

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4096-Jared didn't know anything at this time. He tried hard to depict the divine pattern and constantly used his soul to feel it.

At the beginning, Jared memorized it by rote and copied it by heart. But now, Jared was depicting the divine pattern while feeling the secrets within it!

He knew that when he merged with the divine pattern, his divine pattern would be successful. However, Jared didn't know when he would succeed, so he could only redouble his efforts.

He couldn't afford to be trapped in this place for too long. He still had many things to do!

Moreover, Catina and Feenix were driven out of Imperial Fox City and went to the Western Regions. Who knows what the situation in the Western Regions is like?

What if they were in danger?

Now they are all Jared's women, and Jared would not allow them to be in danger!

After depicting the divine pattern countless times, Jared lay in the thatched hut to rest when the red eyes appeared again. This time, there was a hint of strangeness in the red eyes!

The surrounding formation light curtain activated, isolating these pairs of eyes from the outside!

Jared was very puzzled. What on earth was it that was always staring at him so closely?

He tried to use the Nethersky Eye to see the other person clearly, but the Nethersky Eye could not penetrate the surrounding formations.

It must be said that the divine rune formation was indeed powerful, much more powerful than the formation runes carved with spiritual power!

Jared simply closed his eyes, ignored the eyes, had a good rest, and then continued to carve the divine runes!

With each carving, Jared's perception of the divine runes deepened.

And because of the soul-soothing grass, Jared felt that his mental power was also much stronger. Every time he carved, Jared deliberately injected his mental power into the divine runes slowly.

At this time, Jared already had a feeling of merging with the divine runes. Every time he carved a divine rune, he felt that the divine rune was like a blood vessel in his body, and the flow of power on the divine rune was like the flow of blood!

The connection between each divine rune also began to slowly become clear. Some seemingly unrelated divine runs seemed to be connected by countless capillaries in the middle.

At this time, the divine pattern no longer looked like a dead object but more like a living person with flesh and blood. However, Jared had not yet fully integrated and mastered it, so all he could feel was some fur, flesh, and blood!

He didn't know how long it took, but the middle-aged man came again. This time he didn't bring herbs, but a jar of good wine and some food!

Although at the strength of Jared and others, it didn't matter if they didn't eat or drink!

But drinking and eating meat is not to solve the problem of food and clothing, but for the feeling!

"Brother, take a rest. Master asked me to bring good wine and meat to accompany you," the middle-aged man said, placing the wine and food on the shabby table.

Jared nodded and joined the middle-aged man in eating and drinking!

Although the two had not met many times, Jared had a good impression of his senior in front of him.

Through their conversation, Jared learned that his senior, who was transformed from a little white rat, was named Mickey!

This name was given by Divinus, the ancestor of the divine pattern!

"Mickey, I wonder what happened to Carlo?" Jared asked.

Jared was still worried about Carlo because he had promised Carlo that he would help him become the leader of the sect, so he could get the blood jade!

What if Carlo couldn't wait and did it himself? How would Jared get the blood jade then?

"Brother, are you still thinking about the blood jade?" Mickey asked with a smile.

Jared was stunned and then said embarrassedly, "Brother Bai, how do you know this?"

"Hahaha, what happens in the Duad Formation Sect can't escape the eyes of Master. But don't worry, Carlo is doing very well."

“Now, put all your energy into learning the divine runes. When you leave here successfully, you only need to ask about the Duad Formation Sect’s affairs,” Mickey laughed.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4097-Jared smiled awkwardly after hearing this. As the ancestor of the Divine Pattern of Duad Formation Sect, it should be easy for him to nominate someone to be the sect leader. He was actually worrying about it for nothing!

After chatting with Mickey for a long time, Jared became more and more impressed with this senior.

A person who was transformed from a little white rat actually knows a lot, and even some of the truths of the great way are very simple, and he can explain them very clearly!

It doesn’t look like a rat at all!

It’s more like a master who has achieved immortality!

After the chat, Mickey left, and Vermilion Demon Lord said, “You can teach a little rat to such a realm. It seems that your so-called master is really good!”

“I’m sure this guy has a connection with the heavens. Either his master is from the heavens, or he came from the heavens and was trapped here.”

