Chapter 81: Little Aunt?

The three of them walked to Father Lu's ward.

On the way there, Chu Cichen asked, "How's Mr. Yun?"

"His situation is very good," Fang Panxia replied. She was clad in white. After coming back to the country, she had been working in this hospital. At this moment, her hands were in her pockets as she warmly spoke, "The special medicine has a great effect. It has been through animal testing overseas, and we also have chosen over ten humans for the clinical trial. I feel that it shouldn't be a problem to extend Mr. Yun's life for five years. Bro Chen, you don't have to worry about this."

Chu Cichen's attitude was cold as he replied, "Hmm."

After that, he glanced at Lu Cheng at the side. "Is your father doing good?"

Lu Cheng helplessly sighed. "Not too bad. He even gave me a call this morning, wanting to force me to get married. His voice was so loud that I felt like my ears were about to go deaf."

Chu Cichen instructed, "It's better to be more respectful to the elderly."

"...I understand."

As the three of them chatted, they soon arrived at the orthopedics department.

Yesterday, they left after the old man Shen Ruoqing had saved was wheeled out of the operation theater. Hence, Chu Cichen didn't know that the old man was there. Now after they arrived at the VIP ward, Lu Cheng called out. "Father, Bro Chen is here to see you!"

He pushed the door open as the sound of his voice rang out. However—

The room was completely empty.

Lu Cheng was stunned and hurriedly made a call. However, his father didn't want to pick up, so he had no choice but to call the nurse, who did pick up his call. "Mr. Lu..."

"Where's my father?"

"The old sir wants to go fishing so we are currently heading to the riverside..."

Lu Cheng grew angry. "His leg is still injured. What fishing? Bring him back immediately!"

Just as his voice faded, the nurse's phone got snatched by Father Lu. "My leg is the one injured and not my hands, so why can't I fish? Stop bothering me."

Lu Cheng felt very helpless. "Father, the main thing is that you cannot get down from the wheelchair."

"How would I not know about this? I am not suffering from dementia, so I naturally know this. Don't worry, the nurse is accompanying me. It is all your fault. Why didn't you give me a grandchild to accompany me? If I have to recuperate for one hundred days, doesn't that mean I have to lie in the ward for a hundred days? Hmph! Unfilial child!"

He hung up directly after speaking.

Lu Cheng: "..."

He helplessly glanced at Chu Cichen. "Let's meet him next time when there's an opportunity."

Chu Cichen nodded. He placed the fruit basket in his hands down and turned to leave.

Father Lu found the best fishing spot in Sea City. After they parked the car, he instructed the nurse and family maid to bring along the fishing equipment.

He then stopped at a particular spot.

As he stared at the currents flowing in the wide river, he suddenly felt his mood becoming more relaxed.

This was the best spot to fish. Hence, many elderly loved coming here for fishing.

Father Lu met a few of his good fishermen friends on the way here. After greeting them, he got the nurse to push him to a place nearer the river as he began fishing.

Just when he was fishing, he heard the people beside him chatting.

"...Really awesome. Don't you guys know that she only used a short time to catch a few big fishes?!"

"Really? She is more impressive compared to Old Lu?"

"Much more! The main point is that she is still young, yet she has more patience than us..."

Father Lu immediately grew interested. "Who are you guys talking about?"

"Miss Shen!" The people beside him moved over and started chatting with him. "In the past, we heard that Miss Shen's fishing skills were excellent but have never seen it before. Today, she actually came here. Didn't you say before that you wanted to compete with her? Do you want to give it a try today?"

Father Lu immediately grew interested. "Sure!"

He had long since heard of this person called Miss Shen. This woman loved fishing as much as them and was extremely good at it. Father Lu always wanted to compete against such an expert, so he got the nurse to take him around to look for her.

From afar, he saw a large black umbrella blocking the sunlight.

A young woman around twenty-plus years old was clad in loose-fitting exercise attire, lazily lying beneath a chair underneath the huge umbrella. She was wearing shades, and one of her hands was casually on a fishing rod. Her legs were crossed and she looked extremely comfortable.

Father Lu was pushed over toward where the woman was.

All of a sudden, the woman moved. She sat up straight and directly hoisted the rod. Very soon, a fish of over ten kilograms were pulled out of the river,

Her casual hoisting movements made it seem as though the fish was weightless. She then tossed it into a fishing net at the side and straightened the fishing line before tossing the rod out again...

Her series of movements were extremely proficient. One could tell she was a veteran with just a glance.

Father Lu's eyes brightened. "Benefactor, so it is you!"

His voice was so loud that Shen Ruoqing's hands trembled. She turned over and saw an old man with bright eyes in a wheelchair currently being pushed over by a nurse. This old man was extremely passionate.

"..." Shen Ruoqing fell silent before asking, "You are?"

"I'm the person you saved at the hospital!" Father Lu gestured at his leg. "If it wasn't for you, I wouldn't have been able to keep my leg!"

Only now did Shen Ruoqing connect this old man with the disagreeable elderly at the hospital yesterday. She calmly spoke, "Oh, so it's you?"

"Yup, yup. It's me!" Father Lu directly stopped his wheelchair beside her. "I came here to fish. You also like fishing?"

"Hmm."

"Benefactor. Hmm, are you married? I have a son..."

Shen Ruoqing immediately interrupted him. "My children are already five years old."

During these years when Shen Ruoqing was slacking, she had made a few good friends among the elderly. The hobbies of these people were very diverse, but they all had a common unique point—they liked to matchmake her. All the elderly she knew would almost immediately ask her, "Are you attached?"

Shen Ruoqing had long since grown immune to this, so her direct reply directly cut off the other words Father Lu wanted to say.

Father Lu: "...My son doesn't have the fortune then. How about I accept you as my god-daughter?"

"Old Lu, don't take advantage of Little Shen!"

His fishing friends at the side immediately interrupted. They treated Shen Ruoqing as their little sister. If Old Lu accepted her as a god-daughter, wouldn't their status be a generation lower than Old Lu's?

Father Lu immediately understood. "In that case, I'm also your big bro in the future, and you are my little sister! You can look for me if you need any help. I'll back you up!"

The other elderly: "Tsk, we were already her friends since long ago. If you want to back Little Shen up, go and join the queue~"

“I’m different. My son has some power in Sea City, and even if it is something he cannot help with, I can ask him to look for his big bro...”

As Father Lu said this, he directly took out his phone and called Lu Cheng. “I’ll get my son to come right now, so he can get acquainted with his little aunt. Can you guys do the same?”

The others: “...”

Father Lu called Lu Cheng and directly shouted, “Smelly brat, come to the riverside now to look for me! I’ll introduce my new god-sister to you. She is now your little aunt!”

Lu Cheng felt very helpless. “Okay, wait for me there. I’m heading over immediately.”

Chapter 82: Medicine!

Father Lu had Lu Cheng when he was thirty, so he was now already sixty years old.

Ever since his wife passed away from sickness, his temper became bizarre.

So, Lu Cheng couldn’t really ignore him. After hanging up, he immediately drove to the riverside. After parking, he looked around and soon discovered his father.

His father’s wheelchair was too conspicuous.

Lu Cheng quickly walked over and asked, “Father, where is my new aunt?”

He thought he would see a middle-aged woman...and was suspecting whether his father’s second spring had come.

In the end, he only heard his father snorting. “You were too late. She already left to pick up her kids!”

Lu Cheng: “...”

Lu Cheng didn’t grumble. “No problem. I will definitely have a chance to meet Little Aunt in the future!”

Father Lu continued to snort. “She is the miraculous doctor I spoke about yesterday. You failed to see her yesterday and also failed to see her today. However, I’ve confirmed with her. She will visit her relatives at the hospital tomorrow and will also take the time to visit me. The time is set at noon. You definitely have to be there to meet her, okay?”

“Sure, sure, sure. I got it. Are you returning to the hospital now?”

“Nope. I am going home to finish eating the fish your little aunt gave me before I head back to the hospital!”

Shen Ruoqing left long ago. She loved interacting with the elderly. Everyone was retired, so they had common topics. For example, playing chess and fishing were activities this group of elderly had invited her to.

However, she didn't like interacting with the children of the elderly. It was too troublesome.

When the kindergarten class ended, she went to the school to fetch Chu Yu.

At the entrance.

Teacher Miaomiao was currently sending the children out. There was a strained smile on her face as she cast her gaze into the distance.

"What's wrong?" someone asked.

Teacher Miaomiao started. "Why do I feel like I saw Chu Yu from class one being brought away by Little Ye's mother?"

"How can that be possible?" That teacher continued, "What are you thinking about? Chu Yu is the little young master of the Chu Family. Who the hell is Chu Tianye? For his sake, you got scolded by the president. I think you should use this opportunity to apologize to the president and stop dreaming here!"

Teacher Miaomiao frowned.

She then sighed and continued sending the children away. After that, the president came over.

Although the Lin Family had fallen, they didn't express the reason to the outside world.

