

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2353

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2353-David was just about to step out of the secret room when he spotted a notification on his communication device.

On opening it, a light curtain appeared in front of his eyes.

The figure inside had a delicate pretty face and two pointed ears.

It was Elven Princess Evie.

When they parted in The Spirit Cage, the two parties exchanged contact information.

It was a message from a few days ago.

“Master David, are you still in The Spirit Cage? If you come back, please come to our clan as a guest. In ten years, we will hold a sacrificial ceremony that is only held once in a hundred years. This is the biggest gathering of the Elves and everyone is invited to join as distinguished guests of the clan. Now, as the Elven Princess, I am formally inviting you to join us. I hope you will not refuse.

“I have already sent you the location of the Elven Forest. If you come, just report your name directly and there will be people showing you the way. Master David, this is the first time I have invited an outsider to participate in the sacrificial ceremony of the Elves, so you must come!”

After Evie finished speaking, her face disappeared.

This was teleported from Leila across an infinite distance. If David did not have the system, he would not be able to accept the invitation at all.

Moreover, Star Kingdom’s communication device could not receive the signal from Leila as the two parties were not on the same frequency.

David also connected the system to Leila’s network and modified the communication device to receive Leila’s signal.

After seeing that message, David knew Elven Princess Evie was the one who sent him the message to invite him to participate in the once-in-a-century sacrificial ceremony of the Elves.

Fearing that David could not find the location of her clan, she also sent the specific location of the Elven Forest.

After he turned off the communication device, David decided to forget it.

He was still in Star Kingdom and it was so far away from Leila.

It would take a Deity a year to reach, but for David, the location Evie sent was still helpful.

At least, it gave him an accurate direction and he would not go in the wrong direction when he needed to go to Leila in the future.

If he went in the wrong direction, he would stray further and further away.

As long as the direction was correct, the distance was not a problem.

As for whether he would participate in the ceremony in ten years, he would only think about it then.

David did not dare to make any promises as his plans were always changing.

It would be so embarrassing if he promised Evie but stood her up in the end.

Walking out of the secret room, David first checked to see if any major events had happened in Star Kingdom.

Judging from the time, the next batch of people from the Feather family should be here soon after Blue's death.

During this period, he had to come back frequently to check so he could avoid what happened last time.

If the Feather family sent a bloodthirsty person, Star Kingdom would have lost countless lives by the time he came back.

David was already an Overlord, so it would be too embarrassing if he was taken advantage of by a Deity.

David went to ask about the situation in Star Kingdom from Nova. Later, he went to chat with Celia and the others. After spending about a day in Star Kingdom, David returned to the secret room for his seclusion, turned on the system, and chose to enter The Spirit Cage.

He reappeared in the forest west of Wier.

After he shook his body, David disappeared in a flash.

When he reappeared, he had already arrived in the courtyard where he lived.

After standing there for a while, David frowned.

Normally, that girl Pebbles would already have pounced into his arms.

However, she did not show up this time.

How unusual!

This was very abnormal!

Since they were about to leave, Beanie was dealing with trivial matters and dismissed all the subordinates who were not needed.

Thus, David went to the roof where Pebbles would often sit to look up at the sky.

However, she was nowhere to be seen.

Then, David went to the room but Pebbles was also not there.

'Something is wrong!'

At this moment, David panicked.

He did hope that Pebbles would remember where her home was so he could send her back.

However, he wanted to send the girl home safely and reunite her with her family. He did not want her to disappear all of a sudden like this.

After he searched the room, he found something on the table.