

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3667

Those words thoroughly ignited the black-cloaked man's anger.

Earlier he had just quarreled with those other two and felt like he had lost the argument. He was filled with frustration, so the moment Chyntia said that he exploded.

He clenched his teeth and walked forward, "Brat, do you want to die?! How dare you talk to me like that? I can't kill them because they're my teammates, but I am not afraid of killing you!"

Lydia scoffed as he pulled Chyntia behind him.

He faced the black-robed man and looked at the man coldly, "Do you think all the warriors from third-grade worlds aren't skilled? Do you think you're that amazing?"

Lydia's tone was very cold.

The black-cloaked man narrowed his eyes and looked Lydia over.

He scoffed and said, "Don't tell me you're talking like that because you're strong.

Don't try to boast to me.

Do you think you can scare me with your lies? I admit that there are some strong warriors from third-grade worlds, but trash still makes up most of the numbers. You're just a random person and you're claiming you're strong. Do you think I'm an idiot?"

Lydia looked at the black-cloaked man even more coldly.

His true energy circulated and he started to form seal after seal.

The black-cloaked man scoffed in disdain. He did not know where the person in front of him came from but thought that others would believe his bragging was such a joke.

The truly strong warriors from third-grade worlds had all already entered Violet City.

Those who were strong were always greedy. They were worried that others would get the valuables before them.

At that moment, those who were still trying to get into Violet City were above average in skill at most.

Those who were above average would never brag like that.

It was obvious that the person in front of him was just making empty claims, shouting out and trying to scare him. He would never fall for that.

The black-cloaked man laughed at the thought, “You’re trying to form seals? I guess you have to put on the full show. Don’t you think you’re being a complete joke?”

This guy really was good at acting. Did he think that a few seals would scare anyone?

The black-cloaked man continued, “Don’t think that I’ll believe you just because you’re good at acting. I can easily expose this trick of yours!”

After he said that, he started to form seals as well. Countless seals were dancing in the air, immediately forming a trident. He pushed forward, and the trident shot out.

Lydia raised an eyebrow as he pushed forward as well.

The Broken Soul Blade clashed against the trident, and a clear sound was heard.

The trident did not even last for a second before it shattered into pieces.

The Broken Soul Blade then shot right at the man. It suddenly changed shapes in the air, turning into five chains of energy, capturing the man's arms and neck.

The man suddenly felt a cold energy around his body.

The cold energy even caused his soul to tremble. As long as he moved slightly, he would feel his skin touch the chains.

The chains would affect his soul through his skin and the pain made him lose his rationality!
