

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2381

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2381-“Master David, you said you will remove the threat of the Feather family, but how?” Sid immediately asked after David’s encouragement.

What he cared most about was the safety of Star Kingdom.

“Lord Sid, don’t worry, please listen to me.”

David took out two exquisite small wooden boxes and continued, “Lord Sid, the solution to the threat of the Feather family lies in these boxes.”

Sid took a box from David’s hand and observed it for a moment.

“Master David, I took a look at this wooden box but there is nothing unusual about it. Can it really help us with the Feather family?”

“Lord Sid, what you don’t know is that a clone of me is sealed in this box. If the Feather family strikes, you only need to unseal the wooden box, and my clone will automatically appear at that time to deal with the Feather family and protect the Star Kingdom from harm,” David explained.

“Your clone is sealed inside?” Sid looked at David and asked suspiciously.

“Yeah!” David nodded.

“Master David, may I ask what is the strength of your clone?”

What if the person from the Feather family is their grandmaster, or what if their entire family comes? Can he also fight against them?”

Sid did not care if he hurt David’s feelings. He said what was in his heart.

He did not care if he offended David or not.

As long as Star Kingdom could survive this calamity safely, he was willing to sacrifice his life, let alone offend a single person.

Of course, David was not petty.

The more Sid went on, the more he admired him.

This was an old man who genuinely cared about everyone.

He had already set aside his own life and death for the sake of Star Kingdom.

Faced with the old man's doubts, David replied patiently, " Lord Sid, don't worry! I can assure you that even if the grandmaster of the Feather family came with the Feather family, my clone would still be able to handle it and protect Star Kingdom."

"Really?" Sid asked in disbelief.

'This is just an ordinary small wooden box, can it withstand the attacks of the Feather family from a level 9 civilization?'

Why was it so hard for Sid to believe?

If David gave him another treasure, he would think that it was more reliable.

Clearly, this wooden box was freshly made.

"Of course!" David said in the affirmative.

Sid was quiet for a while.

"Master David, logically speaking, I should trust you and not question you, because if you really don't care about Star Kingdom and leave quietly, no one will know. However, the life and death of the entire Star Kingdom is at stake, so I have to take this seriously. I must be responsible for the countless creatures in the entire Star Kingdom as this is the responsibility passed down from my family, please understand."

As Sid said that, he wanted to kneel in front of David again.

Fortunately, David's sharp eyes and quick hands stopped him.

"Lord Sid, tell me. What should I do to make you believe me?" David asked with a bitter smile.

While he felt helpless dealing with this old man, he also respected him a lot.

Perhaps among the countless beings in Star Kingdom, only this old man was concerned about the entire Star Kingdom.

It would be nice to have someone one-tenth or one- hundredth of his old man, let alone equal him.

Anyway, David figured that he was far worse than Sid and could never reach the old man's level.

Sid did not answer David's question, but instead asked him," Master David, since you took out two wooden boxes, are you going to give them to me?"

"Yes!" David nodded.

'Then can I untie one and have a look?"

"Okay!" David thought for a while and agreed.

He knew that Sid would not let him leave unless he unlocked one to see the effect, so he could only agree to the request.

At worst, he would just make one more.

Sid was not like Nova and the two had different worldviews.

Coupled with the fact that Sid did not have much contact with David, the result was naturally different.