The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 931

Chapter 931

Wayne happened to get home right at dinner time

As soon as he waked in.

he heard Rosalynn on the phone and from her tone he could tell she was pissed off

“She brought a bunch of gangsters with her?”

Go find all the evidence of illegal activity over there if they don't wanna behave, let's screw them all over

After she said that she happened to meet Wayne's eyes

Rosalynn hestated for a moment, then said to the person on the other end of the phone.

“You do some digging first just don't

After that, Rosalynn hung up the phone

“What are you doing home so early?” she asked

“Dinner” Wayne answered Whats going on?”

At the end of the day, it was still about Paige

Rosalynn thought about it and shook her head rtably. Dinner's almost ready, go wash y our hands, and I'll call the kids downst

With that, she headed upstars

Wayne stood there

A sense of defeat from not being trusted wrapped tightly around him

He felt a little angry a little hurt, but mostly helpless

He had recently joined Twitter and saw a lot of people bashing him online and he agreed with

For example He brought it all on himself

Yeah, it was him who brought it on himself and not cherish what he had in the past

He deserved not to be trusted now!

“Wayne

Just then Rosalynn’s cry of alarm came from upstairs

Wayne immediately shook off his gloom and instinctively (

Rosalynn went upstairs and called Cory first

As soon as Cory sat up.

his nose started bleeding

When Wayne got upstairs. Rosalynn’s clothes, hands, and Cory’s face PETE 111 okay Wellgo to the hospitalright away everything will be fine?

Wayne went over, comforting Rosalynn while picking up Cory and heading out

He had just returned, and the driver hadn’t left yet and in blood

After Rosalynn and Wayne got in the car with their child they headed straight for the hospital

Cory’s nosebleed had slowed down a bit

With red, teary eyes, Rosalynn tried her best not to cry gently gazing at Cory in Wayne's arms. Ton dont be afraid we'l it the doctor be fine

Cory nodded. "Mom, I'm not scared"

He had already looked up everything about his condition

His current situation was well within his understanding

He really wasn't scared

"Okay," Rosalynn forced a smile and nodded firmly

Soon, the car arrived at the hospital

Rosalynn had already contacted the attending physician who quickly stopped Cory's bleeding but Cory was kept at the hospital for observation

"This kind of situation happens from time to time and parents shouldn't blame themselves too much. After at its condition is relatively good so don't worry too much

Thank you"Rosalynn nodded

The attending physician comforted them a bit more before leaving

There weren't many people in the VIP ward to begin with a big hand grabbed her wrist and pulled her over

Suddenly

Rosalynn looked over, bewildered

Wayne was holding a wet wipe wiping the blood off her hands

1 shouldn't have in Cory stay in front of the computer all morning, he got red' Rosalynn sard, choking back tears

Chapter 932

Wayne frowned at her. The doctor just said, this kind of thing can't be prevented. It's not your fault, so don't beat yourself up for no reason."

Rosalynn's eyes lowered, and her tense emotions gradually crumbled

The thought of Cory's unstoppable bleeding sent chills down her spine.

It's okay now"

Seeing this, Wayne gently pulled her into his embrace, patting her back.

Rosalynn didn't push him away

Seeing Cory's nosebleed, she was instinctively overwhelmed by fear and called out for Wayne.

At this moment, she didn't want to pretend that nothing was wrong

She sobbed softly in Wayne's arms

After a while, Paige's voice came from the elevator

Only then did Rosalynn regain her senses, took a deep breath, and left Wayne's arms.

As she turned around, she saw Paige holding Ivy

The little girl's nose was red from crying

"Oh God "Rosalynn felt incredibly guilty. She had completely forgotten about Ivy while focusing on Cory

"Mommy

Ivy wriggled free from Paige's arms and ran towards Rosalynn.

"Baby, I'm so sorry Mommy forgot to call you just now" Rosalynn's eyes were red as she hugged Ivy and apologized

Ivy touched her face. "Did brother bleed? There was so much blood in the room!"

"It's okay, it's okay" Rosalynn gently comforted Ivy, "Brother is fine now, just resting. Ivy, don't be scared, okay?"

Ivy nodded softly and wiped away Rosalynn's tears.

Paige was originally driving around the neighborhood.

