can even get involved with the Sixth Prince."

When Wu Dao Yi learned of this, bitterness appeared on his face, and after pondering for a long time he clenched his silver teeth.

"Elder Brother Kong, in that case, in order to prevent accidents, we must first contact Zhen La.

If there is really that inevitable moment, we can get some support from their side."

This method was not a bad one, if there was fire support from Zhenla's side, even if Lin Mo had three heads and six arms, he would have to perish here.

And if the Sixth Prince really wanted to join forces with Lin Mo, their family's safety would be guaranteed.

But while this method was good, Elder Kong frowned.

"I'm afraid I'll have to trouble Elder Brother Wu in this matter, you also know that Prince Jade Lie is now living in Annan, so it's not convenient for me to move on my side."

After all, the Kong family is the champion of the Wanxiang royal family, so as long as we don't tear our faces off, we must still do the necessary surface work.

Naturally, Wu Dao Yi agreed readily, "No problem, just leave this to me."

Although the Kong family had always been responsible for communicating with Jinla, the Wu family had been given full responsibility for the transportation of supplies, so it was not difficult for the Wu family to contact Jinla.

“Then take good care of yourself, Old Brother Kong, I’ll leave now!”

With a greeting, Wu Dao Yi left straight away.

Within the room, Kong Xiangtian’s face was filled with a smug smile as he thought of the way the Wu family lord had dealt with Lin Mo.

“Lin Mo, you wait to die!”

.....

The words were split into two.

With the arrival of the Rongli giant ship event.

Lin Mo’s side was also prepared, and the two warships obtained from the Kong family’s side were just right for transportation at this time.

The only thing that made him rather speechless was that the two warships had been completely disfigured by Ah Fei.

“Can any of you tell me what this Alfie One, Alfie Two means?”

Lin Mo asked breathlessly as he lifted his finger and pointed at the warships parked at the pier that had been sprayed with flowers and greenery.

“Hehehe, because Brother Prince said that such ships with a carrying capacity of less than five hundred people are not worthy of being named with the Prince’s title.

I thought that I would have to take the name anyway, so I reluctantly contributed my own name.”

Lin Mo looked at his delighted smile and couldn’t see the slightest hint of difficulty at all, but since it had all been changed, he couldn’t be made to repaint it again.

“Eh, let’s get going then!”

After Lin Mo sighed, he stepped on board this oddball Aviator.

Chapter 2705

At around ten o’clock at night, Ding Li arrived on the high seas with a group of his men, and not far from his ship was the famous Rongli, one of the top ten cruise ships of Daqo.

As one of the top ten cruise ships in Daqo, the Rongli is naturally luxurious, with a total of twelve floors above and below, and a theoretical capacity of more than one weapon on the entire ship.

And at this moment the huge ship has stopped around the sparse yachts and the number of helicopters listening above the deck.

Such a grand party, looking at a group of men is straight stare.

“Boss, can we also get on board later?”

All the men looked at Ding Li with anticipation, facing such a big scene, all of them wanted to go and open their eyes.

Ding Li explained with a bashful smile.

“Theoretically, you can only take two people on board with one ticket, but as the event doesn’t start until tomorrow, we can take you on board today.

But since the event won’t start until tomorrow, I can take you all in today, but remember, when you get on board, pay attention to your identity and don’t disgrace me.”

“Okay, thank you, Brother Ding Li, we have it in mind.”

Seeing the boss agree, the men instantly cheered.

On the one hand, Ding Li had come a day early to prepare for the gambling event, as the Kong family had already released the news that the mysterious black box that was rewarded this time contained priceless treasures.

This news has also attracted the participation of more wealthy and powerful people.

On the other hand, there was the battle between Ding Li and Prince Lin Mo, who had agreed to fight on the high seas after the gambling event.

The warships alone had four of them, not to mention the light machine guns and other heavy firepower.

When the ships came close, Ding Li brought out more than 500 of his men on board.

By this time, there were already many bigwigs on board the Rongli with the aim of winning the crown and taking the black box in advance.