“With the cultivation and knowledge of these people from the heavens, it is impossible to understand these things, and their realm of thought cannot reach this level.”

After listening to the words of Vermilion Demon Lord, Jared was also very interested in Divinus. Unfortunately, he did not have much contact with Divinus! It had always been Mickey who had been in contact with him.

And now that the Duad Formation Sect has blood jade, a heavenly thing, it further proves that Divinus is a person from the heavens!

Jared did not rest too much and continued to carve the divine pattern. Only after truly learning the divine pattern and condensing the divine pattern could he leave this place!

As for those pairs of red eyes, they still appeared, but Jared ignored them.

Jared’s mind was completely focused on carving the array pattern. The light of the divine pattern kept flowing in his mind, and he imagined himself and the divine pattern merging into one.

As Jared continued to carve, he no longer had to look at the yellow cloth, and the divine pattern could be easily used!

At this time, on a hilltop, the dark night sky was starless.

The ancestor of the divine pattern looked in the direction of the thatched hut, and pairs of red eyes appeared again.

Mickey stood beside Divinus, the ancestor of the divine pattern, and said curiously, "Master, do you think this junior brother can really condense the divine pattern? If he really condenses it into a divine pattern and leaves the thatched hut, I'm afraid he won't be able to deal with these people of the array demon."

"You don't have to worry about this. If he can't deal with these people of the array demon, it's useless even if he condenses the divine pattern. Useless people are only worthy of being bait," the ancestor of the divine pattern said lightly.

"Master, you said that Jared's talent is stronger than yours. Could it be that he has the possibility of activating the great array of heaven and earth and helping you return to heaven?"

Mickey continued to ask.

The ancestor of the divine pattern glanced at Mickey coldly, and then said expressionlessly, "I know what you mean. You also want to ascend to heaven and become an immortal or a Buddha. But you have to remember that to ascend to heaven and become an immortal, you need to practice hard and endure the test of heaven and earth thunder. Only then can you achieve that. If you rely on opportunism and help from others, even if you ascend to heaven, your foundation will be unstable and it will be difficult to gain a foothold. The heavens are not as good as you think. They are even more cruel than here.

Ascending to heaven and becoming an immortal is the ultimate goal for all cultivators, but when you really reach the heavens, becoming an immortal is just the first step. How many people have gone through hundreds of years and thousands of years of practice, and after ascending to heaven, they soon fell.

Countless immortals die in the heavens every day. During the war between gods and demons, how many immortals and demons died. I don't know how many people from the heavens are trapped in this world, but it is definitely not a small number. Some will be resurrected, some will survive with residual souls, and some will decline in strength to a corner. There is a celestial demon soul in Jared's sea of consciousness. I just don't know the identity of this demon soul."

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4098-Mickey listened quietly. He had heard his master talk about the heavens so many times!

It was clear that the ancestor of the divine pattern missed the heavens greatly and wanted to return, but unfortunately, he could never go back.

“Master, I have never known whether this body you have now is yours or your original one,” Mickey asked curiously.

The ancestor of the divine pattern looked at Mickey, smiled slightly, and said, “You have been practicing with me for so many years. Do you feel that my body is mine?”

“Yes, I feel that Master is trapped between the heavens and the human world. His own strength has declined, and he cannot return to the heavens,” Mickey said.

Hearing this, Divinus sighed lightly, looked at the dark night sky, and said, “Alas, I was inexplicably involved in the war between gods and demons, and now I can’t figure out why.

Back then, a huge force sealed the entire heaven and human world, making it impossible for all of us on the battlefield in the heaven and human world to leave. Some died, some were injured. After so many years, the strength of those who came from the heavens has declined significantly. The immortal energy in this heaven and human world is extremely scarce and unsuitable for our practice. I know that some people have tried to break the heaven and earth formation of the heaven and human world and began to find another way, tearing the void to go to other worlds in an attempt to return to the heavens.

But it’s too difficult. Every world has its own laws and seals. This seems to be a punishment from God for the war between gods and demons. I have studied the great formation of heaven and earth for so many years but have gained nothing, and my strength is still declining. I know that it is almost impossible for me to break the great formation of heaven and earth and return to the heavens by myself.

