Chapter 341

That person was the General of the Southern Plains.

One of Sol's Five Commanders.

The Military God, the Guardian of Sol- the Black Dragon. The venue of tens of thousands of people was dead silent.

Time passed minute by minute.

Soon, a Maserati drove near and gradually appeared in everyone's field of vision.

The car slowly stopped in front of the special trainers. '1- Is he here? 'Is the Black Dragon finally here?'

Everyone held their breath and stared at the Maserati in front of them.

Clinton was one of the hundred people. He was instantly stunned after seeing the car. 'Isn't this car driven by Thea's husband, James? Why is it at the military region?' The open field was densely packed with soldiers. The car door opened, and a tall man dressed in ordinary clothes got out under the gazes of countless people

A voice resonated.

James stopped and turned to meet the person.

A tanned-skinned man in his 40s ran toward him, saluted, and greeted, “Flying Eagle, Chief instructor of the Flying Eagle Special Forces. Pleased to meet you, Sir!”

“Alright

“Is there something else?” James nodded lightly and asked.

“I’ve long heard of the General’s accomplishments. You’re the Military God of Sol, and it’s rumored that your strength and medical skills are unparalleled in this world. Today, I finally have the honor to meet you. Please forgive my intrusion, but I would like to have a match and learn a few pointers from you.” Flying Eagle shouted. “You’re challenging me?” James squinted his eyes.

“Flying Eagle, what are you doing? Step back!” Chase came over and scolded.

“General Nolan, this my and the Flying Eagle Special Forces’ wish. It’s also every soldier’s dream. We’ve only heard of the Black Dragon’s strength and never witnessed it with our own eyes..”

He peeked at James while speaking “Please fulfill the wishes of a subordinate, General Allow us to see the General’s strength.”

James nodded

He walked to the open field

Looking at Flying Eagle, he reached out with one hand and gestured for him to attack “Go ahead.”

“Sorry if I offend you, General.” The Flying Eagle’s aura immediately changed, and he looked like a ferocious eagle. His fingers clenched into a fist and rapidly dashed forward. The momentum of him swinging his hand was so fast that it created a whistling sound. Bang! However, before he got close to James, he was already sent flying and miserably fell to the ground, causing dirt to rise in the air. James said nothing more, nor did he plan to stay any longer. Immediately, he turned around and drove away under the gazes of tens of thousands of people.

Chapter 342 James had already left, but the scene remained dead silent Only Flying Eagle groaned in pain on the ground.

Gasp!

After a long time, the onlookers gasped. Who was Flying Eagle?

He was the chief instructor of the Flying Eagle Special Forces.

He had led the team on countless dangerous missions,

Even so, he was defeated with just one move.

“Did you see what happened?”

“How did the Black Dragon attack?”

“I think I saw it. He punched Flying Eagle’s chest like this.”

Many discussions of the match were heard.

James was unbothered.

He wanted to return a favor to Chase and simply needed to show himself

"Ah? He's married?" "Who's this lucky woman married to the Black Dragon?" "No way. My childhood dream is gone."

Many women of the Hills cried out.

Thea was also interested in the topic of the Black Dragon. She glanced at Clinton and asked, "What does the Black Dragon look like? Could you tell me in detail?" Clinton glanced at Thea.

'Did James not even say anything to Thea?'

"I really can't tell you anything."

Thea seemed disappointed after hearing his reply.

Meanwhile, James acted as if he had nothing to do with it. Afterward, they had lunch at the Hills' villa. After lunch, Thea's family left. Hills' villa, courtyard.

Many Hill members gathered around.

They watched and sent off James and the others. Xara pulled Clinton aside and whispered, "Clinton, did you really see the Black Dragon?" "Xara, please stop asking about him. I know you admire the Black

He murmured.

It was reasonable.

Since Thea had constantly mistaken his help as a gesture from the mysterious Mr. Caden, it was understandable that he would grow on her.

"This is troublesome."

James gently touched his temples.

Thea was gorgeous. Any man would be interested in her after witnessing her beauty. This was the reason for so many troubles.

He pondered about it and called Newton.

"Newton, help me prepare a brand new phone and inform Thea to meet me tonight."

James hung up the phone after giving the order.

Afterward, he called Henry and instructed, "Henry, help me prepare some materials...."

James listed the materials he needed.

“James, why do you need to make a human skin mask? What are you trying to do?” Henry immediately grasped what James wanted to do when he heard the material list

Chapter 344 James was slightly confused by Thea. He was unsure whether Thea liked the other version of him. What would he do if that were the case?

In order to verify his suspicion, he wanted to test Thea.

He planned to change his identity to the mysterious Mr. Caden and contact her to find out what she really thought in her heart.

He did not answer Henry’s questions. He hung up the call and waited patiently at home. Thea left Majestic Corporation with disappointment. Before she arrived home, she received a call from Newton. “Ms. Thea, the chairman said that he can meet you tonight. He will contact you about the details.”

Thea was excited after receiving the call.

She began to look forward to it.

