Chapter 231: Miss Shen, Long Time No See

The police cars at the police station were regularly checked and maintained. How could there be such a huge hidden danger? But the accident appraisal result was just like this. Shen Hanxing's heart was cold. Her heavy emotions were suppressed in her heart, and she was on the verge of exploding. How could those people not take human lives seriously? Her heart felt extremely stifled. She could not help but clench her fists tightly. The wound that had just stopped bleeding burst open once again, and scarlet blood flowed out.

Ji Yan looked helpless. He sighed lightly and gently opened Shen Hanxing's fist with his large palm. He comforted her, "Don't be angry." His voice was slightly deep and there was a hint of coldness in it as he said, "Whatever they do, there will always be traces left behind. We will be able to catch them sooner or later."

Ji Yan was not a righteous person. He was not too bothered by these so-called human lives. He did not care about the world, but he cared about Shen Hanxing. The person who made Shen Hanxing unhappy should pay the price for this.

At this moment, the door of the police station was pushed open. The cold wind blew into the room, taking away the only bit of warmth. Zhuang Li held Shen Sisi's hand and walked in with her. When he saw Ji Yan and Shen Hanxing, his eyes flashed with a dark light.

It was unknown when Shen Sisi and Zhuang Li hooked up again.

"Mr. Ji, Miss Shen," Zhuang Li curled his lips and greeted her with a smile. "Long time no see."

Seeing him, Shen Hanxing's eyes suddenly turned cold. She almost gritted her teeth as she said, "Zhuang Li!"

Zhuang Li looked at her with a smile, his eyes filled with indecipherable emotions.

"Sister." Shen Sisi leaned on Zhuang Li, her pure face filled with worry. "I heard that you were kidnapped, so I specially came to take a look. Sister, are you alright?" Her so-called concern was only superficial, it was extremely fake.

"I heard that you will be filming some time soon?" Shen Hanxing lowered her eyes and calmly said, "Your acting skills are so bad and the films you make are also terrible. I wonder who the investor is. You have so much money you want to burn it quickly?"

"You!" Shen Sisi's expression changed. She almost could not control her ferocious expression. Zhuang Li, who was standing at the side, also had a very ugly expression. His face was grim and he did not speak.

"Don't call me 'Sister' in the future. My mother only gave birth to me. I don't have a younger sister like you." Shen Hanxing didn't give up. She was filled with anger that needed to be vented. She sneered, "An illegitimate daughter born from a mistress is worthy of being my younger sister?"

"Shen Hanxing, don't go too far!" Shen Sisi was about to die from anger after being exposed like that. She gritted her teeth and said, "Shen Hanxing, that's enough! Don't think that you can flaunt your power just because you're married to Ji Yan. After Ji Yan has played with you enough, you'll be nothing!"

“It’s not that my wife should feel honored to be able to marry me. But rather, I should be the one who is very proud that I’m able to marry my wife.” Ji Yan’s lips curled up coldly, he said calmly, “If my wife can flaunt her power after marrying me, then that would be my honor. I hope that I can let my wife flaunt her power for the rest of her life.”

As for what Shen Sisi said... it was impossible for him to be bored. Not only would he not be bored, but he also wanted to lock himself with Shen Hanxing for the rest of his life. No one would be able to separate them.

In front of so many people, Ji Yan did not care about his pride at all. He did not hesitate to say words that sounded like a vow. This kind of behavior made Shen Sisi’s eyes turn red with jealousy. She was on the verge of going crazy, all of this should have belonged to her! Thinking of Zhuang Li’s indifference and anger over and over again, and comparing it to Ji Yan’s gentleness and deep affection, Shen Sisi was so jealous that she was about to go crazy!

Shen Sisi loved grandeur, but looking at Shen Hanxing’s radiant appearance, and then looking at how she easily had everything she wanted, Shen Sisi gritted her teeth. Shen Sisi said without thinking, “Shen Hanxing is just a lowlife who came from the slums. Other than being a little better looking, she has nothing. CEO Ji, don’t say it too early. Otherwise, you’ll be slapped in the face...”

“Pa!”

“You!” Shen Sisi covered her face and looked at Shen Hanxing in disbelief. After she realized that Shen Hanxing had slapped her, Shen Sisi pounced on Shen Hanxing. She screamed, “You b*tch, what right do you have to hit me!”

“Well, I’m hitting you!” Shen Hanxing’s gaze was cold. She grabbed Shen Sisi’s wrist and raised her leg to kick her knee. “I’d like to see who would humiliate themselves first!”

“Plop!”

A muffled sound was heard. Shen Sisi knelt on the ground. Her facial features were distorted from the pain.

“The new year has passed. Even if you kowtow to me now, I won’t give you a red packet,” Shen Hanxing chuckled. She sarcastically said, “Even if you came here to apologize, you don’t have to be so polite. Because even if you kneel and apologize, I will never forgive you!”

Chapter 232: Must Not Be Left Alive

“Let go of me!” Shen Sisi screamed, “B*tch, how dare you treat me like this!” She had never been so humiliated before! Being ridiculed in front of so many people, she wanted nothing more than to immediately find a hole to hide in.

“Shen Sisi, I advise you to be obedient.” Shen Hanxing flung her hand away coldly. Then, she sneered, “Otherwise, I’m afraid that I won’t be able to control myself and beat you until even your mother can’t recognize you. Also, there’s no need to apologize.” Shen Hanxing seemed to have thought of something.

She curled her lips, but there was no hint of a smile in her clear black and white eyes. She said, "I've never understood what it means to take a step back. I only know an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth!"

Shen Hanxing originally wanted to protect her family and live her life peacefully. She could choose not to fight, but if these people were unwilling to let her go, then what was the point of enduring all these? She had never been someone who let herself be aggrieved. Even if this fate required her to surrender, she would face it head-on, even if she had to kowtow until her forehead bled!

