I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2359-“I believe you already know in your heart if I am Empress Elora. Or do you think someone is pretending to me to deceive people? How many lives does that person have that dare do this?” Elora replied calmly.

The three were relieved to hear that.

Although they had no clue why Empress Elora came to The Spirit Cage and needed so many treasures, just like what Empress Elora said, who would dare to pretend to be her?

Wouldn't that be asking for death?

The three had lived for hundreds of epochs and had never heard of anyone who dared to pretend to be the five Leila rulers.

Anyone who dared to speak ill of the five Leila rulers would be mobbed and attacked, let alone pretend to be them.

This showed how high the status of the five Leila rulers was in Leila's heart.

Even if they had some doubts in their hearts, they did not dare to gamble. If they were wrong, it would be a crime and their entire bloodline would be exterminated.

“Salem Birch greets you, Empress Elora.”

“Egan Campbell greets you, Empress Elora.”

“Heaven Vidales greets you, Empress Elora.”

The three put their fists together at the same time and got on their knees in front of Empress Elora.

The old man was Salem from the Birch family, the middle-aged man was Egan from the Campbell family, and the middle-aged woman was Heaven from the Vidales family.

“Skip the formalities. Go and finish what I have asked you as soon as possible. This matter is the life and death of the entire Leila. Don't be sloppy, and don't spread it to the outside world, otherwise... die!" Elora ordered seriously.

She had considered carefully before deciding to tell them of the seriousness of the matter.

Anyone who could become one of the rulers of the main city of The Spirit Cage must have a pretty powerful family supporting them.

Even in Leila, they would be one of the top.

Sooner or later, they would find out about the Robotias and the Soul Devourers teaming up to attack Leila.

Protecting Leila, the home of everyone, was not only the responsibility of the five Leila rulers but also that of all forces in Leila.

Those with low strength might not participate, but it was compulsory for the powerful forces.

Otherwise, it would be hard to defend such a large area as Leila if they relied solely on the strength of the Leila rulers.

Anyway, sooner or later, they would find out.

Elora decided to tell them earlier so they could put their heart and soul into getting things done.

Upon hearing Elora's words, the trio was shocked.

'What will involve the life and death of the entire Leila?

'Are foreign enemies invading Leila?'

The three dared not be negligent.

"Empress Elora, don't worry, we will follow your instructions immediately. We will complete the collection of treasures in Amber City and hand them over to you as quickly as possible. Empress Elora, please wait." Salem immediately promised.

"Go quickly! I will remember what you've done after this is completed and I will reward you according to your merits."

‘Thank you, Empress Elora! Please come with me, Empress Elora. I will take you to rest for a while. After we finish the task, we will come to you,’ Heaven offered.

“Okay! Let’s go!” Elora thought for a while and agreed to the middle-aged woman’s suggestion.

Her current soul power was still far from her peak.

So after a long journey, she was also tired.

Finding a place to rest was exactly what she needed.

After the three completed the task, they would be able to find her quickly.

After collecting the treasures of Amber City, Elora had to go to the other seven main cities.

She would also ask the local forces to collect treasures for her as she did here.

The treasures of heaven and earth of one main city would not be enough for her to recover much, so she had to go to a few more.

If the eight main cities were not enough, she would have to go to a first-tier city.

When the trio intercepted Empress Elora in the air, many powerful people in Amber City were also watching.