When she received Ivy's call, she heard Ivy crying, saying something about her brother bleeding

She rushed back, tried calling Rosalynn but got no answer, so she called Wayne to find out that Cory was taken to the hospital.

With Wayne's permission, Paige brought by over

Rosalynn's clothes were stained with blood, so Paige brought her some clean clothes after seeing the situation.

While she changed, Wayne took Ivy to see Cory

by lay beside her brother, not saying a word, silently crying

It was said that twins had a magical connection

Could they also be more sensitive to each other's pain?

Wayne's heart ached

"Baby, are you hungry? Daddy will buy you something delicious, okay? Wayne bent down, gently stroked Ivy's head, and asked softly. What do you want to eat?"

Ivy shook her head while still crying

She remained silent, and Wayne's heart ached even more.

Paige comforted him, "Just wait for her to calm down. When she feels hungry, she'll eat"

"Has this happened before?" Wayne asked.

Paige nodded, "When they were younger, if Cory got sick, Ivy would stick by him, and would not go play with her animal friends. If Cory ate, she would eat if Cory couldn't eat, she wouldn't eat either'

Wayne's eyes reddened

Rosalynn came back after changing

I've ordered dinner. It should be here soon," Paige said, checking the time. "You two should eat something too"

The dinner tasted great, b ut Rosalynn and Wayne were listless

They both knew that such incidents might happen frequently in the future

Moreover, if not cautious, this situation could lead to other serious illnesses

I'm going out to make a call," Wayne said, putting down his chopsticks and leaving the room

Paige looked at the direction he left and was about to say something Rosalynn asked. Do you think Wayne and I have a chance to have another child?"

Chapter 933

Paige was dumbfounded

Then, she instinctively denied it. "Kids ain't something you can just decide to have you know? Plus, you have a hard time getting pregnant in the first place. Last time with Cory and try, was a close call! No way!"

What am I supposed to do for Cory? Rosalynn looked at Paige, her bloodshot eyes filled with tears of fear. "I've tried everything, but I can't find a suitable bone marrow donor. How long am I supposed to wait like this?"

Babe

Paige got up, walked over to Rosalynn, and gently hugged her

"71% only been a month. It's normal for bone marrow matching to be difficult. Don't stress yourself out."

"Why can't my baby use my bone marrow? I'm her mom!" Rosalynn was really upset

All these years.

she had always thought that it was her own emotional instability during pregnancy and the life and death experience that led to Cory's poor health. Now

Cory's life was hanging by a thread

Her guilt and remorse reached an all-time high

Page was also having a terrible day

“Are we good people? We’ve helped so many people every year without ever expecting anything in return. But... why does it not only give us nothing in return, but also make things worse for us?

As Paige spoke

she couldn’t help but cry while holding Rosalynn

Outside

“Have you confirmed his identity?” Wayne asked solemnly

Yeah, we did a DNA comparison, and I just sent it to you,” the other person replied. That man is indeed your brother from the same mother.”

“Bring him here, Wayne said

There was a pause on the other end President Silverman, I must remind you that this man is a notorious thug and scoundrel in their area. If he finds out he has a brother like you, it would be quite a hassle for you”

“All I want now is to keep my son alive!” Wayne lowered his voice “I can’t worry about anything else”

“Understood take him for a match first. If it’s successful, find a suitable reason to minimize any trouble for you”

“You handle that I just need it done fast Wayne said gravely “After it’s done. I’ll give you whatever you want.”

“Serving you is our duty and responsibility”

“Hurry up Wayne urged

After hanging up the phone, Wayne let out a long breath

After the initial tries of matching failed,

Wayne remembered his biological mother

It took him some effort to find her

She was a professor at school and had worked as Natale's assistant for five years. She left Natale before he was born to study abroad.

Fifteen years ago, she married a teacher at the school and had three children after she got married.

