I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2407-"I just told you, my name is David Lidell! This is my first time in Amber City and I plan to stay here for a while. I didn't want to cause trouble, but you forced me to. It's so troublesome entering a city. I gave you some benefits and you still don't want to let me through. What's wrong? Do you think you can bully me just because I'm an outsider? Today, I'd like to see what you ants can do to me!" David said lightly.

The two city guards who had just accepted Beanie's benefits had completely passed out.

It was not that they were seriously injured, but they passed out from fright.

When David's two words made more than a dozen of the law enforcement team and hundreds of city guards helpless, the two knew that they were doomed today.

They were the ones at fault since they had taken the bribe and yet refused to let David and his team pass.

They thought they had run into an inexperienced bumpkin and wanted to make more money.

And now, they had not only failed to reap more benefits, they might even have to pay with their lives.

If they encountered someone ordinary, the law enforcement team might have suppressed them forcefully and not listened to the other party's explanation at all.

However, now that they had encountered someone like David, who was strong and had a powerful background, the law enforcement team would definitely get to the bottom of this.

Once they traced this back to the two guards, the two of them would surely lose their lives.

Under the tremendous psychological pressure, coupled with their physical injuries, they passed out instantly.

“May I know which main city you’re from, Master David? I’m Viktor Cerruti, the captain of Team 73 of the Amber City law enforcement team. I apologize for offending you just now. Please forgive me.” the captain of the law enforcement team told David who he was.

Facing the powerful young man in front of him, Viktor, the captain of the Amber City law enforcement team, had to humble himself.

He had to bow and apologize after he had been hurt.

This was the change brought about by strength and status.

Viktor was not scared of David, but his background.

David was indeed strong, but he was still young so his strength was limited after all.

Therefore, he could not defeat the mayor on his own.

However, it would be different for the force behind him.

Any force that could cultivate an heir like David was terrifying.

The top forces in the eight main cities of The Spirit Cage all knew each other in Leila.

Unless it was a hostile relationship.

Otherwise, they would show respect to each other and not do something that went over the line.

At the end of the day, it would be the subordinates who were responsible for the blame.

In other words, if David was the direct descendant of the top forces in the other seven main cities, subordinates would surely be the ones to blame.

When the time came, being expelled from the law enforcement team would be the lightest punishment.

The onlookers expected Viktor’s words too.

The captain of the law enforcement team was nothing in front of David, who was obviously the descendant of a powerful force.

A wise man submitted circumstances.

“You want to know about my background, right? Well, listen carefully. I am me. I am all alone. I don’t have any background or power behind me, so just do whatever you want to me. I’ll accept anything you throw at me,” David said honestly.

However, no one believed him.

They all thought he did not want to reveal who he was.

Could someone, all alone, have such a strong talent and strength?

Anyway, none of the onlookers present believed him, including Viktor.

Since he was the captain of the Amber City law enforcement team, he was regarded as someone prominent in Amber City, with strong support behind him.

Therefore, he had met quite a lot of geniuses.

Yet, none of them had David’s strength.

Just two words from him could defeat a law enforcement team and hundreds of city guards in seconds.

Perhaps only the captain of the entire law enforcement team had this strength.

“Master David, calm down! Master David, please calm down! It’s all a misunderstanding. We didn’t mean to take action against you just now. We just wanted to invite you to the mayor’s residence. The conditions here are too bad.

Since this is your first time in Amber City, we should be host to you,” Viktor quickly explained.

“Oh? Is that so?” David pretended to be puzzled.

'That's right! That's the way it is! How would we dare to do anything to you? You must be tired from the journey, so we want to invite you to the mayor's residence for a cup of tea!'

"So are you saying that I'm not the one at fault? I misunderstood you and I shouldn't have taken action against you?" David asked with a half-smile.