Hence, the staff in the kindergarten had no idea about it. The Chu Family also didn't have time to deal with the president who had bullied and expelled Chu Tianye.

The president looked at Miaomiao. "Teacher Miao, the tasks of disinfecting all the rooms here will be handed to you. After all, you are young and should do more stuff, allowing the other teachers to rest more."

Teacher Miaomiao: "..."

During this period, although she wasn't fired, the president kept finding trouble with her. He made her do all sorts of unsavory tasks and caused her to suffer a lot.

However, she didn't want to resign voluntarily. After all, she wanted to stay here and help Chu Tianye return to school.

Teacher Miaomiao sighed. She then stretched her waist and began to carry the cleaning equipment such as alcohol and other items as she began to clean the classrooms.

Lu Cheng brought his father home and enjoyed a fish buffet. He only sent his father back to the hospital after they finished drinking the fish soup.

Seeing that his father finally calmed down, Lu Cheng said, "You just had an operation on your leg. You should try not to go out during these two days."

"I won't go out tomorrow since your little aunt is coming. I will wait for her!" It was rare for Father Lu to be so obedient.

Lu Cheng smiled. "Okay. This Little Aunt is really worthy of my acknowledgment! I won't go anywhere tomorrow and will wait to meet her here!"

The main thing was Director Chen had said that her medical skills were astounding. When they met, he could ask if she was proficient in blood surgery. If she was good at that, she might be able to help Yun Zhengyang.

After he left the ward, he went to Fang Panxia's office and just so coincidentally saw that she was about to head to Yun Zhengyang's ward for a check. Hence, he decided to go there with her.

Fang Panxia involuntarily asked, "You came to visit Mr. Yun twice today. When did your relationship with him become so good?"

The Yun Clan of Ford City was merely connected to the Chu Family through Matriarch Chu. They didn't really have any business dealings between them.

Lu Cheng coughed. "After all, he is Bro Chen's uncle-in-law. There's nothing wrong with me paying him a visit."

Fang Panxia smiled. "Okay."

Just when the two of them arrived at the ward's entrance, they heard Madam Yun crying in shock. "Zhengyang, Zhengyang, don't scare me!"

Fang Panxia's expression froze as she hurriedly pushed the door open and entered.

The scene of Yun Zhengyang vomiting what he just ate appeared in her vision.

His face was pale and his entire body felt very weak. Cold sweat could also be seen on his forehead.

Madam Yun supported Yun Zhengyang as the nurses in the room began to clean up. Lu Cheng couldn't help but cover his nose, but Fang Panxia professionally entered. "Mr. Yun, how do you feel?"

Yun Zhengyang leaned against Madam Yun and panted. "Very unwell..."

Madam Yun hurriedly asked, "What's going on?"

Fang Panxia sighed. "This medicine hasn't entered the market yet, so the side effects are more obvious. Hence...you have to endure it. Mr. Yun, do you feel you can endure it?"

Yun Zhengyang clenched his fists tightly and looked at Madam Yun who had a face filled with worry. He drew in a deep breath and looked at Fang Panxia. "Yes..."

"That's good then."

Fang Panxia also heaved a sigh of relief. "If you can't eat, you can take a break first. Wait until you are more comfortable before drinking some soup...Mr. Yun, there's no need to force yourself."

"Okay."

Fang Panxia looked at them and continued, "Also, you must not consume that Chinese medicine anymore in case some medical properties in there might conflict with the medicine I gave you."

Yun Zhengyang frowned as his gaze swept over the remaining pills from Shen Ruoqing. He pursed his lips. "Okay."

Madam Yun sensed his gaze and directly spoke, "You cannot eat that Chinese medicine anymore. Okay?"

Yun Zhengyang felt very helpless.

He didn't know how to explain. After eating Shen Ruoqing's medicine, his entire body felt very comfortable.

But after stopping for a single day and only eating Fang Panxia's medicine, he started to feel unbearable. All parts of his body felt extremely painful. Even someone like him who was good at enduring pain felt somewhat unbearable.

He said, "After eating that medicine, I felt very comfortable. Doctor Fang, I feel really uncomfortable right now."

Fang Panxia sighed. "I suspect she might have painkillers mixed inside her medicinal pills. This is why you felt comfortable. However, these things will affect your body's absorption of my medicine. Honestly speaking, Mr. Yun, feeling comfortable for a short period wouldn't cure your sickness. If you can endure the pain, I suggest you continue enduring..."

Madam Yun also said, "Doctor Fang is a renowned doctor internationally. It is best to listen to her advice!"

"...okay then."

Yun Zhengyang lay on the bed and closed his eyes.

During that night, his condition suddenly worsened.

Chapter 83: Worsening Condition

After class ended, Shen Ruoqing fetched Chu Yu back to the Chu Manor.

There was no solution as Chu Yu wanted to go there for dinner.

After acknowledging this son of hers, Shen Ruoqing was filled with guilt and couldn't bear to reject his request.

However, when Chu Yu returned, he instantly ran upstairs to find Chu Tianye. The two of them huddled together and spoke in low voices, not allowing others to listen in.

After some time, Chu Tianye ran over. "Grandma, I want to attend the same school as Chu Yu!"

Today was the first time Chu Yu went to school after a period of break, and he heard that Teacher Miaomiao had recently been bullied by the principal. He initially wanted to tell his father about it so he could handle this. But after thinking about it, he decided to tell Chu Tianye instead. After all, Miaomiao was Chu Tianye's teacher.

Chu Tianye had always been resistant to going to school, but now after hearing Chu Yu's words, he decided to go and save Teacher Miaomiao!

Matriarch Chu had long since wanted to send him to school. Hence, she nodded. "Sure, no problem..."

She made a few calls and after making the arrangements for her grandchild, Chu Cichen was dragged down by Little Meng from the study for dinner downstairs.

Chu Cichen was as cold as ever and he had a look that stated 'don't antagonize me' on his face. Even Little Meng felt that their father was terrifying during these two days. Hence, she obediently sat down and didn't pass any of her vegetables to Chu Tianye.

The dinner atmosphere was extremely silent.

At 8 p.m., Shen Ruoqing wanted to bring Chu Yu home after dinner.

However, Matriarch Chu felt some heartache, so she said, "Jingjing, summer is about to end and autumn is gradually coming. It is quite cold at night. Why don't you just stay at our Chu Manor so you won't have to keep running to and fro...Cichen, what do you think?"

Matriarch Chu cast a glance at Chu Cichen.

Shen Ruoqing also glanced at him.

She had no plans to move in, but she wanted to see if his attitude had changed. Ever since Lin Wanru's incident, they knew that the night five years ago was between the two of them. After that, their relationship had clearly changed from before.

In the past, Shen Ruoqing was angry that he couldn't control his lust.

But after knowing it was a misunderstanding, she no longer felt anger.

Also, she could clearly sense that it wasn't that Chu Cichen had no feelings toward her...For example, at the hospital, when she was treating Father Lu, she could feel his concern for her.

She thought that the relationship between them had finally become somewhat warmer.

However, she didn't expect him to simply glance at her before coldly speaking, "Miss Shen, this car is for you."

He placed a car key on the table and continued directly to avoid gossip. "It will be more convenient for you to fetch Little Yu to and fro with this."

"..."

The room fell silent.

Matriarch Chu hated iron for not becoming steel. She was anxious and wanted to say something but didn't dare to say it.

However, Shen Ruoqing's gaze landed on the key.

She didn't understand why his attitude suddenly changed again...However, since he had no intentions to become closer, she wouldn't persist either.

The light in Shen Ruojing's eyes fragmented into a thousand astral rivers.

Her voice was calm. "No need."

She no longer glanced at Chu Cichen and directly stretched her hand out at Chu Yu. "Little Yu, let us leave."

She held Chu Yu's hands and left the Chu Manor with no hesitation.

Even after getting on her motorbike and driving away, she didn't glance back.

Chu Cichen stood in the living room and glanced at the familiar silhouette of her departing back as he shook his head.

Matriarch Chu couldn't help but sigh. "Cichen, why must you do this? The one you love is already gone, so you should let things go when it is time to do so. Humans always have to look and move forward."

"What about you? Father has passed away for twenty years so why didn't you move forward?"

Chu Cichen suddenly spoke, causing Matriarch Chu to be speechless.

Before Matriarch Chu could say anything else, Chu Cichen went upstairs. After entering the study, he glanced at the portrait that was hiding the switch to the secret room.

He eventually rubbed his glabella and walked to the balcony.

The night seemed to be enveloped in a gray veil. It was so tense that it felt hard to breathe.

Chu Cichen suddenly took out a cigar and clasped it between his fingers. After lighting it, he inhaled fiercely. Amidst the spiraling smoke, his eyes slowly turned red.

He missed her.

He recalled that the first time they met was in an underground gathering.

There were so many people there, but she walked straight toward him.

She was clad in a red dress and had a graceful figure and a beautiful smile. She lifted her chin slightly and passed him a cigar while asking, "Do you smoke?"

He subconsciously took the cigar and brought it toward his nose to sniff at it. "Nope."