“Young Ding!”

After a few days of recuperation, Kong Zhi had recovered from his injuries, but his right ear and hand were still wrapped in thin bandages.

The corners of Ding Li’s mouth twitched at his appearance and he asked curiously.

“Uncle Kong, what are you doing?”

“Eh, it’s not because of that D*mn Lin Mo’s, forget about it, Ding Shao is here, I’ve prepared the banquet in advance.”

The old man did not punish Kung Chi for his failure this time, so he naturally had to behave himself.

As the top box of the Rongli, the decoration was naturally luxurious and the dining table under the crystal was by now full of sumptuous food.

“A little watery wine in advance, wishing young Kong a successful win tomorrow to take the black box.”

Reaching out, he did not smile.

When Ding Li heard Kong Zhi's blessing, he naturally raised his gla*s happily, but just as he was about to put down his gla*s, the door of the box was kicked straight open.

Kong Chi clapped his hands together and stood up with a furious scolding on his face.

"That dog, you can't just barge in here, come and throw these ungrateful dogs into the sea and feed them to the fish."

He stepped forward and raised his arm ready to slap the other man, but just as he raised his hand, the stranger suddenly pulled out his knife.

"Idiot!"

Without waiting for Kong Zhi to react, the sharp pointed knife stabbed him straight through, and just in case of accident this man made a dozen more stabs at Kong Zhi's chest before stopping his hand.

Inside the box, Ding Li was scared out of his wits by this unexpected scene, and by the time he got up in a panic and cowered in the corner, gunshots rang out all around the Rongli, and there was one scream after another.

"Good luck, young Ding!"

The killer looked at Ding Li and a cruel smile appeared on his face.

"Who the hell are you?"

And all that answered him were cold bullets!

A conspiracy of slaughter had begun!

Chapter 2706

Nearing the early hours of the morning, Prince Lin Mo also arrived in front of the Rongli as well.

The luxurious lights, the huge ma*sive hull, even the sea breeze blowing through the huge ship carried the smell of luxury.

But Lin Mo looked at the huge ship in front of him and couldn't help but frown, for the sake of the symphony music that kept coming, the whole huge ship actually didn't have any other sound coming out.

Although the lights were flashing, there was nothing popular about it.

Even though the event would not be officially opened until tomorrow, the phenomenon in front of us was indeed a bit bizarre, could it be that not even the attendants were present?

"Brother, we've arrived, this rubbish warship is so bumpy I'm going to vomit.

I'll get on the giant ship first to take a breather and give some wine to cool off!"

As the warship approached, the prince jumped off with a long leap, his feet nudging the sea, and in the blink of an eye he was on the boarding ladder of the giant ship.

“I’ll go ahead and clear the way for you guys, and see if there are any good-looking chicks on the side!”

These words and actions instantly drew a lot of applause from the men.

“Brother Prince is a good fighter!”

“Brother Prince is amazing!”

One of them even put his finger to the corner of his mouth and blew a whistle.

However, just as the crowd was cheering, Lin Mo suddenly stopped.

“Crown Prince, be careful, there’s something unusual about this boat!”

Originally he had intended to stop the Crown Prince from boarding the ship, but unfortunately he had already finished, and with his men blowing up, the Crown Prince disappeared from sight in a flash as if he had been hit with chicken blood.

Seeing this, Lin Mo hurriedly followed suit.

“You guys keep an eye on the warship and watch out for warnings all around!”

When the crowd saw Lin Mo’s serious face, they also understood that this was not the time to joke around.

“Brothers, watch out for warnings all around!”

By the time Fei’s words fell, all the men were ready for battle.

As Lin Mo approached the Rongli, the uneasiness in his heart became even stronger, and by the time he had just landed on the boarding ladder, the strong smell of blood came to his face.

“Big brother, big brother you come quickly!”

When Lin Mo heard the Prince’s urgent call, his heart became one and his body flew like lightning to board the ship, yet when he arrived on the deck, he was directly stunned by the scene before him.

