Married at First Sight Chapter 2350-Serenity smiled, "That's the special situation of Young Master Bucham, not everyone can handle it."

"Young Master Bucham's destined girl has been found." Elisa was gossipy.

"I know. A few days ago, Young Master Bucham told my family that he wanted to take Ms. Caron to our house to play, and Zachary agreed to him. Grandma said that Ms. Caron is a representative of both civil and military skills. She also said that only a girl like Ms. Caron can firmly sit on the position of the young mistress of the Bucham family.

Grandma also said that Ms. Caron's boxing skills are very good, and that even Zachary is no match for her. She has been practicing martial arts since she was a child, and she comes from a family of martial arts. Zachary is just half-baked. How can he compare?

I'm half-baked too."

Elisa smiled, "Zachary's face will turn green when he hears you say that about him. He has always been very confident and proud. He always thinks that he is the best man in the world. If you say that his boxing skills are half-baked, he will definitely not accept it."

Serenity: "If he doesn't accept it, he will go and challenge Ms. Caron. Ms. Caron will take care of him and beat him into submission."

Elisa: "...Seren, why do I think you really want Zachary to challenge Ms. Caron? If you weren't pregnant, would you like to challenge?"

Serenity: "Nothing."

Serenity didn't admit it. She said, "I'm self-aware. With my martial arts, it's easy to deal with those little bastards. I have to take surprises to win. If I face head-to-head, I can't win."

When she encountered thugs besieging her, she always took the initiative and caught them by surprise in order to beat them to pieces.

Otherwise, she would lose to the opponent's number.

“Elisa, do you and Remy plan to get engaged or married?” Serenity’s topic returned to Remy and Elisa.

This was one of the people she cared about the most.

Elisa: “We plan to get engaged first. Auntie said that after attending your wedding, they will choose a good day to come and make an appointment, and then we will get engaged. The wedding day will also be chosen together, and they will send it over for us to have a look.”

Serenity hummed, “You can get engaged first, and hold the wedding a year or a year later.” After thinking about it, she smiled: “Maybe when you get married, it will be very inconvenient for me.”

At that time, she was already pregnant, and she was afraid that she would not even be able to attend the wedding.

Elisa: “Then I’ll hold a wedding with Remy after your baby is born. I’ll get engaged first and then get the certificate. The wedding will be held later. Remy definitely has no objections.”

With a marriage certificate, they were also legal couples. She didn’t make Remy wait for her for another ten or eight years.

Serenity: “You don’t have to worry about my time, this is a major event in your life, and you will be happy forever.”

Elisa: “No, I want you to attend my wedding. I want to witness your happiness, and I want you to witness my happiness. That’s only fair. My mother’s relatives, I only have two cousins, you and Sister Hailing, neither of you sisters can be absent from my wedding.”

Elisa insisted. She would communicate with Remy and discuss it.
