

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2420

Married at First Sight Chapter 2420-Hayden stared at him, and warned: "Don't look at her; that's Mr. Julian's destined girl. Her name is Kiera; she is the daughter of the curator of the Caron family martial arts gym in Yonburg. She has practiced martial arts since she was a child, has a good martial arts background, and is now the coach of the Caron family martial arts gym.

She is a very straightforward girl, and she is also very pure, without any flamboyance. I haven't seen such a pure person for many years."

Except for children, all she saw were scheming people, and even children were quite scheming.

Maybe her circle was full of people wearing masks.

When Julian brought Kiera over, Hugh was not there. He didn't know that Kiera belonged to Julian.

After hearing what Hayden said, Hugh was quite shocked and said: "It's the young master of the Buch family's food, so I dare not touch it, I think she is very pleasing to the eye... Is the young master of the Bucham family sick? Is it? It is a disease that is not close to women, and it is said that it does not respond to women, nor does it respond to men.

To put it nicely, he's a man of apathy. To put it bluntly, he just can't do it."

Hugh said this in front of his sister, and dared not say it outside.

Julian was not easy to mess with.

Whoever was full and had nothing to do, running to provoke Julian, was not impatient.

Hayden stared at Hugh again, and said coldly: "There is still cure for apathy, and there is a difference between the two. As long as Mr. Julian meets a girl who makes him respond, he is no different from a normal person.

Ms. Caron is a lucky one. She doesn't have to worry about Julian's ambiguity in her life."

“Kevin will not have two hearts.” Hugh said something for his future brother-in-law.

Hayden didn’t answer.

None of Kevin’s grandparents cheated. In Kevin’s generation, they were still young and unmarried. Who knew if they would change their hearts in the future?

The changes ahead were huge.

“Is Ms. Caron the girl who can cure Julian? Has Julian tried?” Hugh returned to the gossip center, so that his sister would not be unhappy thinking about the future.

Who knew how things would change in the future?

Hugh felt that there was no need to think about it; just live every day well.

Kevin probably wouldn’t change his mind, Hugh still had eight or nine percent confidence in his future brother-in-law.

Hayden couldn’t help knocking on Hugh, and said angrily: “Young Master York’s wedding party is on the way back. When they come back, you can ask Julian and you will know the answer. I am not Julian. How do you know if he tried it?

Julian’s gossip, if he is not willing to let everyone see, who would dare to inquire about it? Can you inquire about it?”

Julian brought Kiera to Zachary’s wedding, which was indeed eye-catching. Many people were very curious, but no one dared to ask Julian face to face.

People who have a particularly good relationship with the Bucham family would go to the head of the Bucham family to inquire about news.

Patriarch Bucham and his wife, and even the entire Bucham family, were extremely excited to see Julian and Kiera make a public appearance.

Today at Wildridge Manor, the Bucham family’s excitement followed that of the York family. People who didn’t know thought it was the Bucham family who was having a happy event.

So, they don't need to ask to know that Kiera was Julian's favorite.

Hugh rubbed his nose, "Sister, I didn't dare to inquire, I thought you could hear it, didn't Kevin say?"

Hayden: "He also came back with us, how could he know so much, think he knows everything? Even the Bucham family still has things they don't know.

What are you doing here? Follow your parents and get to know more bosses. Queens' will be handed over to you in the future."

Hayden urged Hugh to go back to his parents and not disturb her walking alone.