I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2509-“Who will be the leader after we merge into one?” Lufian asked calmly.

“Lufian, we are one. Does it make any difference who leads? Hurry up and merge with me! Time waits for no one. After merging, we will be able to break through to Heavenly Overlord Rank. We may even go further in the future and dominate the heavens,” the personality said anxiously.

“Of course, there is a difference! We can still discuss this if I’m the one taking the lead. If you’re the one taking the lead, then I’m sorry, I won’t agree to that. Just give up “

“You don’t agree? Lufian, you think too highly of yourself. Do you still have the right to choose now? Do you know that once you refuse to merge with me, you will fall from grace and never have a chance to make a comeback?”

“It’s okay! If I’m not wrong, you will also die if I die. So what do I have to be afraid of? Aren’t you with me? At worst, we’ll just die together.” Lufian smiled.

“You! You’re so stubborn!” The other personality was furious.

Lufian simply ignored him and closed his eyes to rest.

He allowed the energy in his body to continue declining.

The other personality in his body also stopped making a sound.

The two personalities seem to come to a confrontational situation.

Whoever spoke first would lose.

After the merger, they would be at a disadvantage and the other one would take the lead.

Ten minutes later, Lufian’s energy had already declined by more than half.

The other personality in his body became anxious.

If this continued, it would reach a critical point eventually.

Then, even if the two personalities were merged, it would not help.

At that time, the dual souls, extremely rare in this universe, would be completely written off.

Lufian did not seem to care at all.

His face still looked calm.

One had to say that although his breakthrough failed, it might not be a bad thing for Lufian.

At least his character and mentality had greatly improved.

He was not as easily irritated as before.

“Lufian, if this goes on like this, we’ll all be doomed,” his other personality said anxiously.

However, Lufian remained steady and unmoved.

Soon, another five minutes passed.

“Lufian, what should I do to get you to agree to the merge?”

“As I said, I want to be the one in the lead after the merge. Otherwise, no deal,” Lufian replied flatly.

“Are you not afraid of death?”

“You’ll be here with me? So, what’s there to be afraid of? If I lose control over my body, am I still me? What’s the difference between that and death?”

“You... Fine! I agree to let you take the lead after we merge.”

‘That’s more like it.’ Lufian smiled slightly.

He knew that the other party would compromise since he had no way to win against him.

And it turned out to be as he expected.

“Hurry up and merge with me. Time is running out. If you continue to weaken like this, even the merge will not be able to save the dual souls.”

“What should I do?” Lufian asked.

“Let go of everything and don’t resist. Leave the rest to me.”

“Do you think I’ll agree to that?”

‘Then what do you want?’

‘Tell me what to do and I’ll take the lead.’
