

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4106-Jared was carving the divine pattern, completely focused and unconcerned about anything else. After all, he was trapped in this place, and with Mickey guarding him, there was no danger.

But just as Jared was carving the divine pattern, he suddenly sensed a strange fluctuation in the air. He opened his eyes and saw an old man in a black robe standing before him.

The old man looked at Jared carefully, disbelief evident in his eyes.

“Boy, how many divine patterns have you mastered now?” the old man asked.

Jared frowned and replied, “Who are you? Why should I tell you?”

“Hahaha, who am I?” The old man laughed and waved his hand.

The sky instantly darkened, and in the darkness, array patterns appeared one after another. The complexity of these array patterns was no less than the divine patterns Jared was carving. These patterns resembled stars, covering the entire sky. Jared was stunned by the sight.

However, waves of demonic energy emanated from these array patterns. Jared instantly understood who was in front of him.

“Are you the Array Demon?” Jared asked in surprise.

“Yes, I am the Array Demon. The divine pattern you practice is not the best. My magic pattern is superior. Stop practicing the divine pattern and learn the magic pattern from me. I guarantee that you can ascend to heaven,” the Array Demon tempted Jared.

“Is the magic pattern so powerful?” Jared didn’t believe it.

“Of course, it is powerful. Can’t you see it? And if you learn from me, I will teach you personally, unlike my senior, who is always seeking fame and pretentiousness and refuses to teach his disciples in person,” the Array Demon said, disparaging Divinus.

“You’re talking nonsense...”

As soon as the words fell, the figure of Divinus appeared, and he said to Jared, “Don’t listen to his nonsense. The magic pattern is not as powerful as the divine pattern. You have now condensed your own divine pattern, and it is impossible to practice the magic pattern.”

“You can practice it. I can remove your divine pattern, and you can condense a demon pattern instead,” the Array Demon said hurriedly.

“Junior, you dare to pry my apprentice in front of me? Isn’t that too much?” Divinus was angry.

“Senior, why are you scolding me again? You have no manners at all,” the Array Demon said unhappily.

“You have manners? You pry other people’s apprentices and call it manners? Do you have any shame?” Divinus roared.

The two old men started quarreling over Jared. If they hadn’t just started and were too exhausted to replenish their energy, they would probably have fought again.

Jared looked at the two arguing and was speechless. It sounded like they were brothers, but Jared couldn’t understand how they had become like this.

“Stop, stop it... You two stop arguing! I’m no one’s apprentice, what are you arguing about?” Jared said hurriedly.

The two were stunned. Divinus looked at Jared and said, “You have condensed your own divine pattern, and you say you’re not my apprentice?”

“Of course not. I didn’t become your disciple; you trapped me here to learn. I have learned your divine pattern, and I can respect you as a senior, but if you want to be my master, you are not qualified enough.”

Jared’s words left Divinus stunned.

The Array Demon laughed and said, “Hahaha, young man, you have a promising future. That’s the spirit!”

Divinus, his face red with anger, said, “I am the Star Array Immortal of the Heavenly Realm. Am I not qualified to be your master? Are you too arrogant?”

Divinus was furious.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4107-“Senior, a hero does not boast about past achievements. You are still just a star array immortal now. You can’t even return to the heavenly realm, and your strength is constantly declining. Only a fool would be your apprentice. Young man, worship me as your master, and I will teach you the magic pattern. I also have a place in the heavenly realm,” the Array Demon said to Jared.

“Aren’t you also trapped here and unable to return to the heavenly realm? So you are not qualified,” Jared replied.

The Array Demon was stunned and then angrily said, "Boy, I saw that you are gifted, so I accepted you as my apprentice. Do you think just anyone can worship me as a master?"

"You two are desperate to accept me as your apprentice. You must have some ulterior motive, right? But if you don't say it, I don't want to ask. Whatever array pattern or magic pattern, I don't want to learn it. I just want to leave this place. I have a lot of things to do. Let me leave here now!"