Under the bright lights, the entire deck was covered with corpses, and the bright red blood was still faintly steaming and flowing everywhere.

Some of them were guests, some of them were waiters, some of them were bodyguards.

The faces were different, either nervous, scared or terrified, but there was resignation and reluctance in their eyes.

Many of the bodyguards and guards were still clutching their guns, and the messy, disorganised muzzles around them showed that they had fought back before they died.

It was only that the attack came so quickly that by the time they reacted they had already been hit, and many of the corpses, with black faces and white lips, were clearly signs of poisoning.

Even the big-hearted prince was dumbfounded at this point.

“Big brother, what’s going on here!”

Lin Mo returned in a good-natured manner, “How should I know, I’m also dumbfounded!”

As soon as his words left his mouth, the crown prince came out with a startled cry.

“D*mn, I know this guy, isn’t this f*cking Ding Li’s fighter?”

When we went to Hai Fang City last time, these guys were standing beside Ding Li, they were still arrogant then.”

The prince was always particularly impressed by such arrogant people.

Lin Mo approached and squatted down, seeing the dead man’s wound, he couldn’t help but frown.

A storm pear needle, and the kind that carried extreme poison.

He had encountered this object before, this kind of terrifying concealed weapon, if he was not careful, even he, Lin Mo, would be hit.

It made sense that the hundreds of corpses in front of him had died from this concealed weapon, followed by poisoning. It was no wonder why the bullet holes at the scene were so messy.

“Why don’t we go back first, this place is too seeping.”

Although the prince had also slaughtered many people, he had solved those with his own hands, and he was also afraid of a scene like the one in front of him.

Chapter 2707

What should have been an elegant symphony made the whole cruise ship seem even quieter, and with the sound of the waves rising from the sea breeze all around, it made the whole scene look like a netherworld hell.

Only Lin Mo shook his head straight away after hearing the Prince’s proposal.

“Let’s check first and see if we can get any hints of what caused this tragedy.

Also look to see if there are any survivors.”

It wasn’t that Lin Mo was detective-minded, or compulsive, it was just that if he didn’t find the real culprit, he and the Crown Prince, the only surviving people, would have to take the blame.

“This place is too spooky, if you’re scared, go back first!”

With that said Lin Mo clutched his Tai Ah and hid the Xuan Needle in his sleeve as he cautiously walked forward.

However, what he didn’t expect was that originally he was only worried about the Prince’s safety, so he gave a reminder, but it was such a remark that directly irritated the Prince.

“Throw it, this Crown Prince has grown so big that he still doesn’t know what it means to be afraid.”

The crown prince first looked around at the corpses that were the ones that were in peace, and instantly shook his body.

“What a f*cking bad luck, I didn’t kill you all, there is a reason for injustice, you don’t find me.”

After a silent chant, he walked with Lin Mo towards the cabin!

Arriving at the ground floor lobby of the cabin, the spacious venue was even more brightly lit, dozens of brand new gambling tables as well as machines shining brightly, of course it would have been perfect if there weren’t the corpses strewn about.

“Brother, do you want to play a few hands too? It’s a bit inappropriate at this time!”

The prince asked curiously as he watched Lin Mo approach the gambling table, while pointing at the blood and corpses all around.

Lin Mo’s white eyes rolled as he was unable to spit.

“f*ck off, I just want to check for signs of carnage.

Besides I don’t dare to be interested in gambling, nor do I dare to be interested in money.”

After saying that, he crouched down and began to examine the remaining traces on top of the gambling tables.

The prince gave a thumbs up, not bad for a big brother, terrific now.

Lin Mo’s side concentrated on observing carefully along the gambling table, and had just taken a few steps when suddenly a human face suddenly appeared in front of his eyes.

“I can go to your dam!”

Even Lin Mo was startled by the sudden scene, and lifted his leg to give a flying kick, only in the process, he also saw the other party clearly, and under the limit of force collection, the residual power just kicked down the other party.

