A Man Like None Other Chapter 4204

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4204-Where Is This After speaking, Jared followed Wyatt up the stone steps.

As soon as they stepped onto the stone steps, the pair instantly felt an overwhelming pressure. Their bodies, previously light, felt heavy in an instant.

Jared and Wyatt exchanged glances before continuing their ascend.

The stone steps were entirely illusory, and stepping on them felt like stepping into thin air.

Moreover, they had to endure the immense pressure.

The pressure and illusory steps were enough to drive a person to the brink of collapse.

It was as if all the strength in one's body could find no place to be released.

After about a dozen steps, Wyatt could no longer hold on. His body suddenly gave way, and he instantly fell off the stone steps.

Upon seeing Wyatt's fall, everyone hastily rushed over to him and helped him up. "President Chance!"

Wyatt panted heavily. "This is too difficult. If I only needed to deal with the heaven and earth pressure, I could withstand it for a while. However, with no ground beneath my feet, I can't muster any strength." Wyatt's words deterred many eager alchemists from attempting the ascension.

After all, if even Wyatt couldn't make it, they thought there was no point in trying.

After casting a glance at Wyatt, Jared continued his upward climb.

Although the heaven and earth pressure was immense, Jared's physical body managed to withstand it all. Jared only stopped after traversing thousands of stone steps.

At that moment, the stone steps in front of Jared had become blurry, as if the entire Cauldron Peak had fused with the sky.

Jared couldn't tell whether he was standing atop Cauldron Peak or hovering in mid-air.

Swiftly, a streak of golden light descended, enveloping Jared entirely.

Jared radiated a golden light, appearing like an immortal and causing everyone to look up in awe.

“Mr. Chance succeeded! He successfully reached the summit!” Upon seeing the situation, Sigurd began to shout out loud in elation.

“Mr. Chance had truly reached the peak of the mountain. Could it be that he discovered the legacy of Medicine God?” Gazing at the sky filled with golden light, Wyatt was also exhilarated.

At that moment, those who were still halfway up the mountain couldn't help but instinctively look in the direction of the mountain peak.

Dylan looked up at the mountain peak, expressing his surprise. “Waylon, has someone reached the mountaintop and discovered the legacy of Medicine God?”

“Most likely. We need to hurry up.” Waylon's brows slightly furrowed as he picked up his pace.

At that moment, Thaddeus and the others halted in their tracks, staring blankly at the sudden burst of golden light that appeared.

“President Surrey, what's going on? Has someone already reached the cave?” Ernesto asked with a puzzled look on his face.

“I'm not sure either, but there's definitely a reason for that golden glow to appear on the mountaintop. We need to hurry and check it out.” After finishing his words, Thaddeus instantly quickened his pace. As the golden glow gradually faded, so did Jared's figure.

At that moment, Wyatt and Viola, among others, were all left utterly dumbfounded.

“Where's Jared?”

“Where did Mr. Chance go?”

“Why did he suddenly disappear?”

Everyone wore expressions of confusion, frantically searching for any sign of Jared to no avail.

At that moment, Jared found himself enveloped in complete darkness, unable to see anything around him. The only thing visible were the stone steps appearing beneath his feet, one after another. However, the stone steps did not lead upward but extended downward. Even Jared himself had no idea where these stairs were leading to.

“Where is this?” Jared was momentarily dumbfounded.

He couldn't tell where the stone steps led as everything was engulfed in total darkness.

It was as though the path led straight to hell.

After calming his mind, Jared took steady steps, descending along the stone staircase.

Jared himself wasn't sure how long he had been walking. It wasn't until he felt his feet touch the ground that he realized the stone steps in front of him had disappeared.

The surroundings began to glow with a vague brightness, and then a golden figure slowly emerged, its back turned to him.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4205

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4205-"Who are you?" David looked at the golden figure in front of him and asked carefully! "You come to me and ask who I am.

Isn't it a bit strange?" The figure slowly spoke and slowly turned his body around! David understood immediately after hearing it, and hurriedly bowed and said: "Junior pays homage to Senior Medicine God..." Chen Ping knew that the person in front of him should be a wisp of residual soul left when Medicine God fell.

"You are the only one who has seen me in so many years, so my inheritance will also be passed on to you."Chapter 1969 Justin shared the same thoughts as Stefan.

Justin could tell from that day's incidents that it would be very difficult for Renee and him to move forward in their relationship.

This might be his only chance to take wedding photos with Renee.

Although it was not proper wedding photos, it was still something he could cherish.

It was a crazy idea, but he would take what he could get.

"You're not a good match for her," Stefan said to Justin coldly as he changed his posture at the photographer's request.

