Chapter 311 Divine Doctor Jing!

Dean Lin Yi's countenance was a little pale, and her fingers were still pressing her stomach.

Just as she exited, Shen Wanying frowned and spoke, "You should rest well since you feel uncomfortable. Why are you out here?"

Earlier, she had taken Dean Lin Yi's pulse and discovered that her body was currently extremely weak.

Her gastritis had impaired her digestive system and caused her to be malnourished. Because of it, she would become dizzy easily, so Shen Wanying had just instructed her not to move about randomly as her condition might worsen.

Dean Lin Yi awkwardly smiled after hearing this.

How could she not come out?

Divine Doctor Jing had called her last night, and it was already very rude that her nanny didn't wake her up to take the call.

In addition, no one would mind traveling countless miles to get Divine Doctor Jing to treat their illnesses. And this time around, Divine Doctor Jing actually came to her school's entrance personally! It would be too inappropriate if she didn't come out to welcome him!

Dean Lin Yi nodded to Shen Wanying. "I have some matters to handle."

After that, she glanced at the crowd.

She also didn't expect that there would be so many people at the entrance.

She had originally thought that she would be able to see the aged Divine Doctor Jing the moment she came to the entrance, but it seemed that the people in the crowd were mothers of the young students in her school. She didn't even manage to catch a glimpse of Divine Doctor Jing's shadow.

She then frowned and took out her phone, preparing to make a call to Divine Doctor Jing.

When Shen Ruoqing saw this, she stepped forward. Just when she was preparing to speak, a parent impatiently shouted, "Dean Lin, it's good that you are here. May I ask, is it true that Professor Sparton will be coming to the kindergarten to act as a consultant?"

When Dean Lin Yi heard this, she frowned.

She hadn't made this matter public, so how was this secret leaked?

However, it wasn't the time to pursue such things right now. She directly explained, "We are still in the midst of negotiating. Sparton did say that there's a high possibility that he might come. If he really does, our kindergarten's quality will improve explosively."

"Dean Lin, is Sparton really going to accept students? How many will he accept?"

Dean Lin Yi furrowed her brows. As the dean of the kindergarten, her responsibility was naturally to placate these parents. She replied, "He will but as to how many, we are still negotiating as well. I'll do my best to get more name slots. However, Sparton is now very old, so the number will definitely be limited."

"How will he accept the students? Will there be fair competitions among our children?"

Dean Lin Yi's complexion looked very bad at this moment. Pressing harder down on her stomach, she did her best to explain to everyone. "We will organize a small test and Sparton will be the one selecting the students he likes. I can vouch on the basis of my character that the selection will be just and fair!"

After she finished saying that, her stomach was in so much pain that cold sweat covered her head.

In fact, her footing was already a little unstable, but just when she was unable to endure it anymore and her vision turned dim, a hand steadfastly supported her by her arm.

Dean Lin then turned and saw Shen Ruoqing standing beside her.

Shen Ruoqing's expression was cold as she spoke, "Dean Lin's body isn't well. Please head back in first."

Dean Lin waved her hands. "I'm waiting for someone..."

After she said that, Shen Ruoqing replied, "I know. The person you are waiting for is me."

Dean Lin was startled instantly.

She stared at Shen Ruoqing in disbelief and astonishment. "You..."

Shen Ruoqing moved closer to her and spoke in a low voice, "Correct. I am."

She then took the pill in her hand. "I came to deliver medicine for you."

Dean Lin was even more stunned.

She was Divine Doctor Jing?

No wonder Shen Ruoqing had written that she was from Columbia University. Although her education qualifications weren't high enough, she was still hired as a professor at Columbia University, and she simply applied for a Ph.D. there...

She basically didn't fake her resume!

However, because her situation was special, they were unable to investigate anything.

At this moment, Dean Lin felt guilty for having misunderstood Shen Ruoqing. She was also ashamed since she had expressed such a cold attitude every time Shen Ruoqing tried to warm up to her. Right now, her body trembled as she held Shen Ruoqing's hand. "I..."

Dean Lin wanted to express her apologies, but before she could finish speaking, the surrounding people already started a commotion. Everyone didn't dare to target Dean Lin, so they looked at Shen Ruoqing and said, "Hey, this parent. What do you mean by that? It isn't easy for us to speak with Dean Lin, so why are you obstructing us?"

“Are you planning to secretly dig for information about the testing method used by Professor Sparton?”

“Oh right, how are you qualified to judge that Dean Lin’s body isn’t well? Why do I feel that her complexion is very good?!”

“Madam Shen Wanying is just here, and she is the doctor in charge of Dean Lin Yi. Even she didn’t say anything, so why are you acting like you know what you are talking about?”

“Dean Lin Yi, what will be the content of the test? If you can, please tell us earlier so we can make preparations...”

“...”

Seeing more and more parents crowding over, Dean Lin Yi suddenly felt that everything before her eyes was turning chaotic.

It was as if her low blood sugar induced a hypoglycemia attack.

Her mind was buzzing, and she suddenly couldn’t see things in the surroundings clearly. In fact, she even heard buzzing in her ears, yet she couldn’t hear what people in the surroundings were talking about.

Her body stumbled.

When Shen Wanying saw this, she hurriedly went to support Dean Lin Yi’s other arm and shouted to everyone, “Stop shouting. Dean Lin Yi is indeed unwell!”

She commanded the nanny, “Quickly help Dean Lin Yi inside together with me!”

At this moment, Dean Lin Yi felt like she couldn’t catch her breath. She wanted to speak, but although her mouth moved, she couldn’t utter any sound. So, she could only clutch Shen Ruoqing’s hand tightly.

The nanny walked over, wanting to support Dean Lin but had basically no way to separate the dean from Shen Ruoqing.

Just when she was in a daze, Shen Wanying suddenly frowned and looked at Shen Ruoqing. “Miss Shen, enough! At this moment, Dean Lin is on the verge of death, yet you still want to pester her?”

After her voice rang out, the nanny woke up from her daze. “That’s right. Miss Shen, release your hold!”

Shen Ruoqing. “...”

Dean Lin was the one holding her hand, but those who didn’t know the truth couldn’t differentiate who was the one grabbing who.

Shen Ruoqing then said, “I’m going to escort Dean Lin in.”

Dean Lin was trembling and she could only make ‘wuwu’ sounds when she opened her mouth.

Shen Wanying immediately retorted, “Dean Lin doesn’t want you to enter. Miss Shen, that’s enough. Can you bear the responsibility if you delay the optimal timing for Dean Lin’s treatment?”

The surrounding parents didn’t understand what was going on, but they could tell that Dean Lin was feeling very uncomfortable at this moment. Hence, they started reproaching.

“This parent! The situation now is extremely urgent, quickly release the dean!”

“If Dean Lin’s treatment is delayed because of you, you will be a murderer!”

Even the nanny also rushed over to tug Shen Ruojing’s hand. “Miss Shen, Dean Lin has always disliked you. You should stop making trouble at such a crucial moment!”

Hearing all of this nonsense, Shen Ruojing was also angered. She abruptly lifted her hand that Dean Lin was holding on. “Who is the one who refuses to let go? Are you blind? Can’t you see it?!”

The nanny. “?”

Shen Ruojing’s peach blossom eyes coldly stared at her. “Make way!”

The nanny was frightened by her aura.

But at the next moment, Dean Lin’s body suddenly turned limp and she fainted.

Chapter 312 Treatment!

“Dean Lin!”

“Dean!”

The parents started crying in shock.

Shen Wanying then furrowed her brows tightly.

She felt that this situation shouldn’t have happened. When she checked Dean Lin’s condition today, she noticed that the dean’s gastric illness had improved for the better. So, why would she faint?

!!

She immediately looked up at the surroundings, shouting, “Everyone, make way! Give Dean Lin sufficient fresh air!”

The reason the parents liked this kindergarten was because of Dean Lin. At this moment, they knew what was important and thus everyone backed off. They made space and stood at least two meters away.

With all the parents backing off, Shen Ruojing’s presence stood out even more.

After Dean Lin fainted, her grip on Shen Ruojing’s hand finally loosened.

However, Shen Ruojing didn’t leave.

Seeing this, Shen Wanying couldn’t be bothered with her. After all, she never cared for Shen Ruojing and the others. She then quickly checked Dean Lin’s eyes, nose, and finally pressed down on her heart.

Shen Wanying quickly said, “Dean Lin’s condition is very serious! Call the ambulance immediately!”

“Alright, I’ll call 120.”

The parents quickly said this, and all of them started to call 120.

Shen Wanying then took out her silver needles and thought about it.

Dean Lin's pulse suddenly became very weak as if it was non-existent... But there was no problem with her heart. This made Shen Wanying feel at a loss.

This shouldn't have happened.

Could it be that the dean had gone into shock due to low blood sugar levels?

At the thought of this, Shen Wanying looked at the nanny and said, "Sweet!"

Dean Lin had a gastric illness and her body had difficulty absorbing the food she ate. As a result, she often had a low blood sugar level, and the nanny would always have sweets on her for the Dean to replenish energy.

Hearing Shen Wanying's words, the nanny quickly took out a square candy from her pocket. She was just about to put it into the dean's mouth when she was stopped by a pair of hands.

The nanny and Shen Wanying looked over to see Shen Ruoqing stopping the nanny. The woman's countenance was solemn as she said, "She mustn't be given sweets. It is easy for items to get stuck in her throat now, and it can cause suffocation."

Shen Wanying frowned.