"Useless."

Her ruby red lips uttered this word. She then lit a cigar for herself and inhaled deeply before exhaling a ring of smoke.

Her aura was sassy and uninhibited.

Her thick make-up was dazzling, but it was unknown why she bore some resemblance to Shen Ruoqing who was bare-faced. This was especially so for the pride and carefreeness that unconsciously radiated from her.

Chu Cichen abruptly regained his senses.

He knew that he was observing Shen Ruoqing simply because of the resemblance she shared with the woman he loved.

However, he couldn't treat Shen Ruoqing as her replacement.

That would be a form of blasphemy toward the woman he loved and injustice toward Shen Ruoqing.

"Bzz, bzz, bzz..."

The vibration from his phone interrupted his thoughts.

Chu Cichen's thoughts were derailed. He then picked up the phone and heard Lu Cheng anxiously speaking, "Bro Chen, Mr. Yun's condition has worsened! He might not be able to last through tonight!"

Chu Cichen's eyes dimmed slightly.

Lu Cheng lowered his voice. "Mr. Yun consumed Shen Ruoqing's medicine before. Sister Fang said that the medicinal properties of the Chinese medicine must have conflicted with the special medicine she brought from overseas. Now, even Madam Yun is suspicious about it. Would this affect the relationship between the Yun Family and Shen Family?"

The Yun Family had just acknowledged the Shen Family as their relatives and something like this happened...This would definitely cause a barrier between Madam Yun and Shen Ruoqing!

Chu Cichen was silent for a moment before instructing, "Keep that medicine and immediately get someone to check the composition of ingredients. If the pills are not effective in treating the illness but won't cause any mortal harm, you can let Madam Yun and the Yun Family know the results. But if the investigation results are bad, silently destroy all the pills and leave no trace behind."

"...Yes."

After hanging up, Chu Cichen headed down. Just so coincidentally, he saw Matriarch Chu heading down with a change of clothes too. Evidently, she had just received the news.

The two of them sat in the family car and instructed the driver to drive to the hospital.

Matriarch Chu suddenly asked in a low voice, "Cichen, could it be that Yun Zhengyang became like this because he ate Jingjing's medicine?"

Even Matriarch Chu was suspecting whether this was the case. There was no need to mention Madam Yun and the Yun Family.

Chu Cichen suddenly recalled the scene where Shen Ruoqing saved the old man at the hospital...His eyes gleamed and he decided to call Shen Ruoqing.

Right now in the hospital, the atmosphere was in complete chaos.

Yun Zhengyang's blood count kept decreasing and the doctors were all helpless.

Madam Yun's eyes were red from crying. She panicked and screamed helplessly, "Quickly save him. Please save him!"

The main doctor frowned. "Madam Yun, this situation is just like before and we have administered all emergency treatment measures. However, they are all useless. Previously, what measures did you guys take that caused Mr. Yun's condition to become better?"

Chapter 84: The Miraculous Doctor is Little Aunt?

"I really have no idea...are you guys the doctor or am I? Save him quickly, money doesn't matter!"

"We already did our best..."

"What do you mean by 'did your best'? He is still alive and not dead yet. How can you all give up? Are you guys even useful at all? If you cannot save someone, why call yourselves doctors?"

"...Did Mr. Yun consume some special medicine?"

A doctor asked and Madam Yun immediately turned to look at Fang Panxia. "Yes, he did. Doctor Fang, quickly tell them what medicine that is!"

Fang Panxia frowned and spoke in a heavy tone of voice, "This is a new medicine that was created from research in overseas laboratories. Currently, it is still in the experimental phase but we have already tested it on over a hundred patients. There were no issues at all."

The doctors of the hematology department then asked, "Can you contact the other side and see if there were any patients with the same situation as Mr. Yun? Check to see what we can do?"

"Okay."

Fang Panxia nodded and took out a phone to make a call.

Madam Yun was sobbing non-stop. She grasped Yun Zhengyang's name and kept shouting his name.

Fang Panxia left the room and made an international call to one of her seniors that were in the hematology field. The other party picked up and a male voice spoke in English, "Fang, I was planning to look for you. Something went wrong with our medicine!"

Fang Panxia's heart clenched in shock. "What's the matter?"

"The rejection response by the patients is too great and the effects are too strong. Even if the patients endured past the first phase, they would find it hard to endure the latter phases. Currently, out of the hundred patients tested, there was only a 50% survival rate."

Fang Panxia's hand, which was holding her phone, exerted force lightly.

This medicine was still in the experimental phase. She had only taken some of it for the sake of Yun Zhengyang, and she was doing her best to help him. After all, this medicine would require at least half a year or a year of time before it went to the market...Yun Zhengyang couldn't afford to wait until then.

But never in her wildest dreams would she think that the medicine would have a problem at the very end of the testing stage.

Fang Panxia calmly spoke, "Send me the report. I will give the patient's family an appropriate answer."

"Okay."

For the clinical trials of such medicine, they would usually find patients and provide free treatment to them. Correspondingly, the patients would provide the researchers with data and had to sign an agreement in advance.

All trial medicines had to be tested on humans before it could be confirmed that there would be no signs of rejection.

When Fang Panxia had given Yun Zhengyang this medicine, she had specially mentioned this and Madam Yun agreed. After all, Yun Zhengyang might still be able to live if they tried this method. If they didn't try it...he could only wait for death.

Hence, they did sign the agreement.

Fang Panxia then turned to Madam Yun as she muttered silently in her heart. She didn't know if the patient's family would blame her...If she had known about this, she wouldn't have brought the special medicine back to try to get into their good books.

Just when she was pondering, she suddenly saw Lu Cheng secretly grabbing all of Shen Ruoqing's medical pills when everyone was unaware. After that, he hid them in his pockets.

He then began to walk to the room's exit.

And right now, Yun Zhengyang's third brother, Yun Zhengze, was actually preparing to enter.

Fang Panxia's eyes gleamed and hurriedly chased after him. When they got near the entrance, she grabbed Lu Cheng and asked, "Little Cheng, what are you planning to do with Shen Ruoqing's pills?"

Lu Cheng lowered his voice. "Don't care about this. Sister Fang, help me out with the situation here later. You must not link Mr. Yun's worsening condition to these pills..."

Fang Panxia nodded. "Don't worry. I know Bro Chen doesn't want there to be a conflict between the Shen Family and Yun Family. I will be prepared."

Lu Cheng made an 'okay' gesture and began to push the door to leave.

Yun Zhengze who was outside was also coincidentally pushing the door to enter!

"Well done you guys, so this was the case!" Yun Zhengze pushed the door open and shouted at Madam Yun, "Sister-in-law, look at what your good relative has done! This is all the Shen Family's fault!"

“My big brother’s condition worsened because Shen Ruoqing gave him some unknown medical pills! I heard the conversation between these two earlier!”

Lu Cheng frowned. “Madam Yun, don’t listen to his nonsense. I’m only planning to analyze these pills in a lab!”

Fang Panxia also spoke and a hint of panic could be heard in her voice. “Madam Yun, this has really nothing to do with the medicine Miss Shen gave. I called my senior earlier and he told me that 50% of the patients who tried the special medicine failed to survive...”

She then took her phone up and opened her email. “This is the email my senior sent me. Madam Yun, you can take a look! I was at fault for this matter. After all, this is a special medicine in the experimental stage, but I passed it to you guys to consume...However, Madam Yun, I told you about the medicine not being a finished product a few days ago, right?”

Madam Yun wasn’t an unreasonable person, and she had signed a clinical trial agreement before they used the medicine. She naturally couldn’t blame Fang Panxia now.

However, Yun Zhengze was shouting. “What nonsense email? How can we be sure that your email is genuine? Can’t you guys simply fabricate an email to wash the guilt off Shen Ruoqing? It is a very normal thing, right? Sister-in-law, I personally heard their conversation. They didn’t want to implicate Shen Ruoqing...”

He coldly smiled. “Actually, this is all you guys’ fault. Why did you all have to look for our aunt’s daughter? She is really a good relative of our Yun Clan. Shen Qianhui’s daughter gifted my brother a medicine that directly sent him to the yellow springs!”

Madam Yun stumbled and almost fell. However, she recalled Yun Zhengyang’s instructions. “Your eldest brother said that even if something went wrong after he consumed the medicine, he would not blame Shen Ruoqing...”

Fang Panxia anxiously stamped her feet and her tone was already close to sobbing. “Mr. Yun, listen to me. This really has nothing to do with her. My email is real...”

“I won’t believe it!” Yun Zhengyun stared at Madam Yun and Fang Panxia. “I will definitely get the Shen Family to answer for this matter! If they cannot give me an answer, I will take Royal Ocean Entertainment back from them!”

On the surface, he was seeking justice for his brother, but in truth, he was planning to seize the company.

Madam Yun knew very well what he was planning in his heart. At this moment, she could only feel desolate.

Lu Cheng fled the ward while they were arguing.