But bad news followed

Three years ago, the family of five went on vacation to an island and encountered a tsunami, with none surviving

The news

left Wayne dumbfounded

He had just seen a glimmer of hope, only for it to be shattered immediately

However, when investigating Wayne's biological mother's family, there was a new discovery

She was born in a small coastal town in the south

The local culture heavily favored boys over girls, and although her academic performance was excellent, she was married off to a single man over a decade older than her at the age of 15 for a dowry of 4,000 dollars

Two years later she gave birth to a boy and ran away soon after

She fled to City and b ecause of her good looks and nice figure she started working at a club

Later by chance, she saved Natalie's life when the was visiting the club for business, and was taken away by her

This time. Wayne's people easily located the son she abandoned

However, since he was the only child in the family, his father was a scoundrel and he was spoiled by his grandparents, the boy had a terrible reputation

Locals would shake their heads at the mention of his name

But Wayne had no other choice

After hanging up he walked to the door of the hospital room

Chapter 934

Wayne could vaguely hear crying from inside

His hand hesitated at the door for a moment and then it seemed like he thought of something

He sent a message to Rosalynn, saying he had to leave for a bit

And then he rushed out of the hospital

It was a while before Rosalynn saw Wayne's message

"Bastard, what's more important than your wife and kid?" Paige grumbled

After having a good cry in her friend's arms, the heavy weight on her heart seemed to have lightened quite a bit

Rosalynn scoffed and replied to the message.

Then she put down her phone, tidied up Paige's messy hair, and said, "You cried so sadly, huh? If I didn't know any better, I'd think you were being bullied"

Paige hesitated

She wanted to tell Rosalynn about giving away her money.

But she was afraid of being scolded

She gritted her teeth and decided not to mention such a stupid thing

"No" Paige shook her head

Rosalynn felt a little helpless

"Remember to tell me if anything's up, don't keep it to yourself," Rosalynn patted her head, "We don't need so many people here, go home and rest"

11 stay with you a little longer

Paige clung to Rosalynn, snuggling up to her

After a while, Paige finally left the hospital

She had a lot of tedious things to do tomorrow, so she had to conserve her energy

Not long after Paige left.

Wayne came back

When he opened the door to the room, Rosalynn was in a daze

She snapped out of it and looked up at him, "You're back so soon?"

"I just went to buy something"

As Wayne spoke he placed the bag in his hand in front of Rosalynn, "Eat up."

Rosalynn looked puzzled, then opened the plastic bag revealing some delicious-looking cream puffs.

"Cream puffs" Wayne said gently, "Strawberry flavored"

Rosalynn looked at Wayne in shock, "You knew

When she was a child, she loved cream puffs

Later, when she worked with Wayne, she would cope with stress by finding a small stall and buying a box of strawberry cream puffs

The delicate cream and sweet fruit flavor would instantly lift her mood

However, these treats were fattening

Wayne didn't like her being fat and didn't allow her to eat them. It had been a long time since she had eaten any

"Eat" Wayne didn't explain

What could he say?

How could he explain that for the five years she was gone he had been recalling every moment they had together and learned her preferences from those memories

Rosalynn pursed her lips, then she picked one up and took a bite

Not the kind of taste Rosalynn liked. but she still ate several

Wayne Rosalynn decided to discuss with Wayne about having another child.

Whether she could get pregnant was one thing

At least they had to try

“Hmm” Wayne responded

Rosalynn looked at him and said. Let’s have another baby”

Chapter 935

Wayne was dumbfounded

“But, because I’m not easy to get pregnant we have to try both natural pregnancy and I VF,” Rosalynn continued

She had already thought it through in her head

“Hold on,” Wayne snapped back, frowning. Is it because of Cory?”

Yep Rosalynn nodded

Wayne was sent for a moment. Tve seen your birth report”

Rosalynn frowned subconsciously “Who gave it to you?”

Wayne didn’t answer but said sternly. You had massive bleeding during the delivery and almost had your uterus removed”

Wayne had checked

If Rosalynn experienced amniotic fluid embolism then, she would undoubtedly die

It was all thanks to Hidana’s weath

Otherwise

won’t let you have another baby.” Wayne said firmly

He had thought about having another child

But after seeing the report, Wayne completely gave up the idea

Right now, the most important thing is to save Cory!” Rosalynn tried to persuade Wayne . The last time I gave birth was an accident.”

Rosa, there’s no room for discussion on this Wayne’s attitude was stronger than ever

In fact, during this time,

Wayne had been very accommodating to Rosalynn

He hadn't used this attitude towards her for a long time.

