

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3140

Novel Chapter 3140 -Niko: "Her family may stop her, but she should insist. Don't you see that she is more assertive? The fact that she came all the way here to find you shows that she is not an ordinary girl."

Lucas: "She is indeed not an ordinary girl, but I am ordinary."

Niko sighed, "Why, are you still inferior? Lucas, in my impression, you are not such a person? Besides, we have a big investment now, and we are not poor anymore! When the investment arrives, You are the big boss, even if Hazel's family is rich, they won't look down on you too much."

Lucas picked up the contract, "This investment may be related to Hazel."

Niko was dizzy for a while: "What are you talking about? This is impossible, right?"

Lucas: "Why is it impossible? Do you really think we are good enough to attract foreign capital to invest here?"

The expression on Niko's face was very rich: "Why do you think Hazel's family is so rich? I think she is quite simple!"

Lucas no longer argued with Niko on this issue.

Whether Hazel's family had money or not had nothing to do with him.

Aryadelle.

After Hazel rested overnight, she was full of energy the next day.

Because Hayden and Joanna's wedding was approaching, and the details of the wedding were almost ready, so Hazel followed her parents to the wedding venue after breakfast.

The wedding of Hayden and Joanna was held on the island.

After taking the speedboat to the island, Hazel was immediately attracted by the beautiful scenery of the island.

Hazel: "It's so beautiful here! I've never been here before!"

“It’s a bit out of the way here.” Avery said, “I’ve never been here before. Because this island was only developed in the last two years.”

Hazel was a little surprised: “But this place is really suitable for a wedding.”

Avery: “Marry the person you like, any place is suitable for a wedding. As long as you are with the person you like, you will be happy even if you don’t have a wedding. Look at that Lucas you like, whose family conditions are so poor, you are still ran to Thopiavelle to look for him. I would rather live a hard life than be so happy.”

The corner of Hazel’s mouth twitched: “Mom, Lucas’s family is not poor in Thopiavelle.”

Avery looked at her daughter with a peaceful face: “Lucas is the illegitimate son of the Hogan family, and now he has no contact with his family at all. Moreover, the Hogan family is now in despair.”

Hazel: “...”

Elliot said, “Hazel, your mother already knows the situation of Lucas’s family well, better than our own. So you don’t have to speak well of Lucas.”

Avery couldn’t help laughing: “I know Lucas better now than our own family. The main reason is that our family’s situation is too complicated.”

Every child has his own career, and it’s different.

Avery didn’t have so much energy to understand so carefully.

Hazel: “You can’t just look at the other person’s family conditions when looking for a partner!”

Avery: “If your father and I only look at each other’s family conditions, can we still let you stay in Thopiavelle for so long?”

Hazel showed a cute smile: “I knew you loved me the most. Next time I go to Thopiavelle, I will test him again. If he is willing to come to Aryadelle with me, I will bring him to see you.”

Avery: “Isn’t your elder brother testing him? Let’s see if he can pass your elder brother’s test first.”