He rapidly walked to the exit and just so coincidentally encountered Shen Ruoqing who had just rushed over.

After seeing her, Lu Cheng immediately grew unhappy. “What are you doing here? Right now, they are shifting the blame to you. You should quickly hide! Bro Chen will handle everything for you!”

Shen Ruojing frowned. "I'm going to take a look."

"Take a look for what?" Lu Cheng was truly angered. "You have no medical skills, but why did you have to randomly give Mr. Yun medicinal pills? Don't you know that recklessly eating medicine might lead to death?"

He frowned. "I'm going to look for my father now. He said he encountered a miraculous doctor. I can get him to ask that doctor to come to take a look. Maybe, that doctor will be able to save Mr. Yun. Let's hope that after Mr. Yun is saved, the Yun Family will graciously spare you!"

Just after Lu Cheng spoke, he heard the sound of a wheelchair. After that, Father Lu's loud voice rang out. "Lu Cheng, why do I hear that Mr. Yun's condition isn't too good? Let me..."

As he spoke halfway, he spotted Shen Ruojing who was standing beside Lu Cheng. His tone of voice suddenly became higher as he spoke in shock, "Little sis? What are you doing here?"

Chapter 85: Shen Ruojing is the Miraculous Doctor?

When Lu Cheng heard this, he was stunned. "Little sister?"

Father Lu then told him, "Why are you in a daze? Quickly address her as 'little aunt'. She is my god-sister!"

After that, he spoke to Shen Ruojing, "This is my idiot son. Little sister, are you here to visit me?"

"No."

Shen Ruojing had a smile that was not a smile on her face as she cast a look at Lu Cheng. After that, she turned and headed to Yun Zhengyang's ward. Right now, saving him was the most important thing.

Father Lu exerted force to push his wheelchair, but it didn't move. Only then did he discover that Lu Cheng was holding onto the wheelchair and staring dumbfoundedly in Shen Ruojing's direction. "Father, she was the one who saved you that day?"

"Correct. Why are you so rude?" Father Lu smacked him. "Quickly bring me over!"

Lu Cheng: "..."

He frowned and just when he wanted to say something, the sounds of footsteps rang out. He turned his head and saw Chu Cichen and Matriarch Chu rapidly walking over.

Matriarch Chu had a nervous look on his face. "How's the situation?"

Just when Lu Cheng was about to reply, Father Lu was staring at Chu Cichen. After that, he pointed at Chu Cichen and spoke, "Aiya, what a familiar guy. Son, quickly address him as your uncle-in-law!"

Lu Cheng: "..."

Chu Cichen: "?"

Chu Cichen looked at the old man and then glanced at Lu Cheng before directly understanding what was going on. Chu Cichen then immediately greeted the old man, "Uncle Lu, hello."

Father Lu's eyes were wide open. "Wait, the seniority is wrong. Are you not my little sister's husband? You should be addressing me as 'elder brother'!"

"..."

Lu Cheng fell silent. "Father, this is Bro Chen."

Father Lu: "???"

Before his father could react, Lu Cheng continued, "Yun Zhengze is here, and things are very chaotic now. He kept saying that Mr. Yun's condition has worsened because of the pills Shen Ruoqing gave him, and he is planning to seek revenge on the Shen Family!"

After that, Lu Cheng added. "Shen Ruoqing just went over..."

Chu Cichen originally still wanted to say something more, but upon hearing this, he immediately instructed, "Quickly go and analyze the properties of the medicinal pills and rush back immediately once you have the result."

"Yes."

Even after Matriarch Chu and Chu Cichen had walked far away, Lu Cheng was still in a daze. He involuntarily glanced at his father. "Is she really skilled in medicine?"

When Shen Ruoqing entered the ward, the situation had blown up.

Yun Zhengze was cursing angrily, "This is all the Shen Family's fault. That Shen Ruoqing overestimated herself and repaid our kindness with enmity. She is the one who harmed big brother. It is all your fault. Why didn't you persuade my big bro to change his plans? Why did he have to acknowledge Shen Qianhui? Look at what is happening now, you guys brought suffering unto yourselves!"

"Ingrates are ingrates ultimately. Their Shen Family has declined so much, so how could they not want a connection with our Yun Family? I wonder where they got their medicinal pills from, and they even dared to let big brother consume them. Sister-in-law, why didn't you stop this? Even if the Shen Family's heads are filled with shit and they believe in these nonsensical medical pills, how could you trust them? Did you study for nothing? You are the matriarch of a top family, but you can't even see through this?"

"Also, you are Doctor Fang, right? Do you think you can deny being involved in this just by showing some stupid email? How can it be so easy? Let me tell you this, I've long seen through your plans. It is impossible if you want to brush the matter aside!"

Madam Yun angrily spoke, "Shen Ruoqing only did that out of kind intentions, and your elder brother said he felt much more comfortable after eating her pills. Originally, he only had days to live, but his condition suddenly changed for the better. Why do you have to make it sound like she was intentionally harming your big brother?"

Fang Panxia also sighed. “Mr. Yun, I can understand your feelings, but my email is real. It was just that at the very last moment, the experimental data showed an error. Your brother’s condition has nothing to do with Miss Shen’s medicine...after all, her medical pills are concocted from Chinese medicinal herbs. Even if they cannot cure the patient, no one will die from eating them...”

Yun Zhengze coldly laughed. “No one will die from eating them? Hehe, is this the attitude doctors ought to have? Your bottom line is simply this statement—no one will die from eating them? In that case, why can others get better after eating the experimental medicine but my brother cannot? It must be because the medicinal properties of these pills conflict with that of the experimental medicine! Sister-in-law, this matter was solely decided by you, so you have to bear the responsibility!”

He directly continued, “You even dare to randomly feed my big brother medicine. I think the Yun Family cannot be managed by you. Now that my big brother’s condition is like that, it is best for you to hand the management authority to me!”

Madam Yun trembled as she looked at him.

Yun Zhengyang was currently lying on the bed, and his life and death were unknown. However, Yun Zhengze ignored that and directly wanted to seize the authority of the Yun Family from her...

Madam Yun angrily spoke, “Your elder brother hasn’t died yet!”

Yun Zhengze narrowed his eyes. “But look at his current state! Can he even wake up to control the situation? The Yun Family’s companies cannot wait. For the sake of the companies and my Yun Family, it is best for sister-in-law to sign this document!”

After speaking, he tossed an authority transfer agreement to Madam Yun.

Madam Yun roared loudly in rage, “Scram, scram for me!”

Yun Zhengze sneered. “Based on what? This is my elder brother. I’m going to stay here to guard him...Sister-in-law, what do you mean by asking me to scram? Are you planning to take action behind my back?”

Shen Ruoqing pushed the door open and entered at this moment.

Once she entered, Yun Zhengze pointed at her and shouted at Madam Yun, “Wow. I knew I was right. You must have worked together with the Shen Family to harm my big brother so you can inherit the management authority of my Yun Family. But let me tell you, it is impossible for your plan to succeed!”

Shen Ruoqing ignored him and directly walked toward Yun Zhengyang. After prying open his eyelids, her fingers pressed on his wrist.

Madam Yun stared dumbly and didn’t say anything.

As for Fang Panxia, she frowned and was lost in contemplation.

Yun Zhengze sneered. “You really know how to put up an act. It is a pity. You are so young, so how would you know anything about traditional Chinese medicine? How long do you plan on acting?”

After Shen Ruoqing finished taking Yun Zhengyang's pulse, she immediately took out a pill from her pocket.

When Fang Panxia saw this, she frowned. "Miss Shen, don't recklessly feed Mr. Yun with any more medicine. If not, his situation may become even more dire!"

Madam Yun stared at the medicine in her hands. "Jingjing, can this pill cure him?"

Shen Ruoqing explained, "This can sustain his life and allow him to wake up first..."

Madam Yun's eyes turned red. "No need. I understand you are doing this out of good intentions, but look at the situation now...Forget it, humans have to die sooner or later..."

She was tired.

Her husband Yun Zhengyang was probably tired as well.

By eating more medicine, it would only prolong his pain and their relatives would only view them even more coldly. When she thought of how much pain Yun Zhengyang was in today, Madam Yun felt extremely discouraged. Maybe it was for the best to just let him go in peace...

Yet Shen Ruoqing suddenly spoke, "I guarantee that as long as he has a breath of life left, I can save him."

Madam Yun was stunned.

Yet, Yun Zhengze coldly laughed. "My elder brother originally still had a month, but his condition worsened after eating the medicine you provided. If he didn't eat your medical pills, he might be able to last for two more days in his current state. Are you going to be responsible if something happens after he eats your pills? Are you even capable of taking up this responsibility?!"

Chapter 86: I Will Take Responsibility!

Shen Ruoqing frowned. "I can."

Yun Zhengze choked before sneering. "You can take responsibility? Based on what? The Shen Family only has Royal Ocean Entertainment under their name, right? In addition, this is a company my Yun Family gave you guys."

Shen Ruoqing furrowed her brows.