Shen Hanxing's eyes flashed with determination. It was as if some shackles on her body had been completely broken. Her entire person was like an unsheathed sharp sword, unstoppable. Seeing that she had been reborn in an instant, Zhuang Li narrowed his eyes slightly, and a sense of unease arose in his heart. He felt as if something had unknowingly escaped from his control. This feeling made him particularly uncomfortable. He could not help but clench his fists and a hint of hostility appeared in his eyes. His intuition told him that Shen Hanxing could not be left alive! The existence of this woman would definitely become a stumbling block for him.

Zhuang Li's instincts had always been very accurate, and he could not help but feel a murderous intent rise in his heart. Ji Yan sensed his hostility, and his dark eyes turned cold, his gaze piercing over like a knife. No one could touch a hair on Shen Hanxing's head, he would never allow it!

Facing Ji Yan's warning gaze, Zhuang Li's eyes flashed, and he pulled Shen Sisi up. He said, "Don't waste time with them, we still have other serious matters to do."

Zhuang Hengyu was in the hospital with Zhuang Yu. Zhuang Li was responsible for coming to the police station to follow up on the progress.

Seeing that Zhuang Li was about to leave, Shen Hanxing suddenly said, "Second Young Master Zhuang, you've done so many shameful things. Aren't you afraid of having nightmares when you return in the middle of the night?"

Zhuang Li's body froze. He turned around with a ghost of a smile and replied, "I don't know what you're talking about, Miss Shen."

"Is that so?" Shen Hanxing's face was cold, she stared at him carefully. Then she continued, "I hope you really don't know what I'm talking about, Second Young Master Zhuang. After all, I've heard rumors that the souls of those who died unjustly would linger around the culprit who killed them. I wonder if you would feel a chill down your spine sometimes and feel uneasy."

"If you don't do anything wrong, you won't be afraid of ghosts knocking on your door." Zhuang Li's face was calm. He smiled slightly at Shen Hanxing's gaze and hid the malice in his eyes. He continued, "Miss Shen, you should believe in science. Don't be so superstitious."

Shen Hanxing's words made the killing intent in Zhuang Li's heart even more intense. He was not sure what Shen Hanxing knew. He only knew that this woman, Shen Hanxing, must not be left alive!

As if she did not sense the killing intent emanating from Zhuang Li, Shen Hanxing lowered her eyes and calmly said, "The heavens are watching. Second Young Master Zhuang, take care of yourself." After saying that, she turned her head away from Zhuang Li, and Ji Yan took a step forward at the right time, blocking Zhuang Li's line of sight as well as that malicious gaze.

Ji Yan's eyes were cold, and his voice carried a threat as he said, "I really don't like the way you're looking at my wife, Second Young Master Zhuang. This will make me want to gouge your eyes out." His voice was cold, and his expression was serious. It was as though he was really considering how to gouge Zhuang Li's eyes out.

Zhuang Li was shocked. He knew that Ji Yan really had the ability to do so. After all, he was... facing Ji Yan, the youngest person in power. Zhuang Li felt a chill run down his spine. Zhuang Li had no choice but to temporarily retreat. He replied, "CEO Ji, you must be joking." He remained calm on the surface, but the hand that was holding Shen Sisi tightened. The pain from his tightened hand grip almost made Shen Sisi cry out on the spot.

Turning around and walking out of the police station, Shen Sisi bit her lip and questioned with a sobbing tone, "Zhuang Li, you hurt me just now, you..."

"Pa!"

Zhuang Li turned around and slapped Shen Sisi's face. Because he had used too much force, a strand of his well-groomed hair hung down, covering his eyes that were seeing red and filled with madness. He shouted, "You useless thing!"

"You hit me?" Shen Sisi widened her eyes in disbelief with tears in her eyes. Facing Zhuang Li's malicious gaze, she felt a chill run down her spine. She said, "Zhuang Li, are you still a man? Shen Hanxing provoked you, but you didn't dare to touch her. So, you only dare to take it out on me? If you have the ability, then go hit Shen Hanxing. If you have the ability, then hit Shen Hanxing in front of Ji Yan!"

Chapter 233: Don't Test My Patience

When they entered the police station earlier, she saw Ji Yan applying medication on Shen Hanxing with a gentle expression. Her tears fell harder when she remembered that scene. She pounded Zhuang Li's chest like she was mad. She screamed, "How capable can you be if you hit your girlfriend after being riled up? If you're a man, go hit Shen Hanxing!"

"Don't you know best whether I'm a man or not?" Zhuang Li sneered and shook Shen Sisi off. "Crazy woman! You're a crazy person!" He took a step forward and grabbed Shen Sisi, who was dizzy from being shaken off. He smiled coldly and said, "I'll deal with that woman Shen Hanxing one day. As for you, it's even easier for me to deal with you. Shen Sisi, I will repeat this to you again. I admit that you are my girlfriend, and you are. But what I don't want to admit is that you are just a plaything for my crotch area!"

"Zhuang Li!" Shen Sisi widened her eyes in disbelief. She did not even care about the pain in her body. She could not understand why they had come to this point. The person she loved was obviously noble, overbearing, and omnipotent, yet, he was only gentle and affectionate towards her. But why did Zhuang Li become like this? Like a madman? If she had not thought that Ji Yan was a cripple and if she had not asked Shen Hanxing to marry him in her place, would everything have been different?

Shen Sisi felt dizzy, and her heart felt like it was being torn apart.

"Be good." Zhuang Li flung his hand away. Then, he stood up and sneered, "Don't test my patience."

At this moment, the door next door opened. The middle-aged policewoman stuck her head out. Seeing this scene, her eyes were filled with disdain. She berated, "What are the two of you doing! This is the police station, not your home."

"It's just a small conflict." Zhuang Li did not mind. He raised his leg and kicked Shen Sisi, like a puppy on the roadside. "Get up, don't waste time."