"Thank you for the advice but..." Similarly, Justin changed his posture, staring into Stefan's eyes intently.

"Save it for yourself.

You're worse." "Have you ever considered not disturbing her and letting her find someone who can truly make her happy?" Stefan asked sharply.

Truthfully, Stefan was only saying such things because they were well-suited for each other, and it filled him with envy.

He knew Renee well-she wouldn't get into a relationship easily, but once she did, she would throw herself into it.

Then, it would be hard to change her mind.

Besides, he secretly hoped that Renee would still cherish him even if she found someone new, and see him as her most important person. "What's your definition of happiness?" Justin asked uncertainly, now wondering if he could truly make Renee happy.

He felt like he saw her sincere happiness when she was with Stefan, not him.

"There are many hidden dangers in your family.

Your grandfather is like a ticking time bomb, so you'd either have to leave your family or not marry her to avoid her coming in contact with your family.

A free-spirited person like her can't live in an autocratic family like yours!" Stefan rarely spoke so much, but when it came to Renee, he felt he needed to. "You're being prejudiced!" Justin sneered.

"I've brought Phoenix to my house a few times.

My family likes her very much, especially my grandpa.

He started to dote on her after knowing her background.

He even gave her a mercenary group, which is how he shows love.

Even I didn't get that!" "Even if he likes and accepts her, it doesn't mean that the conflicts are resolved." Stefan rolled his eyes and added, "You know very well that I'm talking about your family's preferences. Your family wouldn't want a casual woman like Renee as your wife." "Casual?" Justin looked at Stefan scornfully.

"Is that how you see Renee? Is that why you'd rather give up the kids to divorce her?" "However, if you want to get my inheritance, you must worship under my door." The figure said slowly! "Still want to become a disciple?" David frowned slightly! He wanted to get the inheritance, but he didn't want to become a disciple.

Although the strength of this Medicine God was not bad, David always felt that he was still a little short of being his master! "What? You don't want to?" The figure was slightly stunned! If it were someone else, the Medicine God would have happily knelt on the ground when he asked to become a disciple and accept the inheritance! After all, the eyes of these cultivators, that Medicine God is an immortal, an immortal from the heaven! Being able to worship an immortal as a teacher is probably the dream of all cultivators! But David is different! David has met more and more people from the heaven, and each of them is extraordinary! Even the God Pattern Ancestor and the Array Demon, I am afraid that their strength and status in the heaven are higher than this Medicine God! Not to mention the Red Cloud Demon Lord in his sea of consciousness! And the Wuji Holy Sect, that is also a sect in the heaven, and the entire world of heaven and man was opened up by the Wuji Holy Sect! These are all immortals in the heaven, and David has not become a disciple.

Now let him worship a little Medicine God, David will definitely hesitate! "Senior, you suddenly proposed to become a disciple, I haven't thought about it for a while!" David said euphemistically! After hearing this, the God of Medicine was a little unhappy: "Boy, I am a straightforward person, so I like to be straightforward.

If you hadn't passed the test and had extraordinary qualifications, I would not accept you as my apprentice even if you knelt down and begged me." "And if you worship me as your master, I can give you a great gift, as well as my inheritance.

At that time, your medical skills will be beyond the reach of everyone." "I can let you improve your medical skills and alchemy ability in a short time, and even improve your realm and impact a higher realm!" "Don't think that pharmacists can only make medicine and their realm will be slow to improve.

That's all because the current pharmacists are ignorant and incompetent!" After the God of Medicine finished speaking, he raised his hand and swept it lightly.

The surrounding darkness disappeared instantly, and rays of light fell from the sky, illuminating the place very brightly! David then discovered that the place where he was at the moment was actually the interior of Yaoding Mountain.

The entire Yaoding Mountain was hollow.

After climbing to the top of the mountain, you can see a bottomless abyss! At this time, David was in this abyss, and the light shone down from the top of the mountain.

Just as the entire bottom was illuminated, David discovered that the entire Yaoding Mountain had become transparent! He could even see Chen Wenliang, Liu Ruyan and others through the mountain! There was also Su Tianshuo who kept climbing the mountain, and even the Zhou family and the Zhen family appeared in front of David! All the pharmacists in Yaoding Mountain were presented in front of David! Their every move was seen clearly by David! However, none of them could have imagined that David was actually inside Yaoding Mountain at this moment, observing them! "Have you seen these pharmacists? They are all trash.

There is no one with talent.

Even if they practice for a lifetime, they will not achieve anything great.” The God of Medicine glanced at the people on Yaoding Mountain, his face full of disappointment! “Senior, everyone’s talent is of course different, but talent does not represent everything.

Even if a person with dull talent is willing to work hard, he will succeed.”
