When His Eyes Opened Chapter 3175-Hayden: “Okay! Find a place nearby to sit and chat.”

Mr. Hogan breathed a sigh of relief: “Okay! In fact, our home is near the hospital. I wonder if you want to go and have a look. Hazel has lived in our home for many years. Our servants have a good relationship with Hazel.”

Hayden glanced at Joanna and said, “Let’s take a look.”

Joanna: “Okay!”

Mr. Hogan immediately invited Hayden and Joanna to his car and took them to Hogan’s house.

After arriving at Hogan’s house, Mr. Hogan immediately ordered his servants to serve tea, snacks, and fruits.

Mr. Hogan pointed to the butler and said to Hayden, “This is my butler. Hazel’s mother-in-law was recruited by my butler.”

Hayden nodded.

Mr. Hogan said to the butler: “This is Siena’s brother, Mr. Hayden Tate, the famous entrepreneur.”

The Butler: “Hello, Mr. Tate! Siena is a really good girl, and we all liked her. Back then, we were all sad to hear the news of her death. Fortunately, she didn’t really pass away! Siena was really a very sensible and strong girl—the strongest child I have ever seen. Now that I see that she is living so well, we are really happy for her.”

Hayden: “Thank you for taking care of my sister before.”

The Butler waved his hand: “No need to thank you. You are too polite! Siena is a child with strong self-esteem. Every time she comes over, she rushes to help with the work; she is really a very good girl. We said at that time that Siena would not be too bad after graduating from college.”

After hearing this, Hayden felt very touched.

Mr. Hogan said to the butler, "Okay, you go down first; I have something to discuss with the distinguished guest."

The butler immediately withdrew.

Mr. Hogan looked at Hayden and said, "Actually, Hazel and Lucas have a good relationship. I have known about it for a long time. We arranged for Hazel to take care of Lucas. At that time, we considered that they were of the same age and might have something in common. I didn't expect them to get along really well."

Hayden listened quietly.

Mr. Hogan: "Lucas didn't treat Hazel as his subordinate. He always asked Hazel to eat with him. At that time, Hazel had to study while working at our house. Lucas didn't like studying, but he wanted to help her. Hazel deliberately asked me to hire a tutor for him. In fact, he hired a tutor for Hazel. Hazel was admitted to the University of Thopiavelle in our country. Of course, I'm not saying that Lucas won't hire a tutor for her. It's because my son Lucas treats her sincerely and doesn't despise her status."

Hayden: "My sister told me that if Lucas treats my sister badly, she will not come to Thopiavelle to find Lucas now. Let's get down to the topic! If Lucas is with my sister, he must go to Aryadelle to settle down."

Mr. Hogan: "Well, I understand. After all, your family is better than our family. He will definitely enjoy happiness if he follows you to Aryadelle. But..."

Hayden saw Mr. Hogan hesitate, so he asked directly, "How much do you want?"

Mr. Hogan chuckled: "How embarrassing. It makes it seem like I sold my son."

Hayden: "Since you said that, I don't want to insult you and Lucas."

Mr. Hogan: "Hey, that's not what I meant. If Lucas goes to Aryadelle, he will definitely never come back to see me again. Look at me, I'm getting older."

Hayden: "Then please be more relaxed. Make a price!"