"No matter what, behave yourself at the police station!" The middle-aged policewoman could not help but lecture him. Then she said with a serious face, "You two are from the Zhuang family, right? Come in." She pursed her lips. Zhuang Li entered the door with a solemn face. He did not notice Shen Sisi behind him was wearing a face full of resentment.

Shen Hanxing was injured and was treated with the utmost importance in the Ji family. Ji Qian and Ji Ning surrounded her. Even Ji Mo, under Ji Yan's instructions, kept an eye on Shen Hanxing. He did not even let her carry the cup by herself. Instead, he brought it to her mouth. The butler and the servants were even more cautious. They even cut an apple into small pieces and attentively watched over her every need.

What was even more ridiculous was that, in order to prevent Shen Hanxing from being disobedient, Ji Yan had specially invited Grandma over to stay here temporarily. Grandma was used to her neighbors on the west side of the city, so even though the Ji family and Shen Hanxing kept asking her to stay with them, Grandmother still refused. This time, Ji Yan had put in a lot of effort in order to invite her grandmother over.

The hostility and anger in Shen Hanxing's heart slowly subsided under the care of her family, and she finally returned to her original peaceful state of mind.

At night, there was a knock on Shen Hanxing's room door.

"My wife, it's time to change your dressing." Ji Yan pushed the door open and entered. He placed the medication and bandage in his hand on the coffee table and looked down at Shen Hanxing.

Shen Hanxing's bedroom was lit with warm light. The light softened the edges of Ji Yan's face, adding a bit of gentleness to him. It was hard to tell if he was just this gentle and affectionate or if it was an illusion caused by the beauty of the night.

Shen Hanxing unbuttoned her shirt and revealed her injured arm. She felt a little helpless. She said, "It's really not that serious. It'll be fine in a few days." It was just a cut, but it did not hurt her bones or the critical blood vessels, this kind of injury was really not a big wound to Shen Hanxing.

"Even if my wife loses a strand of hair, my heart aches," Ji Yan picked up the medicine to change Shen Hanxing's dressing without any hesitation. His movements were so gentle as though he was afraid that if he breathed heavily, it would hurt Shen Hanxing. "You may not care about your body, but I do. So please be obedient, my wife, just to make me feel at ease."

Ji Yan was a man. After he had broken his leg bone during the surgery, he was able to talk to her downstairs as per normal that day. However, when faced with such a small wound on her body, he was so careful that he was trembling with fear. Shen Hanxing felt that it was funny, but at the same time, her heart softened incredibly. She obediently cooperated with him and let him apply the medication to her.

After he was done with her arm, Ji Yan wrapped up her injured fingertip again. With that, he had finished changing her dressings.

After he was done, Shen Hanxing looked at the man sitting across from her. Her heart suddenly fluttered.

Chapter 234: You Protect the World and I'll Protect You

Ji Yan sat cross-legged on the carpet, his long eyelashes slightly drooping, casting a shadow under his eyelids. Shen Hanxing used her right hand that was fine to touch his long eyelashes. The sudden itch made Ji Yan blink twice, so the itch traveled through her fingertips to the bottom of Shen Hanxing's heart.

"Ji Yan." Shen Hanxing curled up her fingers and sighed softly, "I made you worry again."

"As long as you return safely, everything is fine, my wife." Ji Yan raised his hand to hold Shen Hanxing's fingers, he planted a kiss on her fingertips. "You can do what you want to do. I will always protect you." He had been an indifferent person since he was young. He did not care about superfluous things, he did not care about the growth of his younger siblings, and he did not care about other people's lives. There were many other things he did not care about. However, Shen Hanxing was different. She seemed to have a passion for many things. She cared about her family and friends. Even though he was only a stranger and only her husband in name, she also treated him with a lot of kindness and concern.

Shen Hanxing would do charity and lend a helping hand to people in trouble. She was like a ray of light that would never be extinguished. She poured light onto this world without any misgivings. Even if she was in danger because of this, she had no regrets.

Due to this, Ji Yan was always anxious and worried about her. He could not even control the beast in his heart. He wanted to break Shen Hanxing's wings and trap her firmly by his side so that she could not go anywhere. However, he could not bear to do so. His wife should shine under the eyes of the world and not be kept by him alone.

"If my wife wants to protect the world, then I will protect my wife." Ji Yan raised his eyes and looked at Shen Hanxing seriously. His eyes were deep and sincere as he said "You will never have to bear any burden." He was serious, it was as if he had made a vow. Shen Hanxing was always the savior of many people, but in Ji Yan's eyes, she was still a young woman who needed someone to protect her.

Shen Hanxing's heart softened. She could not help but bend down and hug Ji Yan. She called out softly, "Mr. Ji..."

Ji Yan did not respond. He turned his head and carefully held Shen Hanxing's face, exchanging a very gentle kiss with her.

In the end, after a series of investigations, the explosion of the police car was still classified as an accident. Cheng Liu was dead, and they could not get any other clues from interrogating those gangsters. The matter was concluded here.

Zhuang Yu was admitted to the hospital in time. After lying in the hospital for a week, she left the hospital alive and kicking. After leaving the hospital, Zhuang Hengyu brought Zhuang Yu to the door to thank Shen Hanxing.

“Mrs. Ji!” Zhuang Yu’s eyes lit up when she saw Shen Hanxing. She carefully leaned over and held her uninjured arm. “How’s your injury?” After what happened the last time, Zhuang Yu felt that as long as she stayed by Shen Hanxing’s side, she could feel a sense of security. She wished that she could stick by Shen Hanxing’s side every day!

“Be careful, don’t hurt Sister-in-law!” Ji Qian looked at Zhuang Yu angrily. “You’re so careless, sit further away!” It was one thing for this woman to hurt her sister-in-law, but her sister-in-law loved to do good deeds, this was something she could understand. However, she would never accept Zhuang Yu, this woman, stealing her sister-in-law’s love!

