

Read Married At First Sight Chapter 2457

Married at First Sight Chapter 2457-Hayden shook off Kevin's hand and said, "I don't want anything, you don't need to give me gifts."

The gifts he gave were only girls would like.

Although she was a woman, she didn't like girls' gifts.

"I don't give you gifts, or you can give me gifts, Hayden, I rarely receive gifts from you."

Kevin chased Hayden, smiling as he walked, "You give me a gift, no matter what it is, I like it."

Hayden was too lazy to pay attention to him.

Zachary and Serenity in the pavilion looked at the two people and left one after the other. Serenity smiled and said: "They are quite lively. Kevin talks a lot, Hayden talks a little. When the two of them are together, they really learn from each other's strengths."

Grandma chose wives for them based on their temperaments. As long as they got along with the person Grandma chose for a while, they would slowly fall in love with each other.

Zachary hugged Serenity, and Serenity leaned against him.

The couple looked into the distance together.

The happy time passed in an instant.

After Serenity returned home for three dynasties, everyone's life returned to normal.

Those who worked went to work, and those who were going to kindergarten also went to kindergarten.

Another half month passed in the blink of an eye.

Stone Family.

Remy and Elisa walked out of the dining hall together after eating breakfast.

Mrs. Stone and her husband got up early. They had already finished breakfast and went out for a walk.

The house was quiet.

After eating and drinking, Elisa didn't want to go out too quickly, so she walked to the sofa in the hall, sat down, and said to Remy: "Let's sit for a while before going to work. Do you want to have a meeting in the morning? If you want to have a meeting, you can go, I'm not in a hurry."

Elisa: "I don't have a meeting until 10 o'clock. I told my secretary that future meetings can't be held earlier than 9 o'clock, least I can't make it."

Remy came over, sat down next to her, and asked her softly, "Would you like some fruit?"

Elisa: "No, I'm just full, where else can I eat fruit?"

Breakfast was also served with fresh fruit.

Elisa habitually took out her mobile phone and was about to check her circle of friends. When she saw the time on her mobile phone, she looked upstairs and asked Remy: "It seems that you haven't seen my sister-in-law today, right?"

Remy: "Sister-in-law hasn't come downstairs yet, she should still be sleeping."

Alice was about to give birth, and she couldn't sleep well at night, tossing and turning like fried salted fish.

Clive looked at Alice's bulging belly and was worried all day long, fearing that her belly would be burst.

The only better thing was that although Alice vomited, she only vomited once after dinner, unlike before.

"I'll go upstairs and have a look." Elisa got up and left.

Remy watched her go upstairs. He was a man and was embarrassed to follow Elisa to Alice's room.

Soon, Elisa came to the door of Clive's room. She raised her hand and knocked on the door. While knocking, she asked: "Sister-in-law, are you up?"

After a while, Alice's voice came from inside.

After Alice responded to Elisa, she waited for a few more minutes before coming over to open the door.

"Sister-in-law."