I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2471-At this moment, Sylvio had already diverted Stark away from Elora's planet.

It seemed impossible that Stark could stop Elora from restoring her body.

After all, it was so far away and Sylvio was in the middle.

This old man who had lived for thousands of epochs was not weak.

However, when Lufian and the others smiled and thought that they could complete Elora's restoration, Sylvio saw Stark smiling in the shadows. His heart fell and instinctively thought that this would not end so easily.

Based on the hatred between the Soul Devourers and Laila, Stark would surely not let Elora finish the restoration of her body so easily.

Indeed, all of a sudden, and while Sylvio was lost in thought, he felt an intense pain on the barrier that his soul power formed.

He knew that this was the method the Soul Devourers used to target the soul and that it was slowly eating at his soul.

At this moment, Sylvio could only choose to endure it. He could only fight freely after Elora's restoration was completed.

Now, his main mission was to stop Stark and not let him disturb the array below.

Sylvio kept working hard and forcefully pushed Stark into the higher void.

However, at the crucial moment, the shadow charged forward and chose the weakest point of Sylvio's soul power to breach. After that, it charged at the speed of lightning toward the planet Elora was on.

'Oh no!'

Sylvio was about to turn to stop it but Stark grabbed his body tightly, immobilizing him.

At the same time, Stark's laughter came from the shadow in front.

“Hahaha! Sylvio, did you think I didn’t know that you were buying time to help Elora finish restoring her body?”

Coincidentally, I want to increase the fruit of my battle and kill more birds with one stone. That’s why I decided to go along with it. What do you think? Not bad, right? If I break the array at the most crucial moment, not only would Elora’s soul power be injured severely, but the other people operating the array will also suffer huge backlashes. After this battle, four of the five Leila rulers will be severely injured, so how will you fight me then? Hahaha!”

Sylvio could not turn so he cursed while feeling flustered, ” Stark, you rascal! Are all Soul Devourers as despicable as you?”

“Tch tch tch, Sylvio, are you confused? The winner is always the one who makes the rules. Called a king, if successful, called a bandit, if defeated. This is the rule of surviving in the universe. There’s nothing despicable about this. I believe that if you have a chance to take down the Soul Devourers, you will also do everything you can.”

‘You...’ Sylvio was so mad that he could not speak.

Even though what the other party said sounded like nails on a chalkboard, it was indeed the case.

The rules of the universe dictated that losers were always in the wrong.

No matter what kind of method one used, it would be fine as long as one could achieve victory. It did not matter whether disgraceful or not.

Just like Stark said.

If Sylvio had a chance to destroy the Soul Devourers, he would use every method he had. It would not matter if his name went down in history as a byword for infamy.

“Hahaha, so? You have nothing to say now, huh? Sylvio, watch closely with me. Four of the Leila rulers will be injured and they will not recover without some time. Just admit defeat. Wait to be captured obediently and become the nutrient we need for our evolution.” Stark started laughing maniacally.

“Stark, it’s still too early for you to feel happy. With me around, don’t you even think of touching Leila.”

Sylvio knew he could not get out of this for the time being, so he stopped wasting his energy and got ready to accumulate more of his energy to escape from his restraint so he could fight Stark.

“Oh yeah? Sylvio, I admit that you’re pretty amazing. Back then, if your Zwei Arithmetics couldn’t seek luck and avoid calamity, we might not have such a crushing defeat.

However, I’ve found a way to respond to Zwei Arithmetics. Without Zwei Arithmetics, what are you going to use to fight our collaboration with the Robotias?”