Before she could say anything, the nanny spoke up, "Shen Ruoqing! With Dr. Shen Wanying here, there's no need to fear that the sweet will get caught in the dean's throat! The dean often has a low blood sugar level, and if she doesn't replenish her sugar level, it can be lethal! Move away!"

However, Shen Ruoqing ignored her and also lifted Dean Lin's eyelids to check her eyes' focus. She then put two fingers at the dean's neck and found a weak pulse.

When Shen Ruoqing was performing this series of actions, the nanny went over to the other side, still wanting to feed Dean Lin a sweet.

However, Shen Ruoqing stopped her once again. "She mustn't eat."

So, the nanny was enraged even further.

Shen Wanying said angrily, "Madam Chu! Do you know what you're doing?! You're interfering us from giving treatment to the patient! If anything were to happen to Dean Lin, you..."

"I'll take responsibility."

Shen Ruoqing interrupted her coldly, "You should know that Dean Lin's condition isn't due to low blood sugar level!"

Shen Wanying's gaze flickered.

Shen Ruoqing continued to give Dean Lin a checkup.

Based on her assessment of Dean Lin's condition, her illness shouldn't have developed so quickly.

The early stages of pancreatic cancer were easily misdiagnosed as gastric illness. However, cancer usually only showed symptoms at the late stage... So, this shock was probably due to the medicine Shen Wanying had given Dean Lin, which then led to the dean fainting.

Just as she was thinking, the nanny screamed and shouted in rage, "You'll take responsibility? Who are you to take responsibility for her?! Can someone with a lowly status like you afford to take responsibility for Dean Lin? Even if you were to pay with your life, you are still unworthy to give her treatment!"

After the nanny said this, she commanded the kindergarten's security guards, "Hurry up and pull this lunatic away!"

The nanny's voice was filled with an aggrieved tone.

She had always been with Dean Lin and had developed very strong feelings for her.

So, how could she tolerate someone harming the dean?

After the nanny shouted, the security guards at the side came charging over.

It was a pity that two mere security guards were nothing to Shen Ruoqing at all. She kicked each of them impatiently until they were rolling on the ground. She then bellowed fiercely, "If anyone dares approach again, don't blame me for being merciless!"

Everyone had seen her movements, so who would dare to approach again?

The two security guards were in so much pain that they couldn't even get up.

Now, the nanny was even more enraged. "Call the police! I'm going to call the police! Shen Ruoqing, this is murder!"

Shen Wanying wanted to get close but was forced back by Shen Ruoqing's gaze. She then frowned and said, "Miss Shen, let's not talk about whether or not you're a doctor. Even if you're one, you shouldn't give a patient treatment without their agreement!"

The surrounding parents became even angrier.

"Miss Shen, your actions are tantamount to killing the dean"

"If anything were to happen to Dean Lin, it'd all be your responsibility!"

"We're all witnesses. After the police come, we'll stand witness that you've delayed the treatment and thus harmed Dean Lin!"

"..."

A bunch of ignorant people were bellowing in rage, but Shen Ruoqing quickly discovered the reason why Dean Lin had fainted. It was really because she had taken an excessive amount of gastric medicine.

In fact, Dean Lin's gastric condition had improved long ago and was no longer very serious. However, as she kept on experiencing strong gastric pain, it gave Shen Wanying a false impression and made her misunderstand that Dean Lin's gastric illness was very severe.

Therefore, she increased the medicine dosage, leading to Dean Lin's body showing rejection symptoms.

Now, Dean Lin was in a critical state!

She must have her stomach pumped at the hospital to reduce the medicine dosage.

At the thought of this, Shen Ruoqing took out a life-saving pill without any hesitation and put it into Dean Lin's mouth.

After the nanny saw that, she immediately let out a surprised cry. "What did you feed the dean? Shen Ruoqing, I'm not going to let this matter slide!"

The nanny didn't care anymore and came charging over, grabbing Shen Ruoqing's shoulder and wanting to push her.

The nanny was anxious to protect the dean. Although her actions were extremely foolish, Shen Ruoqing didn't harm her. Instead, she complied with the nanny's pulling force to stand up and walk over to the side.

The nanny dashed over to Dean Lin's side and opened the dean's mouth, wanting to dig out the pill that Shen Ruoqing had fed her. It was a pity that the pill had dissolved immediately and flowed into Dean Lin's throat after turning into liquid...

Life-saving medicine like this must have a quick absorption rate.

At this moment, the ambulance finally arrived.

The medics rushed down and after performing a basic check for Dean Lin, they immediately put her on a stretcher. Shen Wanying said to the nanny, "You go with the ambulance. I'll drive over!"

Shen Ruoqing was about to get on her motorbike and follow the ambulance when the nanny grabbed her hand. "Don't you think of leaving! Come with me to the hospital! Tell the doctors what medicine you gave Dean Lin!"

Shen Ruoqing boarded the ambulance, and their group quickly arrived at the hospital.

The nanny had made a few calls while they were in the ambulance. As Dean Lin Yi was someone with status, various specialists from the capital were already on standby when the ambulance arrived.

After seeing the specialists, the nanny seemed like she was going to cry. "Hurry up and pump Dean Lin's stomach! We don't know what this person fed Dean Lin..."

"What nonsense! How could she be given medicine recklessly?!"

The specialists immediately berated Shen Ruoqing and then pushed Dean Lin into the emergency room to perform all sorts of checkups.

Five minutes later.

Shen Wanying had rushed over as well. She was just about to ask something when the emergency room's door was pushed open. The group of specialists then came out agitated and looked at Shen Ruoqing directly. "What did you give Dean Lin?"

The moment they asked this, the nanny's eyes turned red. "Why are you guys out here instead of giving the dean emergency treatment?"

The specialists said, "Dean Lin no longer requires emergency treatment..."

"What?" Hearing this, the nanny was shocked. She had clearly misunderstood.

Shen Wanying also clenched her fists. "How is that possible? Dean Lin's condition wouldn't deteriorate so quickly! Her gastric illness was clearly recovering soon..."

After saying that, she couldn't help but look at Shen Ruoqing. "Was it you? What on earth did you feed Dean Lin?"

The moment Shen Wanying said this, the nanny immediately looked at Shen Ruoqing in rage, almost wanting to pounce on her. "You've killed Dean Lin! I'm going to kill you! You murderer!"

Shen Ruoqing. "..."

The specialists were stunned as well.

They immediately came over to stop the fight. "No, that's not what we meant..."

Chapter 313 Diagnosis Confirmed!

The nanny was pulled away by the specialists. She cried very loudly, and her gaze when looking at Shen Ruoqing was filled with hatred.

Shen Wanying also pursed her lips tightly, feeling very enraged.

Her patient died because someone had forced her to take some kind of medicine. To her, this was a type of humiliation.

Shen Wanying then took out her phone directly. "I'm going to call the police."

Only then did the nanny react to the situation. "Yes, call the police! I'm going to have you pay with your life for murder!"

!!

After saying that, the nanny then looked at the hospital's specialists and shouted, "After the police come later, you guys must be witnesses for us. She is involved in Dean Lin's death!"

The specialists were shocked by this situation.

However, they soon returned to their senses and quickly said, "Who said that Dean Lin is dead?"

The nanny was stunned. "What?"

Shen Wanying paused her action of calling the police, and she looked at the specialists in surprise. "Didn't you guys say earlier that emergency treatment is no longer required?"

The specialists sighed. "We meant that Dean Lin is fine now and no longer requires emergency treatment! All the medical indicators have returned to normal!"

The nanny. “?!”

Shen Wanying also heaved a big sigh of relief. However, she suddenly realized something and looked at Shen Ruojing.

One of the specialists dashed up to Shen Ruojing. “Was what you gave Dean Lin the Heart Protecting Pill?”

Seeing that the nanny was no longer agitated and was even a bit in a daze, Shen Ruojing lowered her gaze and replied, “That’s right.”

“Oh my god! As expected, it really is the Heart Protecting Pill! I have only heard of this pill before and have never seen it!”

The nanny asked, feeling stunned, “What is the Heart Protecting Pill?”

One of the specialists explained, “The Heart Protecting Pill is a life-saving medicine. It can protect one’s heart channels and prevent the invasion of viruses and external factors that lead to illnesses. Earlier on, the nurse said that Dean Lin’s heartbeats had gradually returned to normal when she was on the way to the hospital. Moreover, the data from our checkups earlier also reached normal levels. Her life is no longer in danger!”

The nanny was stunned. “So Shen Ruojing’s medicine didn’t harm the dean but saved her instead?”

The specialists immediately said, “That’s right! Dean Lin’s illness acted up very quickly. If it wasn’t for the Heart Protecting Pill, she might not have been able to make it to the hospital. The Heart Protecting Pill saved her!”

The nanny looked at Shen Ruojing in disbelief and astonishment.

There was still a look of surprise on her face, but her expression had changed from horror and rage to embarrassment and flattering. Thereafter, she ran over to Shen Ruojing.

Shen Ruojing subconsciously took two steps back, assuming a defensive pose.

However, at the next moment, the nanny bowed deeply at her. “Miss Shen, this is really... I am really...”

The nanny didn’t know what to say, so she suddenly looked up and slapped herself. Her cheek then turned red and swollen at a rate that could be seen by the naked eye. After that, she looked at Shen Ruojing with a look that hoped for redemption. “I didn’t know any better and misunderstood your kind intentions! I apologize!”

Shen Ruojing waved her hand. “No need.”

She understood the nanny.