Ji Mo’s expression was also not very good, but he was not as obvious as Ji Qian. His delicate face revealed a harmless smile. He innocently asked, “Have you recovered, Miss Zhuang? Sister-in-law had been injured not too long ago, so her immunity is relatively low. You have just come out of the hospital not long ago, so who knows what bacteria would be on your body. So it’s best if you do not get too close to Sister-in-law.”

The innocent Ji Ning was frightened when she heard this, so she quickly said, “That... Miss Zhuang, you’d better stay away from Sister-in-law. Sister-in-law can’t get sick anymore.” After she said that, she was the first to blush in embarrassment.

“I’ve been well for a long time. If it weren’t for my big brother refusing to let me out of the hospital, I would have come here two days ago!” Zhuang Yu pouted. Not only did she not let go of Shen Hanxing, but she also hugged Shen Hanxing even tighter. She continued, “And before I came here, I took a shower and disinfected my entire body. Don’t worry, there are no germs on my body at all!”

Ji Qian snorted and finally couldn’t take it any longer. She grabbed onto Shen Hanxing and said, “Then sit properly. Hugging our sister-in-law like this, how unsightly is that?!”

“Sister-in-law has been injured before.” Ji Mo touched his glasses. He smiled and added, “Sister-in-law is a good person. She won’t tell you if you accidentally hurt her, so it’s better for us to be careful. We can’t take advantage of Sister-in-law’s good-naturedness, right?”

Why were the Ji siblings so annoying!

Chapter 235: Admission Invitation

Zhuang Yu pouted and placed her hands on her hips as she looked at Ji Qian and the others. ‘Don’t think that I can’t tell that you all don’t want me to get too close to Mrs. Ji!’ thought Zhuang Yu.

How could Ji Qian admit defeat? She glared back without showing any signs of weakness. Their actions were like children who hadn’t grown up yet.

A hint of a smile flashed across Zhuang Hengyu’s eyes. He patted Zhuang Yu on the shoulder. Then, he said to Shen Hanxing with gratitude, “I really have to thank you for this time, Mrs. Ji. If it weren’t for your help, I’m afraid that Xiao Yu...” After the incident, he heard Zhuang Yu’s detailed account and felt a lingering fear when he thought of what Zhuang Yu had experienced.

Zhuang Yu was a pampered child. If Shen Hanxing had not suddenly appeared, Zhuang Yu would have died if she had met those people. Fortunately...

"It was nothing." Shen Hanxing shook her head with a smile. "Besides, Miss Zhuang is so cute. I can't bear to let anything happen to her."

"Mrs. Ji doesn't mind, but we, the Zhuang family, have to express our gratitude." Zhuang Hengyu shook his head and took out two documents. "This one is from my grandfather." During the past few days, the documents on the general regulations of the west developmental zone were released. The Zhuang family had a piece of land that was the center of the development area. If it was used for commercial purposes, its value would increase by dozens of times.

Now, Elder Zhuang had given this piece of land to Shen Hanxing as a thank you gift for saving Zhuang Yu.

Shen Hanxing was stunned. She refused, "This is too valuable. I can't accept it."

"Xiao Yu's life is priceless to us, the Zhuang family." Seeing that Shen Hanxing was still rational and clearheaded despite the lavish gift, the admiration in Zhuang Hengyu's eyes deepened. He smiled and said, "Grandfather still thinks that our gift is not good enough. If it weren't for the fact that he hasn't been feeling well these past two days, he would have personally visited you to give his thanks, Mrs. Ji."

Elder Zhuang was old after all. When Zhuang Yu had just met with an accident, they could still keep this piece of news from him. However, after some unknown person leaked the news, Elder Zhuang fell sick after hearing it.

"Please accept it, my wife." Ji Yan held the teacup and said plainly, "Elder Zhuang is trying to repay the favor. If you do not accept it, Elder Zhuang will feel uneasy." To the people in the upper class, receiving a favor from someone and giving a priceless gift in return was the simplest way to repay the favor. After all, a favor was the hardest to repay. Because they never know what price they will have to pay for the favor they owe.

Shen Hanxing also realized this. She did not hesitate and nodded, "Okay, then I won't stand on ceremony."

Zhuang Hengyu opened his mouth. He wanted to say that the Zhuang family had no such intention. This piece of land was just a small thank-you gift. As for Shen Hanxing's favor, they would always remember it in their hearts. However, he was afraid that if he told her that, Shen Hanxing would not accept the gift. So he could only sigh inwardly. He turned around and took out another document. "This is my token of appreciation. Thank you, Mrs. Ji, for saving my sister."

"Dr. Zhuang." Shen Hanxing was helpless. "Elder Zhuang's gift is already valuable enough. I can't accept any more gifts."

"Mrs. Ji, why don't you take a look first?" Zhuang Hengyu insisted.

Seeing this, Shen Hanxing could not refuse. She could only take the document. The moment she opened it, she could not help but be stunned. This was a transfer procedure. As long as she signed it, she could become a student of Si Cheng High School in S City.

Ji Qian couldn't help but exclaim, "Si Cheng High School? Is it the Si Cheng High School that I think it is?"

Si Cheng High School was the most famous and top high school in S City and even in the entire country. It was rumored that the founder of this high school had a deep background and a powerful backer. The school's purpose was to only recruit elites and people with special talents in their fields.

Many wealthy families had given money to Si Cheng High School, wanting to buy a place for their children, but Si Cheng High School did not care. Si Cheng High School indeed had the confidence to be proud. All the students who graduated from this school were the elite of the elite. Sometimes, Si Cheng High School would not recruit enough students. After all, there weren't a lot of talented people in this world. But even so, Si Cheng High School would not compromise, even if they only have one student in the cohort.