Wayne, don't be so stubborn. Saving Cory is the most important thing now!" Rosalynn's attitude softened, trying to continue persuading Wayne, "You saw Cory's condition tonight. We can't just sit and wait

"I'll figure something out!"

"What can you think of? Everyone with a blood relationship has gone for a match!" Rosalynn's temper flared, "Can you stop being so stubborn?"

Wayne looked at her

He had originally planned not to tell Rosalynn about this

"I have an older brother," he said solemnly

Rosalynn was slightly stunned. "A brother?"

"He's my biological mother's child" Wayne replied calmly, "I originally planned to find her, but unfortunately she and her child died in a tsunami a few years ago. However, she has a son in our country, and I've already sent him for matching. The results should be out soon"

"You"

Rosalynn was completely shocked

Wayne had gone to find his biological mother

"So don't make any decisions yet. Let's wait until after this match, Wayne gently stroked her cheek. I've also asked the doctor, and I can donate a match in half a year. There are many ways, so let's choose one that doesn't hurt you, okay?"

Rosalynn looked at Wayne

Tears welled up in her eyes, and after a long while, she finally nodded.

Wayne gently hugged her "With me around, you don't have to be afraid of anything. No one can take you away from me."

Rosalynn didn't say anything

Biting her to tears silently rolled down her cheeks

Late at night.

Ivy didn't come out to eat

Rosalynn adjusted her mood and went in with Wayne to see their little girl curled up next to her brother, holding his hand tightly, her face stained with tear marks as she slept

Rosalynn found a small blanket and covered her

She also gently wiped away the tears from hy's eyes.

"You should go back and rest You have a meeting tomorrow" Rosalynn whispered to Wayne, T can handle things here, and you can't neglect the company anymore. There are rumors now that you don't want to continue

Wayne grumbled. If I could really wouldn't want to continue

Stop it 'Rosalynn glared at him

"It's the same for me to go to the company from here. Wayne's hand gently stroked Rosalynn's back, running down her spine. "If you let me go back, I won't be able to sleep"

Rosalynn didn't insist anymore

Chapter 936

The hospital bed was originally quite spacious

But after squeezing a family of four in it, it became crowded

The next day

Wayne woke up early

Seeking to avoid disturbing his wife and children, he cautiously attempted to sip away unnoticed However, his efforts were thwarted as Cory woke up

After a few bags of glucose. Cory's complexion improved significantly

Wayne simply carried him out

"How are you feeling?" Wayne asked

Cory nodded sight. Not too bad Are you going to the company?"

"Yep "Wayne seemed to have guessed what Cory would say and touched his cheek, Dad will tell them that Cory's not feeling well today, so he won't be coming" Thank you "Cory nodded

Wayne looked at him, "Cory, don't be afraid Dad will definitely love you"

I believe "Cory said seriously

Wayne was taken aback for a moment

Then he smiled, "Alright, Dad wont let you down!"

"Go ahead Work hard and don't let your sister think you're a bum, Cory joked with Wayne for a change.

Wayne laughed helplessly. "Cory, I know you're a good boy and don't want to worry everyone, but Dad still wants to make a deal with you."

"Go ahead"

Don't put up with any discomfort, even if it's just a little bit," Wayne said with a slightly serious tone, "If you're worried that Mommy will be scared, then come to Dad. If you feel even a little bit uncomfortable, just text Dad"

Cory looked at him

He beautiful eyes had lost their luster due to illness.

"Did you know? Yesterday, when Mommy saw me bleeding, she immediately called your name," Cory whispered

Wayne immediately nodded, "I know"

"I've always disliked you" Cory continued. "But at that moment, I suddenly felt like you weren't that annoying anymore."

Cory thought "because you're someone Mommy can rely on So you're not that annoying anymore"

"I will do even better." Wayne promised seriously

"Alright" Cory nodded, his eyes slightly red

A faint light appeared on the horizon

Father and son had their first heartfelt conversation in this lifetime

It was like completing a long overdue ritual

The barrier between them disappeared in the early morning

Cory only stayed at the hospital for one day

He went home in the evening

In the following days

In accordance with the arrangement made with Rosalynn, Wayne escorted Cory and Ivy to the company each day, ensuring that Cory's education remained uninterrupted.

