

Chapter 28 Nora was like the rope for Steward

The heat was turned on in the room and there's a humidifier at the corner so the air was not very dry.

"A girl called Mia has been taking care of her. She is her good friend and it's so nice of her to take care of this girl for so long," said the nurse.

"Mia lied to me," thought Steward.

Steward now were mixed with different feelings. He felt regretful and also scared. If that private detective hadn't told him about this, he would be unable to see her for a very long time.

But in his heart, he was grateful. He thanked God to make him see Nora again.

"Mia's coming!" said the nurse.

When Mia walked into the room, she did not expect to see Steward in this place.

"Damn it, how did he find Nora?" Mia thought.

"Tracey, how could you let the stranger in?" said Mia with a gloomy face.

Tracey pointed at Nora and thought she had done nothing wrong, saying, "He had a picture of her so I thought he might be her friend."

"I wanna say thank you to you, Tracey." Steward smiled and held Nora's hands more tightly, "I am not her friend. I am her husband."

Tracey smiled, "Oh, I didn't expect this girl to have such a handsome husband.You seem very suited to each other!”

Mia smiled coldly and sneered at what Tracey said. Steward was totally a jerk but only looked good.

Mia asked Tracey to leave and then she closed the door.She said,folding her arms,“What do you want?”

At that time,Steward was very excited too,“Thank you very much for saving Nora’s life.I will pay for all the cost!”

“We don’t need your money!”yelled Mia.

“Mia,listen to me.I am going to invite the best expert to Alexandria...”

Mia only shook her head and said in a desperate voice,“The success rate of her surgery was very low.I remembered that day when she had the surgery,her heart even stopped beating for a while.So the doctor had to take risks and do the brain surgery right away.Luckily,the doctor saved her life but she had been in vegetative state.I have always been waiting for a wonder.I really hope she will wake up one day.

Every time Mia called Mrs.Hill with a voice changer to pretend to be Nora,she felt very sad and guilty.It was a difficult thing to make Nora’s parents believe she’s still alive.

When Steward thought he had lost Nora forever,he almost lost his mind.So even if now Nora was in a vegetative state,he still hope she would regain consciousness one day.

"Since Nora didn't die, you shouldn't have kept telling me that she had died."

Hearing that, Mia became very mad at Steward and sneered at him, "Do you want to know why? Because of you, Nora was in such a bad situation now. I hope that silly and innocent Nora had died. You should never come here again for all these are not your business!"

Steward was not angered by Mia's words. He pretended to hear nothing.

"You are wrong. Nora is still my wife. We only signed the divorce paper but I had already torn it off. I want to make a compensation for her."

He thought he was about to fall down a cliff but the appearance of Nora was like the rope before him. He would do anything to hold that rope. He could do anything to help Nora regain her consciousness.

"A compensation? You could only make things worse!" Mia laughed at Steward. She looked at Nora who was still lying in the bed and felt worried about her very much. She said to Steward, "Though she was in a vegetative state now, she still has some feelings and she doesn't want to see you now."

After saying that, she questioned Steward in a lower voice, "Did you know when you forced Nora to donate her kidney, she had already been pregnant... Nora must have been very happy when she knew she had a baby in her body.”

Mia’s words threw him in sadness and he closed his eyes to calm down.

He knew it was not easy for people to forgive him.

“I know Nora might not want to be with me after she wakes up but I can’t leave her.I want to be with her for my rest of my life.Let’s try our best to save her,”said Steward.

Even if she wants to have her revenge,Steward would not stop her.
