Married at First Sight Chapter 2410-Sonny turned his head and saw Duncan coming out. He asked with concern: "Uncle Lewis, why did you come out alone? I'll go in and ask my mom to push you."

Duncan was followed by bodyguards. It was too busy here in the Hunt family. So he asked the bodyguards to help, he didn't move around anyway, and he didn't need anyone to take care of him.

Although he still couldn't walk normally, he could barely stand up and take two steps.

Duncan: "No need, Uncle Lewis can take care of himself."

Sonny immediately said: "Then I will take care of you, Uncle Lewis. My mother asked me to watch my aunt, so that she does not fall asleep again, just now I saw my aunt dozing off, Take out a chill, and my aunt won't dare to sleep."

Sonny said with a smug face, as if he was asking for a compliment.

Because he completed the task his mother gave him.

Duncan stretched out his hand to grab Sonny, picked him up, and praised him with a smile: "Sonny is awesome, where did you get the chill, how do you know that the chill is refreshing?"

"I saw some in the kitchen, so eat them. It's so spicy that I don't want to sleep after eating it, so I gave it to my aunt, who always wants to sleep. When my mother wakes up in the morning, my aunt is like, I usually go to kindergarten and I don't want to get up."

Duncan laughed, "You also know that you usually go to kindergarten and stay in bed. After your aunt's wedding, you will go to kindergarten again.

You can't just lie in bed all day, Sonny. Your mom puts in a lot of effort. You must be considerate of your mother because she gets up early every day to make breakfast for you and give you a small breakfast before you head off to kindergarten so that you won't be hungry. She then has to go to the restaurant where All You Can Eat breakfast is served before returning to work at the All You Can Eat restaurant. You have to be considerate of your mother."

Sonny seemed to understand, he nodded: "Uncle Lewis, I know, I will correct it slowly. That is, I feel too sleepy in the morning, so it is really hard to get up."

Duncan: "When you don't have to go to kindergarten, how can you wake up so early?"

Sonny suddenly had nothing to say.

Duncan patted his forehead lightly, "You just want to lie in bed. Didn't you see how hard your friend Titus is studying. He not only has to go to kindergarten to learn knowledge, but also to learn medicine from his teacher. Learning martial arts is much harder than you, and now you only go to the martial arts gym on weekends."

Sonny was not as talented as Titus in learning martial arts. After learning for a few months, his basic skills were not solid enough. If he fought with Titus, Titus could easily defeat him.

As soon as he mentioned his friends, Sonny stopped talking.

Although the two little friends were only three or four years old. They often talk on the phone or video. The relationship they spent together for a few days during the summer vacation, after their cultivation, the friendship was quite deep.

Sonny: "Uncle Lewis, why does Titus have to learn so much? He doesn't complain."

"He... You will know when you grow up, but I can't tell you now. But, Sonny, in some aspects you are better than Titus; if you study hard, you will not be worse than Titus in the future."

Sonny nodded, "I want to study hard and become very good, like my uncle Zachary. This will protect my mother and aunt."

Duncan praised him: "Sonny, you're such a good boy, awesome!"

Sonny who was praised smiled happily.

Soon, Sonny suddenly asked Duncan: "Uncle Lewis, when will you be my father? I was told that you will be my new father."

Duncan didn't answer and asked him instead: "Do you want Uncle Lewis to be your father?"

Sonny said that he had a father; he was not greedy; he didn't need two fathers; let Duncan be someone else's father.

After thinking about it, Sonny said, "I have a father, but it's good to have two fathers. Uncle Lewis, you treat me very well, better than my father. Now I also want you to be my father."

Obviously, he remembered that he said he didn't want two fathers.

Duncan smiled, "Then Uncle Lewis will do more hard work and strive to be your father sooner."

Sonny nodded, "Uncle Lewis, you work hard."

Duncan kissed Sonny's little handsome face, and then hugged him tightly. He assuredly said: "Sonny, no matter whether Uncle Lewis can become your father or not, Uncle Lewis will love you as much as before, and will love you for the rest of his life."

Liberty was willing to marry him; it's best if he didn't marry her. If they went on like this, he would treat Sonny as his own son.