The nanny didn’t understand Dean Lin’s condition. Moreover, with Shen Wanying’s diagnosis and the results from the medical checkups, how could she believe Shen Ruojing who seemed like someone that didn’t understand medicine?

The nanny was just a normal person.

Seeing that Shen Ruoqing's expression was indifferent, the nanny knew that she must still be angry. At this moment, her only thought was to make it up to her. "Miss Shen, that medicinal pill must be very expensive, right? Tell me the price! After Dean Lin wakes up, I'll definitely return the money to you."

Before Shen Ruoqing could say anything, a specialist said, "Do you know how hard it is for the Heart Protecting Pill to come by? I heard that Divine Doctor Jing only made a few of them, and there are fewer than ten of them on the market! Miss Shen is really kind to be willing to feed Dean Lin this medicine at the critical moment!"

The nanny was stunned.

She suddenly thought of something and quickly dug around in her waist pouch.

The pouch contained medicine that Dean Lin had to eat daily, and the nanny would have them with her. She dug around for a very long time before she found a pill that was wrapped up in aluminum foil. She asked, "Is this a Heart Protecting Pill as well?"

This was the pill that Shen Ruoqing had given her previously. Shen Ruoqing had told her that it could be used to save Dean Lin's life.

When the specialist saw this pill, his eyes turned green with envy!

He asked in shock, "You have this pill too?"

The nanny. "..."

She looked at Shen Ruoqing, feeling stunned. This was also given by Shen Ruoqing. There were fewer than ten of these Heart Protecting Pills, but Shen Ruoqing had two with her?

Just as the nanny was in a daze, Shen Wanying suddenly asked, "Miss Shen, do you know Divine Doctor Jing?"

Shen Ruoqing raised her eyebrows.

She didn't wish to divulge her identity yet. After all, her identity as Divine Doctor Jing was too sensitive.

Who from the capital's four great clans and the various influential families didn't want to look for Divine Doctor Jing when they were unwell?

Putting aside how many people would come to knock on her door to ask for her treatment, even just looking at the conflicts between influential families in the capital made her not want to get involved.

The reason she had exposed her identity to Dean Lin earlier was to give her treatment.

Moreover, through their contact, she also believed Dean Lin's character and was sure that the dean would help to protect her secret.

At this moment, with so many specialists and Shen Wanying staring at her, Shen Ruoqing said calmly, "Hmm, we've met once. It's true that these pills were given by him."

The moment she said this, everyone looked at her enviously.

The specialists all said, "If only we had the good fortune to meet Divine Doctor Jing too."

Shen Ruoqing appeared very natural after hearing the praises and admiration. She was used to them.

However, she still looked at the nanny and said seriously, "Since we're at the hospital, we can arrange for the dean to take a CT scan of her pancreas."

A specialist immediately said, "You suspect that her condition is pancreatic cancer?"

Shen Ruoqing nodded.

That specialist had been treating Dean Lin for a long time as well and was even familiar with Shen Wanying. He thought about it for a while before looking at Shen Wanying and asked, "Miss Shen, what are your thoughts on this?"

Shen Wanying clenched her fingers tightly and insisted, "Dean Lin's constitution is very frail now. I feel that the radiation from the CT scan is too great. Moreover, she just did a body checkup and a CT scan then. There isn't a need to do another checkup..."

The specialist shared the same view as Shen Wanying. "... Dean Lin has gastritis. It's a stubborn illness that has been going on for many years. It often relapses, and it's true that this isn't a misdiagnosis."

During the early stages, it was true that pancreatic cancer could be easily mistaken for gastritis.

However, Dean Lin really did have a gastric illness, so it wasn't considered a misdiagnosis. Therefore, they didn't think that the dean had pancreatic cancer.

The specialists and Shen Ruoqing had differing views.

"The radiation from CT scans is too strong. Dean Lin is getting old and isn't suitable to do CT scans too frequently."

"Moreover, we did scan the organs in the previous CT scan. There was no issue..."

However, Shen Ruoqing insisted, "The gastric will block the pancreas. There's an abnormal shadow in the earlier CT scan, right? What if it just so happened that you didn't notice the pancreas?"

Shen Wanying frowned. "Miss Shen, may I ask if you're a doctor? Do you have a doctor's license? Where are you practicing medicine at? Although you've met Divine Doctor Jing before and saved Dean Lin's life, we are her main doctors."

Shen Ruoqing. "..."

She didn't have a doctor's license. After all, her major in university wasn't medicine. Her Masters and Ph.Ds. were still in the midst of application at Columbia University. Of course, she wouldn't have a license.

Moreover, she had been practicing medicine for so many years. No one would ask Divine Doctor Jing for her doctor's license.

Shen Ruoqing didn't wish to argue with these people. She only looked at the only next-of-kin of the patient—Dean Lin's nanny—and said, "What do you think?"

The nanny was stunned.

Shen Wanying also looked at the nanny, wanting to persuade her. "Dean Lin's body is frail and she shouldn't do a CT scan. Moreover, scanning her pancreas might also harm her stomach..."

The other specialists also spoke up, "We can continue to observe for now. Miss Shen isn't a doctor, and she doesn't understand the things involved..."

However, the nanny looked at Shen Ruoqing.

In the beginning, she didn't harbor much hostility toward Shen Ruoqing.

She only started to doubt Shen Ruoqing's character after Dean Lin said that Shen Ruoqing had forged her resume.

However, it wasn't necessary for her to fawn on Dean Lin like this. Dean Lin had said that she would introduce her three children to Sparton. What Shen Ruoqing was doing now were things that took a lot of effort yet weren't beneficial to her.

But Shen Ruoqing still did them anyway. Earlier on, after the nanny and the security guards, together with so many parents, were scolding Shen Ruoqing, her best choice of action was to protect herself.

However, while fronting all the scoldings, Shen Ruoqing still fed the Heart Protecting Pill to Dean Lin, saving the dean's life...

The nanny pursed her lips and suddenly said, "Do the scan."

The moment the nanny said this, Shen Wanying frowned.

All the specialists furrowed their brows as well.

However, the patient's next-of-kin had said so, so everyone could only push the unconscious Dean Lin into the CT scanning room to perform a scan on her.

In the CT scanning room.

A specialist was still frowning and reproaching, "This is nonsense. Dean Lin is still unconscious and she has gastritis. How could it be a problem with her pancreas? Hasn't Dr. Shen Wanying been keeping an eye on Dean Lin's condition all this while? You guys are doubting her medical skills by doing this!"

"Making Dean Lin go through another round of radiation for nothing..."

Before he could finish his words, the location of the pancreas was shown on the display!!

On it, there was a shadow that was inconspicuous yet easily identified by others.

Chapter 314 Number One!

The atmosphere in the CT scan room fell silent.

Shen Wanying's face was burning as she stared at the dark shadow in the scan. She felt as though her face just got smacked.

(Pancreatic cancer.)

(Dean Lin actually has pancreatic cancer!)

(How is that possible? All her symptoms are that of gastritis...)

(Moreover, why was Shen Ruoqing so certain that it was pancreatic cancer? She clearly doesn't have a doctor's license and is not a student at Columbia University...)

Shen Wanying had long since gotten someone to investigate Shen Ruoqing, so she knew that Shen Ruoqing's resume was fake!

The other specialists were stunned as well. Everyone had been treating Dean Lin's gastric for many years. So how would they even think about pancreatic cancer?

Only the nanny was staring at the machine and exclaimed, "Miss Shen, it is actually pancreatic cancer!"

After shouting, Shen Wanying subconsciously wanted to speak as she felt that the address 'Miss Shen' was addressing her. She nodded, but at the next moment, she saw the nanny rushing toward Shen Ruoqing. "You are too godly. You didn't even take the dean's pulse, so how did you manage to tell?"

Shen Ruoqing's attitude was as cool as ever. She calmly said, "In traditional Chinese medicine, there's an emphasis on observing, listening, asking, and feeling. I didn't feel her pulse, but through observing the dean's complexion and through the topics you guys are chatting about daily, I managed to determine that pancreatic cancer might be a cause. However, I cannot verify it."

No matter how many diagnoses the traditional Chinese medicine had, they wouldn't be as accurate and trustworthy as a scan from a medical instrument.

Hence, even though Shen Ruoqing was sure of her guess, she still insisted on getting them to do a CT scan.

The nanny's eyes turned red again. "What should we do now? Dean Lin's body is so weak. She basically cannot undergo any surgeries!"

The dean was in her seventies. That, in addition to her long years of stomach pain and malnutrition, her body simply wasn't able to endure any surgeries.

Shen Ruoqing didn't speak immediately.

As for Shen Wanying, she glanced at all the specialists here.

They were people who had seen various types of illnesses and were very used to things such as misdiagnosis. Hence, they didn't feel it was anything. At this moment, they were all sighing in admiration at Shen Ruoqing's medical skills. They also felt relaxed due to finding the source of Dean Lin's illness.

Only Shen Wanying felt uneasy. She pondered for a while before speaking, "We should use conservative treatment methods."

The specialists all nodded respectively. "Correct."

After agreeing with her, they subconsciously glanced at Shen Ruoqing. "Miss Shen, what do you think?"

Shen Ruoqing agreed as well. "Use conservative treatments and prioritize extending her life."

As she said this, the specialists immediately crowded around Shen Ruoqing and asked, "In that case, can Miss Shen join us and discuss the treatment method?"

"My suggestion is to use traditional Chinese medicine to inhibit the growth of the tumor."