She knew that these people wouldn't believe her. Hence, a hint of coldness flashed in her eyes as she felt impatient.

At this moment, a tyrannical voice rang out. "I will take responsibility."

The door was pushed open and Chu Cichen's lofty figure strode in.

As he entered, an invisible pressure swept through the room. Yun Zhengze who was venting his anger was stunned. "Mr. Chu?"

Chu Cichen looked straight at Yun Zhengze. "Even if Mr. Yun doesn't believe Miss Shen, you should believe in me, right?"

Yun Zhengze frowned. "Mr. Chu, are you certain you want to take responsibility for her? I know you can do anything you want in Sea City, but my Yun Family of Ford City isn't to antagonize either. Are you sure you want this responsibility?"

"Yes."

Chu Cichen answered with no hesitation.

Fang Panxia wanted to say something when she saw this, but she ultimately chose not to talk. She had followed Chu Cichen for so many years and she understood his character all too well.

Matriarch Chu also walked to Madam Yun and berated her, "You don't want him to be tired, but what about his own will? Mr. Yun is enduring the pain by eating the special medicine. Isn't it so because he wants to live a few more days so he can accompany you? How can you become muddle-headed at this crucial moment?!"

Hearing this, Madam Yun pressed her face into Matriarch Chu's shoulder and began sobbing.

Matriarch Chu patted her. She then looked at Shen Ruoqing with hesitation in her eyes. However, she still spoke, "Doctor, if this continues, how many more days does Mr. Yun have?"

The main doctor sighed. "Two days at most."

"In that case, what are we hesitating for? We should just use all sorts of methods to try and treat him!" Matriarch Chu looked at Shen Ruoqing. "Jingjing, feed him with that."

The two of them were too overbearing. After Matriarch Chu said that, no one else dared to stop Shen Ruoqing.

Shen Ruoqing then lowered her head and stuffed a medicinal pill into Yun Zhengyang's mouth.

Everyone looked over and nervously watched to see if there were any changes to Yun Zhengyang's condition.

At this moment, Yun Zhengze's gaze swept over Chu Cichen and landed on Shen Ruoqing. He then involuntarily frowned.

Mr. Chu was so willing to help this woman. Was this because he was confident about the pill?

If Yun Zhengyang really woke up, his plan might turn awry...

For a time, the atmosphere in the ward became silent.

Half an hour later, Yun Zhengyang finally had some reactions. He suddenly started coughing intensely and directly coughed up two mouthfuls of blood!

After seeing his appearance, Madam Yun was greatly worried. She shouted, "Zhengyang!"

Fang Panxia also frowned. "Doctor, quickly stop the blood and administer emergency treatment!"

Shen Ruoqing calmly interrupted, "No need for that. Let him continue coughing blood."

Fang Panxia couldn't help but turn to look at her. "Miss Shen, a life is at stake at this moment, you..."

However, it was like she couldn't reproach Shen Ruoqing. She then forcibly swallowed her words.

Yet, Yun Zhengze seemed to have understood something. He shouted loudly, "Shen Ruoqing, you want to kill my big brother. You are doing this intentionally to kill him! We will definitely pursue your responsibility in this!"

He then looked at Chu Cichen. "Mr. Chu, you are the one who wanted to take responsibility. The Chu Clan must give us an answer!"

Chu Cichen looked at Shen Ruoqing only to see her remaining composed and confident. He then calmly replied, "What are you so anxious for?"

The surrounding doctors were preparing to administer emergency treatment, but one of the doctors suddenly exclaimed in shock. "Eh?"

Matriarch Chu asked, "What's the matter?"

"T...this... Mr. Yun's condition is slowly getting better!" That doctor stared at the rising data in excitement and shouted, "There is hope for Mr. Yun!"

When everyone heard this, they immediately crowded around.

Yun Zhengyang slowly opened his eyes and grabbed Madam Yun's hands.

"Zhengyang!" Madam Yun sobbed even louder in a choking tone.

As for Yun Zhengze, he turned and looked at Yun Zhengze. "I am not dead yet, but you are already so impatient to replace me?!"

Yun Zhengze's eyes narrowed.

At this moment, Yun Zhengyang was still very weak. It felt like he was on the verge of death and his face was completely pale. Hence, Yun Zhengze wasn't afraid at all. He laughed in joy. "Big bro, it's too good that you are able to wake up. It means that her medicine is quite useful after all. Since you are awake, quickly write your will. Our Yun Family's company is so large, so it is impossible not to have anyone managing it. If you suddenly passed away one day, wouldn't things be chaotic when we try to pick up the pieces for you?"

"...Scram!"

Yun Zhengze's pupils constricted. He sneered as he looked at Shen Ruoqing. "Fine, I will leave. Shen Ruoqing, you might be able to stabilize his condition today, but if you are really capable, why don't you ensure he will never die? If not, once he dies, I will definitely take back Royal Ocean Entertainment!"

After saying this, he turned and departed.

The tense atmosphere in the room suddenly lightened up.

Yun Zhengyang coughed and fell back onto his bed. He spoke weakly, “Ruoqing, don’t be afraid. Since we have gifted Royal Ocean to Little Ye, it is his. No one can take it away...”

Madam Yun held his shoulder and continued sobbing. “Did you see it? Even before you leave, he is already such a bully. If you really left, let alone the Shen Family, even I might no longer be able to stay in the Yun Family...For my sake, for the sake of our children, you have to persevere on...”

Yun Zhengyang nodded.

At this moment, Lu Cheng finally returned. When he entered, he held the pill in his hand up and spoke, “Bro Chen, I found a few experts in the TCM field and got them to help me check the prescription. In the end, everyone said that this prescription is the best treatment method with regard to blood-related illnesses! The composition of the ingredients in this pill caused all of them to sigh in admiration. They even asked me where I got the medicinal pill from...”

He had a complex expression as he looked at Shen Ruoqing.

He had thought that she was just a pretty vase. However, it turned out that she was not only a legendary songwriter, but she was also skilled in medicine...

Matriarch Chu heaved a sigh of relief after hearing this. “It seems that those pills are indeed useful. Luckily, you have been eating them...”

Madam Yun wiped her tears away and revealed an embarrassed look. “He didn’t...I told him to stop since yesterday...”

Shen Ruoqing frowned and unhappily asked, “Who told you guys to stop eating the medicine?”

As the sound of her voice faded, everyone turned to look at Fang Panxia.

Fang Panxia instantly turned red. She lowered her head and spoke in an ashamed manner, “S...sorry...I didn’t understand the medicinal properties of the pills, so I was afraid they might come in conflict with the special medicine I brought from overseas...”

Shen Ruoqing ignored her and calmly continued, “Let Mr. Yun rest for two days. I will get someone to change his blood for him.”

Fang Panxia spoke after hesitating for a bit, “Miss Shen, Mr. Yun’s current conditions are very bad. I feel that we should continue with our treatment. Unless we can find that miraculous doctor in Sea City, it is best for us not to undertake a huge operation such as changing his blood...”

Before she could finish speaking, Shen Ruoqing’s peach blossom eyes flickered with impatience as she interrupted.

“Do you know the doctor I will invite?”

Chapter 87: Teasing You

Fang Panxia started. “I don’t know...”

“Why are you so resolutely saying that it is impossible for me to treat him if you don’t know anything? It is like before. You didn’t know the medicinal composition of my pills so you ordered Mr. Yun to stop eating them. As a doctor, don’t you know how serious things are if you do things without checking thoroughly?”

Shen Ruojing frowned. “I really feel worried on behalf of your patients.”

“...” Fang Panxia clenched her fists and lowered her head before sighing. “Miss Shen, I just didn’t want you to be in trouble. I was being too meddlesome.”

She took a step back and no longer spoke.

Lu Cheng who was at the side couldn’t bear to watch this anymore. “Shen Ruojing, Sister Fang only did that for your own good. Earlier, she kept explaining that your medicinal pills weren’t the problematic ones. It was her special medicine that had a problem...”

But before he could finish his sentence, Father Lu who was in the wheelchair suddenly jumped up and smacked his head. “Brat, be more respectful to your little aunt!”

Lu Cheng: “?”

Shen Ruojing completely ignored Lu Cheng. He looked at Madam Yun and spoke solemnly, “He has to eat my medicine in the next two days. Can you remember this?”

Madam Yun nodded. “Jingjing, I’ve remembered it!”

During these few days, she would fight the person who forbade her from feeding Yun Zhengyang with Shen Ruojing’s medicinal pills!

After Shen Ruojing left clear instructions, she continued, “Temporarily, Mr. Yun’s life is out of danger. A nurse can remain behind and the others should leave, so the air in the ward will be fresher.”

After speaking, she took the initiative and left.

Chu Cichen casually followed behind her.

Fang Panxia also left the ward and just when she wanted to explain things to Chu Cichen, she discovered that he and Shen Ruojing had left together. Her gaze landed on Shen Ruojing’s departing back as her expression turned strange.