“Wow, big brother, what are you kicking me for?”

The prince asked with a face full of aggression after the bottom.

“Can you not be so scary? A living person’s face suddenly appears in a place like this, the mix is going to be scared away by you.”

“Hey, hey, I didn’t see you observing so fascinated and didn’t want to disturb you, so I followed to get closer to see if I could find anything?”

After the prince scratched his head, he instantly changed into a smiling face.

“Big brother, have you made any discoveries?”

Lin Mo gestured for the crown prince to come closer, and then explained.

Look again, these corpses, all of them were killed with a single move, which means that the murderer was a master killer.”

“And look at these women, their high heels are neat and tidy, and there are no signs of running.

That means the killer swooped in right next to them, and to be able to do that, either the killer was dressed as a guest.

Or else the waiter was the killer!”

The prince’s face was shocked, “In that case, it’s likely that the murderer is the person arranged by the Kong family.”

Lin Mo shook his head, although this possibility was high, there was no clear evidence to prove it yet.

“It’s not 100% that it is, it could also be other forces that hijacked the cruise ship before the others arrived.

Then the waiters were all replaced with their own people, thus causing this ma*sacre.”

Since the tragedy in front of him was man-made, the Prince instead wasn’t afraid anymore, and after stopping his body plate he took a big step forward, intending to find out what was going on.

Chapter 2708

As they walked along, Lin Mo and the two of them had seen no less than a thousand corpses before and after, and the more they went up to the top floor the more gruesome the deaths became.

Although Lin Mo had already expected the results, the corpses that could be seen everywhere down the layers of inspection were still shocking to the eyes.

“The wounds are messy, the front and back should not be the same group of people so-called, be careful.”

Lin Mo said a word of caution, just in case there was still a murderer left at the scene to suddenly attack, of course if so that would naturally be excellent, Lin Mo also saved some effort.

The prince followed behind him with a fire axe in his hand, and with the weapon in his hand, he was much more courageous and had the leisure to start observing the environment.

“They should all be dead, it seems that the killer is determined to silence them.”

The two men searched all the way to the top floor, which was the VIP hospitality area, and opened a luxury box, finding nothing but corpses.

“Huh, isn’t this one of the ten richest men in Da Qu, a column I saw on the news not long ago.”

The prince exclaimed, his eyes scanning the entire room.

“Nothing!”

With that he retreated and continued his search in the dimly lit corridor, perhaps because no one was maintaining the electrical system, and he had just taken a step when all the lights suddenly flickered for a moment.

The Prince was just about to spit when he suddenly felt something grip his ankle, and feeling the constant warmth coming from it, he could be sure it wasn't a hallucination!

But the more the Prince thought about it however, the creepier he felt, and in this instant he only felt a weak electric current surging through his limbs, and goosebumps suddenly exploded all over his body.

"Big Big brother"

When Lin Mo turned back after hearing the movement, he only saw the crown prince with a frightened gaze, his body trembling slightly, and that distorted face looked like it was about to cry out.

Just as he was about to open his mouth to ask what was going on, not far away, the crown prince suddenly exploded up.

"I'll be D*mned, help!"

The prince yelled, desperately shaking being grabbed by his right leg, luckily under his struggle to break free, the hand was also thrown out by him.

"Dry ritual food, I'll chop you to death!"

After the prince escaped from his spot, he didn't care about the three or seven, and the fire axe in his hand flew straight backwards.

When Lin Mo looked over, he saw a bloody face with a dull but still faintly alive gaze.

A living person?

Without thinking, Lin Mo darted over to the ground and grabbed the fire axe that was about to hit the man's head.

At such close range, the two eyes locked!

Lin Mo reached out and wiped the blood off the other man's face, and at this moment he also recognised his identity.

"Ding Li?"

Confirming that it was Ding Li, Lin Mo's expression froze.

According to the previous agreement, after the gambling event, both sides would fight in the high seas, but looking at the situation in front of him, the event had not even started, and this Ding Li's men were already dead and clean.

