

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3123

Novel Chapter 3123 -Miss Yoder showed a generous and charming smile: "Yes! This is the job your brother entrusted to me, and I must do it well!"

Hazel couldn't believe it: "My brother told you to do this?"

Miss Yoder patted Hazel's shoulder and said with a smile, "Yes! Otherwise, do you think I fell in love with Lucas? Hazel, he is not my type! I prefer your brother's type of man."

Hazel blushed: "Lucas and my elder brother should be the same type of man, right?"

At least Hazel thought they were quite alike.

The first impression of both of them was of the iceberg and cold type.

Miss Yoder waved her hand and said, "Of course they are different! Your elder brother is successful, steady, smart, and wise; how can Lucas compare with your elder brother?"

Hazel frowned when she heard this: "Miss Yoder, my eldest brother is getting married, so don't fall in love with my brother!"

Miss Yoder covered her mouth and smiled: "I know your elder brother is getting married, we only dare to think about your elder brother's kind of person, and we don't dare to approach him at all, okay?"

Hazel then laughed: "In fact, Lucas is also very good. He just graduated, and his life has just begun. I believe he will not be too bad in the future."

Miss Yoder shook her head and said, "He is far behind your brother. Hazel, your eldest brother is a genius, a child prodigy. Your eldest brother didn't start his business after graduating from university. When your eldest brother graduated from university, He had been famous for a long time. Lucas can't even compare him to a finger. Of course, Lucas will definitely not be too bad in the future. After all, he has won your heart, and your family will definitely help him."

Hazel: "Miss Yoder, you must never say such things outside. I don't want my family to come to him at all. I believe that even without the help of my family, he will be a very powerful person."

Seeing Hazel's serious face, Miss Yoder immediately touched her little face and said, "Hazel, don't fall in love with your brain! Do you know what you mean to a man?"

Hazel shook her head.

Miss Yoder: "In the eyes of men, you are a big piece of fat! Everyone wants to swallow it! Including Lucas. You will definitely feel that there must be true love in this world, and there must be good men... There are indeed, but the proportion is very, very small. You are young now, and you have no ability to distinguish between a good man and a bad man. So let me help you test him!"

Hazel: "Do I have the right to say no?"

Miss Yoder: "You have to tell your elder brother."

Hazel: "Forget it."

Miss Yoder: "Don't worry, I won't do anything to him. Once he fails, I will immediately stop testing him."

Hazel: "If you fail, will you tell my brother?"

Miss Yoder: "Of course, if he fails the examination, you will have to go back to Aryadelle, and you will not be able to associate with him in the future."

Hazel: "All right! I believe that the elder brother did this to protect me. If Lucas can't pass this assessment, I will give up."

Miss Yoder: "Well, then I'll go to the hotel first."

Hazel: "Hey, do you really want to have lunch with Lucas at noon?"

Miss Yoder: "Do you want to go together?"

Hazel: "Can I be together?"

Miss Yoder: "Of course not. With you here, how can I test him? Hazel, don't worry!"

Hazel: "I can't worry... You tell me your number, and we will keep in touch at any time. If there is any situation, you must tell me. At least tell me first, I know, you can tell my brother."

Miss Yoder showed a smile and said, "It seems that you have no confidence in Lucas!"
