

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 3170

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 3170: During this meal, Hazel tasted nothing.

The chat between Lucas and Hayden basically finished talking about all the important issues, and it went much smoother than expected.

Hayden was not angry, and looking at Lucas's appearance, he was not angry either.

In fact, this result basically exceeded expectations.

But Hazel felt very heavy in her heart.

"Lucas, my husband and I want to go to the hospital to see your mother later, is that okay?" Joanna asked Lucas after eating.

Lucas: "Okay."

Hazel: "Do you want to tell your mother first?"

Lucas: "No need. Go directly."

Mrs. Hogan's health was getting worse day by day, and she hadn't used her mobile phone for a long time.

Normally, the nurse would report the mother's condition to Lucas every day.

Joanna: "You want to start a business and take care of your mother at the same time. You are really strong. If you were an ordinary person, you would have collapsed a long time ago."

Lucas: "Hazel's life before was more difficult than mine now. She didn't collapse, and I won't collapse either."

Joanna: "Haha! You two are very strong people. The hardships of life cannot defeat you now, and they will not defeat you in the future."

Hazel: "Sister-in-law, you are really nice! You are the most gentle woman I have ever seen, except my mother."

Joanna blushed from the praise.

Hayden: "If your sister hears what you said, she will be sad."

Hazel: "Sister is different! Sister is a superhero in my heart; she is not the gentle kind."

Joanna: "Layla would prefer to be a superhero."

Hazel: "Anyway, my sister will definitely not be angry with me."

Joanna: "Of course. Are you all full? If so, I'll ask your brother to pay the bill."

Hayden got up immediately after hearing this.

Lucas also stood up: "I'm going to pay."

Hazel looked at Hayden pleadingly: "Brother, let him treat me! You guys came all the way here; how can I let you treat me?"

Hayden: "Okay, your sister-in-law and I will go out to buy some things. You two will wait for us in the hotel lobby."

Hazel: "Okay."

After Hayden and Joanna walked away, Hazel immediately followed Lucas to the cashier and said, "My brother speaks more directly, so don't be angry with him."

"You told me many times." Lucas took out the card and handed it to the cashier.

Hazel: "Then how did you feel after meeting them? Is my sister-in-law particularly nice? She is also an ordinary person."

Lucas: "Your brother and sister-in-law are all very well."

Hazel smiled and said, "If you think my eldest brother is also very good, then my sister and my younger brother are even better. They are similar to my sister-in-law. My mother is also very good."

Lucas: "Why don't you talk about your father?"

The smile on Hazel's face froze: "My father may be a little stricter. Maybe even stricter than my elder brother."

Lucas: "It's okay, just take your time!"

Hazel: "Well, although my father is strict, he has a fatal weakness. That is my mother." Speaking of this, Hazel smiled and said, "My father listens to my mother very much. And my parents especially love me, so they won't make things difficult for you. Just work hard. I will wait for you."

After paying the bill, Lucas and Hazel walked to the hall and sat down.

Lucas said, "Hazel, please go back with your elder brother and sister-in-law this time! I can't leave here yet."