However, Jaime became the worried uncle

He strictly controlled Cory's time in front of the computer

When Rosalynn's studio wasn't busy, she would go to Bane Corporation for lunch

Time flew by

On the sixth day after Cory was discharged from the hospital Rosalynn left FreshBite and headed to Bane Corporation

"Alyssa Brandon is amazing!
I really admire her" Lola couldn't stop praising Alyssa after witnessing her abilities

Rosalynn smiled

Then, Rosalynn saw a man standing not far away, looking at her

When Rosalynn looked at him, the man suddenly smiled at her

Rosalynn inexplicably felt a chill down her spine

Chapter 937

Gabriella, is that the guy you know?" Lola also noticed the man, but the smile on his face made her feel uncomfortable, so she quietly asked Rosalynn

Rosalynn shook her head and said, "I don't know him"

After saying that she got in the car

The man stood there without moving

As the Bentley Rosalynn was in drove past him, his eyes still greedily stared at the car window

Luis

After the Bentley was gone, a chubby man with a cunning and worldly look on his face walked over from a short distance away

Kid, do you know what a top notch rich family is? The man licked his yellow teeth with his tongue and laughed, making people feel uncomfortable.

The chubby man shook his head

We could never earn that much money to buy the Car that just passed by in our lifetime. The man said, his eyes gradually darkening. "Life is so unfair. Two brothers, one living like this with such a beautiful wife, the other living like a ghost, and my wife."

Speaking of his wife disgust immediately surged in the man's eyes

How could a woman from a fishing village be compared to the woman just now?

Tua, let's go back. Didn't your boss tell you not to run around?" The chubby man cautiously said.

That boss was very generous

He was merely accompanying Luis on the trip to H City, and the boss rewarded him with a salary of 10,000 dollars

What kind of shitty boss is he?" Luis sneered

If it wasn't for his craving for a drink last night, sneaking out to find some booze

He wouldn't even know that the top tycoon who always appeared in the news was his own brother.

A week ago

A few people found him at his poker place

At that time he was having bad luck, losing a few thousand dollars. When the casino staff saw he couldn't pay up, they were about to get rough.

They paid off his debt for him

Luis could tell they were well-connected and tried to invite them to his home.

Those people obviously looked down on him.

They declined his invitation

Then they directly told him their purpose

"Mr Wall, one of our clients is sick. Your blood type matches his, so we'd like you to go to H City for a matching test. If it's successful, my client will pay you one million as a reward"

"One million?" Luis was dumbfounded

He had never seen that much money in his life.

“Of course, that’s just the reward if the match is successful, we’ll also pay for your nutrition expenses”

They immediately took out 200,000 dollars in cash to show their sincerity

Seeing this, Luis agreed without hesitation

When they arrived at the H City border, those people were very strict

They didn’t even let him smoke or drink

Until last night, he couldn’t take it anymore and snuck out

To his surprise, while engaged in conversation with a colleague, he unexpectedly encountered the man who had paid him

“Wayne’s brother, but look at his behavior, he’s nothing compared to Wayne.”

“Yeah, who’s kidding? But the key to President Silverman’s son’s life just happens to be with him”

“He was over the moon about the one million dollars if he knew about his brother and sister-in-law’s substantial assets, he’d go nuts, right?”

“We must never let this scoundrel know the truth. If the match isn’t successful as fine but if it is, who knows what trouble he’ll cause!”

Don’t worry only you and I know about this We’ll keep our mouths shut, where can he find out?*

At that time Luis was dumbfounded

His craving for alcohol disappeared, and he turned around and went back

He sat on the sofa for a while before taking out his shabby phone and searching for Wayne’s name

After reading the introduction on the Internet, Luis couldn’t sleep all night

Chapter 938

Nowadays, it’s the era of big data

After Luis searched for Wayne, the short video app started displaying all kinds of videos about Wayne to him

This included a lot of content about Wayne’s wife and children

As Luis perused the images and videos showcasing Wayne's opulent lifestyle circulating on the internet, the sight of grand castles, lavish mansions, luxury cars, and extravagant jewelry stirred a seething fury within him

The next morning

Luis saw someone saying that Wayne's wife was doing business in a building

He rushed over with his men immediately

After staking out for a day, he finally saw the legendary woman worth billions

These days.