She anticipated for the night to arrive. She hummed a melody when entering the house, “What happened, Darling? Why are you so happy?” James, on the sofa, glanced at Thea, who returned home and could not help asking. Thea was ecstatic and could not hide her excitement. However, she could not share this joy with James. Therefore she shook her head and said, “It’s nothing. I’m going to shower and head to the company.”

"Are you stupid?" Alyssa said with a stern expression, "She's your sister. We can steal her card and transfer the money to our account. So what if she discovers we stole it? I trust that Thea won't call the police to arrest you."

Alyssa's words tempted David.

It was true.

Richard gave Thea two billion dollars, so it should not be a problem for him to take several hundred million. They could get a lot with a few hundred million dollars. "Babe, we'll have to plan this carefully. We don't know Thea's bank card password, so we'll have to find a way to get it first."

"Alright."

The two began to discuss their plans.

At this moment, James had arrived at Common Clinic

Chapter 345 "James."

As soon as he entered the clinic, a woman in her twenties wearing a thin shirt paired with a mini denim skirt and a ponytail greeted James with a smile.

It was Whitney.

Whitney had been staying at Henry's clinic for the past few days. She had witnessed James ordering people to raze the Purity Pharmaceuticals' factory, and after doing some research, she had a rough guess about James' identity. Although she did not know the details, she figured out that James was a prominent figure from the Southern Plains.

"Hello,"

James nodded to Whitney and entered the room.

"James," Henry quickly rushed over and greeted. "Where's the things I asked for?" "Over there. They just arrived," Henry pointed to a box on the floor and replied

James sat on the leather office chair and glanced at the time. It was only four in the afternoon, and there was still time before night

He took out his phone and called Newton

“Mr. Quinn, prepare a car for me.” “What class would you need, James?” “The more luxurious, the better.” His current identity was not the son-in-law of the Callahans but the chairman of Majestic Corporation. He was now a business owner with assets worth tens of billions. It was unreasonable for him to keep a low profile now Moreover, he was going to see his wife, Thea. It would be unacceptable for him to show up very shabbily. “Alright, I’ll make the arrangements now.”

Chapter 346 Newton hurried to prepare the car.

Newton had taken over the Great Four's ceded businesses and established Majestic Corporation.

Majestic Corporation had tens of billion in assets right now

It was easy for him to get a luxurious car.

He prepared a Rolls-Royce Silver Ghost in no time

The car was worth one billion eight hundred million dollars and could not be bought with just money. It required strong connections

Majestic Corporation had broad network connections now

This was because the businesses under Majestic Corporation were ceded by the Great Four The Great Four had deep connections in Cansington Apart from the bankrupt Xaviers, the other three families were still very influential

At this moment, a sexy woman in a red dress with red lipstick and sunglasses approached. It was Quincy. Quincy had come to see Thea a few times, but she was always not in the office. Today, she decided to look for Thea after getting off work to discuss and introduce Xavier to her. When she arrived at Pacific Group's building, she immediately spotted someone.

Tears welled up in her eyes upon seeing the man's face. This was the face that had constantly been popping up in her mind for the past ten years.

"J-James." Her lips parted slightly She watched James walk toward Thea in the distance, After a brief surprise, Thea recollected herself and glanced at James. Her face immediately Mushed red.

Finally, she met him.

She had a lot to say but did not know where to start,

"Let's go." James gestured for her to get in the car.

"oh, alright."

Thea recollected herself.

Chapter 347 The two walked side by side.

Media reporters secretly photographed the scene. Quincy was shocked in the distance. She quickly approached them and stood before the two, then took off her sunglasses. "Thea..." she said with her jaw dropped open.

Next, she turned toward James.

There was a slight resentment on her face, and her eyes began to tear up.

James frowned 'Why is Quincy here? "James..." Her vision began to blur with tears, and she raised her head to glance aggrievedly at James. "Hmm?

"Why are you here?" James glanced at her and asked. Thea, who stood beside James, felt awkward about the situation.

She knew the mysterious Mr. Caden was her best friend, Quincy's boyfriend ten years ago.

"Quincy..." She glanced at Quincy with her face flushed red from shame. Quincy glanced at him with tears in her eyes and said, "James, do you know I've waited ten years for you? "I knew you weren't dead! I just could sense you near me. I've waited ten years for you. I've rejected countless suitors because of you. Yet, look at yourself! You never showed yourself, and now you're with her when you do? Don't you know she has a husband?" Hearing her words, Thea's self even more ashamed. "Inow that Thea has a husband. That's why I'm meeting her to make it clear. You and I only dated for a few months. Plus, that was ten years ago, and I've long forgotten about you," James replied with a frown.

“Let’s go.” James glanced at Thea and smiled apologetically. Thea nodded lightly and lowered her head, not daring to look at Quincy, She was unsure of what to say to Quincy. James walked directly toward the Rolls-Royce Silver Ghost.

At this inoment, she had the urge to immediately divorce the other James and throw hersell at the James before her.

Her body language betrayed her, and she could not hide her feelings from Jarnes.

He sighed internally.

‘It seems Thea really doesn’t like the lax James that isn’t successful in anything.

‘She prefers this mysterious Mr. Caden that can help her through everything, thought James.