Lu Cheng hadn’t snapped out of his daze even now. He asked in a dumbfounded manner, “Sister Fang, do you think Shen Ruojing is the miraculous doctor herself?”

Fang Panxia was very confident about this. “No.”

She then explained. “One has to depend on accumulated experience in TCM. This is because things like taking a pulse can be very complex. It is different from western medicine where there are fixed values in certain things. For example, if there’s a certain amount of concentration in one’s blood count, we will be able to tell it is normal. Hence, the practice is very objective-based. So, those who are addressed as miraculous doctors definitely have treated many patients before and accumulated a lot of experience. So, the older a physician is, the more highly skilled they will be. Miss Shen is only in her twenties, even if her master is a famous expert, her life experiences are still lacking. She couldn't have treated enough people to reach the standard of a miraculous doctor."

Lu Cheng nodded. "So this is the case."

Fang Panxia narrowed her eyes and suddenly spoke, "Oh right, it isn't too good for me to say these words before Madam Yun earlier. Mr. Yun's body is already like an arrow at the end of its flight. Even if that medicine of unknown origin managed to sustain his life temporarily, it is still very difficult to fully cure him. As of now, I have never heard of any physicians being capable enough to treat blood illnesses. I'm worried something bad might happen in two days."

Lu Cheng immediately grew anxious. "Is Shen Ruoqing crazy? She dares to brag despite not knowing where her limits are. Sister Fang, what should we do so that we can preserve Mr. Yun's life?"

Fang Panxia's eyes narrowed. "Look for that miraculous doctor. This matter can only be considered closed if Mr. Yun is fully cured. If not, Yun Zhengze will continue to stir trouble for us. Although Bro Chen isn't afraid of the Yun Family, Madam Yun and Matriarch Chu are sisters after all and things would be very awkward."

Lu Cheng nodded. "Right."

However, he then recalled the matter about Anonymous previously, and he faintly felt that Shen Ruoqing wasn't as simple as Sister Fang made her out to be...

After he left, Fang Panxia then bit her lips.

She wanted to see how Shen Ruoqing would screw up two days later!

She didn't believe that traditional Chinese medicine's method could cure blood illnesses!

At the hospital's car park.

It was already autumn so the night was a little cold.

The breeze gusted over and Shen Ruoqing sneezed.

When she received the call from Chu Cichen earlier, she had fallen asleep. However, because she was worried about Yun Zhengyang's condition, she directly came here without having the time to change her short-sleeved shirt. Now, she even had to bear the bite of the cold wind while riding her motorbike back...

Shen Ruoqing rubbed her arms and sighed.

At the next instant, a jacket was passed toward her.

Shen Ruoqing started slightly. It was only when she turned her head did she discover that Chu Cichen had been following her.

She looked at the jacket and asked, "Mr. Chu, what do you mean by this exactly?"

Chu Cichen paused. "?"

Shen Ruojing cocked her head and her eyes reflected the starlight. "I can understand the support you showed me earlier as you have faith in my ability. But your current behavior makes me feel confused. Are you pursuing me?"

"Nope." Chu Cichen subconsciously rebutted.

"In that case, isn't the act of giving me a jacket a little ambiguous?" Shen Ruojing decided to make things clear. Her lips curled as she slowly spoke, "I have always coveted Mr. Chu's good looks, but I didn't go overboard due to your previous warning. However, Mr. Chu is now starting to do things that might cause me to misunderstand your intentions. Are you not afraid of my lust being stirred and I keep pestering you?"

Chu Cichen. "!!"

He stared at the woman before him in astonishment.

Shen Ruojing had always done things within the limit, and she was a very low-profile person. Hence, never in his wildest dreams did he expect that she would speak so bluntly and boldly. Moreover, her current mannerism resembled the figure in his memories a lot.

Chu Cichen's ears blushed and just when he was hesitating about what to say, she suddenly spoke.

"I'm just teasing you." Shen Ruojing took his jacket and casually put it on herself. "Thanks."

She regained her usual coldness and got on her motorbike. She then put on her helmet and sped away.

Chu Cichen. "..."

On the next day, Shen Ruojing woke up an hour later than usual.

She didn't practice her taichi fist and also didn't have time to eat breakfast. After ensuring that Chu Yu who had finished dressing up was in the back seat, she directly rode her motorbike and drove to the kindergarten.

She sped all the way and luckily, they weren't late.

She stopped her bike at the side and just when Chu Yu was preparing to jump down, he was held back by Shen Ruojing.

After that, a Porsche slowly drove over and stopped beside her. The man in the car was on the phone so he didn't see them.

After the car stopped, the child seated in the backseat of the Porsche didn't see the situation outside the car and was preparing to push the door open to get down.

There was another vehicle in front of Shen Ruojing, so although she realized what was going to happen, she couldn't move her motorbike. Hence, she could only watch...

"Bang!"

The car door hit the back of her motorbike.

Shen Ruojing frowned and stared at the man in the driver's seat.

Only now did the man discover her. He turned to look at her as he cursed, "Unlucky, there's a blind motorbike driver. She knocked into my car. Let me handle this first, I'll be hanging up for now,"

He hung up his phone and got out of his car. He then scolded her directly, "Don't you have eyes? My car has stopped here, yet you still wanted to squeeze your way in?"

Shen Ruojing. "?"

She calmly replied, "I believed that your car has a dashcam, right?"

"What is it to you even if I have one or not? Are you planning to play punk with me and don't want to compensate me for my car's damages?" The man glanced at her tattered-looking motorbike and coldly laughed. "Since you are poor, why didn't you avoid me when you saw my car coming?"

Chapter 88: I Am Back!

The principal who was at the entrance hurriedly came over after discovering the commotion here. After recognizing Shen Ruojing's motorbike, her expression changed. "The mother of Chu Tianye? Why is it you? What's going on?"

The man raged. "She is also the parent of a kid attending this kindergarten? Isn't this supposed to be the best kindergarten? Why would there be a poor person like her here? Look at the damage to my car. Can she even afford to compensate me?!"

The principal immediately replied, "Her kid was suspected of stealing a toy from the Chu Family's little young master, so I expelled him. Sir, you don't have to be anxious, let me question her!"

After hearing the words 'suspected of stealing', Shen Ruojing's gaze turned heavy.

The principal turned to her. "Madam, what's going on?"

Shen Ruojing looked at the principal. Today, Chu Tianye came to school because he wanted to deal with the principal. Since that was the case, she might as well make an excuse.

After all, that incident had happened inside the principal's office, and no one saw it.

If they fired the principal because of that, everyone might say that the Chu Family was abusing their power to suppress others.

Since that was the case, she might as well let all the parents witness this principal's real face.

She made a gesture to stop Chu Yu who was planning to speak. After that, she smiled and answered, "I parked here first. He was chatting on his mobile phone so he didn't see me. His car was the one that knocked into us."

The man's face immediately changed. Only then did he realize that he had been on the phone earlier and might not have seen clearly. However, he laughed coldly and spoke, "You want to twist the facts? No wonder your son even dared to steal the toy of the Chu Family's little young master. You guys are really gusty. The Chu Family only made your son leave the school because they are magnanimous. However, I won't allow you to twist the facts. You should see clearly for yourself what this place is!"

He then looked at Shen Ruoqing with contempt. "Even the adult is crooked. It is no wonder that your kid would steal!"

Shen Ruoqing calmly replied, "I'm not twisting the fact. You can check your dashcam record."

The man only sneered mockingly. "Oh, so I'm supposed to believe you? Why should I allow you to check just because you want to? I can tell you that my dashcam is already damaged! In addition, your son has been expelled, so why are you still bringing him to school at this time? I'm suspecting that your son might be here to take revenge on the school."

After saying this, the surrounding parents all brought their kids away and took a step back in fright.

Shen Ruoqing ignored him. She looked at the principal and asked, "His dashcam is spoiled, but I believe the school entrance should have the surveillance footage, right? Why don't you check it?"

The principal glanced at the man whose expression changed. She coughed and replied, "The surveillance camera is also spoiled. We can't check it."

"Oh." Shen Ruoqing's lips curled. "What a coincidence."

The surrounding people also felt that something was wrong. A parent then spoke.

"How can the surveillance camera of the school be spoiled?"

"Yeah, it is too much of a coincidence"

"This man is a general manager under the Chu Corporation, right? Why is he so arrogant?"

"..."

When the principal heard this, she hurriedly said, "Enough. Madam, everyone here is logical. Since you damaged his Porsche, you should just pay up. I think a coat of paint requires $20,000, right?"

"$50,000! My car is an imported one and I changed to a higher-grade paint that can only be purchased specially from 4S shops!"

The audience. "..."

A hint of complacency flashed in the eyes of the principal. She added, "Compensate him for $50,000 then and settle this matter privately. Madam, you should have no problem with this, right?"

Shen Ruoqing was still as calm as ever. "You didn't even show me the footage, so how can you be so adamant that I was the one who knocked into him? Principal, is this how you settle the disputes between parents?"

The principal smiled radiantly. "Oh, it is only because the camera is down. Also, there is no need for this parent to lie. He is so rich, so why would he lie to you for the sake of $50,000?"

