Married at First Sight Chapter 2430-Serenity would become a hands-off shopkeeper immediately, and the baby had not yet been born, so she first left the education problem to Zachary.

It is said that if children do not do their homework, their mothers will be kind and filial, but if they do, they will jump like a dog.

Serenity, who cared about her child's life, let Zachary handle homework and other responsibilities.

Zachary's expression was serious, and he would definitely manage the children well.

Zachary smiled and said, "Okay, I'll be a baby daddy."

He had already bought a lot of parenting books to read to prepare for becoming a baby daddy in the future.

Zachary: "Are you hungry? I've made breakfast."

Serenity: "I've been hungry for a long time. I was just about to take Sonny downstairs, so you came in."

Zachary picked up his nephew, and freed up another hand to hold Serenity's hand, "Come on, let's go downstairs to have breakfast."

After walking out of the room, Serenity found that the whole house was still quiet, knowing that everyone was still sleeping.

She asked Zachary softly: "When did you go back to the room last night? Did everyone make a fuss late?"

"The wine is excellent and tastes great, but it has a lot of stamina. When I first drank it, I simply thought it was good, but afterward, I became drunk." Zachary had a smile on his face when he said this.

Last night, almost all the people who came to drink the wedding were drunk.

Even Julian, who had a good capacity for alcohol, was drunk, and it was Kiera who sent him home.

Kiera did not know where Julian lives, nor did Julian know where Kiera ultimately took him. Anyway, Kiera assisted Julian into the vehicle.

Kiera liked to drink, but her capacity for alcohol was not good. She wanted to drink recklessly, but after seeing many people toast to Julian, and Julian never refused, she resolutely held back her addiction, and didn't drink a drop the whole night. She had waited to send drunk Julian home.

Serenity also laughed, "Fortunately, we chose a good day for our wedding, and we can rest at home for two days tonight."

If everyone was drunk and had to go to work the following day, it is estimated that few people would be able to get up and go to work.

When the three of them went down to the first floor, Grandma May came out.

Grandma May's room was on the first floor. She said that she was too old to climb stairs, so she lived on the first floor.

"Good morning, grandma."

Seeing Grandma May, the young couple greeted her good morning.

Sonny also said hello sweetly: "Grandma, it's early."

Grandma May smiled: "Morning, you two are so early, why don't you sleep a little longer?"

After seeing Serenity, Grandma May felt relieved. Yesterday, Serenity returned to the wedding room in the evening, and she never showed up at the wedding banquet again. Grandma May was quite worried, but fortunately, after a night of rest, Serenity was alive and well again.

Serenity is indeed the eldest grandson's wife Grandma May personally selected.

Serenity: "Grandma, I've slept for a long time, and I'm hungry now, let's eat something first."

Grandma May smiled, "I smell the fragrance, Zachary has prepared breakfast, right? Then you go and eat, grandma goes out for a walk. "

Grandma May just woke up. She had no appetite. She had to wander around the yard before coming back for breakfast.