Jared knew there must be a reason why these two were trapped in the heavenly realm and couldn't return. But their eagerness to find a gifted person to teach their unique skills wasn't just about accepting apprentices.

Although Jared wanted to learn the divine runes and even the magic runes, he couldn't show it. The more indifferent he appeared, the better it was for him.

Sure enough, when Jared said this, Divinus said, "You don't have to become my disciple. Now that you have condensed your own divine runes and learned so many, it would be a pity to leave now."

"I won't force you to become my disciple. You just need to learn these divine runes. Once you have learned them all, the essence of this world will be clear."

"Boy, you don't have to worship me either. I am willing to teach you personally," the Array Demon also spoke up quickly.

For a gifted person like Jared, they were unwilling to give up. If Jared truly mastered the patterns, there would be a chance to break the heaven and earth formation of the heavenly realm. They could then leave and return to the heavenly realm.

Jared looked at the Array Demon, then at the magic runes that resembled stars in the sky. The breath emanating from the magic runes caused a reaction in the divine runes within Jared's body.

The reaction of his natal divine pattern was strange, different from when he learned other divine patterns.

"Is there a connection between the magic pattern and the divine pattern?" Jared wondered.

Without answering the Array Demon's words, Jared leaped into the sky.

Jared rushed into the magic pattern in the sky, stunning the Array Demon and Divinus.

They didn't know what Jared intended to do.

“Senior, what is this guy going to do?” the Array Demon asked.

“Maybe he wants to learn the magic pattern,” Divinus replied, seeing Jared rush into the magic pattern.

“The natal divine pattern on his body hasn’t been removed yet. How can he learn the magic pattern? This could kill him...” the Array Demon was surprised.

Divinus remained silent and did not stop Jared.

As Jared rushed into the magic pattern in the sky, his natal divine pattern began to tremble rhythmically, sensing the magic pattern around him.

Jared was incredulous. How could his natal divine pattern sense the magic pattern and have some connection with it?

These were two different array patterns; there was no way they were related.

Jared slowly activated his innate divine pattern, which flashed around his body.

At the same time, Jared’s eyes slowly turned red, and he kept thinking.

“Could it be that the magic pattern and the divine pattern both evolved from the same array pattern?”

Jared had a bold and absurd idea.

After all, gods and demons followed different paths. How could the magic pattern and the divine pattern have evolved from the same source?

But if not, why could his innate divine pattern sense the magic pattern?

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4108-Jared decided to try condensing the magic pattern. If he didn’t experience backlash or resistance in the process, it would confirm his hypothesis.

Jared focused on a magic pattern and began carving it in the air. He already had his own divine pattern within him, and carving the divine pattern felt very natural.

However, the magic pattern was different. Surprisingly, as Jared carved the magic pattern, everything went smoothly. It seemed his hypothesis was correct: even with a divine pattern, he could still practice the magic pattern.

With no further doubts, Jared began carving the magic pattern quickly. One after another, magic patterns flashed within Jared’s body. Time seemed to blur as spiritual power from all directions surged toward him like a tidal wave. The magic patterns in the sky trembled slightly, as if responding to Jared.

The Array Demon and Divinus were dumbfounded by the scene.

“What the h-e-l-l? Is this guy going to condense his own magic pattern?” the Array Demon exclaimed in surprise.

Divinus, equally shocked, said, “The innate God Pattern and the innate Demon Pattern can be condensed on one person at the same time? How is this possible?”

It was unimaginable and shocking. They never thought the Demon Pattern and the God Pattern could appear on one person simultaneously.

At this moment, Jared was surrounded by black fog, and demonic energy continued to emerge from the demon patterns. The entire sky and the ground beneath him shook.

“This guy possesses the aura of the three races: man, demon, and beast. Now, he can condense both the Demon Pattern and the God Pattern into one body. This can’t be explained by talent alone,” the Array Demon said, his face changing drastically.

“My space world won’t be destroyed by this kid, right?” Divinus was very worried. With his current strength, he couldn’t open up another space world.

