The Substitute Wife: My Poor Husband Is A Billionaire Chapter 1465

Janet and Laney could hear Suzanne shouting hysterically even before reaching the basement

For a moment, they stood at the entrance of the basement, looking stunned

Janet lowered her eyes. "Suzanne seems very sure that her child is Brandon's," she said emotionlessly

Although Janet didn't have memories of Brandon, her heart curiously ached when she heard the news

Meanwhile, Laney felt at a loss. She used to be a professional bodyguard and solved a lot of problems for rich families. However, never had she experienced such a complicated problem during her many years as a bodyguard!

Janet's sudden memory loss and her sudden change in appearance. Suzanne's sudden announcement that she was pregnant with Brandon's child

After a few seconds of silence, Janet reached out and wanted to push the door open

However, Laney stopped her and persuaded her in a hushed voice, "I think we should leave."

Feeling puzzled, Janet turned around and asked, "Why?"

"Suzanne's mental state isn't the best since she was locked up in the basement. She must be trying to get Brandon to release her by spouting nonsense. Besides, you have just returned and haven't regained your memories. I'm afraid your relationship with Brandon will be affected if you hear her nonsense," said Laney worriedly

After pondering over Laney's words, Janet gently brushed her hand away and said in a tender but firm tone, "I want to go in and have a look."

Laney sighed and let Janet go. She knew she couldn't stop Janet

They entered the basement together, and soon, Suzanne's shouts halted

Suzanne was lying on the floor as she looked coldly at Janet, who was standing in front of her. "Janet, why are you still alive?" she asked resentfully

Looking at Suzanne, Janet said calmly, "Suzanne, are you the one who set me up and led me to the casino?"

Suzanne laughed evilly and sneered, "Yes, I wanted to send you to hell. But you got lucky and made it out alive despite seeing their private transaction in the casino."

Janet squatted down and looked at Suzanne's vicious eyes. "Why? Do you hold a grudge against me?" she asked composedly

Suzanne was stunned by the calmness in Janet's eyes. She then laughed complacently and replied, "Does it matter?"

She stroked her belly gently while grinning in a sinister way. Her eyes looked extremely dangerous as she continued, "So what if you're not dead? I'm already pregnant with Brandon's child. I'm bearing the future heir of the Larson Group, and the whole Larson Group will be mine! Hahaha..."

Janet didn't feel irritated by Suzanne's taunts. Instead, she stood up and looked calmly at Suzanne as she said, "Well then, I wish you all the best."

Suzanne felt a surge of anger as she felt as if Janet was looking down on her

Her eyes were full of resentment as she cursed at Janet hysterically

Blood started seeping under Suzanne's body due to her hysteria. Janet frowned as she smelt the strong odor of blood. She took two steps back and watched quietly as Suzanne went crazy

After a long while, Suzanne finally lost her strength and lay weakly on the floor, staring at Janet with her bloodshot eyes

Seeing that Suzanne was finally quiet, Janet continued questioning, "Do you know how I lost my memory? Did I injure my head or did Jeremy let me take some kind of medicine?”

Suzanne couldn't react as she didn't expect Janet to change the topic so quickly

Moreover, the pain in her belly was increasing as time went by. Every second felt like torture

After a while, she clutched her belly and gasped painfully, “Why... Why are you so calm?”

Janet was confused by the question. “What do you mean?” she asked

Suzanne felt a sharp pain in her belly and had beads of sweat falling down from her forehead. She clutched her belly and cowered in pain. Enduring the pain with all her strength, she asked, “I'm pregnant with Brandon's child..

Does it not bother you? Why are you not angry that the baby is Brandon's?”