This also resulted in the fact that as long as someone graduated from Si Cheng High School, they would already be shining in the crowd.

Shen Hanxing had never thought that she would be able to enter this high school. Previously, the school she registered for was just an ordinary good high school.

"This..." Shen Hanxing was both tempted and hesitant. There was no one who would not want to see this legendary elite holy land.

"The principal of Si Cheng High School owes me a favor." Zhuang Hengyu smiled, "It's not difficult to apply for a transfer, but the principal has requested that from next semester onwards, you must sit for all the tests in the school."

Chapter 236: Are You Going to Pick Me up From School?

Compared to the normal strict entrance requirements of Si Cheng High School, this requirement was already very low.

Shen Hanxing considered it for a while, but in the end, she followed what her heart wanted and accepted the gift. She sincerely thanked Zhuang Hengyu, "Thank you, Dr. Zhuang."

The matter was settled just like that. Zhuang Hengyu did not stay any longer. Under Zhuang Yu's reluctant gaze, he took her away.

The winter break for the third year of high school was very short. After Shen Hanxing recovered from her injury, she was also facing the pressure of starting school. The last half of her high school life was about to begin.

The school uniform of Si Cheng High School was very nice. The blouse was paired with a tailored suit. The lower half of the body was a knee-length checkered skirt. On her feet were knee-length socks and brown English boots. The jacket was a double-sided tweed windbreaker, it kept the body warm and looked good. The already good-looking uniform looked even better on Shen Hanxing.

Shen Hanxing turned around uncomfortably. "Doesn't this look too...young?" Although she was already one or two years older than a normal high school student, she was mentally too mature. She was particularly uncomfortable wearing this.

"My wife, you're not old, to begin with." A dark light flashed in Ji Yan's eyes. Without hesitation, he praised, "It suits you very well. It also looks really good."

“Sister-in-law, you’re too good-looking!” Ji Qian, who had just woken up was groggily looking for water downstairs. Suddenly, her eyes widened as she looked at Shen Hanxing in amazement. “Boohoo, Si Cheng High School’s uniform looks so good. I’m so envious. I want it too! Also, Sister-in-law, this uniform suits you too well. You look like a female high school student who walked out of a manga!”

Ji Ning nodded vigorously from behind and piped in, “Yes, Sister-in-law is so beautiful!”

Seeing that they were all praising her, Shen Hanxing finally awkwardly relaxed. She curled her lips and said, “I will not be home today. You guys have to study hard too. Don’t slack off.”

Thinking about those complicated and difficult math problems, Ji Qian instantly became listless and nodded weakly. She replied, “Got it...”

Ji Ning also nodded with a complicated expression. Compared to studying, she wanted to practice the violin a little more! But Sister-in-law said that she couldn’t fall behind in her studies, so she could only persevere with all her might.

Seeing the two sisters’ hopeless expressions, Ji Mo’s curly hair quivered a few times. Then, a harmless smile appeared on his fair and tender small face. He said, “Sister-in-law, don’t worry. I will definitely supervise both of their studies!” As soon as he finished speaking, Ji Mo instantly received the death glare from Ji Qian and Ji Ning. He stood there unmoving and his smile was perfect.

Hearing this, Shen Hanxing’s face heated up. She didn’t care about anything else and hurriedly followed Ji Yan’s footsteps. The black Maybach pierced through the cold wind and silently stopped at the entrance of Si Cheng High School. There were not many students here and they had already gotten to know each other over the years. Now that there was an unfamiliar car parked at the school gate, this was immediately met with inquisitive gazes from the students.

The Maybach’s car door opened and the familiar boots fell to the ground. Her beautiful long legs, slim waist, graceful figure, and seaweed-like long hair were slowly revealed. Every part of her body made people unable to help but fantasize about how stunning she must be. This continued until her beautiful face was revealed. Her lips were red, her teeth were white, and her eyes were gorgeous, like a moving oil painting.

“Oh my god, is she wearing makeup? Her skin is too good!”

“Tsk, not only is she wearing our school uniform, she even modified our school uniform skirt to be shorter. She’s just trying to impress the public!”

For a moment, there were those who were amazed and those who were jealous. The students were discussing among themselves.

Shen Hanxing heard their good and bad discussions. Their words did not cause Shen Hanxing to be too emotional. It was as if she did not hear their words. After getting out of the car, she bent down slightly and smiled at Ji Yan, who was sitting in the driver's seat with a dark expression. She asked, "Will you pick me up from school this evening, Mr. Ji?"

Shen Hanxing raised her slender hand. The wound on her hand had already healed after a period of recuperation, leaving only a faint pink mark. She placed her hand on Ji Yan's slightly cold large palm and gently scratched it. The numbing sensation made Ji Yan unable to resist grabbing her mischievous little hand and nodded helplessly. He replied, "Of course, I will." He was always helpless against her.

Chapter 237: Why Are You Here!

Seeing that Ji Yan was no longer angered by the discussions outside, Shen Hanxing's smile deepened. She interlaced her fingers with his and said, "Then I'll wait for you. If you're too busy with work and don't have time to come over, give me a call and let me know." After saying that, she waved her phone.

"The other high schoolers will be picked up by people. Of course, my high schooler will be picked up as well." Ji Yan's black eyes revealed a hint of a smile. He held Shen Hanxing's hand and planted a gentle kiss on her lips. Then, he said, "I will definitely come on time to pick you up from school, my wife."

Shen Hanxing's eyes instantly flashed with a smile that could not be hidden. Her eyes were filled with affection. She straightened her body and watched the car drive away. Just as she was about to turn around and enter the school gate, she heard a sharp voice that was filled with disbelief. "Shen Hanxing, why are you here?!"

