

Boss Mommy 561

Chapter 561: Reason

Ji Wuyou looked anxiously at Shen Ruoqing. His eyes were wide, and he stuttered, trying to explain something. "Princess, I... she..."

But he didn't know how to put it into words.

Ji Nina's hand that was holding the chopsticks paused slightly. She then forcefully swallowed the food in her mouth before speaking, 'Wuyou, don't be afraid. The Princess has seen through Us..."

Her tone was relaxed, and her whole body seemed to be at ease.

Ji Wuyou was taken aback. "What? When did the Princess find out?"

Shen Ruoqing looked at Ji Nina, finding her more interesting. She then explained, "That's right. My maidservant found out that your mother and her mother are only enemies on the surface, but in fact, they support each other behind the scenes just to deceive the Ji family's matriarch..."

Ji Wuyou was stunned.

Shen Ruoqing continued, "Besides, you asked me not to expose Ji Nina and Yan Zihan's affair, ostensibly to control her and threaten her mother. But in reality, you're just afraid that Ji Nina will get hurt... isn't that right?"

Ji Wuyou remained silent.

Shen Ruoqing then sat down opposite Ji Nina.

Ji Nina waved to Ji WUYOU. "You go out first, I'll talk to the Princess."

Ji Wuyou looked at her worriedly, but Ji Nina gave him a grin.

Seeing this, Ji Wuyou left the room.

When the door closed, Shen Ruoqing looked at Ji Nina. "What is your true purpose for cooperating with my father and me?"

Shen Ruoqing was puzzled as to why Ji WUYOU had lured her to Ji Nina's palace.

It was only later when Princess Consort Luo died and Yan Zihan fell from grace that she began to feel that Ji Nina seemed to be targeting Princess Consort Luo and Princess Consort Yan.

After that, when Princess Consort Luo died, Shen Ruoqing spread the rumor in the palace that the child in Shen Qianhui's belly was a boy in order to force Princess Consort Yan to act.

However, Princess Consort Yan had just been reprimanded by Queen Dowager Yan. Without Ji Nina, Princess Consort Yan might still have acted, but she would have hesitated for a few months.

But with Ji Nina, Princess Consort Yan let her take action, trying to push all the blame onto her.

Ji Nina could have refused, saying she was afraid, or she could have been more discreet, pretending to fail.

Moreover, she had no power of her own and could not compete for the Queen's position due to her background. So Shen Ruoqing couldn't understand Ji Nina's goal!

Ji Nina lowered her head. All of a sudden, she stood up and took off her clothes. When Shen Ruoqing's gaze fell on her, she was immediately shocked!

Ji Nina had been injured during her interrogation, but those injuries had healed and were not too horrifying.

However, outside the wounds, on her arms, legs, back, and chest... her body was covered with small, round burn scars. They were densely packed all over her body!!

Shen Ruoqing's eyes widened in shock

Even though she had seen all kinds of cruel scenes, she was still shocked by the injuries on Ji Nina's body.

Ji Nina, however, remained calm and said, "Your Highness, you grew up in China, so you probably haven't heard of the aristocratic school, have you? In our Country A, there is one where children from the three major families can study together regardless of grade. These injuries on my body were caused by bullying at school. In China, this would be considered... school bullying."

Shen Ruoqing hesitated for a moment. "Was it Princess Consort Yan and her group who did this?"

Ji Nina nodded. "At that time, Princess Consort Yan was the school beauty, and she and Yan Zihan were admired by everyone because of the Queen Dowager. No one dared to provoke them. The cigarette burns on my body were their doing, and Yan Zihan even... bullied me..."

Ji Nina lowered her head, seemingly recalling those humiliating days in the past, and clenched her fists tightly. "At that time, I was only fifteen. I told my father about it, but he said that I was just a concubine's daughter, and it wasn't worth causing trouble with the Yan family for my sake... Later, I thought about committing suicide, but when I was standing on the top of a building, I thought, 'What would happen to my mother if I died? And if I'm not afraid of death, what else am I afraid of?'"

Ji Nina gave Shen Ruoqing a wretched smile. "After that, I dropped out of school. I wanted to gather strength and take revenge."

Shen Ruoqing furrowed her brows. "And then?"

Ji Nina bitterly smiled. "Then I realized how naive I was. What ability did a little concubine's daughter like me have to take revenge? Moreover, during those ten years, I wanted to let go of the past and start a new life."

"But it just so happened that Princess Consort Yan didn't want a legitimate daughter from the Ji family to enter the palace and stand on equal footing with her. So with just a small trick, I was sent to the palace. It was Princess Consort Yan who pushed me back into the abyss!"

Ji Nina's eyes revealed a look of despair. "I thought that Princess Consort Yan would become more restrained as she grew up, and Yan Zihan would be afraid. But I didn't expect their positions in the palace to still be very high. I became their plaything again! Yan Zihan had photos of me being humiliated when I was young, and he forced me to serve him. Every time when he screwed me, the duration to his climax was so short, but he still wanted me to praise him for being powerful. It was really disgusting!"

Ji Nina's body trembled. "So, I wanted revenge! I've been waiting for an opportunity, and it wasn't until you and the King returned that I knew my chance had come!"

Shen Ruoqing helped her speak. "So you deliberately let Ji WUYOU lure me over, and then you exposed my identity in front of Princess Consort Luo that day to show her your goodwill. You calculated that Princess Consort Luo would come to you to complain after my father left her palace, and I would just happen to catch Yan Zihan's affair with you... You let me witness everything, and after Princess Consort Luo died, you used my power to target Yan Zihan. Then you guessed my father's plan and helped with the abortion medicine... All this, just for revenge!"

Ji Nina didn't deny it. "Yes."

She looked at Shen Ruoqing and bowed her head. "I know that using Your

Highness's power like this was a grave sin. Ji Nina's life is meant for revenge. Now that my revenge has been achieved, Your Highness can kill me however you want! As for WUYOU, he only agreed to help me because I threatened his life. Please don't blame him.'

As soon as these words were spoken, Ji Wuyou rushed in and knelt on the ground as well. "Your Highness, my sister was forced into this! She had no other choice! Please spare her life!"

Shen Ruoqing looked at the two of them and suddenly sighed, looking at Ji Nina. "Do you want to go to China?"

Ji Nina was taken aback and looked up with confusion. "China is a place where every woman in Country A longs to go, a place where men and women are equal. Everyone is equal there, without discrimination... But I can't go... With this criminal identity, I can't go anywhere...."

Chapter 562: Truth!

Shen Ruoqing sighed. "After all, you were the one who administered the medicine. I can't protect you in Country A, but I can send you to China and give you some money so you can live a life where everyone is equal, just like what you want..."

Hearing this, Ji Nina was stunned and her eyes suddenly turned red.

Ji Wuyou, who was standing nearby, bowed deeply to Shen Ruoqing. "Your Highness, from now on, my life is yours! I will only follow your orders!"

Shen Ruoqing helped Ji Wuyou up and looked at Princess Consort Ji, asking, "You said that Princess Consort Yan has a child. Do you know what happened?"

