I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2404-After they stopped, they knelt on the ground together.

To the onlookers, it looked as if David was forcing them to kneel.

This scene caused countless onlookers to gasp.

They had all possible outcomes in their heads, but they never thought that David would dare to make the guards kneel.

The guards were mobs. They were also scoundrels.

However, they were under the mayor so they represented the prestige of Amber City and the mayor.

If David dared to make the guard kneel in front of everyone, wouldn't he be slapping the mayor in the face?

At the same time, this was exactly what the guards wanted.

Since David was still clinging to this, they would escalate this.

If this escalated to be a matter of his prestige, the mayor would surely send someone to deal with this when the time came.

In the face of such a serious issue, taking bribes would become something small.

Perhaps no one would even care about that.

If that was the case, they would be able to escape from that, right?

David did not want to ask the two guys to kneel. He only wanted to scare them but since this had escalated to this, this kerfuffle was getting bigger and bigger.

Hundreds of Amber City guards in front of the gate stopped what they were doing and stopped all entry to the city. After that, they all gathered at the entrance where David was.

Someone was forcing the guards to kneel and this affected the prestige of the mayor and all the guards. It was no small matter.

More and more guards gathered around the two guards.

As they were kneeling, they lowered their heads and showed sinister grins.

“Who dares to cause trouble in front of the gate of Amber City? State your name!” The head guard looked at David and his gang and asked.

Facing more than a hundred guards, David and the others did not show the slightest fear.

Both Beanie and Thor had seen David’s strength, so they knew David’s background to be extraordinary.

So what if Amber City was the main city?

They believed, with their master’s background, he would not be scared of them.

David himself was even less afraid.

Even if this escalated to the mayor, he was in the right.

How could they accept his gift and not let him pass?

“My name is David Udell. I will not admit that I am making trouble. Since they accepted my gifts, they should let us enter the city. They refused to honor their promise after they took my gifts! Even if we escalate this to the mayor, I won’t be afraid.” David acted as if justice was on his side.

“Did you accept his gifts?” The head guard looked at the two guards who were still kneeling on the ground.

“Captain Gott, no! We definitely didn’t accept his gifts!” The two quickly shook their heads in denial.

They must not admit it.

Once they admit it, they would become the public enemy of all the guards.

“They said they didn’t accept the gifts! What else do you have to say now? How dare you force the guards to kneel and slander them. If you don’t give me a reasonable explanation, you will never leave Amber City safely today.” The head guard threatened loudly.

He was very clear about receiving gifts.

As the head of the guards, anyone below him that received gifts would contribute a part of them for him.

So, of course, he had to protect his people.

“Tsk tsk tsk... I now know what they say when they mean officials will shield one another. A small city guard dares to accept bribes so blatantly and then refuses to fulfill their promise. How greedy. I don’t know if you are brave or if you are capable of doing so,” David shook his head and said with a smile.
