

Chapter 139

“Thea is my best friend! Are you all disrespecting me by insulting her at my birthday party? There are surveillance cameras here, and I can easily check the footage to see who insulted her! This is your last chance to ask for forgiveness!” Yuna approached Yuna and glared at everyone while threatening them. 1

Those who spoke out before were terrified.

Thump!

Suddenly, one person from the crowd could not bear the pressure of several bigwigs and immediately knelt with his head on the floor.

The person was a corporation chairman with hundreds of millions of net worth.

He was a big shot outside. However, at this moment, he was kneeling on the ground like a lowly servant. Thea was taken aback by the scene, James and Yuna both held on to one of her hands She glanced left and right.

First looking at Yuna, then at James.

Her beautiful face was filled with confusion.

‘Is it that ghost-masked man again?’

Best Flights From Accra

Book Cheap Flights, Hotels and Vacation Packages | Wakano

Wakanow

After the first person knelt, another person followed shortly.

Alex, Bryan, and Yuna were from really influential families in the Capital.

Alex alone was enough to cause the Xaviers' bankruptcy.

The consequences of the three coming together would be insane.

Those who ran their mouth stepped forward and knelt on the floor. Thump! Thump!

One after another, they knelt on the floor.

In an instant, twenty people fell to their knees. Tommy panicked after seeing such a scene because he had also mocked Thea. After a momentary panic, he calmed down and stood up. He pointed at the people kneeling on the floor, even those more influential than the Callahans, and scolded them. "How dare you insult the Callahans?"

Unfortunately, James walked over and kicked him in the knee.

Thump!

Tommy immediately fell to his knees. “What what’re you doing?” He was furious.

“Just now, wasn’t it you who was the most vicious?” James said coldly. “I-I’m Thea’s cousin...”

James interrupted him with a kick before he could finish speaking. His body fell to the ground as he let out a groan.

Afterward, James pointed at Megan.

Megan shivered in fear and hurriedly grabbed onto Colson. She was horrified and simply muttered, “D-dear.”

“Are you trying to drag down the Oswalds? Hurry up and kneel.” Colson immediately slapped her.

Megan cried after being hit on the face. She glanced at Lex and saw his furious expression. Her body trembled, and she had no choice. She stepped forward and threw herself on the floor.

By now, more than 30 people were kneeling on the floor.

There was one more person who had yet to kneel-Luke. Luke stood aside, contemplating whether he should kneel. The Bertrands’ reputation would be ruined if he knelt. At the same time, the Bertrands could not withstand the power of these three prominent figures

After weighing out the pros and cons, he knelt down with a thump. All his classmates were shocked by his action. ‘The class monitor also knelt? “He was kneeling to Thea? ‘W-what’s Thea’s background?’

The birthday party was turned into a kneeling party

Thea froze and went completely blank as she watched the scene unfold. She panicked and was unsure how to deal with it.

Alex glared at Lex, pointed at him, and asked, “Did you insult her too?”

Hearing the question, Lex’s body trembled.

“Thea, do you want me to kneel to you too?” He glanced at Thea with a rather displeased expression

“G-grandpa, I would never. You can’t kneel. You mustn’t kneel,” Thea frantically replied.

 Bình Luận (0)

Comment...

0/255

Send 