Ji Nina shook her head. "Actually, I only heard it from Yan Zihan. I don't know the specifics."

Shen Ruoqing didn't ask any further questions.

Shen Ruoqing had long since noticed that Princess Consort Ji was not simple. But because her actions didn't target Shen Ruoqing or her family, she turned a blind eye to it. She hadn't expected it to be like this.

What Ji Nina had done was wrong.

But in her situation, it was understandable!

In the strict class system of Country A, it was too difficult for her to seek justice for herself.

As they left the room, they saw Song Chen waiting outside. Shen Ruoqing then went over and unconsciously explained Ji Nina's situation. After listening, Song Chen was silent for a moment before finally saying, "Princess Consort Ji is talented."

Shen Ruoqing nodded in agreement.

Song Chen asked, "Where are we going now? "

Shen Ruoqing raised her eyebrows. "Of course it is to find Princess Consort Yan."

Princess Consort Yan was being held in the Queen Dowager's palace, but that couldn't stop Shen Ruoqing.

Since Shen Ruoqing was King Jing's only daughter, if King Jing didn't have any more children in the future, the royal family would choose to marry her to someone who would produce a male heir to inherit the throne.

As a result, everyone treated her with respect.

Shen Ruoqing soon arrived at Princess Consort Yan's prison.

Princess Consort Yan had her long hair draped over her shoulders, and her clothes were not too messy. Hearing the door open, she looked over. After seeing that it was Shen Ruoqing, she sneered. "Have you come to laugh at me? " Shen Ruoqing replied, "I told you, I just want you to help me clear up a doubt."

Princess Consort Yan's eyes were fierce. "What?"

Shen Ruoqing said, "I want to know who you found to train Song Chen and Chu Cichen to be so similar. What is the relationship between the two of them?"

Upon hearing this, Princess Consort Yan furrowed her brows. "What are you talking about?"

Shen Ruoqing stared at Princess Consort Yan.

Her confusion and doubt at this moment didn't seem to be fake, but didn't Princess Consort Yan hide a child?

She was about to ask something when suddenly the royal doctor from the palace's medical center came to Shen Ruoqing.

The royal doctor spoke to her, "Your Highness, your identity jade has been created and placed in the storage of the royal family. We have checked your medical report and found that these days are your ovulation period. Do you want to choose to freeze your eggs?"

Shen Ruoqing was taken aback. "What is that?"

The royal doctor laughed. "In order to prevent the royal family members from having no offspring, all members of the royal family, if they have no children at the age of 20, are required to have their eggs or sperm frozen. However, I heard that you already have three children, so you are not forced to do it. It is up to you."

Shen Ruoqing was stunned for a moment.

She suddenly asked, "Did my father freeze his sperm?"

The royal doctor nodded. "His Majesty left home at the age of 20, just after having his sperm frozen..."

Shen Ruoqing suddenly understood something and immediately looked at Princess Consort Yan. "Your child..."

Before she could finish, Princess Consort Yan sneered. "Yes, I used His Majesty's frozen sperm. So what?"

The royal doctor heard this and was immediately stunned. He panicked and exclaimed, "Using His Majesty's frozen sperm while the King is alive and well is illegal!"

Princess Consort Yan naturally knew that this was illegal.

This was also the reason why Princess Consort Yan had not brought the child into the open. But now, in order to protect herself, she had to reveal the truth.

She sneered. "So what? Even if I'm wrong, my son, who is raised outside, is His Majesty's only son! Let me tell you, I won't die because I am the mother of His Majesty's only son! Hahaha..."

Princess Consort Yan's laughter spread, showing her arrogance.

The Queen Dowager and King Jing heard the news and hurried over.

The Queen Dowager asked, "Do you really have Jing Zhen's son?"

Princess Consort Yan nodded. "Yes, if you want me to hand over the child, you must release me first!"

The Queen Dowager hesitated. She then glanced at King Jing and finally said, "You have a son... Jing Zhen, let her go! There is nothing more important than the Crown Prince..."

However, as soon as these words were spoken, King Jing laughed.

King Jing's enchanting peach blossom eyes made Princess Consort Yan feel extremely infatuated. She spoke with a love-struck expression on her face, "Your Majesty, as long as you release me, we can start living a happy life as a family of three..."

King Jing narrowed his eyes and said, "You... are not worthy!"

Upon hearing this, Princess Consort Yan's face stiffened and she said, "I have your son, you can't kill me!"

The Queen Dowager also spoke, "Jing Zhen, for the sake of the child, spare her life..."

King Jing sneered. 'What child? Old witch, there's something I forgot to tell you. When I had the sperm frozen back then, in order to get rid of your control, I randomly found a beggar's sperm on the street and froze it...' He laughed and said arrogantly, "I'll choose my own wife and children myself!"

Princess Consort Yan was shocked. "Impossible, this can't be!"

King Jing sneered. 'What's impossible? In my rebellious years, I did even more absurd things to deal with the old witch!'

The Queen Dowager thought of his actions when he was young and couldn't help but twitch her eyelids.

She knew that everything Jing Zhen said was true!

Seeing this, Princess Consort Yan realized that she was completely finished.

She then collapsed to the ground.

This little incident didn't affect anything that followed.

However, a confused look appeared in Shen Ruoqing's eyes.

Who was it that had orchestrated Song Chen to impersonate Chu Cichen and wanted her to give birth to a child?!

It wasn't Princess Consort Luo, Princess Consort Ji, and now it wasn't Princess Consort Yan either...

All three had fallen!

The only ones who could order the agents of Country A were these masters in the palace!

. But it couldn't be the Queen Dowager either.

If the Queen Dowager had known about King Jing's identity, she would have forced him to return home long ago and wouldn't have plotted against them behind their backs.

But who else could it be if not the Queen Dowager?

The former concubines had long since been suppressed by her and had no power left, so it couldn't have been them either...

Shen Ruoqing used the process of elimination until, in the end, everyone else was ruled out, leaving only one person!

Chapter 563: Inscrutable

Shen Ruoqing seemed to have guessed something, but she was not so sure.

It was mainly because that person didn't have to treat her like that...

After returning from Princess Consort Yan's prison, she had been sitting blankly in Shen Qianhui's palace.

After all, Shen Qianhui just had a miscarriage and needed rest, so she had been lying in bed, sleeping. Seeing her daughter's expression, she hesitated and asked, "Ruoqing, what's wrong?"

"Nothing." Shen Ruoqing lowered her eyes and suddenly said, "Mom, have you ever felt that someone who has always been by your side suddenly becomes inscrutable?"

Shen Qianhui laughed. "Everyone has secrets that they don't want others to know. Even as mother and daughter, I have my own little thoughts that I don't want you to see, let alone others. But for so many years, I've always felt that it's enough as long as we follow one principle in whatever we do."

Shen Ruoqing hesitated but still asked, "What principle?"

Shen Qianhui said, "Follow your heart."

Shen Ruoqing paused.