Thea stopped talking. She wanted to say she had a husband and would not divorce him. However, she was unable to say anything. "James and I didn't marry for love. My grandfather chose him to marry into the Callahans." With this said, James immediately understood her heart. Afterward, Thea said a lot, all of which was an expression of her gratitude.

However, James was absent-minded.

The two finished their meal.

After the meal, James said, "Shall I take you back?" "N-No, it's fine," Thea politely refused. "...I'll consider getting a divorce," said Thea. She blushed and ran away after speaking,

James was left troubled.

He watched as Thea left and touched his nose.

'Divorce...'

He smiled lightly and went silent. He drove back to Majestic Corporation, changed his clothes, and took off the human mask. Deep in thought, he sat on a chair in the chairman's office while smoking a cigarette.

At this moment, his phone rang. He glanced at it and saw Henry calling, "What's the matter? Did something happen?" he asked after answering the phone. "James, Jake has found out the whereabouts of the ancient box in Cansington after leaving North Cansington." "I'll come right away." James hung up the phone. He immediately left Majestic Corporation and rushed to Henry's Common Clinic.

The ancient box that had emerged from the ancient tomb of the Prince of Orchid Mountain was critical. It was related to the Cadens' family treasure, the Moonlit Flowers on Cliffside's Edge. On top of that, it involved the mysterious and unpredictable Four Great Families of Sol.

He had only recently discovered the Four Great Families of Sol. In the past, he never knew that the Cadens had such a long family history that traced back thousands of years.

"Commander, I've already found the whereabouts of the box you've asked me to find. It's in Sovereign Antique Shop in Cansington. The owner is called Yurt Gibson. I've looked into him and found that he is from the Capital. A prominent person from the Capital has been in frequent contact with him"

Speaking of this, Jake paused. "Who?"

James glanced at him. Jake hesitated for a while and said, "The Emperor of the Capital."

"What?! James' expression darkened

Chapter 349 The Emperor of the Capital, one of the Five Commanders? The most powerful amongst the Five Commanders, who steadily controlled the Capital? "Anything else?"

James glanced at Jake.

“I’ve investigated a lot of things about the ancient box’s source and inquired about the grave robbers. The grave robber gang had received money from a mysterious employer. They received the map of the Prince of Orchid Mountain, which helped them successfully enter the tomb and find the ancient box. However, an unexpected accident occurred, and someone stole it while the key fell into Scarlett’s hands.”

“Get to the important part. Who was the person that stole the ancient box, and who is the mysterious employer?” James glanced at him and said,

“According to the intel collected, the person who stole the ancient box is Floyd Zink. He is a very well-known name in the underworld. He was the one that brought the box to Cansington. Floyd happens to be the Emperor’s confidant,

“That means the mysterious employer is the Emperor?” James had an unusually dim expression. Jake shook his head slightly and said, “I’m not sure, but the Emperor is definitely related to this incident. My intelligence network doesn’t reach the Capital, and I don’t dare to expand there either. Thus, I’ve no way to inquire about things in the Capital.”

James fell into silence. After a moment, he said, “Alright.” Then, he got up and left.

Henry and Whitney followed after him.

Henry drove them back to Common Clinic.

Inside the clinic,

James sat on a chair and smoked a cigarette while deep in

Henry was also helpless.

He knew exactly what kind of temper James had and knew the consequences might be dire, but he could not stop it from happening. "I think sames should know the boundaries. After all, this is the Emperor we're talking about He is also one of the Five Commanders, James wouldn't act recklessly until there is conclusive evidence."

"Hopefully."

The Blithe king took a deep breath.

He hoped things would not go the way he imagined. Chaos would definitely break loose if James were to go against the Emperor.

Security guards dressed in black suits stood outside the courtyard.

A man wearing a black jacket approached. Before he got close to the courtyard, the security guards immediately blocked his path. "The Heaven Mansions is off limits to outsiders. Please leave quickly, or you will be killed without mercy."

The man dressed in a black jacket was James from Cansington

After James had learned some clues, he immediately took a private plane to the Capital to personally meet the Emperor and ask about some details.

If the Emperor really had something to do with his family's incident, he had to die.

"Black Dragon from the Southern Plains. I need to see the Emperor. Hurry and report it."

James wore a dark expression. Hearing that it was the Black Dragon, the security guards stepped back in fright. "Quick, go and report it." "Alright."

A strong murderous intent exuded from James.

The Emperor was shocked after feeling the aura coming from him. This was indeed the Black Dragon that experienced hundreds of battles. The aura he had was terrifying.

“What do you mean by this, James?” James lifted his foot, lifted him from the ground, and dragged him into the mansion.

A room inside the mansion. James smoked a cigarette grimly. The Emperor sat opposite him. He rubbed his chest while glancing at James and asked, “Why are you asking about the ancient tomb of the Prince of Orchid Mountain?”

“Does the deaths of the Cadens in Cansington ten years ago have anything to do with you? Is my family’s Moonlit Flowers on Cliffside’s Edge map in your hands?” James looked at him coldly.

The Emperor was stunned for a moment, then he laughed, “James, are you kidding? How could it have anything to do with me? However, I do know about the Moonlit Flowers on