“Senior, if this kid can break the great formation of heaven and earth, we won’t need a space world. We can return to the heavenly realm,” the Array Demon said excitedly.

Jared might actually be able to break the great formation of heaven and earth!

At this time, Jared had no idea what the two were thinking. In Jared’s sea of consciousness, the natal divine pattern trembled. Simultaneously, beside the natal divine pattern, a natal magic pattern slowly formed. The natal divine pattern became like Jared’s left arm, part of his body, while the natal magic pattern became like his right arm.

In the center of Jared, a walnut-sized light connected the natal divine pattern and the natal magic pattern. Each time this light pulsed, the natal divine pattern and the natal magic pattern linked, both growing stronger. Spiritual and magic energy from all directions gathered around Jared. The breath emitted by the magic pattern in the sky was also absorbed by Jared.

Accompanied by a mysterious breath spreading along Jared’s body, the two life patterns began merging, producing a peculiar breath. This breath continued to spread, making Jared feel as if he was soaking in a hot spring.

“This breath... it doesn't belong to your divine pattern or my magic pattern!” the Array Demon said in surprise, sensing the breath in Jared's body.

Divinus remained silent, his expression strange.

Jared hovered quietly in the air, as if a new world had opened up within his sea of consciousness. He was surprised to find that whether it was the divine pattern, the magic pattern, or the array pattern carved by general array masters, these patterns were not used alone to set up arrays.

When cultivated to the extreme, all array patterns could evolve everything. Ancient powers could change everything with a casual gesture. These abilities didn't appear out of thin air but were formed by the interweaving of array patterns. The interweaving arrangement of each pattern differed, producing different effects.

Setting up an array was just one way to use these patterns, not the only way.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4109-Here's the revised version with grammar corrections and improved readability:

At this moment, Jared felt like he had opened the door to a new world, and he was extremely excited!

It turns out that a true master of formations can not only set up formations but also change everything!

Formation masters have always been considered the weaker side, much like pharmacists. Although in this world of heaven and man, formation masters and pharmacists are rare and highly respected, in terms of real strength, they are often weaker than other cultivators.

But now it seems that formation masters are not weak; many just haven't understood the full use of formation patterns!

Jared's natal divine pattern and natal magic pattern were both glowing with brilliance. The connection between the two grew closer and closer, and a strange breath continuously emanated from Jared's forehead.

Then, lines of patterns lit up in front of Jared!

Jared quickly began carving with one hand, and the lines in front of him changed according to his intentions.

Soon, a complete divine pattern appeared, followed by a second one!

Jared then began carving the magic pattern. When the magic pattern appeared, it covered the divine pattern!

At this time, the two patterns could not be fully integrated, but they didn't reject each other either!

Seeing this, Jared's determination strengthened. As long as these patterns merged together, an item would be produced!

He could evolve an item, and in the eyes of others, it would seem like Jared created it out of thin air!

"This is bad, this kid is going to be possessed..."

Divinus, who was observing Jared, was shocked!

Jared's cultivation wasn't strong enough for him to forcibly fuse the two patterns. This was extremely dangerous!

They knew that once possessed, even if he didn't die, he would become demented—a useless person!

Divinus couldn't watch Jared, a gifted individual, succumb to possession! Divinus moved quickly to stand in front of Jared.

He shouted, "Stop practicing, stop immediately..."

But Jared's eyes were red, and he couldn't hear anything. He was deeply immersed in his practice!

He understood the secret of the array pattern and wanted to fuse the two patterns!

Seeing this, Divinus reached out to Jared!

When Jared saw Divinus trying to stop him, he immediately shot out a ball of flames!

The terrifying flames enveloped Divinus, but he waved his hand, instantly dispersing the flames, and grabbed Jared's shoulder!

Jared was unconscious, entirely focused on the fusion of the array pattern!

He instinctively attacked anyone who tried to stop him.

Divinus grabbed Jared, attempting to forcibly release his consciousness! If Jared continued like this, he would go mad, similar to an obsessed person who couldn't let go of a fixation.

Jared desperately attacked Divinus, who endured Jared's attacks without fighting back.