She had always been rational ever since she was a child and didn't believe in things like intuition. Shen Qianhui, on the other hand, was sometimes emotional in her actions. For example, when they were in Haicheng, she had long since known that the Shen family was not good to her, but she was unwilling to admit it and continued to serve the family...

At that time, Shen Ruoqing thought that her mother was foolish.

But now that she thought about it again, her mother had always acted according to her heart. Even though the Shen family didn't treat her well, they had raised her. She never owed the Shen family anything.

As for her father...

Her mother unconditionally trusted Jing Zhen, even if it meant following him to Country A without fear. That was why her father was able to take care of everything for her. Shen Qianhui didn't do anything after coming to Country A, but she was now the only princess consort in the palace.

She had never doubted the truth about others' feelings toward her, and even when she was hurt, she never feared.

It seemed that Shen Ruoqing understood something, so she nodded.

Just then, someone came to report that Ji WUYOU had arrived.

When Shen Ruoqing stepped out, she saw Song Chen standing outside the door, looking at Ji Wuyou with a hostile gaze.

Song Chen's entire body exuded an icy and sharp aura, which reminded Shen Ruoqing of Chu Cichen once again.

These days, she had been busy dealing with matters in the palace, and Chu Cichen hadn't replied to her messages, so she didn't bother, thinking that man was just too petty.

While she was lost in thought, Ji WUYOU saw her and immediately stepped forward. He lowered his voice. 'Your Highness, do you want Princess Consort Shen to become the Queen?'

Shen Ruoqing hesitated momentarily and leaned closer to him. "What do you mean?"

Ji Wuyou leaned closer to Shen Ruoqing and said, "At the royal meeting today, someone mentioned that His Majesty's harem is empty and suggested that he should take more wives to fill the harem to ensure the continuation of the royal lineage..."

Shen Ruoqing sneered. "What did my father say? "

Ji Wuyou was slightly taken aback by her use of the term 'my father'. In Country A, the hierarchy was strict, and the King was the most revered existence. As a result, Shen Ruoqing's Chinese-style address could be seen as disrespectful to the King.

However, Ji WUYOU immediately lowered his eyes, pretending not to have heard anything. "Ahem, the King said that he had been injured a few days ago and was diagnosed by the royal physician to have difficulty having more offspring. Besides, he is getting old and decided not to take any more wives. If everyone is worried about the issue of heirs, they can... ahem."

Ji Wuyou coughed and hesitated to say the next part.

Just as Shen Ruoqing was about to ask something, an icy voice interrupted, "If Commander Ji is feeling unwell, he should stay away from Her Highness to avoid spreading the sickness."

Ji Wuyou.

Shen Ruoqing glanced at Song Chen, sensing a hint of jealousy in his tone.

Song Chen's words were always gentle, as if he had been wronged.

But the icy tone just now was more like Chu Cichen's.

Hence, Shen Ruoqing raised her eyebrows and couldn't help but look at Song Chen again.

Ever since she had arrived in Country A, she couldn't tell whether Song Chen was really Song Chen or Chu Cichen...

As she pondered, Ji Wuyou stepped back to put some distance between him and Shen Ruoqing. He coughed subconsciously, but remembering Song Chen's warning, he stifled the cough in his throat. His face then turned red. After a moment, he said, "His Majesty said that if everyone is worried about the issue of heirs, they can consider choosing more princes for Her Highness, ahem."

Ji Wuyou didn't want to cough either.

But he couldn't help it!

How could he, an unmarried man, say such a thing?

Upon hearing this, Shen Ruojing's face was marked with three dark lines.

She almost instinctively looked at Song Chen guiltily.

She saw the man's expression change from surprise to ridicule, almost mockingly saying, "Wow, Her Highness is really fortunate!"

His tone, his expression... just like a jealous Chu Cichen!

Shen Ruojing coughed and looked away, but when she felt Song Chen's gaze on her, she asked, "You mentioned earlier that there's a way for my mother to become the Queen... What's your plan?"

Ji Wuyou whispered, "The royal family has always wanted to ally with an international power. Coincidentally, their leader has come to Country A.. If Your Highness can establish a good relationship with him, then there is hope for the position of Queen!"

Chapter 564: Dark Web Organization!

Shen Ruojing asked, "Which power?"

Ji Wuyou said solemnly, "The Dark Web Organization."

Shen Ruojing.

Seeing that Shen Ruojing didn't speak, Ji Wuyou thought that she didn't know about the Dark Web Organization and explained, "The Dark Web has only been developing internationally for a few decades and is the eye and radar of the internet age! Many organizations on the Dark Web set up forums and websites, controlling global information. It's the most dominant force in the internet age. Although our royal family in Country A has accumulated wealth for hundreds or even thousands of years, ranking in the top three globally, the rapid development of the internet and the severe digitalization of global industries, as well as the rapid growth of virtual currencies, have left the royal family lagging in this aspect. So, we urgently need to build a good relationship with the Dark Web Organization..."

After explaining why the royal family valued the Dark Web organization so much, Ji WUYOU continued, "However, I heard that the leader of the Dark Web organization is a psychopath who kills without remorse. He even used the power of the Dark Web to directly assassinate his own siblings... and he has a well-known fetish for women wearing golden masks and red dresses..."

Ji Wuyou then said, "If Your Highness wants to establish contact with him, I think you can consider starting from this aspect."

Shen Ruojing.

Seeing that she didn't speak for a while, Ji Wuyou said after a moment of silence, "Your Highness, I'm willing to help you with this! You must act quickly on this matter. I heard that the Yan, Luo, and even Ji families are trying to establish contact with Dugu Xiao, who has not married yet. So, all three major families intend to form a marriage alliance with him to expand their family's power..."

Shen Ruojing casually responded with an, "Oh."

She touched her chin. "Commander Ji, I have a question for you."

Ji Wuyou immediately looked at her. "Please do tell, Your Highness!"

He thought that she would ask about Dugu Xiao, but Shen Ruojing instead asked, "Do you know about the royal guards?"

Ji Wuyou nodded right away. "Yes, is Your Highness planning to have the royal guards assassinate Dugu Xiao? That's not possible. If we kill Dugu Xiao, we won't be able to control the Dark Web Organization either."

Shen Ruojing waved her hand. "That's not what I mean. I want to ask you, how do the members of the royal family control the guards and give them orders?"

Ji Wuyou explained, "The guards are specially trained assassins for the royal family. As long as a member with royal blood gives them orders, they can be controlled. In the past, it was done through tokens of each royal family member. Now, with the development of the internet, royal family members have their own unique account passwords. They can login to the guards' website and issue commands..."

Shen Ruojing hesitated. "Does everyone have their own exclusive account?"

"Yes, the login account requires fingerprint or iris recognition, so only the account holder can log in. Your Highness and Princess Consort Shen don't have accounts yet, do you? I think you will receive them soon..."

Shen Ruojing lowered her gaze. "I understand."

After ruling out all the impossibilities, the only remaining option, even if it was unlikely, had to be him.