Lin Mo reached out and took hold of Ding Li's pulse, although it was very weak, at least it was still beating.

The five bullet holes in his chest were all perfectly avoided in the vital parts, even the gunshot wound to the heart was blocked by the pure metal lighter he was carrying.

Ding Li's most serious problem at this point was that he had lost too much blood and his life was beginning to be in danger.

Only after Lin Mo stabbed silver needles into key acupuncture points on Ding Li's body was the bleeding from her body completely stopped.

Of course, the reason why Lin Mo saved her was to find out what had happened on the cruise ship, otherwise Lin Mo and the prince and his group would have become the super backstabbers.

"Crown Prince, let's leave first! No surprises, we should be lying down!"

With a sigh from Lin Mo the duo flew away.

Chapter 2709

When Lin Mo brought Ding Li to the Alfie, he immediately took out the bullets in the latter's body, threw in a blood-making pills, helped put on bandages, and called it a day!

After Lin Mo walked out of the room, the prince came up to the front with indignation.

"Big brother, what do you do with such trash? He's always thinking of paying us back, just let in die on the cruise ship once and for all."

Lin Mo twisted his head to look at Ding Li, who was still unconscious: "His life is not worth much, but he must live."

"Those of us who are the only living people at the scene, in theory, ours is the first suspect."

The prince looked stunned, "It wasn't us who moved either."

"Just because you think so means that others will think so too. As soon as word gets out, we will be accused of the murder."

"f*ck, then we'll be taking the blame for nothing, I'll be f*cking sick."

"That's why I'm keeping Ding Li alive, as the only survivor of this murder, he's the best witness.

And I also want to know what really happened on the Yung Lee."

The Prince sighed helplessly after hearing this, and that was all he could do.

Soon, Lin Mo and his group returned to the Wo Shan Pier once again.

Seeing that it was getting late, Lin Mo let the Prince's men leave two of them behind to carry Ding Li, while the others left to rest.

In the early morning hours, the quiet streets were empty, and beyond the sound of a few people's footsteps, all that remained was the Prince's grumbling.

"We're kind of running lonely at this point, and we've caused a lot of trouble for nothing!"

The prince glanced at Ding Li behind him, his face full of disgust, and just as he turned back he suddenly loaded up on Lin Mo's back.

"Why did you suddenly stop, big brother?"

Lin Mo didn't turn back, just turned his palm into a sword finger to warn of the danger.

Seeing this, the prince's face changed and he suppressed his footsteps, slowly retreating backwards, as for the men behind him, they also approached together against the alleyway beside them at the prince's gesture.

Only after they had hidden in a safe area did Lin Mo speak.

"Covered rats, come out and die if you dare!"

The enemies in ambush understood that they had been exposed, so without any nonsense, bullets became the most direct way to answer Lin Mo.

The moment the bullets were fired, he kicked open the door of a shop.

As soon as Lin Mo ducked into the shop, a round ball-shaped black shadow was thrown at him with great precision not far away.

"Gra*s! A rainstorm of pearly needles!"

Even if Lin Mo was calm and steady at this moment, he could not help but burst out a foul mouth, this kind of murderous concealed weapon was extremely rare, not only was it sold through rare channels, but it was also expensive and frightening.

In a single day, he had come across two of them!

Lin Mo saw that there was nowhere to dodge, so he simply pulled out his Tai Ah, and in an instant, the poison needles rained down on the sword blade, creating dazzling sparks, and the poison needles that flew out directly into the wall, showing their strong killing power.

The clanging sound lasted for two or three seconds, and then suddenly silence reigned.

In the dark outside the shop, the fully veiled leader waved his hand and was about to collect the bodies when the men beside him suddenly died violently, one after the other.

"Watch out, there's a sneak attack!"

After the leader alerted his men, he immediately drew the large sword at his back.

Ding! The clash of blades instantly rubbed out dazzling sparks.