"Sure..."

The specialists continued discussing various methods while surrounding Shen Ruoqing.

On the other hand, Shen Wanying stood outside the circle. She suddenly felt a surge of unhappiness in her heart, which caused her gaze to deepen by a few degrees.

Since her birth, she was the eldest miss of the Shen Family. Although she wasn't the biological granddaughter of the Shen Family Leader, the family leader which was her grandpa had never married and thus treated his nephews as his own biological sons to nurture.

And her father was the successor that her grandpa had personally chosen...

Among the four great families, the Shen Family ranked near the top and she could be considered the woman with the highest status in the entire capital. Back when she married into the Bai Family, it was actually considered as marrying below her status...

After so many years, she was also doted on by the Bai Family, and everyone would regard her highly no matter who they were. She was the focal point of the crowd no matter where she went.

But at this moment, this woman from a rural area stole all her limelight.

It was one thing that Shen Ruoqing was pretty and also skilled in medicine. But the most hateful thing was that Shen Ruoqing's surname was 'Shen' as well!

Now, Shen Wanying suppressed the jealousy in her heart. She then took her phone out and suddenly saw that many parents in the kindergarten group chat were asking her about Dean Lin's condition.

[Dingding's mother: Miss Shen, how's Dean Lin's condition? Was that troublemaker sent to the police station? We can help and be witnesses @ShenWanYing.]

As that parent typed this, the other parents immediately inquired about what was going on in the group chat. After learning about the incident at the entrance, everyone was filled with righteous indignation and expressed their anger.

A parent like this ought to be chased away from the kindergarten!

Shen Wanying scrolled through the chat for a while before typing a short text and sending it to the group. [Everyone, please don't be angry anymore. We have misunderstood Madam Chu. What she fed the dean was an extremely rare life-saving pill. It's all due to her medicine that Dean Lin's condition changed for the better.]

Once this text was sent, the group chat immediately exploded.

Many people were asking.

[Dingding's mother: Is that Madam Chu really so impressive? She actually has a life-saving pill! Who is she?]

Someone who knew the information explained in the chat.

—Madam Chu is the parent of the triplets who have just joined the kindergarten. She is the mother of Chu Tianye, Chu Yu, and Chu Xiaomeng.

—Triplets? So awesome? They must be from the Chu Corporation of Sea City, right? Although they are located in Sea City, I heard that they are very wealthy. It isn't surprising for them to have a life-saving pill.

Just when everyone was discussing, Dingding's mother suddenly added another sentence.

[Dingding's mother: Since Madam Chu saved Dean Lin's life, the dean would surely give her one of the name slots reserved for Sparton's students, right?]

Someone jealous remarked: [Madam Chu is so lucky to have a life-saving pill on her...]

Next, the group fell silent.

After seeing that she had achieved her purpose, Shen Wanying curled her lips.

She then put her phone down and looked ahead.

That day, she had heard that Sparton would be here specially for Shen Ruoqing's children. If that was the case, would her son still have a slot to join?

Now under the pressure of public opinion, Dean Lin couldn't possibly get Sparton to choose Shen Ruoqing's three children, right?

At that time, there would surely be some free slots.

In addition, her son Bai Yitong was considered a genius in their kindergarten. As long as there was an extra slot, her son would definitely be able to obtain it!

Shen Wanying's smile turned even wider after thinking about this.

Being skilled in medicine was insignificant. She was already at this age, so being able to obtain the greatest benefits for her son was then the greatest achievement.

In the kindergarten.

When the teacher announced that Sparton would come to the school tomorrow and test them in order to select four students, everyone in the class erupted in a frenzy.

Bai Yitong lifted his head high and spoke very confidently, "I will definitely be selected!"

After saying that, he looked at Chu Tianye. "I'm number one in the class!"

Chu Tianye immediately stuck his tongue out. "Not necessary now!"

A cold smile then appeared on Bai Yitong's immature pudgy face. "What? You feel that you are number one?"

Chu Tianye played with his curly hair. "Maybe not?"

The hint of a smile immediately appeared on Bai Yitong's face. It seemed that this person knew his own worth!

But at the next instant, he heard Chu Tianye saying, "My younger sister, younger brother, and myself are roughly on the same level, so I really can't be sure who will be the number one~!"

Bai Yitong. "!!"

He was extremely angry!

He wasn't able to win against Chu Tianye in an argument, so he turned to look at Chu Yu. "What about you? Do you feel that you will be number one?"

Three geniuses had just joined their class and Bai Yitong had been acting strange recently. His action was clearly trying to sow discord between them!

Chu Yu languidly lifted his head and imitated Shen Ruoqing's nonchalant look before lazily replying, "I don't know who will be number one, but I know it won't be you for sure."

Bai Yitong. "??"

Lastly, he looked at Chu Xiaomeng and glared at her fiercely. Hehe, she was a little girl and would definitely be easy to bully! In addition, Chu Xiaomeng wasn't someone who liked chatting and wasn't as glib-tongued as Chu Tianye and Chu Yu. In addition, after glancing at Chu Xiaomeng, he saw...

Chapter 315 Selection (1)

He saw that Chu Xiaomeng had her head lowered and didn't want to look at him. It was as though she was so arrogant to the extent she basically disregarded him!

...She was simply too brazen!

She didn't even say anything, but her action infuriated Bai Yitong so much that he shouted, "Why are you so arrogant?!"

Chu Xiaomeng. "?"

That living human before her eyes kept talking. How scary!

She immediately tightened her hold on her dinosaur soft toy and continued reading while she chanted silently in her heart...(As long as I focus on reading, he won't be able to see me, he won't be able to see me..."

Bai Yitong suffered a loss in his exchanges with all three children. Finally, he turned his gaze onto Chu Xiaoqi who was eating an apple.

The four of them were a group.

Bai Yitong looked at her. "The three of them are geniuses, but you are not. Sparton will definitely not recruit you. You will become the pitiful worm that is left alone. Hahaha, how pathetic!"

Chu Xiaoqi. "?"

She stared blankly at Bai Yitong and took another bite of the apple in her hand. After that, she simply uttered, "Hmm."

Chu Xiaoqi, who grew up in the Yan Family, had never been treated specially before. In truth, she had even failed the entrance test.

This special kindergarten only recruited geniuses with high IQ, and the kids would have to be trained by their family before they joined the kindergarten. But then, it was impossible for the Yan Family to hire expensive family teachers for Chu Xiaoqi, so Chu Xiaoqi almost scored zero points in the entrance test.

However, her heart state was vast and she didn't care about these.

To Chu Xiaoqi, as long as she could live happily with her mother and eat delicious food every day, she was already content with her life!

She didn't have to be as intelligent as her elder brothers and elder sister!

Sadly, her father didn't think like this.

Hence——

When Shen Ruoqing confirmed that Dean Lin's life was safe and she could be discharged, it was already in the evening. When she got home, she didn't have much appetite because of her fatigue from a full day of effort. She was preparing to take a shower first before eating.

But just as she headed upstairs, she saw the three children sneakily peeping into Chu Xiaoqi's room from outside.

Shen Ruoqing walked over and heard Chu Xiaoqi's clear voice ringing out from within. "I die!"

Chu Cimo corrected her, "The answer is 'was'! You are not dead! Next question!"

Chu Xiaoqi. "Mommy die!"

Chu Cimo's voice grew louder. "The answer to this question is 'must'! Don't talk nonsense, your mommy is still alive. Forget it, next!"

Chu Xiaoqi. "Grandma die!"

Chu Cimo sounded like he was on the verge of exploding. "The answer is 'nice'! Your grandma is still alive by the way!"

Chu Xiaoqi. "Grandpa die!"

Chu Cimo was helpless. "Right, the answer is 'yes'! Well, your grandpa is indeed already dead!"

Chu Xiaoqi finally said, "Daddy die."

Chu Cimo roared, "The answer to this question is 'bus'! If I continue to tutor you in English, I'm really going to die from anger!!!"

Chu Cimo was about to go crazy. "Ahh, ahh, ahh~ I'm going to dig out the urn of ashes of those from the Yan Family! They nurtured my daughter into an idiot! Xiaoqi, your uncle has three children while daddy only has you alone. Can you work hard for me? Ahhhhh~"

Shen Ruoqing. "..."

Chu Tianye humorously spoke, "Mommy, quickly save little sister Xiaoqi, she's so pitiful!"

Chu Yu nodded. "Ever since second uncle learned that Sparton is going to select four students tomorrow, he insisted on teaching Sister Xiaoqi. She has revised an hour's worth of English lesson!"

Chu Xiaomeng hugged her dinosaur soft toy. "So pitiful~"

The three children spoke and Shen Ruoqing walked over. She then coughed and knocked on the door.

Chu Cimo angrily turned his head. Even his gaze seemed to be breathing fire, but after seeing Shen Ruoqing, he regained some clarity and spoke with a stiff tone, "What?!"

Shen Ruoqing. "Why are you forcing her to learn english?"

Chu Cimo irritably said, "Because Sparton is a foreigner and he is coming tomorrow. We can't be so lousy to the extent where we can't even communicate with him. Hence, I must tutor her in english!"

Shen Ruoqing's lips twitched. "...Is there another possibility? Sparton is French and he doesn't speak english."

Chu Cimo, "???"

He started and his eyebrows lifted in shock. After that, he immediately took his phone and searched for the information. As expected, he saw that Sparton was French!

Chu Cimo. "!!!!!"