While pondering, footsteps were heard in the distance, and a maid by Jing Zhen's side walked over. "Your Highness, Dugu Xiao from the Dark Web organization has been invited to the palace today. His Majesty the King is hosting a banquet to welcome him and has asked you to get ready and meet the guest."

Upon hearing this, Ji Wuyou's eyes brightened. "His Majesty the King has indeed made arrangements for Your Highness. Knowing that the Yan, Luo, and Ji families are all in contact with Dugu Xiao, and Your Highness has not had the opportunity, he simply invited him to the palace. I think His Majesty also wants Your Highness to have some interaction with Dugu Xiao! If Your Highness can win over Dugu Xiao or even make him your Prince Consort, Princess Consort Shen will gain power, and everyone will agree to make her the Queen!"

He smiled. "Your Highness must seize this opportunity!"

Only the Queen and the King were considered a married couple!

If Shen Qianhui could become the Queen, Jing Zhen would not let her be just a Princess Consort.

Hearing this, Shen Ruoqing nodded her head.

Without getting ready, she walked straight out.

Song Chen and Ji Wuyou followed her, and the three of them arrived at the banquet hall that was prepared to welcome Dugu Xiao.

As soon as Shen Ruoqing entered, she saw the heads of the Luo, Yan, and Ji families sitting in the banquet hall.

The royal banquet was held in a luxurious palace with a long table in the center.

Jing Zhen sat at the top, wearing the King's uniform, looking extremely noble.

Below him, there were three men standing, one of whom was the head of the Luo family, whom Shen Ruoqing had seen before. The other two she hadn't seen, but she guessed that they were the heads of the Yan and Ji families.

At this moment, she could hear Jing Zhen say. "Princess Consort Shen has given birth to the only heir of the royal family. If she cannot be made Queen, how can the Princess's child ascend the throne legitimately in the future?"

The head of the Yan family stepped forward first. "Your Majesty, Princess Consort Shen is from the Shen family of China and has no foundation in Country A. Moreover, she is a foreigner. If she is to be made Queen, how can we explain this to the people of Country A?"

King Jing Zhen sneered. "Now, she is my wife and has come to Country A with me. Her household registration has also been transferred to Country A. She is no longer a foreigner!"

The head of the Ji family immediately said, "Even if Princess Consort Shen is a citizen of Country A, her background is too ordinary. The Shen family may be one of the four great families in the capital of China, but their wealth is not significant in our Country A. Besides, the Princess Consort has only given birth to a daughter for you. If she could ascend to the position of Queen this way, it would indeed be somewhat inappropriate!"

King Jing Zhen wanted to say something, but the head of the Yan family then said, "Your Majesty, let's discuss the matter of the Queen another day. Today, our main focus is to establish a connection with the Dark Web Organization.. If we can build a strong relationship with them, in the future, in the era of global digitalization, we can also gain an advantage in this field!"

Chapter 565: Jingjing Becomes The Crown Princess?

King Jing Zhen snorted coldly, knowing that this old fox was trying to stall. However, he said, "The coronation ceremony is about to begin, and we can't delay this matter any longer."

Upon hearing this, the head of the Luo family suggested, "Why don't we see which of our three families can take down Dugu Xiao today? Whichever family succeeds can put forward the suggestion for a Queen."

The head of the Ji family scoffed, "Now that after the Princess Consorts from our three families are gone, how can we talk about a Queen?"

Hearing this, the head of the Luo family countered, "My daughter was once the Princess Consort. Even if she is dead, she can still be posthumously granted the title. What we want is just the position of the Queen. After all, His Majesty the King will not have any more children now, and our three families will have to unite to support the next Crown Prince. So, wouldn't the family of the Queen be the in-laws of the Princess?"

The head of the Yan family immediately said, "Our Yan family is already the in-laws of His Majesty the King, so we will definitely treat the Princess as our Luo family sneered. "By then, what will the Yan family rely on to support the Princess?"

The head of the Yan family was taken aback.

Just as Jing Zhen was about to say something, Shen Ruoqing entered the room and announced loudly, "I have my own in-laws, so I won't need to trouble any of you!"

Hearing these words, all three family heads were slightly taken aback

After that, the head of the Luo family took the lead and said, "Princess, I know your in-laws are the Shen family of China. However, in Country A, the Shen family has no influence. You will need the support of our three great families to secure the position of the Crown Prince for your future son."

All three major families now knew that His Majesty the King was no longer able to have children. Hence, as the Princess was the only bloodline of the royal family, her future son would certainly be the next King.

So the three major families didn't dare to go against her and wanted to compete for the empty title of Queen.

After all, the Queen was the King's only wife, and all the King's children should call her mother. Once someone became the Queen, they could control the Princess and continue their glory.

When Luo family finished speaking, the head of the Yan family immediately stepped forward and looked kindly at Shen Ruoqing. He said softly, "Your nickname is Jingjing, right? I am your grandmother's nephew, and you can call me uncle. You really look like His Majesty the King!"

The head of the Yan family was of the same generation as Jing Zhen. Princess Consort Yan was his sister, and Yan Zihan was his brother.

Although he resented Shen Ruoqing for the deaths of the two, he understood the situation clearly and knew that he should please Shen Ruoqing now.

Moreover, Princess Consort Yan had caused the death of Shen Ruoqing's baby brother, so it was only natural for Shen Ruoqing to blame them.

Shen Ruoqing did not respond to the overt friendliness of the Yan family head. She simply took a step forward and stood beside Jing Zhen.

It could be said that the Yan family had a bad family culture; they were able to raise a daughter and son who engaged in campus violence. Thinking of Queen Dowager's crazy way of doing things, it was likely that the Yan family, having been in power for a long time, had become accustomed to looking down on people and treating their lives as insignificant.

Shen Ruoqing, who grew up in China, simply couldn't condone any of this.

Ji family also smiled and said, "I heard that the Princess is proficient in music, chess, calligraphy, and painting in China, and even holds a Ph.D. She is truly intelligent and talented like our royal family! If only the Princess were a man!

Shen Ruoqing raised her eyebrows. "What's wrong with being a woman? In China, women can hold up half the sky! Women can also excel in various positions!"

Jing Zhen looked at her and smiled. "That's right, Jingjing is no worse than anyone's son! So, I intend to make Jingjing the Crown Princess!"

Upon hearing this, the people from the three families were stunned once again.

They couldn't believe their ears and looked at Jing Zhen. "Your Majesty, this cannot be done!"

Jing Zhen asked, "Why not?"

The head of the Yan family said, "Since ancient times, no woman has ever become a King in our country!"

Although Queen Dowager Yan was very powerful, she had never usurped the throne. She only supported Jing Zhen after killing all the other concubines. There was indeed no precedent of a woman becoming a King in Country A.

Jing Zhen said, "There's nothing to discuss about this matter."

Shen Ruoqing.

She wanted to say that she didn't want to do it either.

However, Jing Zhen looked at her and directly explained the reason for making her the Crown Princess, "According to the royal regulations, all princes must study etiquette and other subjects in the royal family until they are 20 years old. If I were to appoint your child, they would have to immediately come to the palace..."