Shen Ruoqing frowned. "Just because he is rich so he has no need to lie?"

The surrounding parents then began to speak up.

“The dashcam footage cannot be seen and the principal is unwilling to show the school’s surveillance footage...this is clearly questionable!”

“Chu Tianye is a good kid. He is very passionate, it is impossible for him to steal things!”

“...”

Everyone had a yardstick in their hearts. This was especially so for this situation. It was clear who was in the right and who was in the wrong.

The principal frowned when she heard the surrounding discussion. “Madam, don’t try to pressure me with numbers here. Do you have any proof to determine that you are the one who parked here first?”

“I saw it!”

Teacher Miaomiao suddenly rang over and spoke, “I saw that Chu Tianye’s mother parked here first before the Porsche drove over.”

Seeing that Miaomiao was stepping out again, the principal was extremely angry. “Teacher Miao, you are taking care of kids there, so how can it be possible for you to see the situation here clearly? Did you neglect your responsibility?!”

Miaomiao bit her lips and just when she wanted to say something, the principal spoke again, “I will deduct a month’s worth of your salary.”

Miaomiao. “!!”

She was so angry that her fists were tightly clenched. “You...”

“I also saw it...”

Among the crowd, the mother of a child spoke. She was chubby in appearance and looked like she weighed over 100 kilograms. However, she was very adorable.

“Me too!”

With a parent taking the lead, the others began coming out. Everyone started speaking.

The man no longer dared to continue with the dispute after seeing the current situation. He impatiently spoke, “Alright, alright. Just consider it that I didn’t see clearly and knocked my car into your bike. How much is your tattered-looking motorbike worth? I’ll pay you!”

Shen Ruoqing waved her hands. “I’ve made a call to get people from the insurance company to come. You should talk to them later.”

After that, she looked at the principal. “Principal, what do you think?”

The principal frowned. “Since this is the case, let’s settle this via compensation then. What else can I say?”

Shen Ruoqing still wanted to say something, but someone at the side tugged at her and whispered, "Hey friend, this kindergarten is owned by the Chu Family and the principal is also working for them. You must not offend her, or your child might be deliberately picked on while at school..."

Teacher Miaomiao also lowered her head and persuaded, "Madam, let's just forget about this matter. We can't afford to offend the Chu Family..."

Shen Ruoqing replied, "Such an unprofessional principal ought to be fired. We can't let things go like this."

The principal sneered. "Fired? I was hired by the Chu Family so what qualifications do you have to fire me?"

The arrogant attitude caused everyone to feel enraged.

At this moment, Shen Ruoqing suddenly stared at the child behind her. "I don't have the qualifications but he does."

Chu Yu's anger was simmering in his belly. After hearing this, he immediately removed his helmet and stared at the principal with rage!

The principal looked at him with disdain, but an instant later, the principal was stunned. She spoke in disbelief, "L..little young master?"

Why would the little young master Chu be on this woman's motorbike?

What about Chu Tianye?

As this thought flashed in her mind, a Rolls-Royce slowly drove over. After that, the car window was wound down. Chu Tianye sat in the backseat and stared at the shocked Miaomiao. "Teacher Miaomiao, I am back!"

Chapter 89: Her Painting!

The Rolls-Royce stopped at the kindergarten's entrance.

The car door slowly opened and Chu Tianye leaped out of the car. After that, the little fellow ran to Teacher Miaomiao and lifted his head. "Teacher, I miss you so much~! I said before I will definitely return! Look at who my daddy is!"

He pointed at the car.

Chu Cichen didn't leave the car, but the surrounding people still managed to see him.

A moment later, everyone's emotions exploded.

"Is that...Mr. Chu?"

"My god! That's actually Mr. Chu!"

And amidst everyone's shock, the principal's countenance paled.

She retreated two steps from shock and wanted to hide in the school. However, Chu Tianye saw her. He placed his hands on his hips and spoke with arrogance and great familiarity, "Oi. Yes, I'm talking about you. You are fired!"

The principal. "!!"

Chu Tianye then continued, "My mommy said before that everyone is equal. We cannot support and fawn on a certain person just simply because he is rich and bully those who are poor. You are too despicable! My daddy said that the Chu Family doesn't need someone like you!"

"Well said!"

The surrounding parents started applauding.

The principal's expression turned ashen.

Chu Tianye then glanced at Miaomiao. "Teacher Miaomiao, I've spoken with daddy. In the future, you will be the principal~!"

Miaomiao. "!!"

It felt like a meat pie had fallen from heaven and appeared right before her!

However, Miaomiao was very professional. She excitedly spoke, "Okay...parents, let us not block the entrance. Please send your children into the school in an orderly manner!"

...

Although everyone was speculating why Mr. Chu had an additional son, just his presence here by sitting in the car was like a type of intimidation.

No one dared to stick around and watch anymore. After they sent their children into the school, all of them left the area.

Very soon, the atmosphere at the entrance regained its earlier quietness.

The man whose car knocked into Shen Ruoqing's motorbike immediately felt his legs becoming limp. He was currently bowing and apologizing. "I'm sorry, it's all my fault. I...I heard that you offended the Chu Family so I wanted to take revenge..."

After speaking, he couldn't help but cast another glance at Shen Ruoqing's motorbike. He kept grumbling in his heart. (Since you have such a relationship with Mr. Chu, why are you still riding on that tattered-looking motorbike?!)

In the Rolls-Royce.

Chu Cichen glanced at the tattered-looking motorbike of Shen Ruoqing.

There were several times when he wanted to tell her to throw this motorbike away. It felt extremely frightening to ride it, and it looked as though it could fall apart at any moment.

He had long since prepared a good car for her but hadn't had the chance to give it to her. But during dinner last night, after he brought up the subject, he got rejected...

He coughed and passed the car key in his hands to Chu Tianye. "This car..."

Before he could finish his sentence, the person from the insurance company's claims department arrived and finished checking the motorbike. His eyes gleamed and his voice was filled with excitement. "Miss Shen, is this motorbike of yours the Acabion GTBO?"

Shen Ruoqing. "...Hmm."

"My God! I actually saw something like this!"

The other people here didn't understand so they asked, "What about this vehicle?"

The insurance guy directly said, "This motorbike is made using carbon fiber from the fuselage of an airplane, and many parts are made using the flying principle of airplanes. Because the motorbike uses airplane technology, it is extremely expensive and is generally sold for 17 million and above!"

"..."

The man who knocked into her motorbike was completely dumbstruck when he heard the price. His legs turned soft and he almost fell onto the ground. "What?"

The person who was from the claim department spoke, "Don't worry, you won't have to pay so much. You have only knocked into the rear of Miss Shen's motorbike, so only a piece was damaged. If we change this part of the fuselage, just a few million will be enough to cover the cost."

"..."

Shen Ruoqing looked at him. "Are you compensating or not?"

His boss was just in the Rolls-Royce beside him, so how could he dare not to compensate?

He nodded and gritted his teeth. "Yes, I'll compensate..."

What a huge loss!

Why did he have to offend someone like her? Why did he have to play punk and shrug off the responsibility despite him being in the wrong?!

At this moment, he truly regretted it!

Inside the car.

Chu Tianye looked at the key his father gave him. He asked in confusion, "Daddy, what are you trying to say?"

"..." Chu Cichen glanced at the car key, but his mind was filled with the words Chu Tianye would usually say. "...My mommy had to wake up very early to sweep the streets, she worked as a delivery girl who sent food, she needed to shift bricks..."

This woman was Teacher Anonymous and also a highly-skilled physician. So...how would she lack money?

Chu Cichen inhaled and silently looked at Chu Tianye before he spoke, "This car is worth 15 million and is currently parked in our garage at home."

Chu Tianye's eyes immediately brightened the moment he heard money. "Is this for me?"

"Nope, I'm only showing you the car keys."

"???"

"Is it nice?"

Chu Tianye: (It shines with the color of money, how can it not be nice?!)

Chu Tianye angrily got out of the car and entered the kindergarten together with Chu Yu. Now, Chu Cichen glanced out of the car window and saw that Shen Ruoqing was already sitting on her motorbike.

She bent her waist and placed two hands on her forehead before swiping them out casually in a goodbye gesture. She then wore her helmet and started the engine before leaving here directly.

Chu Cichen retracted his gaze and went to the Chu Corporation.

He had to handle many things in the company this morning and only returned home for lunch after he was done. During the afternoon, he sat in his study, yet his mind kept replaying that cool-looking and familiar back view of her today.

He inhaled deeply and was preparing to handle some overseas matter when the butler suddenly entered. "Mr. Chu, Miss Fang is here."

Chu Cichen frowned. After a moment of contemplation, he replied, "Send her in."

"Yes." After the butler left, she wanted to close the door. However, Chu Cichen instructed, "Leave the door open."

Fang Panxia soon entered.