Not far away, Shen Sisi's eyes widened. In order to get into Si Cheng High School, Shen Sisi had taken two years off from school in order to train hard on the violin. That was how she barely managed to get into Si Cheng High School. Because of that, although she was about the same age as Shen Hanxing, she was only a third-year high school student.

This made Shen Hanxing sigh at the coincidence of fate. She did not know beforehand that Shen Sisi was also in this school. When they met, Shen Hanxing revealed a faint smile. She asked, "Why can't I be here?"

"Do you know where this is?" Shen Sisi raised her chin arrogantly and mockingly said, "This is Si Cheng High School. You can't just enter this school with money. Where did you get the school uniform? Did you get someone to make it?" She covered her mouth and laughed softly. She put a front as she said, "Please, our school is very strict. You'd better leave quickly. Otherwise, you'll be stopped outside by the guards. How embarrassing!"

Shen Hanxing was just a low-class person who came from the slums. She was a dropout who hadn't even finished high school. What qualifications did she have to enter Si Cheng High School? Could it be that she heard the name of Si Cheng High School from somewhere and thought that the Ji family could arrange for her to enter just because they had money?

"Sisi, do you know her?" A girl couldn't resist her curiosity and took the initiative to ask, "Is she a freshman in our school?" The circle of socialites in the upper class didn't wholly overlap. This was especially so for those who went to Si Cheng High School since most of them were obsessed with their own field of expertise. Therefore, they rarely paid attention to the gossip and news from the outside world. Everyone here had a bright future. To be able to become the pride of the family by relying on their strength, there was no need for them to spend time on interpersonal relationships.

Of course, Shen Sisi was an exception. She was too greedy, so even when she entered Si Cheng High School, she didn't give up on the temptation of the outside world. She was eager to mingle and attend various banquets and parties.

"How is that possible? Don't you know the rules of our school?" Shen Sisi covered her mouth and laughed exaggeratedly, "Our school is an elite school, not any lowlife can just enter! Also, let me introduce to you, this is the wife of the CEO of the Ji Corporation, Shen Hanxing."

Shen Sisi gave a faint smile when the curious students who came over, she loudly said, "A little hoodlum who came from the slums and dropped out of an ordinary high school, the kind who knows how to fight every day. If someone like her has any special talent that can be specially recruited by our school, it's probably her fighting abilities!" After saying that, she covered her mouth and giggled, it was as though she had told a very funny joke.

Hearing Shen Sisi's words, the students at the school gate were in an uproar. What kind of special talent was knowing how to fight? Wasn't she just some delinquent then?! Everyone here was the chosen ones and was very talented. They had to go through many tests before they could enter Si Cheng High School. How could anyone take a shortcut to enter the school?

Disdain, contempt, unwillingness to accept this, and looks of rejection all landed on Shen Hanxing.

A kind-hearted female student could not help but advise, "Mrs. Ji, you should go back. Our school is very strict. You can't enter our school by wearing clothes that are very similar to our school uniforms."

Someone chimed in, "That's right. If you want to enter our high school, you need to take an exam. The Ji Corporation doesn't lack money. It's the same if you go to other high schools."

Shen Sisi raised her chin even higher. Did Shen Hanxing really think that she could become a phoenix by marrying into the Ji family? In her dreams! There were some places that she would never have the qualifications to enter!

At the thought of this, Shen Sisi couldn't help but smile smugly. She took a couple of steps forward and lowered her voice, "Shen Hanxing, if I were you, I would have already left with my tail between my legs. Tell me, how thick-skinned are you to still be standing here?"

Chapter 238: Results Will Prove One's True Abilities

"Because I'm already a student of this school." Shen Hanxing was unmoved. She took out the admission notice with an expressionless face and faintly said, "Sorry to disappoint everyone. I'm now a student of Si Cheng High School and my school uniform is also issued by the school. Also, this is the first time we've met. Let me introduce myself. My name is Shen Hanxing, a third-year in science class one." She smiled slightly. Then, she looked at a couple of female students who had tried to persuade her earlier, and her expression became much gentler. She said to them, "In the future, you don't have to call me Mrs. Ji. Just call me by my name, or call me Classmate Shen."

“Impossible!” Shen Sisi did not care about anything else and snatched the admission notice from Shen Hanxing’s hands. “How is this possible! How can a person like you enter Si Cheng High School? What qualifications do you have! This is definitely not true!”

“I can’t enter, but you, the illegitimate daughter of a mistress, can enter this school?” Shen Hanxing’s beautiful eyes were filled with coldness. “Are you even qualified to mention the word ‘qualifications’ in front of me?”

Shen Sisi was the illegitimate daughter of a mistress?

Someone was puzzled and asked, “Sisi, aren’t you the only daughter of the Shen family?”

“Yes, she’s spouting nonsense, Shen Hanxing is spouting nonsense!” Shen Sisi instantly became anxious. Her voice became shrill as she said, “My mother is the Shen family’s legitimate wife, I’m not an illegitimate daughter. Don’t listen to her nonsense!” Shen Hanxing revealed the secret of her identity that she had been hiding just like that. Shen Sisi was both anxious and angry, she wished that she could tear Shen Hanxing’s mouth apart.

“Yes, when your mother, Qiao Wei, married Shen Yong, she even carried you into the house.” Shen Hanxing smiled lightly and icily said, “You are two months younger than me, the legitimate daughter of the Shen family. If you’re not an illegitimate child then did your mother have a child with someone else? I didn’t know when Shen Yong became so generous. He didn’t care about his own daughter, but instead, he helped to raise someone else’s child.”

“If you don’t want people to know about this, then you shouldn’t have done this in the first place.” Shen Hanxing crossed her arms and sneered, “You know your true identity can’t be revealed to others, yet you still want to jump around in front of me. Then aren’t you asking to be humiliated?”