Shen Ruoqing understood.

If Chu Yu were directly appointed as the Crown Prince, he would be forced to separate from his two siblings and grow up in this cold palace.

But Shen Ruoqing was different. She was already 26 years old and had long since passed the age of studying in the royal family.

So, after Jing Zhen and Shen Qianhui's matter was settled, Shen Ruoqing could return to her country and reunite with her children. As for the future...

The Crown Princess was just a Crown Princess, not necessarily destined to ascend the throne. When Jing Zhen grew old and Chu Yu was in his twenties, Shen Ruoqing could directly appoint Chu Yu as the Crown Prince.

Shen Ruoqing was only taking on some responsibilities for her son at the moment.

Hence, she didn't refuse any further.

The heads of the Luo and Ji families frowned, exchanged glances, and then stepped forward,

"Your Majesty, it's not that we are against your decision, but a woman in power is easily looked down upon..."

"Right, we're about to make contact with the Dark Web Organization. If Dugu Xiao sees that the future of our country is in the hands of a woman and looks down upon us, what should we do? Dugu Xiao's Dark Web Organization is highly sought after by many countries for collaboration and contact.."

Chapter 566: Face smacking!

"Women have limitations, like pregnancy and childbirth that take up time... Women are also more emotional, making decisions based on their preferences..."

"There's no doubt about the Princess's identity, but she has an unstable foundation and no support in our Country A..."

As soon as the heads of the Luo and Ji families spoke, Jing Zhen immediately responded, "What does it matter if there's no support or foundation? Hasn't the support arrived today?"

Jing Zhen looked at Shen Ruoqing, "When Dugu Xiao arrives later, remember to get closer to him."

Shen Ruoqing fell silent and nodded.

Jing Zhen asked again, "Is that okay?"

Shen Ruoqing glanced at him.

Jing Zhen didn't know that Dugu Xiao had targeted her in China, did he? But looking at him now, it seemed like he had it all planned out, and he clearly knew much more than she had thought!

Sensing Shen Ruoqing's gaze, Jing Zhen coughed and tried to cover up his uneasiness.

However, the head of the Yan family said, "I heard that Dugu Xiao has a strange personality and wants women to please him. He has taken many women under his wing. Is it appropriate for the Princess to demean herself to please him? This would damage the dignity of our Country A!"

The three major families could try to fawn and intentionally please Dugu Xiao, but the King and Princess must maintain their dignity.

Otherwise, Country A's royal family would become a joke.

The head of the Luo family immediately agreed, "Yes, Dugu Xiao is very disrespectful to women. It's better not to let the Princess do this. Besides, our three families plan to establish relationships with Dugu Xiao through marriage. Only such relationships are unbreakable. The Princess can't marry him as well, right?"

"Dugu Xiao won't stay in Country A as he belongs to the Aplow family. The Princess's search for a royal husband must involve someone who will stay in Country A, so how could Dugu Xiao agree?"

"This is simply a joke."

Seeing the three heads of the families arguing again, Shen Ruoqing lowered her gaze and spoke coldly, "Who said I'm going to marry him?"

The three of them breathed a sigh of relief.

Then they heard Shen Ruoqing say. "Is it true that as long as I can subdue the dark web organization, I can become the Crown Princess, and you will all be quiet?"

She was tired of these palace dramas.

Hearing this, the people from the three major families looked at each other. After a moment of silence, the heads of the Luo and Ji families nodded at the head of the Yan family.

So far, among the three major families, the Yan family was naturally the leader since they had produced an Empress Dowager. Therefore, the head of the Yan family spoke, "That's correct. However, the Princess must not use her beauty to please him or demean the dignity of our Country A!"

Shen Ruoqing nodded. "No problem!"

The heads of the three major families looked at each other.

Following this, everyone's eyes revealed an expression of looking forward to a good show.

Dugu Xiao had a strange personality, and to please him, one must cater to his preferences. Therefore, daughters from the three major families started wearing red dresses and golden masks. On the other hand, it was evident that the Princess would not do this, so it was a far-fetched idea for her to impress Dugu Xiao with her pride.

Just as they were feeling confident, someone from outside came to announce.

"Mr. Dugu has arrived!"

Jing Zhen said, "Let him in!"

The people from the three major families immediately stood up and walked to the entrance to welcome him.

When they looked back, they saw Shen Ruoqing sitting next to Jing Zhen, not coming with them, and they felt somewhat satisfied. At least, their Princess knew her place and didn't show any signs of trying to get close to Dugu Xiao.

Thinking this, they saw a man in a dark purple suit walking over.

Dugu Xiao still had that sinister aura about him, and his suit was very flamboyant. His collar was open, revealing his chest, and he looked very provocative. His walking posture was as domineering as ever.

His gloomy eyes looked at the three heads of the families and then directly went past them. After that, his gaze suddenly locked on Shen Ruoqing.

He paused for a moment.

This was his first time appearing in front of her after learning that Shen Ruoqing was 518. When their eyes met, he even felt as if he had returned to their days together in the organization.

His eyes turned slightly red, but he immediately suppressed his emotions and walked into the banquet hall.

The three heads of the families hurriedly talked to him, trying to get close and build rapport. They also vaguely mentioned that their daughters loved wearing red dresses with a very humble attitude.

Listening to their words, Dugu Xiao pursed his lips and then refused. "No need, I don't like people who wear red dresses anymore."

The head of the Yan family immediately asked, "Oh? So, what kind of clothing does Mr. Dugu like now?"

Dugu Xiao's gaze immediately swept over Shen Ruoqing.

Even after joining Country A's royal family, Shen Ruoqing still dressed casually.

Hence, he directly said, "Casual style."

As soon as these words were spoken, the three heads of the families immediately sensed that something was wrong and turned their heads to look at Shen Ruoqing in unison.

Their Princess was wearing casual clothes at the moment, so was Dugu Xiao teasing her?

Just as the three of them thought about this, they heard Shen Ruoqing calmly say. "Dugu Xiao, you're being presumptuous."

The three heads of the families suddenly panicked.

The Princess should maintain her pride, but how could she say that Dugu Xiao was being presumptuous?

This was overcorrecting!

The three of them thought that it was over, and Dugu Xiao would definitely be angry.

But they didn't expect what would happen next....

Chapter 567: She is 518! The Leader of Dark Web Organization!

The next moment, Dugu Xiao lowered his head and laughed. "No one is managing me, so my words may be a bit presumptuous. I hope the Princess will forgive me."

No one saw that Dugu Xiao's eyes gradually turned red.

"No one is managing me."

These words spoke of his grievances.

For so many years, he had thought that 518 was dead. After seizing the Aplow family, his life seemed to have lost its meaning... But it turned out that she was not dead; she just hid and ignored him.

As he thought about this, he heard Shen Ruoqing speak. "If you like being controlled so much, why don't you take charge of your own life?"

Her words were inexplicable and carried a hint of impatience.

Now, the three major families felt even more panicked, thinking that the Princess seemed to have a conflict with Dugu Xiao.