Although you are a genius, it’s a pity that you don’t have the talent, so this important task can’t fall to you.”

Divinus recounted the past and suddenly seemed much older.

“Master, you always talk about talent. What exactly is talent? Does Jared have it?” Mickey asked, puzzled.

Divinus shook his head and said, “I don’t know whether he has talent or not. I’m just gambling now.

In the four regions, where the art of formation is scarce, Jared managed to break the blood refining cage abruptly, which proves that he is extraordinary. Talent is innate and cannot be compensated for by acquired effort. How long did it take you to learn the divine pattern from me before you could carve it without looking at it?”

“My disciple is slow, and it took nearly ten years,” Mickey said, embarrassed.

“But Jared, in less than three days, can now carve the divine pattern. That’s talent. It’s not that you didn’t work hard, but talent surpasses effort!” Divinus explained.

Mickey listened to the words of the divine pattern ancestor and seemed to understand something.

“Master, the array demon has been fighting with you for so long. What does he want from you?” Mickey asked, puzzled.

Since he followed the divine pattern ancestor, Mickey had often found that the array demon’s people were causing trouble for the divine pattern ancestor.

“Hahaha, that old thing is competing with me for you. When you were accepted as my disciple, the array demon saw your talent and frequently tried to snatch you away. Now Jared is the same. The array demon’s people have observed him for many days, and I believe they know I have accepted another gifted disciple. I just want to irritate that old thing. He has been competing with me from the heavenly realm to the human realm, and he wants to challenge me everywhere.”

Divinus laughed.

It seemed that Divinus and the array demon did not have any deep hatred; it was more like two old rivals competing with each other.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4099—“Master, why don’t you cooperate with the array demon? Maybe if you two work together, you could break the heaven and earth array and return to heaven,” Mickey asked.

“Humph, how could I cooperate with that old man? He is not worthy,” Divinus snorted coldly. But after saying that, confusion and regret flashed in his eyes.

If they had cooperated at the beginning, they might have been able to break the heaven and earth array!

It’s just that neither of them trusted the other back then, making cooperation impossible.

But after so long, their strength has declined significantly. Even if they cooperated now, it would be impossible to break the heaven and earth array.

“Okay, no more discussion. I’m going to rest. As long as the array demon doesn’t appear, don’t call me!”

After Divinus said this, his body disappeared instantly.

Mickey looked at the thatched hut not far away with envy in his eyes.

Talent is something that cannot be changed!

But he was also content. From being a little white rat to what he is now, he has become the object of envy for many monsters!

“Jared, keep it up...” Mickey said silently.

Meanwhile, in the thatched hut, Jared was still diligently carving the divine runes.

He had completely ignored the red eyes outside!

No matter what kind of monster or demon cultivator it was, as long as he was protected by the formation and they couldn't hurt him, Jared wouldn't care.

After an unknown amount of time, when Jared opened his eyes, he found that Mickey had arrived.

“Jared, you are really hardworking. This is what Master asked me to bring you...” Mickey said, taking out some fairy grass and placing it on the table.

“Mickey, I want to ask you something,” Jared said.

“Go ahead. Is there anything you don't understand about the divine runes?” Mickey asked.

“That's not the case. I have memorized all these divine runes and understand them. I just need to condense my own divine runes and merge them into one. I want to ask my senior, is Master from the heaven?”

Jared wanted to know whether the ancestor of the divine runes was from the heaven.

Mickey was stunned, then smiled and said, “Jared, you really ask unnecessary questions. There is a demon soul from heaven living in your sea of consciousness. Won't he tell you? Whether Master is from heaven or not, you just need to remember that Master has no intention of harming you, so you should practice well. When the time comes, don't be swayed by others' sweet words and disappoint Master's expectations of you.”

“Mickey, don't worry. I am someone who knows how to repay kindness,” Jared said, patting his chest.

“That's good!” Mickey nodded, then looked at the yellow cloth and asked, “Since you have memorized the divine pattern, this piece of yellow cloth with the array pattern engraved on it won't be needed, right?”

“Yes, Mickey, you can take it away,” Jared nodded.