At this moment, Matriarch Chu passed by silently. She sighed when she looked at Chu Cimo. "Half of your daughter's intellect was inherited from you. So...hehehe, no wonder Xiaoqi can't do much."

Chu Cimo. "?????"

He turned his head and continued looking at Chu Xiaoqi. "Alright, we won't study English anymore. I don't know French either! Forget it, let's revise your Chinese. Come, let me ask you a question. When Spring arrives..."

Chapter 316 Selection (2)

Chu Xiaoqi looked at her father's face, which was alternating between shades of green and black. She then fell silent before cautiously asking, "Has daddy gone crazy?"

Chu Cimo. "?????"

He completely gave up!

Looking at his dispirited look, Shen Ruoqing held her laughter back and said, "Even if Xiaoqi doesn't sleep tonight, I'm afraid she won't be able to meet Sparton's requirement. I think no matter how good the academic results of these five-year-old children are, it won't matter. Even for Xiaomeng who has learned math at the high school level, how would Sparton care about high school-level mathematics? So, Sparton will probably accept students based on their talent."

Chu Cimo immediately shook his head. "Things are over then. Both me and Shanshan are not intelligent people, so how can our daughter be talented?"

Matriarch Chu sneered. "At least you know your limits. Rather than blaming your child, why don't you blame yourself!"

Chu Cimo immediately relaxed. "In that case, it's better to slack. If I go out and work, I will at most earn around 10,000 yuan per month. This bit of money isn't even enough for me and my friends to drink! Wouldn't it be better just to rest at home and collect my dividends?"

Matriarch Chu. "...How useless!"

She didn't understand. When Chu Cimo was young, he was intelligent and adorable, but how did he become like this?

The Chu family's genes were after all not bad.

There was no need to mention anything about the eldest son Chu Cichen. Even Chu Ciyuan was a famous hacker!

But why was Chu Cimo so lazy?

Matriarch Chu had initially thought that he would wake up if she provoked him a little!

Chu Xiaoqi had finally escaped from the 'clutches' of her father, and she immediately went to complain to Bai Shanshan.

Hence, Bai Shanshan rushed back home and was the one who personally sent Chu Xiaoqi to the kindergarten the next morning.

Because Sparton was coming personally to select students, the majority of parents would personally send their kids over today. After that, they kept instructing their children at the entrance.

Bai Shanshan also clenched her fist and pumped it up in the air. "Xiaoqi, work hard. Mommy believes that you can do it!"

Chu Tianye, Chu Yu, and Chu Xiaomeng immediately nodded at her. "We believe you can do it too!"

Chu Xiaoqi widened her eyes that had a vacant look in them before nodding heavily.

At this moment, the sound of sneering drifted over. "Che~"

The few of them turned and saw Bai Yitong standing there. The little fellow's eyes seemed to be growing on the top of his head. He then pointed at Chu Xiaoqi and spoke to Shen Wanying, "Mommy, do you know? She is the only one in our class who doesn't know how to speak a second language. She also only knows elementary math and is so stupid!"

Shen Wanying glanced at where he was pointing and looked at Chu Xiaoqi.

She started slightly after seeing her wearing the kindergarten's uniform.

She had no idea why, but she felt Chu Xiaoqi looked very familiar. However, she wasn't able to recall why this was so or where she had seen her before.

She then looked at Bai Shanshan.

Previously, Matriarch Bai had seen Bai Shanshan and found her familiar. Because of that, Shen Wanying did an investigation and discovered that she was a small-time celebrity and had even been duped into singing for someone. How utterly foolish.

She was stupid and foolish, a small-time celebrity with a bad background. So how could her daughter join the kindergarten? Was it due to her connection with Shen Ruoqing or the fact that her husband was Chu Cichen's useless younger brother?

Shen Wanying suddenly felt that Dean Lin was becoming increasingly unreliable. How could a special kindergarten recruit children like this?

She retracted her gaze in disdain and reprimanded her son, "Little Tong, you cannot be rude. Mommy told you before that you cannot look down on others in school."

Her manner was like a supreme and lofty member of royalty interacting with normal citizens.

Bai Yitong twitched his lips. "That's right. It's impossible for me to lower myself to the level of stupid children! Mommy, just wait for my good news. I'll definitely be chosen by Teacher Sparton!"

After saying that, he laughed and skipped into the kindergarten.

Chu Xiaoqi and Bai Shanshan's personalities had always been very good. Although Chu Xiaoqi was insulted by Bai Yitong, the two of them didn't mind and silently endured it.

However, Shen Ruoqing, who sent her children here, lowered her eyelids slightly after hearing this.

She felt that Shen Wanying was way too overconfident.

Actually, the Chu Family's genes were really not bad. Back then, Chu Cimo was the top scholar of Sea City and even managed to enter a university in the capital. This was definitely not a fluke. Chu Xiaoqi had inherited his intelligence. It was just that she wasn't nurtured properly when she was younger...

If she was Sparton, Shen Ruoqing would rather choose a 'clean' yet intelligent Xiaoqi who had not been 'tainted' by other teaching methods.

In the kindergarten.

Bai Yitong lifted his head. He loved taking exams the most.

No matter the exams, he would always be number one!

Very soon, the paper was given to the children.

Bai Yitong complacently finished his test and after that, he felt that the answers he gave were simply the model answers!

Very soon, the papers were sent to Sparton.

Dean Lin Yi wasn't well, so she didn't come today, and everything was handled by the staff.

Sparton directly started looking at the papers.

When the school ended, Sparton just finished marking all the papers and finally selected four students!

In the classroom.

All the students were eating dinner here and preparing to go home.

However, before the bell rang, the teacher walked into the class. "Alright, Teacher Sparton has chosen four students that will be his personal students in the future. Let me reveal the names."

After hearing this, Bai Yitong immediately acted like a peacock and lifted his head proudly again.

Chu Tianye and the others also stared at the teacher in anticipation. After that, they heard the teacher reciting their names, "Chu Yu, Chu Tianye, Chu Xiaomeng..."

These three names were within everyone's expectations as they were indeed geniuses. The teacher and students of this class all knew about it.

It was finally time for the last name.

Bai Yitong frowned.

This teacher was really too much, why didn't she read his name first?

Chapter 317 Two Tough Choices

Just when Bai Yitong was feeling unhappy, he saw the teacher looking at him.

Sadly, he was too young to understand the complicated look in his teacher's eyes. He proudly lifted his head, but in the next instant, he heard the teacher saying, "Chu Xiaoqi."

Bai Yitong. "??"

He was completely stunned.

!!

Even Chu Xiaoqi, who was sneakily eating snacks, was stunned. She lifted her head blankly and furiously stuffed the biscuit completely into her mouth. After that, she stood up. "Teacher, I didn't sneakily eat!"

As she spoke, the crumbs from the biscuits could be seen falling out of her mouth.

The teacher. "..."

The other students. "..."

Chu Tianye and Chu Yu covered their faces, not wanting to admit that this was their little cousin!

Bai Yitong was staring stupidly at Chu Xiaoqi. After that, he glanced at Chu Tianye's group of three before finally turning to look at the rest of his classmates. He discovered that everyone was looking at him. "Waaa~" Bai Yitong then started bawling.

In another location, at the office.

Dean Lin rushed back from the hospital, and when she entered her office, she saw a French old man currently sitting on the sofa. His hair was white and he had a kind look on his face.

After seeing Dean Lin, he stretched his hands out and spoke in fluent Chinese, "Hello, Dean Lin."

Dean Lin shook hands with him. After the two old people exchanged gifts and pleasantries, Dean Lin then asked, "Teacher Sparton, I can understand why you chose Chu Tianye, Chu Yu, and Chu Xiaomeng. But why did you choose Chu Xiaoqi? From what I know, she scored zero on her entrance test and she also scored zero on the test you administered."

Sparton laughed. "In truth, I only wanted to select three students, but you were the one who got me to pick one more. Let me explain, the other students of your school have received traditional education from their families, and Chu Xiaoqi is the only one who is like a blank piece of white paper. In addition, her intelligence isn't low and she is very moldable. She is definitely a good seedling, and that's the reason why I chose her. Why? Is there a problem?"

Dean Lin started.

She had used her friendship with Sparton to request one more slot. In truth, she was asking for that slot for Bai Yitong.

However, it wasn't because Shen Wanying had treated her for many years. All of Shen Wanying's help could be balanced out using money. Instead, it was for Matriarch Bai's sake!

Dean Lin Yi and Matriarch Bai had known each other since they were children and could be considered best friends.

However, after Matriarch Bai was married and Dean Lin Yi decided not to be married for life, she suffered all sorts of setbacks, as everyone was against her. Matriarch Bai was the one who stood up and supported her relentlessly.

Their friendship had already lasted for over sixty years.

Because of this, Dean Lin Yi would consider things on behalf of Matriarch Bai no matter what she did.

However, she didn't expect that Sparton would actually choose Chu Xiaoqi for the last slot.

She furrowed her brows.

When Sparton saw her expression, he smiled. "Is there a problem? Or maybe you have a request? If you don't want me to accept Chu Xiaoqi, I can always accept someone else."

Sparton had already retired, so he was very happy to have accepted three students with inestimable futures. Hence, he was willing to satisfy one of Dean Lin Yi's wishes!

Dean Lin Yi pursed her lips.

For a time, she felt it tough to choose between friendship and Chu Xiaoqi.

She had been fair and upright her entire life, guiding children in their education with no selfishness. This time was the only time when she wanted to act selfishly, asking Sparton for one more slot. It was all for Matriarch Bai's sake.