The head of the Yan family immediately took a step forward with a smile, interrupting the conversation between the two. He said with a laugh, "Mr. Dugu must be feeling lonely. You're almost thirty, right? You should get married and have children as soon as possible... What do you think of the women in our Country A?"

Dugu Xiao glanced at Shen Ruoqing. "The women of Country A are great."

She was the Princess of Country A, so how could he dare to say that the women of Country A were not good?!

The head of the Yan family immediately said with a smile, "Then, Mr. Dugu, why not take a wife from Country A? Our women are very obedient to their husbands..."

Dugu Xiao's eyes looked intensely at Shen Ruoqing. "Sadly, I don't have that fortune."

The head of the Yan family immediately asked, "Does Mr. Dugu have someone in mind? May I ask which family's young lady has caught Mr. Dugu's attention?"

Dugu Xiao looked at Shen Ruoqing again with the corner of his mouth hooked up. He wanted to say something, but Shen Ruoqing interrupted him directly, "Mr. Dugu, if you don't know what to say, just shut up."

No ivory would come out of this guy's mouth.

Shen Ruoqing couldn't tell the difference between Song Chen and Chu Cichen, but she knew Dugu Xiao very well. She regarded him as a brother, and she didn't understand when Dugu Xiao began to have feelings for her.

When the head of the Yan family heard Shen Ruoqing reprimanding Dugu Xiao like a subordinate, he panicked even more and hurriedly tried to make amends. "Mr. Dugu, our Princess didn't mean it like that, she..."

Before he could finish, Dugu Xiao said, "Yes."

His attitude was respectful, which was beyond the expectations of the three major families.

They all looked at Dugu Xiao in disbelief.

Was this the arrogant and domineering Mr. Dugu they knew?

Was the information wrong?

Otherwise, how could he not get angry when being reprimanded like this?

The head of the Ji family beside them immediately said, "Your Highness, Mr. Dugu is a friend and an honored guest of Country A."

The implication was for Shen Ruoqing to be more polite when talking to him! Dugu Xiao immediately said, "How am I a friend and distinguished guest?" Thinking that he was really angry, the three of them immediately said, "Mr. Dugu, Her Royal Highness has just returned to the palace and may not be familiar with some of the etiquette. Please don't be offended..."

"Her Royal Highness may not fully understand some of the rules of the royal family, but she has no ill intent toward you."

"Mr. Dugu, you are certainly a distinguished guest and friend of Country A and have always been our honored guest."

Although they said these words, they were already seething with anger.

(What is Princess doing? Doesn't she know who Dugu Xiao is? Doesn't she know that Country A is trying to win over Dugu Xiao?)

(Isn't her attitude meant to scare people away?)

However, Dugu Xiao didn't listen to the three of them. Instead, he stared at Shen Ruoqing.

Shen Ruoqing understood what he meant.

After so many years in the same organization, they had developed a tacit understanding. As a result, she gradually understood Dugu Xiao's thoughts and couldn't help but say. "Don't dump a bunch of bad things on me." Dugu Xiao said, "It's already yours. Who else should I give it to?"

Shen Ruoqing was angry. "Who said it was mine?"

Dugu Xiao replied, "I did."

This ambiguous conversation left the three big families confused, but when they heard this, they finally understood that Dugu Xiao and Princess had a relationship!

Therefore, the three of them immediately looked at Shen Ruoqing and hesitantly asked, "Your Highness, what is your relationship with Mr. Dugu?" Shen Ruoqing frowned.

She hadn't spoken yet when Dugu Xiao spoke up, "Whatever relationship Your Highness says we have is the relationship we have."

The three family heads.

What was going on?

Could it be that Dugu Xiao really liked the Princess?

But!

Their faces turned black. One of the heads said, "Our Princess is competing for the position of Crown Princess. Moreover, she is the only daughter of the King and will bear the responsibility of leaving a bloodline for the royal family in the future. So, Mr. Dugu, she will only marry a suitable husband and will not marry outside the country."

If there were many members of the royal family, marrying a Princess to another country would be even more beneficial.

But the situation was different now.

The royal bloodline was definitely a treasure!

Shen Ruoqing frowned. "That's not what he means."

The three families looked at Shen Ruoqing again and asked, "What does he mean then?"

Shen Ruoqing said, "His meaning is..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Dugu Xiao said, "My meaning is that 518 of the Dark Web Organization is Her Highness. She is the true leader of the Dark Web Organization, and I have only been helping her to manage it in recent years."

The three family heads. "??"

At this moment, only one word came to their minds – Damn!

They originally wanted to compete with Shen Ruoqing to subdue this powerless and insignificant Princess. But now, they finally understood that the Dark Web Organization belonged to her..

Chapter 568: The Mastermind Revealed!!

During this time, the three of them had been trying to please Dugu Xiao, but it all turned out to be a joke in the end!

The three major family heads immediately didn't dare to speak

Jing Zhen took the opportunity to ask. "So, all of you still don't agree to make Jingjing the Crown Princess? What should we do? If you don't agree, what if Mr. Dugu refuses to cooperate with Country A? After all, many countries want to have connections with the Dark Web Organization!"

The three major family heads. "!!"

They looked at each other and finally had to lower their heads. In the face of absolute power, they could only submit!

Just like that, after a meal at the banquet, Shen Ruoqing was directly established as the Crown Princess.

Shen Ruoqing was the leader of the Dark Web Organization, and Dugu Xiao was just working for her. With this fact, the three major families no longer had the right to object. Not only that, but Shen Qianhui also directly became the Queen.

At the coronation ceremony, Jing Zhen announced the news publicly and crowned Shen Ruoqing!

Due to health reasons, Shen Qianhui did not attend, but the Queen's gown and crown were sent to her palace.

The journey of Country A's royal family finally came to an end.

In the entire palace, the older generation of imperial concubines had been executed by the Queen Dowager. Likewise, the current generation of Princess Consorts either died or was sent away, leaving no threats behind.

With her parents living peacefully here, Shen Ruoqing, who had become the Crown Princess, could finally return to China!

She opened WeChat and continued to look at her phone. She noticed that every time she sent a message to Chu Cichen, he would only reply after a long time, saying that he was busy without explaining what he was busy with.

Shen Ruoqing sent another message to Chu Cichen. [I'm coming back soon.]

This time, Chu Cichen replied quickly. [When?]

Shen Ruoqing lowered her gaze. [In a day or two, I still have one last issue to deal with.]

Chu Cichen asked. [What's the matter?]

Shen Ruoqing. [I need to find out what's going on with Song Chen.]

This time, Chu Cichen did not reply.

Shen Ruoqing knew that Chu Cichen had always been bothered by Song Chen's presence.

In fact, she herself was bothered. Having a man who looked like her boyfriend and not being able to tell them apart was truly frustrating.

Even identical twins would be distinguishable.

Chu Cichen did not reply to her message, so she threw her phone aside and left the room.

Outside the door, she saw Ji WUYOU.

Shen Ruoqing looked around and asked, "Where is Song Chen?"