Rosalynn's car always had some delicious candies

Ivy put candies for you again today! Lola picked one up.

The candy wrapper had obvious traces of being redrawn with a colored pencil.

Rosalynn smiled "She said, they're for you too."

Ever since that day when Cory suddenly had a nosebleed, Ivy was probably afraid that she would be sad or anxious

She would put some candies in her car every day

Lola unwrapped the candy, threw the candy into her mouth, and the flavor of the milk candy was particularly comforting.

Rosalynn also unwrapped one and put it in her mouth.

Then she continued talking about work with Lola.

As they chatted, the man who had just appeared in the parking lot flashed before her eyes again.

She always had a bad feeling about him

So she took out her phone, found Ableson's number, and called him

The call was quickly connected "Madam"

"How's Ivy and Cory today?" Rosalynn asked

The young master just came up from the information department, took some medicine and is resting, the young lady is studying Ableson answered many dangerous things have happened recently, you guys need to be more cautious,” Rosalynn reminded

Is there anything going on with the madam?” Ableson asked sharply

“No, just a little worried.”

Please rest assured, we will protect them.”

“Thank you”

After hanging up the phone

Lola thought for a moment and asked, is it the man in the parking lot that’s making you uncomfortable?”

Too many things have happened recently, making me very tense, Rosalynn rubbed her eyebrows

For FreshBite, most of the major issues have been resolved I’ll handle the rest myself, and only come to you if I really can’t handle it,” Lola said immediately

In at most another year or two, Rosalynn will have to take over the Jared Group.

By then, she indeed plans to hand over Jared to Lola

“Okay” Rosalynn agreed

The hot summer atmosphere is getting heavier

Rosalynn felt uneasy

Not only because of the man who smiled at her for no reason, but also the upcoming matching results.

Rosalynn first sent Lola back to the studio. As she was about to leave, she saw a tall skinny boy in flip-flops wandering outside the studio, near the wall that Wayne had crashed into before

Rosalynn was considering stopping to ask if he needed help

Nearby patrol police came over

As soon as the boy saw the police, he disappeared without a trace, without saying a word.

Chapter 939

Rosalynn felt a bit helpless

Why does she keep running into weirdos today?

She shook her head and went straight to Bane Corporation

To avoid unnecessary attention, Rosalynn now takes the CEO's exclusive elevator to Bane Corporation every day to avoid running into other employees. When she reached the floor with the conference room

As the elevator doors slid open, Rosalynn's gaze lifted to meet Wayne's. He had just concluded a meeting and now stood before her

A few people followed behind Wayne

All of them had dust-covered faces

At first, Wayne looked really unhappy

But the moment he saw

Rosalynn, his mood changed instantly, and he smiled brightly "Done with your stuff?"

"Yep

Rosalynn stepped in

Wayne followed in with the others and took the stuff from Rosalynn's hand

"115 pretty hot outside, huh?"

"Ab

"I figured you'd be here around this time, so I secretly ordered you some avocado yogurt. Go get it in the break room later, and make sure Ivy doesn't see it," Wayne whispered to Rosalynn as if no one else was around

The people who were supposed to be scolded in the CEO's office had their faces full of complicated expressions.

They wanted to laugh but didn't dare to, and their expressions were utterly shocked

Online rumors said that President Silverman had a controlling wife

They didn't believe t

Even if Mrs Silverman was the heress of the Jared Group, they still found the rumors ridiculous

Those who sad President Sverman was scared of his wife must have never seen him angry.

But at this moment

These people felt as if they were dreaming

The elevator reached the CEO's office

Rosalynn, too, found herself subject to Wayne's playful teasing, an experience that made her wish for the ground to open up and swallow her whole.

The elevator arrived quickly

"You guys go first Wayne turned his face and looked at the employees with a fierce expression again.

They quickly complied and hurried to Wayne's office

"Are you performing some kind of face-changing act?" Rosalynn was speechless. You scared them."