After seeing Chu Cichen, she lowered her head to apologize for her mistake. Her voice was very gentle when she spoke, "Bro Chen, I'm sorry...I really didn't expect there to be so many problems with the special medicine, and I almost caused trouble for you..."

"If you came here to say this, you can leave now." Chu Cichen's attitude was cold.

Fang Panxia lowered her head and sighed. "Today is her death anniversary so I specially came to see you."

Chu Cichen, who had his head lowered and was signing off some documents, paused after hearing this. His attitude became somewhat warmer. "Hmm, thank you."

"Bro Chen, I still prepared another gift for you."

After Fang Panxia finished speaking, she took out a scroll from the bag and placed it on his study table.

Chu Cichen narrowed his eyes. "What is this?"

Fang Panxia spoke, "You know that I have been good at drawing since young. I know that you are filled with regrets because you don't even have a single one of her photos. So, I drew her in a painting. If you miss her in the future, you can look at this any time..."

Upon hearing this, Chu Cichen's breathing quickened by a bit.

Fang Panxia asked, "Bro Chen, my drawing is very similar, right...?"

Chu Cichen didn't bother with her as his eyes were completely fixed on the painting.

His gaze stared at the scroll as he slowly unscrolled it. He saw the legs of the woman first and as he unscrolled, he could see that she was wearing a red dress. Her slender waist, her chest, and her neck then entered his vision. Finally, he saw her sharp chin and ruby red lips...

Chapter 90: Why Doesn't He Recognize Her?

Chu Cichen stared at the face of the person in the painting.

He was completely focused.

His expression was solemn and his eyes didn't even blink.

The person in the painting vividly appeared before his eyes after the painting was completely unscrolled.

A trance immediately overcame him. It felt as though the person in the painting had appeared right before him in reality.

The woman was clad in a red dress that wrapped around her waist. Her arms and delicate collar bones were revealed, and she had the tattoo of a butterfly on her shoulder.

As for her face...

Above the ruby red lips, her features were covered by a golden mask. The mask obscured all her features saved for her chin and lips.

Her long hair casually flowed down behind her. Her entire person exuded a graceful charm and a clean aura.

This painting seemed to combine all her unique points and expressed them fully.

Chu Cichen bitterly smiled as he looked at the painting.

That's right.

He basically had no idea what the person he loved looked like. This was because he didn't have time to see what she looked like when she was unmasked...

In fact, he didn't even know her name.

He only knew her code number: 0518.

Fang Panxia looked at his heavy and persistent gaze before she cautiously spoke, "Bro Chen, you have to...take care of your body."

Chu Cichen nodded and casually waved his hands at her.

This perfunctory act, in addition to his attitude of not saying anything, caused Fang Panxia to clench her fists tightly.

However, she still lowered her head and slowly retreated from the study.

Just as she left, she coincidentally saw Chu Xiaomeng sitting in the living room downstairs. Chu Xiaomeng was wearing a white gauze skirt and hugging a dinosaur soft toy.

Fang Panxia's eyes flashed.

She heard that Shen Ruoqing had given birth to three children for Bro Chen. The two male children went to school and only the female child remained at home.

At this moment, a smile appeared on her face. She wanted to head down to chat with Chu Xiaomeng so she could build a good relationship with her.

Fang Panxia then went down the stairs.

The sound of her footsteps alerted Chu Xiaomeng who was looking at her phone.

She lifted her head upon hearing the noise and was shocked to see an 'outsider' at her home. Hence, she abruptly stood up and lowered her head in panic. When Fang Panxia was walking over, Chu Xiaomeng silently ran to the study on the third floor with her head lowered.

Fang Panxia. "???"

She frowned and pondered.

This child looked to be panicking. Chu Xiaomeng must have done something wrong and was worried that she might discover it.

But what sort of wrong things could Chu Xiaomeng have done?

Fang Panxia then recalled that Chu Xiaomeng was playing on her phone earlier...

A glint of light flashed in Fang Panxia's eyes and at this moment, Matriarch Chu who had just finished instructing the cooks on dinner walked out of the kitchen.

Fang Panxia immediately walked over. "Matriarch, there's something I don't know if I should say or not..."

Matriarch Chu's eyes had a hint of dislike as she stared at her. "Miss Fang, you shouldn't say things if you are unsure whether you ought to say them or not."

"..." Fang Panxia was stunned. However, she still decided to speak, "Originally, I shouldn't be so nosy, but this concerns the little young miss, so I feel that I should remind you."

This concerned her biological granddaughter...

Matriarch Chu's expression turned serious as she anxiously asked, "What about her? Is there something wrong with her health?"

Fang Panxia immediately waved her hands. "No. But...earlier, I saw that the little miss had a guilty look on her face, and she ran upstairs the moment she saw me. Could she have done something wrong?"

After seeing Matriarch Chu's expression changing, Fang Panxia hurriedly continued, "I saw her using her handphone. Could she be looking at something she shouldn't be looking at? She was also hugging a soft toy, could she have taken something she shouldn't take...?"

She then sighed, "Matriarch, the child is still young. If she did something wrong, it must mean that her parents hadn't taught her well..."

Chu Xiaomeng's parents were none other than Shen Ruoqing and Chu Cichen.

However, many years had passed before Shen Ruoqing brought the children here to get acquainted with the Chu Family.

So, her underlying meaning was clear. She wanted to blame Shen Ruoqing.

An ordinary grandmother who heard this would surely blame the child's mother.

After Fang Panxia finished speaking, she noticed Matriarch Chu frowning and staring at her with a look of disgust. "Miss Fang, my granddaughter has social phobia and is not a thief."

"..."

Even after Fang Panxia had left the Chu Manor, she still felt very embarrassed. She didn't expect such a young child would have social phobia, and her misunderstanding caused her to lose so much face before Matriarch Chu.

She could only sigh silently.

At this moment, her phone rang. She picked up the call, and Lu Cheng's voice sounded on the other end. "Sister Fang, I found the location of the miraculous doctor."

Fang Panxia's eyes gleamed. "Where is he?"

Lu Cheng, "I sent the address to you. We should go to take a look together."

"Okay."

In Ye Lu's clinic.

Ye Lu was currently chatting with Shen Ruoqing on the phone. She happily chirped, "You want me to be your assistant two days later? Sure, sure! It has been a long time since I last saw baby in action. I really missed seeing your skills~"

Shen Ruoqing. "... See you then."

“Okie dokie~!”

Just after Ye Lu hung up, she immediately saw a man in a floral shirt and a woman exuding a gentle aura walking side by side and entering her clinic.

She surveyed Lu Cheng and Fang Panxia. After that, a smile appeared on her face as she asked, “Hello, are you guys feeling unwell anywhere?”

Pak!

A wad of cash was slammed on the table.

Lu Cheng took a step forward and lowered his voice. “We wish to look for Miraculous Doctor Jing.”

There was an innocent smile akin to the smile from the girl next door on Ye Lu’s face. “Our clinic doesn’t have any doctor with the surname ‘Jing’~Could you have gotten the wrong person?”

Lu Cheng laughed. “Miss Ye, stop acting. We have investigated. Three years ago, Miraculous Doctor Jing made a diagnosis and your clinic was the connecting thread.”

Ye Lu stared at Lu Cheng before blushing and lowering her head. “Sir, please don’t lean so close...”

Lu Cheng. “??”

He stared at this young girl who had a sweet appearance. He also saw that her face and neck had already turned red, so he felt that his behavior might be a little too frivolous.

He then coughed and stood up straight. “Miss Ye. As long as you can contact Miraculous Doctor Jing for us, you can state your price.”

Ye Lu lowered her head. Her face was still flushed and she looked extremely bashful. She then glanced up to look at Lu Cheng and quickly lowered her head back again like a panicking deer caught in the spotlight. “I...I don’t want your money...but I will help you contact Miraculous Doctor Jing...”

She took out a piece of paper. “Please leave your name and number behind. I’ll contact you once I manage to contact him.”

After she finished speaking, she nervously added, “It isn’t that I want your phone number. I...It’s just that it isn’t easy to get the miraculous doctor to appear for a diagnosis...”

Her lovable appearance caused Lu Cheng to involuntarily smile. “No problem. I’ll have to trouble you then.”

“Okay, no problem. Once I contact him, I will inform Mr. Lu immediately!”

Lu Cheng nodded and turned to leave.

However, Fang Panxia spoke out at this moment, “Miss Ye, I still have a matter in which I have to trouble you.”

“Please speak.”

Fang Panxia hesitated awhile, but she suddenly took a prescription and passed it to Ye Lu. "Can you also help me ask if this prescription originates from the Miraculous Doctor himself?"

Lu Cheng glanced over in bewilderment before exclaiming in shock. "Sister Fang, isn't this the prescription Shen Ruoqing passed to Mr. Yun? Are you saying..."

Fang Panxia sighed. "I suspect that her prescription was created by the miraculous doctor..."

Lu Cheng felt as though he had been enlightened. "Yeah, I was wondering how her medical skills could be so good...so she was using the miraculous doctor's prescription without his consent!"

Ye Lu. "???"