Recently, Song Chen had been by her side all the time, and she had gotten used to it.

She suddenly felt empty in her heart for a moment when she didn't see him.

Shen Ruoqing suddenly realized that during this time, even when Chu Cichen didn't reply to her messages, she didn't feel bothered by it.

(Oh no!)

She was originally very clear that she only liked Chu Cichen, but now she suddenly felt fickle!

Thinking of this, Shen Ruoqing felt guilty for a moment.

She then heard Ji Wuyou speak. "He was called away by His Majesty the King."

Shen Ruoqing frowned suddenly and asked, "Called away by His Majesty the King? Do you know what it's about?"

Ji Wuyou's face suddenly turned red.

He hesitated, not daring to speak. But knowing that he couldn't remain silent, he coughed and said, "Recently, His Majesty the King has been selecting consorts for you. I guess it's about that."

Shen Ruoqing clenched her jaw.

She furrowed her brows. After that, seeing Ji WUYoU's expression, she immediately asked, "Were you called as well?"

Ji Wuyou's face turned even redder. "I know I am not worthy of the Princess, so I dare not even dream of it! When His Majesty the King asked me, I expressed that I am not a match for the Princess. "

Shen Ruoqing twitched the corners of her mouth but didn't care about it.

She just changed the subject and asked, "Where is Jing Zhen?"

"In the pavilion in the back garden."

Shen Ruoqing then walked briskly toward the back garden. But when she arrived, she found that there was no one in the pavilion.

Shen Ruoqing suddenly felt anxious.

She immediately grabbed a servant who was cleaning the back garden and asked directly, "Where is His Majesty the King?"

The servant was startled but obediently replied, "His Majesty the King has gone to the Queen's palace."

Shen Qianhui had become the Queen, but she hadn't moved into the palace designated for the Queen. She still lived with Jing Zhen, and their palace had become the residence of the King and Queen. The rest of the harem's palaces were abandoned.

Because of this, the number of people in the palace also greatly decreased.

The Queen Dowager lived alone. After Jing Zhen returned to the country, she handed over the affairs of the previous dynasty to him.

Jing Zhen had grown up in the royal family and was skilled at handling these matters, making him trustworthy.

Shen Ruoqing then strode into Shen Qianhui's room.

It had been seven days since Shen Qianhui had a miscarriage, and her recovery was almost complete. However, Shen Ruoqing insisted that she continued her confinement for another half a month before going out.

Jing Zhen was having porridge with Shen Qianhui when he saw Shen Ruoqing. Shen Qianhui said, "Jingjing, you're here? Would you like to have some porridge together?"

Shen Ruoqing immediately replied, "No need."

Her face was pale as she stared at Jing Zhen. "Come with me."

Seeing her expression, Shen Qianhui became worried and looked at Jing Zhen, asking, "Did you do something to upset Jingjing?"

Jing Zhen scratched his head, his eyes full of appeasement. "I don't think so.

Don't worry, I'll be back soon."

Shen Qianhui could only nod, but she appeared worried.

Shen Ruoqing waited in the courtyard for a while before seeing Jing Zhen come out. She then immediately pulled him to a nearby silent spot, making sure that no one was around in the open space. After that, she asked, "Where is Song Chen?"

Jing Zhen was stunned. "How would I know where Song Chen is? Jingjing, hasn't he always been with you? Are you feeling feverish?"

He then tried to touch Shen Ruoqing's forehead.

But Shen Ruoqing suddenly stepped back. "Father, I know everything."

Jing Zhen's steps halted instantly. "What do you know?"

Shen Ruoqing stared into his eyes and said, "I know you schemed against me. You had Song Chen impersonate Chu Cichen and ordered him to approach me for surrogacy. I know everything!"

Jing Zhen hesitated for a moment.

Shen Ruoqing laughed. "I found out that the people who wanted to assassinate Song Chen were Country A's death soldiers, and only someone from the royal family can mobilize them. The Queen Dowager wants a grandson, not a great-grandson, so if she knew our whereabouts, she would definitely send someone to find you for the child, not me. But other than the Queen Dowager, there's only you."

Jing Zhen licked his lips and sighed quietly. "So you found out."

Shen Ruoqing's face turned pale. "Father, I just want to ask you, why? Why did you do this?"

Chapter 569: A Chat Between Father and Daughter

Shen Ruoqing had always been very angry with the person who plotted against her behind the scenes.

She didn't like a manipulated life like this.

If she hadn't met the real Chu Cichen that night, she and Song Chen might have been unclear about their relationship for the rest of their lives, right?

So when she mistakenly thought that it was Princess Consort Yan who plotted against her, Shen Ruoqing didn't feel guilty about sending Princess Consort Yan to her death, which showed how much she despised those who plotted against her.

That was also why she suspected Jing Zhen but didn't confront him for a long time.

But today, Jing Zhen took action against Song Chen again!

Shen Ruoqing's face turned cold, and she stared at her father intently.

Her mother had said that she should follow her heart, so when she found out that it was her father, she didn't dare to believe that he was the one who had plotted against her.

She stared at Jing Zhen. "Father, why did you plot against me?"

Jing Zhen was silent for a long time and finally said, "Because I need an heir. You already know this reason, don't you?"

He looked at Shen Ruoqing and said slowly, "I know you will hate me, but I have no choice."

"You're lying."

Shen Ruoqing stepped forward and stared at him. "When I found out it was you, I thought I had misjudged you. But mom told me to look at people with my heart. She has always believed in you, and so do I. So, I don't believe you did this just for a child!"

Jing Zhen didn't expect Shen Ruoqing to say this, and he was slightly stunned.

That moment of surprise didn't escape Shen Ruoqing's eyes.

Shen Ruoqing stepped forward. "Father, I've known you had secrets for many years, but I never chose to ask you about them. Do you know why?"

Jing Zhen. "Why?"

"Because I know that whatever you do, you won't be bad to me or mom." Shen Ruoqing stared into his eyes.

Those peach blossom eyes, identical to Jing Zhen's, were always calm and restrained, but at this moment, Shen Ruoqing's eyes were red. She stared at Jing Zhen and said, "Father, this time, I want to ask you, why? Is there anything our family can't face together?"

Jing Zhen's mouth opened slightly, and after a moment of silence, he finally sighed. "Ruoqing, you're too smart."

"So, don't hide it from me." Shen Ruoqing took another step forward. "Can't you just tell me directly what you have to say?"

Jing Zhen sighed. "If I say that I nurtured Song Chen and sent him to your side just to keep you company, would you believe me?" Hearing this, Shen Ruoqing was stunned.

She looked at Jing Zhen incredulously. "What?"

Jing Zhen lowered his gaze. "Do you know? Your condition was very bad during that half-year period six years ago. So, I specifically found a psychologist to get in touch with you... it was Ye Lu's father, Ye Wei. He told me that you were suffering from severe depression."

Shen Ruoqing furrowed her eyebrows.

She knew what happened. At that time, she had seen too many people die from the No. 5 neurotoxin, and her mentality collapsed.