They've been messing around with some small issues for days and still made mistakes Why do I show them mercy?" Wayne said discontentedly

They stepped out of the elevator and walked straight to Rosalynn's old office

Yes, that office is now reopened and used by Ivy and Cory

"Next time I'm in the elevator, dont come in "Rosalynn continued, "Otherwise, your employees will spread rumors about President Silverman having a split personality"

Wayne didnt care That's not acceptable. It's better for them to say I have a split personality than to say our relationship is falling apart

Rosalynn helplessly laughed

In the secretary's room

by was taking a class

The teacher who had previously been tormented by Try now absolutely adored her.

Try is doing great Her recent progress is simply amazing She definitely fit in with her new classmates when school starts.”

Rosalynn walked in, hearing the teacher’s praise.

hey had this kind of magic

Even individuals as strong and towering as Calvin, Mike, and Ableson would display a remarkably gentle demeanor when engaging in conversations with young children

“Its all thanks to the teacher” The ittle gel humbly said

After saying that, she saw Rosalynn standing at the door, smiling at her.

She quickly said goodbye to the teacher

After hanging up the video, she immediately ran to Rosalynn

Chapter 940

Every time by was away from her mom, no matter for how long, she always rushed into her mom’s arms for a sweet and heartfelt hug when they met again.

Rosalynn was always happy to oblige

She picked Ivy up and held her close, 1 heard your teacher praised you” “Yeah” by was thrilled. Now everyone can stop worrying about me being literate!

Rosalynn and Wayne both couldn’t help but laugh

Ever since the day Wayne got injured, hvy had not called him “Daddy“agan

However it’s obvious that the father daughter relationship is super close

A couple of days ago by heard from someone that the ice cream at the Bane Corporation restaurant was to die for

She was drooling just thinking about it

She mentioned it casually to Wayne

Wayne personally went to the cafeteria and bought try a cup

Ivy doesn't like to drink water

During Wayne's meetings, he would make calls to the president's office, specifically reaching out to Emily and others, to ensure that the young one is reminded to stay hydrated and drink water

The story of President Silverman's love for his daughter has spread throughout the company, becoming a well known tale

Despite this, every night before going to bed, Ivy still cuddled up to Rosalynn's neck kissing and nuzzling her cheek.

She told Rosalynn that she was the person Ivy loved the most

Try Rosalynn suddenly had an idea, remembering Wayne's stern face towards his subordinates, "Do you want to go to work with Daddy?"

Ivy's eyes sparkled

She's always well-behaved and never disturbed Wayne when he's working.

But she's also curious

"Can I?" she looked at Wayne.

How could Wayne refuse his little sweetheart? "Of course, you can!"

"Then I want to go

Without any hesitation, Rosalynn handed Ivy over to Wayne, smiling gently, "Don't be too fierce later, or you'll scare Ivy and you'll be in trouble"

Wayne, holding Ivy in one arm, leaned in and whispered to Rosalynn, "You're doing this on purpose!"

Rosalynn pretended not to hear

She turned and headed for the break room, a smile on her face

"Are you scary when you work?" Ivy asked

Wayne hurriedly denied it, "How could I be? I am so nice."

Rosalynn listened to Wayne's nonsense as she entered the break room

Cory was already awake

He's sitting cross legged on a lounge chair, sunbathing

Mom

As soon as someone entered, Cory called out without even opening his eyes.

"You knew it was me without even looking?" Rosalynn asked with a smile

Cory glanced back at Rosalynn and patted the spot beside him, extending an invitation for her to join him in sunbathing. Rosalynn accepted the offer and sat down next to him.

Although she's been coming here a lot recently, she usually just had a meal and left

This was her first time in this break room used to love sunbathing here too. Rosalynn said wistfully

Cory nodded, "How's work going? Everything going smoothly?"

"Very smoothly. I will have a lot more time to spend with you and your sister soon," Rosalynn beamed at him, "Is there anywhere you want to go, Cory?"

"The godmother going to meet godfather's parents? Cory spoke slowly, "She's so nervous, why don't we go with her?"

"Are you worried that godmother will be bullied?" Rosalynn happily stroked Cory's head

Cory thought for a moment, "Godfather's family is very prominent. I've heard that families like the H Country's have many rules and care a lot about social status"

"So, our Cory wants to back up godmother, right?" Rosalynn asked with a smile

"Yep" Cory nodded seriously, then asked. "So, are we going?"
