Chapter 828

Thea grit her teeth furiously.

It was as if she had turned into a completely different person at that moment.

“We simply aren’t meant to be, Thea.”

“Mark my words,” Thea’s eyes burned with hatred as she glared at James. “You’ll regret this, James. I promise you!”

She stomped out of the door, scorned and upset.

The ward was once again enveloped in silence.

Tiara did not utter a single word throughout the entire argument that happened in front of her.

After Thea left, she urged James to follow her, “What are you doing, James? You should chase after her!”

James simply shook his head.

He had already laid everything out for Thea, there was no need to chase after her now.

As long as Thea did not rock the boat too much, James was content to leave things the way they were.