But what happened now?

Dean Lin Yi fell silent for a moment and decided to wait for Matriarch Bai to look for her before she discussed things with her.

Maybe, Matriarch Bai didn't really regard the slot as important? If that were the case, wouldn't she have deprived Chu Xiaoqi of a chance to study under one of the best teachers? In addition, Shen Ruoqing had just saved her life...

For a time, Dean Lin Yi was in a dilemma.

At this moment, Shen Wanying who had just arrived to fetch her child learned of the news that her son wasn't selected.

She was instantly stunned and also felt disbelief.

Bai Yitong always achieved exemplary results in school. How was it possible that he wasn't selected?

Was Sparton blind? Why would he choose the daughter of a small-time celebrity?

She frowned and wanted to look for Dean Lin to get an explanation.

At this moment, some parents beside her were also stunned. "What? Sparton actually chose the fourth child of the Chu Family? Impossible!"

"What Chu Family? There is no Chu Family in the capital, right?"

"What does the Chu Family of Sea City count for in the capital? Based on what? Why are all the children from the Chu Family selected?!"

"I know! It must be because Madam Chu fed a life-saving pill to Dean Lin. This must be why Dean Lin gave her the slots, right?"

"It's fine if it is just one slot, but Sparton is going to select four students. She can't possibly give all four slots to Madam Chu, right? This is just too unfair to the remaining children!"

Some even directly spoke out for Shen Wanying and appeared to be feeling unfair for her on the surface. "Miss Shen, your son Bai Yitong is famous for being a genius in the school, yet he also wasn't selected. Are you not anxious at all? Why don't you speak to Dean Lin? You should quickly look for her and seek fairness!"

Shen Wanying wanted to say something. But at this moment, the teacher just released the scoreboard, showing the test paper and the children's test results.

The test questions were indeed extremely difficult. Even Bai Yitong merely scored an A, while Chu Tianye, Chu Yu, and Chu Xiaomeng got A+!

Just a single set of test papers and the final results were enough to prove everything.

Shen Wanying immediately clenched her fists and looked at Bai Yitong.

She had initially wanted to scold her son for not working hard enough, but she also fell silent after looking at the questions.

These questions were so difficult. Could it be that Shen Ruoqing's three children really answered all perfectly?!

(How could she have such impressive children?!)

This was the first time Shen Wanying placed Shen Ruoqing in her eyes. Shen Ruoqing had unfathomable medical skills and three genius children. In addition, Chu Cichen didn't look like an ordinary man either. Their family would rise to the peak sooner or later, right?

However, these three children were one thing. Chu Xiaoqi clearly scored zero, but why was she chosen as well?

Just when they were pondering, the teacher here suddenly spoke, "The selection criteria were personally decided by Teacher Sparton, and there was no bias. If you have any objections, you can contact him privately and he will explain to you."

Shen Wanying naturally wouldn't be the first to jump out as it was too embarrassing.

If the four great families wanted to do things, they would never do so openly.

In addition, Shen Wanying understood Dean Lin Yi's character. If she stood out and spoke up, Dean Lin would definitely proceed with things fairly. Right now, only one person could help her.

Matriarch Bai!

She believed that as long as Matriarch Bai spoke, Dean Lin Yi would surely kick Chu Xiaoqi out. At that time, Bai Yitong would naturally be selected.

As she thought of this, she held Bai Yitong's hand in an unflustered manner and smiled at the surrounding crowd. "We will comply with the school's arrangement and support Dean Lin's choice."

Her movements were elegant, leaving an impression as though she was unmoved by neither gains nor losses as she brought Bai Yitong home.

Upon reaching home.

Shen Wanying pinched Bai Yitong, and he started crying due to the reminder.

Even if Matriarch Bai initially didn't notice his return, because of this sobbing, she would soon notice it.

Matriarch Bai then walked forward. "Aiyo, what happened to my Little Tong?"

Bai Yitong shouted, "Unfair! I'm clearly in fourth place, but Teacher Sparton actually didn't choose me. He chose that stupid fool who scored zero! Great Grandma, they are bullying me!"

Matriarch Bai immediately grew angry when she heard this. "What's going on? If something doesn't belong to us, we won't want it. But if it rightfully belongs to us, no one can snatch it away! Tell me, who snatched your slot?"

Bai Yitong immediately took his phone out and searched for Chu Xiaoqi's photograph. "Great Grandma, she was the one who snatched my slot!"

Chapter 318 Front of Hand VS Back of Hand

Matriarch Bai had presbyopia. She then narrowed her eyes and looked at Bai Yitong's phone.

A photograph of his classmate could be seen there. Every time a newcomer joined the school, they would have to take a group photograph. This was a rule set by the kindergarten.

Every face in the photograph was small, so even after Bai Yitong had enlarged the photo and pointed out Chu Xiaoqi, bringing his phone to a distance where Matriarch Bai could see it, the face was already blurry due to the bad resolution.

But even so, Matriarch Bai faintly felt a sense of familiarity when she looked at Chu Xiaoqi's photo.

Sadly, no matter how she looked, the blurry face didn't get clearer.

She twitched her lips. "A little girl dares to seize the slot belonging to my eldest great-grandson? No way!"

She stretched out her shaking hands and patted Bai Yitong's head.

Shen Wanying then heaved a sigh of relief when she saw this. She directly spoke, "Grandma, do you want to make a call to Dean Lin?"

Matriarch Bai took her phone out. "Sure, I'll call her now!"

But once she inputted Lin Yi's number and pressed 'call', Matriarch Bai suddenly thought of something. She then immediately stopped the call. After that, she looked at Shen Wanying. "Lin Yi just got back from the hospital, let's not disturb her during this period. How about this, I'll call her a bit later."

Shen Wanying didn't understand why Matriarch Bai suddenly changed her mind but still nodded her head in agreement.

Matriarch Bai then spoke, "Alright, you should bring Little Tong to eat some fruits first. You have also yet to eat dinner. Just wait for my news."

Shen Wanying nodded.

She then held Bai Yitong's hand and walked out. Just when she reached the door's entrance, her gaze suddenly flashed. After handing her child to the nanny, she entered her own room instead.

After entering, she walked to her computer. She then turned it on and wore the headphones. As expected, she discovered Matriarch Bai making a call to the 'second uncle'!

Shen Wanying frowned.

Actually, how could there be a real second uncle? When she had just married in, it was extremely tough to get along with Matriarch Bai. The latter would keep making things difficult for her.

She knew that Matriarch Bai wasn't intentionally targeting her. Rather, her personality just became weird and stubborn after the second uncle left home.

Although the four sons in the Bai Family were birthed by Matriarch Bai, the better the other three did in life, the more she would think about how hard her second son had it out there. Hence, she didn't treat the rest of her sons and juniors well either.

On the other hand, Shen Wanying had grown up in the Shen Family where she was doted on all the time. Other than Shen Yuansong, no one dared to treat her like this. In addition, Old Master Bai was always biased toward Bai Xiaojiu, and this caused Bai Zhongzhang to feel a sense of crisis.

As his wife, she naturally wanted to become the future Matriarch of the Bai Family. She couldn't possibly allow Bai Xiaojiu to become the successor of all the Bai Family's businesses, so she had to think of a way to secure their position.

In the Bai Family, the only person whose status was equal to Old Master Bai was Matriarch Bai!

So, if she wanted to get on Matriarch Bai's good side, the only way was to locate the second uncle.

The second uncle of the Bai Family had left home for over thirty years and he might no longer be alive. In the beginning, she also sincerely searched for him.

But regardless of how much effort the Bai Family put in, in addition to the efforts of the Shen Family, they failed to find Bai Jiayao. After searching for half a year and being certain that there were no clues, Shen Wanying thought of a solution.

It was to lie and say that she had located the second uncle. After that, she would simply find someone who spoke similarly to the second uncle and fake his identity when Matriarch Bai made calls.

As expected, Matriarch Bai's attitude toward her greatly changed and she shielded her immensely whenever they were at home.

And because she was the one who found the 'second uncle', Matriarch Bai felt that in the entire family, Shen Wanying was the one who treated her the best. This was why Shen Wanying and Bai Zhongzhang were greatly supported by Matriarch Bai.

Moreover, the second uncle definitely couldn't be allowed to return.

If not, him being a fake would surely be discovered. Hence, she told the 'second uncle' to act like he couldn't forgive his family members due to what had happened in the past.

He would only speak with Matriarch Bai and would ignore Old Master Bai.

Such a behavior matched the true second uncle's personality, hence, they weren't suspected of anything in these two years.

At this moment, the fake 'second uncle's' voice rang out from the phone. "Mother, why do you keep calling me? If you keep doing it, I'm going to change my number!"

All these were Shen Wanying's instructions. As long as the fake second uncle's attitude remained bad, Matriarch Chu would definitely continue trying to please him. Shen Wanying would then be able to obtain the most benefits this way.

As expected, Matriarch Bai immediately replied, "Don't, don't. Old Second, I'm calling you just to check something with you."

The 'second uncle' coldly said, "Speak."

Matriarch Bai went straight to the point. "Did your daughter give birth to another daughter? I'm talking about your granddaughter. Old Second, do you still remember that special kindergarten you were studying in? They just invited Teacher Sparton to teach there and he is currently accepting personal students! Do you want to get your granddaughter to join the school? Lin Yi will definitely leave a slot for me. However, there is only one spare slot! Today, Shen Wanying wants me to leave the slot for Little Tong, and I immediately thought of you. If you want the slot, I'll reserve that for you and this will allow your granddaughter to receive a better education!"