Mickey nodded, waved his hand, and the yellow cloth flew up directly. However, instead of falling into Mickey's hands, it was draped over Jared like a cloak.

Jared was a little surprised. When Mickey did this, he suddenly felt an inexplicable force wandering through his body.

The divine pattern on the yellow cloth began to flash white light!

Jared hurriedly closed his eyes as his whole body was wrapped in the divine pattern.

Mickey took a final look and slowly left the room.

Just after leaving, a ray of light shot up into the sky. The dazzling light rushed straight up, and spiritual energy from all directions gathered towards the thatched house frantically!

A ray of divine light, like the rising sun, illuminated the surrounding sky!

This kind of vision could be seen clearly even from thousands of miles away!

"Talent, it is indeed talent..." Mickey muttered, feeling the strange fluctuations in the world.

Jared had condensed his natal divine pattern in just a few days!

Although Mickey helped Jared in the final step, it was also Jared's own talent that made it possible.

Mickey had long seen that Jared was at a critical moment. Even if Mickey had not helped with the final step, Jared would not have taken long to condense his natal divine pattern.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4100

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4100-Mickey couldn't help but return to the thatched hut and saw the translucent divine pattern floating in front of Jared, his face full of surprise!

In the palm of Jared's hand was a palm-sized divine pattern, crystal clear and covered with thousands of lines.

Each line exuded brilliance, and from Jared's palm, a stream of blood visible to the naked eye flowed into the divine pattern.

The lines began to be filled with blood and turned bright red.

This was the characteristic of the fusion of divine patterns, indicating that Jared's body had merged with the divine pattern!

"Jared, you are amazing. You have condensed the divine pattern so quickly. Now you can try to use your own divine pattern to break the formation around this thatched hut. As long as the formation is broken, you will be free!" Mickey said to Jared.

Jared nodded, walked out slowly, and prepared to use the divine pattern to break the formation.

But after several attempts, Jared was unsuccessful.

"Mickey, why can't I control this divine pattern?" Jared asked, puzzled.

"Can't control it? How could this be? This is the divine pattern you condensed, and it is obviously integrated with you. How can you not control it? It is said that this divine pattern has become a part of your body, so this shouldn't happen," Mickey said, equally surprised and confused.

"Mickey, don't you know what's going on? Otherwise, go and invite Master to see what's happening," Jared said, a bit frustrated. He had finally condensed the divine pattern, but couldn't control it!

"Let me help you see what's going on first," Mickey said, approaching Jared.

But after just two steps, he stopped immediately with a serious expression and said, "Why is there something strange here?"

Mickey then slapped his palms on the ground, and a burst of black light erupted from under the ground.

Boom!

Almost instantly, Mickey's body was blown away!

Jared's head also buzzed, and then the whole connection with the array pattern became tight.

The array patterns around him appeared in Jared's mind in an instant. Jared simply waved his hand, and the array around the thatched hut was broken!

"Mickey, are you okay? What happened around you just now?" Jared rushed over, helped Mickey up, and asked.

"It's okay. It was the array demon's people who did it. These guys often do this," Mickey said, shaking his head.

“Array demon?” Jared was stunned.

Mickey realized he had let the cat out of the bag and immediately fell silent.

“Mickey, what is an array demon? Are those pairs of red eyes every night the ones you mentioned as array demons?” Jared asked.

Seeing that Jared already knew, Mickey nodded and said, “Since you already know, it’s okay to tell you. You have already condensed the array pattern.”

“That array demon is a major demon. Like Master, he is very knowledgeable about the art of arrays, and his magic patterns are also very powerful. He is as capable as Master, and neither of them is willing to concede to the other. But the array demon is also looking for someone with talent in the art of arrays and wants to teach his magic patterns.

Seeing your talent, the array demon probably wanted to take you as his disciple. But now that you have condensed the divine pattern, it is impossible to condense the magic pattern.”

Mickey’s words shocked Jared. He didn’t expect that there was still an array demon in the heavenly realm!

However, those wind demons, blood demons, Yin demons, and flame demons were all remnants from the battle between gods and demons. Their bodies were either destroyed, their residual souls sealed, or they hid away. These demons were all from the heaven!