"Senior, you are too lenient with this kid. Even if he is gifted, you can't not fight back." Seeing this, the Array Demon was anxious!

He jumped up and grabbed the magic pattern in the sky!

"Boy, you dare to hit my Senior, I'll teach you a lesson."

The Array Demon instantly shot out a black light straight at Jared!

Jared's body trembled, as if he were a deflated balloon, and he went limp.

At the same time, his red eyes slowly lost their color, and he fainted!

The Array Demon cut off the magic pattern, preventing Jared from merging it with the divine pattern!

Jared had only cultivated his own magic pattern, with many magic patterns still left uncarved and unpracticed!

Divinus handed Jared to Mickey and asked him to take Jared to rest.

"Senior, are you okay?" the Array Demon asked Divinus with concern.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4110-Divinus shook his head and said, "It's okay. Fortunately, this kid put all his energy into the fusion of the array patterns; otherwise, I would definitely be injured. This guy doesn't look like he has a high level, but his attacks are really ruthless. Don't teach him magic runes anymore. Let him practice divine runes first, and then practice magic runes. If he practices two at once, something bad will definitely happen!"

Although this kid is extremely talented, his strength is still too weak to bear it all at once. If he forcefully merges, he might be ruined. But he can integrate the divine pattern and the demon pattern into one, making the two patterns not repel each other, which is already very good. Perhaps the great formation of heaven and earth really depends on him to open it."

"Understood!" The array demon nodded!

Although the two of them were constantly fighting and neither was willing to give in, they still cared for each other in critical moments!

The array demon still listened to his senior's words.

Now that the two of them have been trapped in the heavenly world for so many years, they are the only ones close to each other! They don't know how long it took, but Jared slowly opened his eyes. Recalling his state when he was integrating the array pattern, Jared was shocked!

"Boy, you almost went crazy. What kind of divine pattern or demon pattern can spy on the way of heaven? It made you uneasy and almost went mad."

Vermilion Demon Lord didn't understand what divine patterns and demonic patterns were, so he spoke up.

"It's not like peeping into the way of heaven, but it's like opening up a new world. It's just that I'm not strong enough right now, and I almost went crazy. When I am strong enough, I will be able to transform everything!"

Although Jared was a little scared, he was still very happy in his heart!

"Hahaha, when you ascend to heaven, you will open up more new worlds..."

Vermilion Demon Lord laughed loudly, with a hint of sarcasm in his laughter.

After all, to him, Jared was like a frog in a well!

Jared was not angry at the ridicule of Vermilion Demon Lord. After all, this old guy did have the ability to laugh at him!

"Jared, you are awake. Master told me that when you wake up, I should take you to see him!" Mickey said when he saw that Jared had woken up.

Jared nodded, stood up, and followed Mickey.

Soon, Jared was brought to a thatched hut. This was not the same thatched hut where Jared had condensed his natal divine pattern!

The thatched houses here were obviously more luxurious, filled with all kinds of furniture for daily use!

Before entering the thatched hut, Jared could smell the aroma of wine!

"Master, Jared is awake. I brought him here," Mickey said outside the thatched cottage.

He didn't dare to walk into the house casually!

"Let him in!" The voice of Divinus sounded!

Jared walked in and found that Divinus was sitting at the table drinking with the array demon, with a few side dishes on the table.

It looked very comfortable, but for monks of their strength, drinking and eating seemed like a waste of time!

Time was very important to every cultivator in the celestial world. If they wanted to ascend to become immortals, they had to practice desperately!

For them, eating was a waste of time!

Not to mention having the leisure time to drink and chat!

“Sit down and have a drink together...”

Divinus waved towards Jared!

Jared didn't hesitate to sit down at the table and pour himself a glass of wine!

A rich spiritual energy, along with the aroma of wine, filled the air, making the entire room brimming with spiritual energy!

It must be good wine, and a high-grade spiritual wine at that!

“This wine is good stuff for you. It is carefully brewed with various magical herbs,” the array demon said to Jared.