Lin Mo saw that he had failed to land a single blow, so he once again bulled his way forward. To his surprise, the masked a*sa*sin in front of him was not low in strength, and in the face of his continuous sword strokes, his opponent's defence was watertight.

With one attack and one defence, sparks flew in the dark alleyway.

"The ma*sacre on the Rongli, was it caused by you?"

Lin Mo took advantage of the gap between the two sides to stop fighting to ask.

Chapter 2710

Inside the dark alleyway, the silence was terrifying, with only the sound of light breathing slowly floating in the air.

After a long time, the other party slowly spoke, a hint of teasing in his hoarse voice.

“Yes, so what, so what if it’s not?”

Lin Mo knew that the other party was stalling for time, except that he had lost his head start at the moment because of his mistake.

At first Lin Nong thought of the strategy of capturing the thief first to take down the leader of the group of killers directly, only to his surprise this person’s strength was not much different from his, just at the stage of the exchange, the corpses of the enemies Lin Mo had killed with the Xuan Needle had been retrieved by all of the other party’s men, and except for the leader in front of him, the others had all withdrawn.

Carelessness!

Lin Mo secretly sighed, one blow did not succeed in retreating a thousand miles away, this is the true killer’s code of conduct.

In that case, he could only leave the man in front of him behind.

As Lin Mo thought this, the spiritual energy in his body began to gather rapidly, and his sword qi condensed into his palm, and as he raised his hand and waved it, the invisible sword qi flew with a terrifying killing opportunity.

The leader’s face changed in shock, he didn’t expect this kid to have such a horrific killing move, but he couldn’t think much about it, he immediately activated his life saving card.

With the ear-splitting sound of impact, a human figure flew backwards and after a graceful parabola in the air, it fell heavily to the ground and rolled several times before stopping.

After Lin Mo’s previous mistake, he didn’t dare to let his guard down and followed him the moment he was knocked away.

Naive was finally finished one step.

Lin Mo was just about to swing his sword when several concealed weapons were hurled head-on, exploding directly in front of his body above.

Clang! Clang! Bang!

There was a continuous burst of smoke that swept around the area, and the already dark alleyway was now even darker.

The sudden gust of wind directly blew away the smoke, but there was no figure in front of him, only a streak of blood on the ground and a broken blade!

“You’re a rat, you escaped so quickly!”

Lin Mo shook his head before giving up the chase, on the one hand, he was worried that the other party would move the tiger away from the mountain and jeopardise the safety of the Prince’s side, on the other hand, he had just been caught off guard by the rainstorm pearly blossom needle and had not completely dodged it, his left arm and leg were still hit.

When he withdrew his sword, the murderous aura around him also dissipated, and as he bent down to pick up the remnants of his broken sword, the sound of a car roaring rapidly came from not far away.

“Boss, Brother Prince, we’re here!”

Fei dropped out of the car and dashed forward, carrying his rifle; these men were naturally the Prince’s shaking in support.

“You guys protect Ding Li, the others follow me to support big brother!”

Although the Crown Prince looked at Ding Li with extreme displeasure, after Lin Mo’s explanation, he understood the importance of this bd, otherwise he would have rushed up and fought alongside Lin Mo when the firefight just took place.

However, the prince hadn’t even taken a few steps to lead his men when Lin Mo’s voice came out from within the dark alleyway.

“There’s no need, they’ve already run away!”

“This is the only evidence left by the other side, save it to come!”

The prince took the broken knife, but after observing it for a while, he couldn’t see anything, so he simply handed it to Ah Fei.

What a piece of crap, it’s so heavy!

“Brother, who are these people? How dare they come to ambush us.”

The Kong family’s thousands of killers were slaughtered by them one after another, but they didn’t expect there to be this one who wasn’t afraid of death.

“They are the ones who created the tragic situation of the Rongli.”

From the exchange of blows just now, Lin Mo could see the equipment of these people, which was similar to the traces left on the Rongli, and the main thing was the Tyrannical Rain and Pearly Blossom Needle was the perfect proof.