“So... Classmate Shen, are you the legitimate daughter of the Shen family?” The female student who had kindly reminded her earlier had a curious look on her face. She lowered her voice and asked, “Then why haven’t I heard of you before? Did you transfer halfway?”

“I didn’t transfer halfway. After I was born, my father, Shen Yong, threw me abroad. Just like what the outside world said, I grew up in the slums. But...” Shen Hanxing smiled slightly and continued, “Your birth doesn’t determine everything. I believe that I have the qualifications to be classmates with everyone. It doesn’t matter if you doubt me or believe me. Everything will be revealed in the school examinations.”

How would they see her true abilities after the school examinations? Their school only announced the results of the top ten students. Only when they were in the top ten of the grade would their results be announced on the honor roll. In Si Cheng High School, their results were not the only assessment criteria. However, this did not mean that the results of these students were not strong. It was just that they specialized in their own fields.

In Si Cheng High School, the honor roll was posted according to the ranking of each subject. The students in this school could be said to be geniuses from all fields. What confidence did Shen Hanxing have to say that she could use her results to show her true abilities?

“Arrogant thing!” At this moment, a tall, slim, and haughty girl with short hair walked over and sized up Shen Hanxing from top to bottom. She sneered, “You think you can get on the honor roll with just your looks? Dream on!” Her tone was full of disdain.

Looking at Shen Hanxing’s appearance... Her waist-length hair... Her eyebrows were also neat even though she was not wearing makeup... Her face was obviously carefully maintained. The haughty girl had seen too many girls who only cared about appearance and were vain, so they were not focused on their studies at all. Yet Shen Hanxing was arrogant just because she thought she had a bit of talent. How could such a person be worthy to be on Si Cheng High School’s honor roll? What a joke!

Shen Hanxing didn’t get angry after being questioned and ridiculed by others. Instead, she smiled and looked back. She said, “Whether I can or not, we’ll wait and see.”

“When you humiliate yourself later, don’t cry and say that we are bullying a new student like you.” The short-haired girl sized up Shen Hanxing. She didn’t continue to speak ill of her. She held her school bag and walked straight into the school gate. Along the way, the other students gave way to her one after another. There were also quite a number of people who smiled and greeted her. This girl seemed to be very influential in this school.

“Who is she?” Shen Hanxing seemed to be deep in thought as she asked the girl who was friendly to her earlier.

Chapter 239: Forgotten

“Don’t you know her? She’s super awesome!” The girl’s eyes were filled with adoration as she introduced her familiarly, “Her name is Bai Ling, and she’s also a transfer student. She just came back from abroad last semester. I heard that she won a lot of awards overseas, and she even got the admission notice from the top ten universities in the world ahead of time.”

Another girl added, “That’s right, I heard that she rejected the invitations from those universities because her family had returned to China. Ever since she came to our school, she has always been the number one in most subjects!”

A famous genius, no wonder she was so proud. However... Bai Ling... Both had the same surname, Bai, and she had just returned to China. Upon closer inspection, Bai Ling’s facial features were somewhat similar to Bai Youyou’s, so it was hard not to think that they were related. However, Bai Youyou did not look very smart, but did she have a genius younger sister?

When Shen Sisi saw this scene, a hint of schadenfreude flashed across her eyes. She said, “Shen Hanxing, don’t brag too much. When the time comes, don’t feel ashamed of yourself and cry out that you want to quit school.” As she said this, her eyes were filled with jealousy as she looked at the enrollment notice in Shen Hanxing’s hand. “It wasn’t easy for you to get the enrollment notice for Si Cheng High School, was it? Ji Yan is quite generous to you. He pushed you into Si Cheng High School. He wasn’t afraid that you would humiliate Ji Corporation!”

“You don’t have to worry about that.” Shen Hanxing smoothed out the long hair that had fallen on her chest and casually said, “Shen Sisi, why don’t you learn from your mistakes?”

“What do you mean?” Shen Sisi had a bad feeling. She didn’t know if it was because she recalled the bitter lesson she had learned from Shen Hanxing, but she couldn’t help but take a step back. However, she still forced herself to say with a stern expression, “Shen Hanxing, this is the school gate. It’s not a place where you can behave atrociously!”

Fighting on the first day of school? Shen Hanxing wouldn’t dare, right? Was she not afraid of being punished? Was she not afraid of receiving strange looks from her classmates?

“It seems that you haven’t completely forgotten.” Shen Hanxing smiled slightly, her eyes seeping with coldness. “In the future, you’d better stay away from me in school. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being impolite!”

A teacher noticed the strange atmosphere and walked over with a frown. He raised his voice, “Why are you all crowded here? Hurry up and enter the school. It’s the first day of school and you don’t want to go to school already?”

The students chuckled and quickly entered the school gate.

Shen Hanxing calmly showed the admission notice to the guard and smoothly entered the main gate of Si Cheng High School. She went to the office to find the form teacher to go through the entry procedures. On the other side, Bai Ling, who had entered the classroom, her phone suddenly began to vibrate desperately. A flash of dissatisfaction flashed across her small face without makeup. She frowned and walked out of the classroom to answer the phone. She said into the phone, “Didn’t I say this before? If there is nothing important, don’t call me during school hours.”

“Bai Ling, Shen Hanxing went to your school, right?” Ignoring her attitude, Bai Youyou asked in a faint voice, “Is she in the same class as you?!”

“I don’t know.” Bai Ling slowly glanced at the empty corridor and lowered her eyes. She replied, “We haven’t received any news on that and the teacher didn’t say that there was a transfer student either.”

“That b*tch Shen Hanxing! Since she was able to put in so much effort to get the admission notice for Si Cheng High School, she will definitely go to the best class!” Jealousy swallowed her rationality, Bai Youyou almost cursed without thinking, “This kind of vain woman doesn’t care about her pride. She has the thickest skin!”

“Sis,” A hint of helplessness flashed in Bai Ling’s eyes, and her frown deepened. “The situation is not certain yet. Don’t jump to conclusions.”

