

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2502

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2502-The series of questions stunned Fabiola.

Under normal circumstances, if David had dared to say that she was ugly, Fabiola would fly into a fit of rage, ready to tear David into pieces.

However, now that death was still hanging over her head, she dared not.

“1-1 was wrong! I will never dare to do that again. Please spare me!” Fabiola cried.

Then, there was a foul smell.

This disgusting woman urinated from fear!

“Oh no! It smells so bad!” The little girl pinched her nose and said hastily.

Perry at the side covered his mouth and nose with a look of disgust.

David took a few steps back with Pebbles in his arms and let out another ball of energy to block out the stench.

‘You want me to spare you, but who will spare the dead? If I weren’t here today, I can’t even imagine how many innocent people would have died here. You have to pay for what you did. Remember, God is always watching. Karma will always come back and bite you in the ass.’

After David finished speaking, he ignored the two and turned to leave.

He despised these hedonists who relied on their backgrounds to act recklessly and disregard the lives of others.

He had killed so many people like this during his entire journey.

However, they were endless.

It seemed that the education of these so-called major forces needed improvement.

After David turned and left, the frightening energy also disappeared.

Perry and Fabiola were immersed in the joy of having survived a calamity when two rays of light flashed past them.

Immediately, the smiles on their faces froze.

On their foreheads, there were two bloody holes and their lives came to an abrupt end.

Their bodies fell backward.

Thud! Thud!

With one loud and one not-so-loud sound, Perry and Fabiola's corpses fell to the ground.

The louder sound was of course caused by Fabiola's 300kg body.

The two direct descendants from major families died in The Spirit Cage.

If their souls died, they would also die in the real world.

Their corpses would rot very quickly.

Perry and Fabiola could never imagine that they would die during this trip to The Spirit Cage.

The sudden scene shocked everyone on the scene.

Even Arian widened his eyes. The shock in his heart was immeasurable.

He said to himself, 'Perry and Fabiola died just like that? How is David so bold? Even if he has a force that's on the same level as the Campbell and Marche family behind him, will the two families spare him after he killed the two direct descendants?'

Arian thought David might just beat Perry up.

He thought David might beat Perry until he was half dead.

Yet, he never imagined that David would kill them directly.

He wondered, 'Is it because he's confident enough or is he just fearless because he's ignorant?'

'If it's because he's confident, the only people who can kill the direct descendants of the Campbell and Marche family and not get investigated are the five Leila rulers.'

'Is one of the Leila rulers David's support?'

When Arian thought about this, his heart almost leaped out of his chest.

The Campbell and Marche family guards were stunned after witnessing their masters die in front of them.

Then, they thought about what would happen to them.

They were dispatched by the families to protect Perry and Fabiola.

Now that they were dead, would they have a good ending?

Surely not.

Even if they could make it back to their families alive, what awaited them would be a life worse than death.