

SWEET BEAUTY

Chapter 7 - The More She Was Like This, The More He Was Interested In Her

Just as she finished speaking, that hand grabbed the necklace on her chest.

Liang Zixuan sighed in relief. Like she said, how could Han Yuanjun fall for her?

Han Yuanjun glanced at her and speak softly, "This necklace can be given to me as a thank-you gift."

Liang Zixuan had already calmed down. She looked down at the blue gemstone necklace in his hand and shook her head, "I can't do that."

Han Yuanjun frowned, "Why?"

"Because this is the only relic my mother left to me, and it is even more precious than my life. I'm sorry, I cannot give it to you."

She sighed and looked at Han Yuanjun sincerely, "Other than this; I can give you anything else you want."

In any case, she knew that Han Yuanjun didn't like her. So there was nothing wrong in saying this.

Although Han Yuanjun felt a little regretful, he didn't force her into a corner.

He raised his head and looked at Liang Zixuan with a burning gaze. His lips curled up into a meaningful smile as he asked, "Really? Anything I want?"

Liang Zixuan nodded. "Right. My words are more precious than this necklace."

"Alright!" After a short sentence, Han Yuanjun suddenly leaned over and kissed her lips.

Liang Zixuan's eyes widened in shock, and she immediately pushed him away.

She really couldn't believe that Han Yuanjun would kiss her!

How was this possible?

Forget about the status of Han Group Media in the Entertainment Circle or how awesome the Han Family was in the Business Circle, just based on the face of the man in front of her; he could have any woman he wants easily.

Besides, she had never heard of Han Yuanjun having a girlfriend.

Not even a single woman was seen by his side.

He was not a casual person.

But he kissed her?

Liang Zixuan felt that all of her views had been turned upside down at this moment.

Han Yuanjun didn't seem to want to do anything more excessive to her. He raised his hand to touch his lips and smiled in satisfaction, "This is just a lesson I'm going to teach you. I'll show you what will happen if you look down on yourself again!"

Liang Zixuan pursed her lips, not knowing what to say.

How was she supposed to respond to such a dialogue?

Oh, he punished her because she looked down on herself?

Hehe ... Then give her a stack of such punishments!

Liang Zixuan snorted with a fake smile. "Then I'll have to thank you."

In everyone's eyes, she was the one who had the advantage in such matters. Liang Zixuan felt very depressed in her heart.

Han Yuanjun replied shamelessly, "No need to thank me."

Liang Zixuan retorted, "Young Master Han, it's getting late. I'm a patient and I need sufficient rest to recover quickly. I think it's time for you to leave."

This woman chased him away?

Han Yuanjun smiled. The more she behave like this, the more interested he was in her.

However, Han Yuanjun was a true gentleman and wouldn't do anything to the patients in the ward.

When he walked out of the ward, Yao Xiu was still waiting outside. When Han Yuanjun came out, Yao Xiu quickly retracted his expression like he had seen a ghost and respectfully stood at the side, "President Han."

Han Yuanjun turned around to look at the woman in the ward and said to him, "Have Deng Hui and Dai Tian to stay here. Apart from the doctors and nurses, no one is allowed to disturb her."

"Huh?" Yao Xiu's eyes widened. Just now, when Han Yuanjun was inside, he saw everything, including the kissing scene. He was so shocked that he almost became dumb. After all, Han Yuanjun had never done anything to any woman before.

Not only had he done something to the patient, but he had become a good person and wanted to protect her too?

Heavens!

Was the sun rising from the west?