“If you don’t believe me, just wait and see. Shen Hanxing is that kind of person. She’s shameless and a b*tch!” After saying that, Bai Youyou’s tone changed. She said in a pitiful manner, “Bai Ling, can you help your sister teach Shen Hanxing a lesson? Expose her true colors. You don’t know... this b*tch, Shen Hanxing, is very scheming. I...” Her voice choked. Then, she added fuel to the fire as she recounted how Shen Hanxing humiliated her time and time again and even snatched away the man she loved. Bai Youyou continued, “I’ve been humiliated by her to the point that I won’t be able to face anyone soon enough...”

Bai Youyou cried sincerely as she said, "Bai Ling, you know how much I like Brother Ji Yan, but do you know this? After I returned to the country, I heard the news that Shen Hanxing had schemed and made Brother Ji Yan marry her. I was so sad after hearing that!"

"Getting married is Mr. Ji's choice," Bai Ling frowned. She didn't know much about how Shen Hanxing and Ji Yan got married. After hearing Bai Youyou's words, she asked uncertainly, "But is Shen Hanxing really that hateful?"

Chapter 240: Realize Her Reality Sooner

Bai Ling had displayed extraordinary intelligence since she was young. She loved to study, and her parents rarely bothered her with such messy matters. Bai Ling, who was obsessed with her studies, was not sensitive enough to many things. She only vaguely remembered that when they had just returned to the country, her sister had gone out to attend a few banquets and had come back crying. So... All those times when she came back crying, was she bullied by that woman, Shen Hanxing?

Thinking of Shen Hanxing's arrogant and boastful appearance at the school gate, Bai Ling felt a sense of resistance toward Shen Hanxing in her heart.

Just then, Shen Hanxing finished the formalities and followed the class teacher into the classroom. Her appearance in the class was just in time to respond to Bai Youyou's earlier question. Shen Hanxing really came to their class!

Bai Ling hated people who did not respect knowledge and only knew how to take advantage of opportunities. The disgust in her heart grew. Bai Ling frowned, "Alright, Sister, don't cry anymore. A person like Shen Hanxing won't be able to stay in Si Cheng High School for long." She paused. Then, she sneered with a hint of coldness, "I will let her realize her reality sooner and get back to where she belongs."

Hearing that, Bai Youyou on the other end of the phone was ecstatic. She smiled and said, "Bai Ling, I knew you cared about me. When you get home, I will ask the maid to prepare your favorite strawberry cake!"

Listening to the busy tone on the phone after Bai Youyou hung up on her, Bai Ling opened her mouth. After a long while, she sighed helplessly. She wanted to say that she was no longer the young child and was no longer interested in strawberry cake.

On the other side, after Shen Hanxing went on stage to briefly introduce herself, she found an empty seat and sat down. For the students of Si Cheng High School, the college entrance examination was not the only way out, but it did not mean that the college entrance examination was not important. The second semester of the third year of high school was the most critical period. It was also the last semester of high school life. The pacing in their lives seemed to have suddenly accelerated. At such a time, no one would waste time on unimportant things.

On the first day of school, the homeroom teacher informed them that the school examinations would be held the next day and then left.

A dark light flashed across Bai Ling's eyes. After entering the door, she walked straight towards Shen Hanxing and then stopped in front of her. The gazes of the other students in the classroom instantly fell on the two of them.

"What's the matter?" Shen Hanxing raised her eyes and looked at Bai Ling indifferently. She was clearly sitting on the seat and was shorter than Bai Ling right now, but she had a condescending calmness.

"Shen Hanxing, right?" Bai Ling looked at her arrogantly, her eyes were full of disdain. "This is a school. In Si Cheng High School, strength speaks for itself. Don't even think about using your background to take advantage of others. I absolutely won't allow people like you to ruin the rules of Si Cheng High School!"

"Bai Ling, I don't think I've ever said that I want to play tricks, right?" Shen Hanxing sensed her hostility and found it funny. "Coming over here to say all these, what do you mean by that? I can accept it if an older student wants to intimidate a new student, but as far as I know, you're also a transfer student. So why? Is there a chain of discrimination between transfer students?"

"Don't compare me to you. I'm different from people like you!" Bai Ling raised her chin arrogantly and disdainfully said, "Your tricks are useless in school. Even if you tried your best to get into Si Cheng High School, a useless person is still useless. It won't change just because your location has changed."

"Oh?" Shen Hanxing's eyes turned cold. She asked, "What makes you think I'm a useless person?"

"Because you entered Si Cheng High School through the back door!" Bai Ling's gaze was mocking as she sneered. "Do you think that just because Si Cheng High School doesn't have a ranking, you can just casually hang around here? What a joke! You're a piece of trash that can't even finish attending a low-class high school. No matter where you go, you're a disaster. You're a black sheep!"

Bai Ling kept calling her 'trash' and 'a disaster'. This kind of high and mighty attitude really made people unhappy.

Shen Hanxing was angered by her. Her eyes were cold, but the corners of her mouth curled up. She said, "Is that so? It seems that you know my situation very well."

"I'm not interested in wasting my time to understand you." Bai Ling raised her chin arrogantly. "It's because you've done too many ugly things and made it known to everyone. It's hard for me not to know."

"If that's the case..." Shen Hanxing slowly stood up and suddenly grabbed Bai Ling's collar. Her voice was cold as she asked, "Then I wonder if you have heard that I'm very good at fighting, Classmate Bai Ling?"

"You! You're crude! What kind of ability is it if you only know how to fight!" Bai Ling was shocked by Shen Hanxing's actions. Bai Ling's face was pale, but she still tried to maintain her composure. She continued, "A little delinquent is still a delinquent after all. Even if you do whatever it takes to climb into a rich family, it won't change your true nature!"