After hearing Matriarch Bai's words, Shen Wanying was so angry that she almost snapped the pen in her hands!

This damn undying fool!

Shen Wanying was worried that if the second uncle really returned, Matriarch Bai would surely be biased toward him. Hence, she intentionally got the fake second uncle to say that he only had a single daughter.

After all, the four great families were very traditional and still retained the mindset of favoring males over females.

Naturally, she was also afraid that Matriarch Bai would matchmake the second uncle's daughter with someone else, and this might affect Bai Zhongzhang's rights of succession. Hence, Shen Wanying told the fake to say that he had a daughter, and her daughter had given birth to another daughter!

Once the women were married, they would belong to the other family. In addition, his wife had given birth to a daughter, so one could say that they no longer had any connection with the Bai Family.

But even so, Shen Wanying didn't expect Matriarch Bai's biasedness toward the second uncle to be so great to such an extent!!

Bai Yitong was her biological great-grandson! A male!

However, the first thing Matriarch Bai thought of was to leave the slot for the second uncle's granddaughter?

This level of biasedness was simply off the charts!

Shen Wanying's chest heaved violently, but there was no need for her to teach the fake how to reply. He immediately replied, "Don't try to use this to please me."

“Child, I’m not trying to please you, but trying to compensate for you! I don’t know how much you suffered outside all these years, and your daughter has never even met her grandmother, which is me. I also want to compensate her and your granddaughter. This is the only thing I can do for you,” Matriarch Bai sincerely spoke.

The fake second uncle fell silent. “No need for that. They are living a very good life now. Just give the slot to Little Tong. He is also someone from the Bai Family.”

“There’s no rush for Little Tong. Once there’s something good in the family, he will surely have a share. But you guys have been wandering outside for so many years and don’t have anything...”

“I said I don’t want anything! Stop talking about this matter!”

“...Alright, alright. Don’t be angry, don’t be angry...” Matriarch Bai’s tone softened.

Shen Wanying also sighed with relief.

After hanging up, as per what she expected, Matriarch Bai indeed called her to go over.

When Shen Wanying entered Matriarch Bai’s vision, she heard this undying old fool saying, “I’ll accompany you to school tomorrow. For such a matter, it is better to personally speak with Lin Yi.”

Shen Wanying wasn’t as excited as she thought she would be. She only felt a sense of mockery when she looked at the old woman in front of her.

She had put in so much effort to fawn on and please this old woman, but in her heart, her second son’s family was more important?

The front of the hand and the back of the hand were both flesh!

However, Shen Wanying lowered her head and suppressed her resentment while maintaining a smile on her face. “Grandma, I really have to thank you!”

“Why do you have to thank me? We are one family.” Matriarch Bai laughed. “In addition, I understand Lin Yi. She will definitely share with me if there’s good stuff. Once I speak, it’s impossible for her to reject my request. As for that child who was chosen, we can simply pay her parents some compensation.”

Chapter 319 Meet!

In the Chu Manor.

Chu Cimo was complacently circling Chu Xiaoqi. No matter how he looked, he somehow found his daughter extremely pleasing to the eye. He happily spoke.

“Hahaha, I’ve said that my daughter would surely not be bad. She was also selected and this is simply too impressive! As expected of Chu Cimo’s daughter! Big bro, I’m not in any way worse than you!”

Chu Cichen coolly looked at him. “Xiaoqi scored zero points.”

!!

“...So what? Being able to score zero isn’t easy either! Beloved daughter, you are so impressive and could actually score zero?” Chu Cimo then felt a little depressed as he looked at Chu Xiaoqi.

After all, there were multiple questions where they were required to make a judgment and select an answer. Even if one guessed blindly, they would surely be able to score one or two points correctly, right?

Chu Xiaoqi chewed on an apple. "Since I don't know how to answer those questions, I just left them blank!"

"..."

Chu Cimo was speechless!

"Stop flaunting." Matriarch Chu couldn't bear to watch anymore. "The three children of your big brother legitimately got selected, but I can't help feeling that Xiaoqi being selected was a fluke."

Matriarch Chu was an intelligent woman. She was sensitive and stated, "Sparton is the most famous educator overseas and he said that he would only accept four students. Now, all four students are from our family...I'm afraid this might be a thorn in the flesh of everyone else and would invoke jealousy from others."

Never assumed that these influential families didn't give a damn about educational resources. The higher one's status was, the more they would want everything.

Chu Cimo's eyes flashed, yet he waved his hands dismissively. "How can that be possible? Could they sway Sparton's mind? In addition, Xiaoqi was personally selected by him!"

Matriarch Chu twitched the corner of her lips. "What if he simply decided to recruit Xiaoqi as a freebie because the other three were already chosen?"

Chu Cimo. "...Mother, you are underestimating my Xiaoqi. That's too much!"

Matriarch Chu also felt that her words might hurt Chu Xiaoqi's pride, so she hurriedly looked at the little girl. However, she only saw that the little girl was still chewing her apple seriously, like she didn't care about this at all.

Matriarch Chu then heaved a sigh of relief.

Bai Shanshan who was at the side also felt a little surreal.

She had always felt self-inferior in school after her father passed away. After that, she was played by the Yan Family for so long and had long since lost this feeling called 'pride'.

So, no matter how she encouraged her daughter, she had never thought that her daughter could be selected.

At this moment, she felt both surprised and shocked. She dumbly stared at Chu Cimo. "Is this real? I'm not dreaming, right?"

The special kindergarten only recruited child geniuses from all over the country.

Their daughter was actually ranked fourth?

As for Shen Ruoqing, she basically gave no regard for this matter at all. From her point of view, it was very normal for Xiaoqi to have been chosen. She sat on the sofa and as she was contemplating some things, her phone suddenly vibrated.

She glanced at it and discovered that someone had tagged her in the kindergarten chat group.

[Dingding's mother: Madam Chu, four children from your family got selected, and this is unfair to the rest of the children, right? I feel like you should give up two or three slots. Your family can't possibly monopolize all the good things, right?]

Shen Ruoqing. "???"

She felt that this person was mental.

Why should they give up the slots?

When she was pondering, she discovered someone had added her as a friend on WeChat. After checking, she saw that it was Dingding's mother. So, Shen Ruoqing rejected it immediately without even thinking.

After some time, Dingding's mother added her again and the opening message was: [Madam Chu, I'm saying this for your own good. Your family has no status in the capital, and it isn't too good to be too high-profile. If you can give three slots up, everyone will definitely accept your family easier.]

Shen Ruoqing narrowed her eyes as she looked at the message.

A surge of anger slowly rose from her heart.

She didn't like being calculative with the family members of patients because they would surely feel panicked due to concern. Hence, for people like the dean's nanny, she could tolerate it when the nanny cursed at her.

However, this didn't mean that she would accept it from this group of people who were so self-righteous.

Shen Ruoqing ignored her and directly replied tyrannically in the group chat. [Nope.]

The group chat immediately exploded.

Some started criticizing her for being too selfish. Sparton didn't come to China for Shen Ruoqing's family, so on what grounds did she have to monopolize so many education resources?

Shen Ruoqing then treated their replies like thin air.

On the other hand, Shen Wanying felt her lips curling when she saw these texts.

Back then in the hospital, the reason why she had helped Shen Ruoqing explain the life-saving pill was all for this moment!

Although she understood that the four children of the Chu Family being selected had nothing to do with the life-saving pill, the other parents in the group chat had no idea. This was especially so when Chu Xiaoqi got selected despite scoring zero points. Everyone would definitely feel that it was because of that life-saving pill.

Now, didn't they already start creating trouble?

Shen Wanying placed her phone down and smiled.

The crusade against Shen Ruoqing continued all the way until 9 p.m. However, Shen Ruoqing no longer replied, so everyone slowly subsided into silence.

The next day.

After Shen Wanying woke up, she brought Bai Yitong to Matriarch Bai's room.

Matriarch Bai was already very old, hence, she woke up very early.

She was already fully dressed. After seeing the two of them, Matriarch Bai stood up. "Let's go."

The Bai Family's car drove to the kindergarten and although it was peak period, all the parents at the entrance opened a path up for them.

Matriarch Bai held Bai Yitong's hand as they imperiously strode into the school, walking through the crowd.

She got Bai Yitong to go to his classroom first before she turned and headed to Dean Lin Yi's office.

Lin Yi had already arrived. After seeing her, the two shared a glance and understood each other's intentions respectively. Matriarch Bai asked, "Will this matter be easy to resolve?"

Lin Yi nodded. "It is not difficult. Sparton has agreed that I can decide who the fourth child is."

Matriarch Bai waved her hand. "Good then."

However, Dean Yi hesitated.

Matriarch Bai asked, "What's the matter?"

Dean Lin Yi sighed. "I wasn't present yesterday and the teachers didn't understand my intention. After Sparton confirmed the name list, they directly announced the names. Now if we suddenly change a name, I will feel guilty as the dean, as this is the first time I'm doing this for personal reasons!"

The two of them were best friends for many years, so they didn't beat around the bush.

Matriarch Bai immediately stated. "This is simple. How about this? Get that child and her parents here, and I will negotiate with them. I will give them some benefits and get them to surrender the slot of their own volition. If the fourth slot is empty, Little Tong should be the next in line, right?"

Dean Lin Yi nodded.

She actually felt very guilty in her heart.