She felt like a criminal, which was why she told Dugu Xiao and Chu Cichen that she wanted to kill the person who created the toxin.

During that time, she was under a lot of psychological pressure.

Sometimes, when she thought of death, she felt like it was a kind of relief.

Before Song Chen appeared, she had picked up a knife several times and placed it on her wrist... But everything changed after she met Chu Cichen. When she met him again abroad and heard him speak, she recognized him. His voice could always give her hope in despair...

Jing Zhen continued, "At that time, your only hope was Chu Cichen. I tried several times to bring him back to accompany you, but I failed. So, I found Song Chen and asked him to accompany you out of that dark period under the guise of Chu Cichen."

Shen Ruoqing suddenly realized. Song Chen's companionship during that half year did give her hope for life. She pursed her lips and spoke again, "Then Song Chen proposed to me and arranged the hotel..."

Jing Zhen sighed. "I know your personality. If you knew he wasn't Chu Cichen, you wouldn't have agreed. But at the time, I was desperate, and there was nothing I could do. Unfortunately, Song Chen lost control."

Hearing this, Shen Ruoqing was startled. Jing Zhen then looked at her and said, "Song Chen didn't follow orders and proposed to you on his own. He even tried to have a child with you. After I found out about this, I had Old Bai arrest him. But I didn't expect that you would actually meet the real Chu Cichen."

Old Bai referred to the Old Master Bai. Shen Ruoqing then furrowed her eyebrows and asked, "What happened then?"

"After that, everything exceeded my expectations. After we arrested Song Chen that night, he escaped and was only recently found in the capital." Jing Zhen rubbed his forehead.

Previously, Old Bai had gone to the filming location to find him and say that something had happened because they had found the runaway Song Chen.

Jing Zhen didn't want to talk about Song Chen anymore and continued, "After you got pregnant with triplets, I actually knew about it all along. But your condition was not good at the time, and the Doom Organization was also targeting me. I thought that if the Doom Organization targeted me, at least, one child would be safe with Chu Cichen, so I never told you.”

When the Doom Organization was mentioned, Shen Ruoqing understood what was going on, but she still furrowed her eyebrows and asked, “So what is the deal with Song Chen? Why is he so similar to Chu Cichen?”

Chapter 570: The Truth!

Everyone had their own unique aura. Shen Ruoqing often relied on intuition to judge people, but six years ago, Song Chen and Chu Cichen seemed to be the same person.

Appearance could be altered through plastic surgery, but a person’s inner self couldn’t be identical to another person’s. She had always wondered about this. After hearing this, Jing Zhen fell silent for a long time while Shen Ruoqing waited patiently for him.

After a while, when Jing Zhen still hesitated and did not know how to speak, she asked, “Is this also something that cannot be said?”

Jing Zhen nodded.

Shen Ruoqing thought for a moment and asked, “Is it related to the invention that Doom Organization saw in you back then?”

Jing Zhen spoke, “Jingjing, you’re really smart, worthy of being my daughter.” Shen Ruoqing.

At this point, Jing Zhen was still joking with her. Hence, she sighed silently. ‘What invention is it exactly?’

did not answer directly. He only said, “This invention will overthrow the human world, so it cannot be revealed at the moment. I also do not want to tell the Doom Organization.”

Shen Ruoqing hesitated for a moment and asked, “Could it be that Song Chen was cloned from Chu Cichen’s DNA by you? ‘

Cloning technology was already mature and had been successfully replicated in animals. If Song Chen was cloned from Chu Cichen’s DNA by Jing Zhen, then everything would make sense! Clones were identical to the original.

(But...that’s not right.)

Clones would not have the original’s memories, and even if they were cloned, they would be different from the original after a period of time. Moreover, Song Chen had a background. He did not appear out of thin air but had a sister, parents... and even genetic diseases.

However, Jing Zhen did not answer the question, only saying, “I won’t say unless it’s absolutely necessary.”

Shen Ruoqing frowned and said, “Okay, where is Song Chen now?”

spoke, "After Song Chen escaped, I knew he had discovered my secret. So I sent people to kill him for so many years, but he was very smart and always managed to avoid my schemes. Only by killing him, can my technology not appear in front of people again. Jingjing, do you understand what I mean?"

Shen Ruojing was surprised. "But Song Chen did nothing wrong."

Jing Zhen retorted, "His existence is a mistake!"

Shen Ruojing argued, "No matter where he came from, he was also used by you back then. Father, we can't just use people up and then kill them, can we?"

During the past half month in Country A, Song Chen had been with her all the time.

Even if he didn't do anything, his presence felt like the support she had when she was imprisoned in the cellar and listening to Chu Cichen reading books back then. It was a kind of companionship. Like the companionship six years ago...

It made her feel a hint of reluctance.

sighed. "Actually, I never intended to kill him. If he had come according to my request back then and accompanied you for a walk every week until your condition improved, my original plan was just to erase his memory and let him go. But he betrayed me."

Shen Ruojing's heart sank, and she inexplicably felt a sense of panic.

She looked at Jing Zhen in shock and urgently asked, "Father, what about now? Did you kill Song Chen?"

Song Chen disappeared after Jing Zhen called him away, indicating that he must be with Jing Zhen!

Actually, when she was in the capital city of China, Song Chen was just a stranger to her. She had no emotional attachment to him. But at this moment, when she heard Jing Zhen's words, Shen Ruojing's heart suddenly panicked. She felt like she was about to lose something...

While she was thinking, Jing Zhen sighed. "I originally wanted to kill him."

Shen Ruojing's heart tightened, and then she heard Jing Zhen say. "But in the palace these past few weeks, I noticed that you treat him differently...Do you like him?"

Shen Ruojing immediately frowned and answered subconsciously, "How is that possible?"

But after these four words were spoken, she herself fell silent.

Her heart suddenly became chaotic.

When Song Chen appeared in front of her again during the past half month in the palace, she never panicked. She was very clear about her own feelings. But at this moment, she suddenly became uncertain.

Her expression gave Jing Zhen the answer.

Jing Zhen sighed. "I think you should make a choice between Song Chen and Chu Cichen."

Shen Ruoqing firmly replied, "The person I like is Chu Cichen, and that has never changed. Even if I developed some good feelings toward Song Chen during the time we spent together in the palace, it was only because Song Chen is too similar to Chu Cichen..."

Jing Zhen fell silent for a long time and finally said, "Song Chen has become his former self."

Shen Ruoqing was stunned and asked incredulously, "What do you mean?"

Jing Zhen spoke, "I erased all of his memories."

Shen Ruoqing was shocked.

Jing Zhen continued, "Jingjing, this is the best way to protect all of us. Only the former leader of the Doom Organization knew about my secret, but he has passed away. So now, the only person in the world who knows my secret is Song Chen."

Shen Ruoqing bit her lip and asked, "Where is he now?"

Jing Zhen led Shen Ruoqing into the palace and came to a corner. He then opened a switch, and a secret room appeared.

Shen Ruoqing entered the room and immediately saw Song Chen lying on the operating table..