The fourth slot was something she had requested from Sparton due to their friendship in addition to giving him some benefits. So, it was indeed true that she did this for Matriarch Bai.

Since that was the case, why didn't they compensate Chu Xiaoqi a little?

She spoke to the nanny, "Get Chu Xiaoqi and her parents here."

The nanny nodded and just when she was preparing to go out, Dean Lin hesitated but eventually added, "Invite Miss Shen too."

"Sure."

At the kindergarten's entrance.

When Chu Xiaoqi, Bai Shanshan, and Chu Cimo were summoned, they were a little perplexed.

The three of them followed the nanny and entered the dean's office.

At the same time, Matriarch Bai was currently conversing with Lin Yi. "Regardless of influential families or major clans, as long as there are enough benefits, there would be no problems. We have been friends for so many years, and I definitely won't make you look bad. At the very least, you will be able to give others an explanation."

Lin Yi tensed her lips and silently sighed.

She could only say that everything was a coincidence.

If she wasn't ill and had to be warded, she would have been able to speak with Sparton clearly before this, and the matter of him selecting Chu Xiaoqi wouldn't have happened...

Just as she was pondering, Bai Shanshan held Chu Xiaoqi's hands and entered the office.

Matriarch Bai arrogantly looked over, preparing to wave her hand and issue a large check. But at this moment, her gaze abruptly landed on Chu Xiaoqi who was clad in the kindergarten's uniform!

Her body trembled as she exclaimed in shock, "Old Second?"

Chapter 320 Uncanny Resemblance!!

Chu Xiaoqi was in her school uniform.

As it was the winter season, everyone was wearing long pants, with both boys and girls wearing the same clothes.

Chu Xiaoqi's hair was tied up into a ponytail, and the top of her head appeared a little convex as well. At one glance, she really looked the same as the Bai Family's second child from over 40 years ago.

Matriarch Bai went into a stupor. She felt as if she had returned to those days. As her eldest son was personally nurtured by Old Master Bai, she could only give all her love to her second son.

!!

Every time she missed her eldest son, the young child would reach out his chubby little hands to wipe off her tears. "Mommy, don't cry. I'll definitely not be like my elder brother. I won't do well in life and will just stay by your side!"

Matriarch Bai was amused by his words, but she lectured him, "That won't do. You're so smart, so how can you not do well in life?"

She had given all the best resources she could give to her second son and had been closest to him. From a certain viewpoint, her second son was more like her first child.

Even after she had given birth to her third and fourth children, her relationship with them wasn't as strong as it was with her second son.

Matriarch Bai took a step forward and reached out her aged hand, wanting to grab Chu Xiaoqi. At this moment, Shen Wanying held her arm and called out. "Grandmother."

Only then did Matriarch Bai return to reality.

She looked at Chu Xiaoqi once again, only to see that the little girl was different from her second child. She had a pair of phoenix eyes and she was a girl!

Matriarch Bai took a step back, feeling stunned as she realized that she had mistaken her for someone else. However, why did this girl have such a strong resemblance with her second child?

She looked up once again and saw Bai Shanshan and Chu Cimo.

As Chu Xiaoqi wore the same uniform as the Matriarch's second child back then, she seemed to have a strong resemblance with him at first glance. But she also shared a 50% resemblance with Chu Cimo.

Actually, Bai Shanshan's features looked more like Bai Jiayao.

Therefore, when Matriarch Bai saw Bai Shanshan, she was even more startled.

When Matriarch Bai was in a daze, Dean Lin Yi took a step forward and introduced both sides to each other, "These are Chu Xiaoqi's parents."

She then looked at Matriarch Bai and said, "This is the Bai Family's matriarch."

After that, she proceeded to point at Shen Wanying. "And this is Bai Yitong's mother."

After the introductions were done, Dean Lin Yi looked at both parties. As someone in the education industry, she wasn't able to get herself to propose for Bai Shanshan to give up the spot. So she said, "You guys can talk. I'll go out first."

After she went out, Shen Wanying waited for Matriarch Bai to bring this up.

However, after waiting for a while, she didn't hear Matriarch Bai saying anything. She then turned, feeling puzzled, only to see Matriarch Bai staring at Bai Shanshan's face.

Shen Wanying frowned.

What was going on with Matriarch Bai?

Just as she was immersed in her thoughts, Chu Cimo took a step forward and stood in front of Bai Shanshan and Chu Xiaoqi. The young man who was always frivolous now had his back straightened and asked, "Why are you looking for us?"

Seeing that Matriarch Bai was not saying anything, Shen Wanying went ahead to speak up. "It's like this, can you guys give up..."

However, before she could finish her words, Matriarch Bai suddenly took a step forward and interrupted her. She then looked straight at Bai Shanshan. "Lass, what is your surname?"

Bai Shanshan. "?"

She couldn't understand why this old lady was talking like this. She only found the latter amicable and felt a sense of closeness to her. Bai Shanshan then looked at Chu Cimo with deer-like eyes and said, "My surname is Bai."

Bai...

Matriarch Bai's eyes gleamed and she took a step forward to grab her hands. "Is your father Bai Jiayao?"

Bai Shanshan was stunned. She shook her head. "My father is named Bai Yao."

However, Matriarch Bai seemed to have been struck by a realization and she said, "Yao, Yao*... Your father would definitely change her name after leaving the family... Where is your father? Can you bring me to meet him?"

Bai Shanshan's gaze instantly turned dim. "My father passed away when I was in junior high. Do you know him?"

Passed away?

Matriarch Bai was stunned.

She released Bai Shanshan's hand. "How could he have died? He was still on the phone with me yesterday..."

Bai Shanshan was perplexed.

However, Shen Wanying, who was at the side, suddenly understood something. She surveyed Bai Shanshan seriously and finally realized that she bore a 70% resemblance with Second Uncle Bai!

Shen Wanying's heart sank and her fingers clenched tightly.

She immediately took a step forward and said, "Grandmother, did you have a misunderstanding?"

Matriarch Bai was stunned.

Shen Wanying got close to her and said in a suppressed voice, "Second Uncle's daughter has gone overseas. Have you forgotten about that?"

Matriarch Bai frowned. "But she..."

"She isn't." Shen Wanying tightened her fingers.

Only then did Matriarch Bai come to a realization.

She frowned.

Seeing that Matriarch Bai wasn't in the right condition, Shen Wanying wondered how she was going to negotiate.

Therefore, even though her original plan was to let Matriarch Bai take the lead while she stood at the back, she had no choice but to take things into her own hands now.

Shen Wanying took a deep breath and went up to Bai Shanshan. She suddenly said, "Miss Bai, our Bai Family's business is planning to change the spokesperson of our toothbrush brand. Would you be interested in that?"

Bai Shanshan was stunned. "What?"

She had debuted as a singer. Although back then Yan Zijing had become very popular due to Bai Shanshan's voice and had become a first-rate singer, Bai Shanshan was in an awkward position recently.

She had never been the spokesperson for any product. Basically, the capitalists didn't feel assured by her influencing power.

Moreover, some people felt that she was also lying to the public by singing for Yan Zijing. They spoke badly about her needlessly for a very long time. Therefore, there hadn't been good offers for her.

Moreover, Shen Qianhui wanted to nurture her in the direction of becoming a heavenly queen, so she would definitely not take on bad offers.

As a result, Bai Shanshan hadn't become a spokesperson for any products yet.

Hearing Shen Wanying's words, she felt puzzled. "For this, you'll have to talk to my manager..."

Shen Wanying. "?"

Even Chu Cimo's lips also twitched.

He was usually naive enough, but he didn't expect Bai Shanshan to be even more innocent.

He directly asked, "What do you want?"

Shen Wanying smiled and looked at him. "Mr. Chu, you're a smart person. I want Chu Xiaoqi to reject becoming Sparton's student."

Chu Cimo immediately said, "That's impossible!"

His Xiaoqi depended on the fact that she didn't have any capabilities and didn't know anything to get the position. Why should she give it up?

Shen Wanying immediately replied, "I heard that the Chu Family wishes to develop in the capital but hasn't been accepted by others. However, our Bai Family is willing to give you some help."

The moment she said this, Chu Cimo was stumped.

There was another meaning to Shen Wanying's words—If Chu Xiaoqi refused to give up the spot, then the Bai Family would target the Chu Family!

When the matter involved the Chu Family, it wasn't just his problem alone.

He fell quiet and didn't say anything.

Shen Wanying was planning to continue pushing when Matriarch Bai suddenly said, "This matter can't be decided in just one or two days. Let them go back and think about it first."

Shen Wanying narrowed her eyes but didn't rebuke Matriarch Bai's words. "That's right. Mr. Chu probably can't make the decision on this matter either. You can go back and discuss this with your elder brother. We'll wait for your good news."

She then looked at Bai Shanshan. "I hope that we'll be able to have a good cooperation."

Chu Cimo glared at her and then brought Bai Shanshan and Chu Xiaoqi to leave the room.

After they left, Shen Wanying looked at Matriarch Bai. She was just about to say something when Matriarch Bai said, "Go and see what Lin Yi is doing. Call her in."

Shen Wanying nodded. "Alright."

After Shen Wanying went out, Matriarch Bai immediately looked at her butler.

Butler Bai was Matriarch Bai's butler and was the most loyal to her.

Matriarch Bai asked, "Do you feel that..."

"They look alike! They look very much alike!" The butler nodded.

Matriarch Bai took a deep breath. "Go and help do a DNA test for Bai Shanshan and me."
