Chapter 3495

Harvey let out a small chuckle. Ai crossed his legs and took a puff of his cigar.

"I didn't think we'd meet again so soon."

"I was a little busy, so I wasn't able to settle scores with you just yet."

"I didn't think you'd send yourself to me all of a sudden."

"Have you been living too comfortably? Don't you want to live anymore?"

"Are you here for excitement? Or are you here to die?"

Ai froze. Then, he waved his hand to stop Senior Miller and the others from lashing out.

"You're pretty cocky, young man," he exclaimed coldly while glaring at Harvey.

"Since you've disrespected Mrs. Lee, that means that you at least have some talent, strength, and the background for that."

"That said, you should know that you're in Flutwell right now!"

"This is the biggest city of Country H's southwest region! Mordu, the Golden Sands, and Buckwood are on par with it!"

"Other than the Golden Palace, the top ten families, and the four cornerstones, there are many other people that you should learn to respect..."

"If not, you'll die a horrible death even if you're a prominent figure."

"Do you understand me?"

Ai was acting extremely patient, but in truth, he was infuriated.

He had asked the approval of the person supporting him before coming here!

That person was respected by both Longmen and the Golden Palace! His status was simply extraordinary!

Despite that, Ai was still being disrespected.

Ai felt hurt—his pride was being trampled on.

Soon after, he managed to calm himself.

He was waiting for the crucial moment to use his trump card.

That way, Harvey would pay him everything that was owed!

Harvey ignored Aki's vengeful attitude.

"Mr. Kamino."

"He challenged me—threatened me with my sister-in-law in front of my face."

"I'd feel bad if I didn't slap him."

Harvey then calmly glanced at Senior Miller, who was covering his injured face with his hand .

"This is your last chance. You better learn your lesson."

"If this happens again, I'll take your life."

Not only did Senior Miller not know how to respect his elders, but he kept making threats to Xynthia without even skipping a beat.

Harvey felt that he had become much more civilized.

If it was the old him, he wouldn't have just ended things with a slap and a kick.

"Who do you think you are, you b*stard?!"

"How dare you speak to me like that?!"

Senior Miller, who was covering his face, was filled with anger and fear.

"You won't get away with this today, Harvey!"

The prideful women were fiercely glaring at Harvey as well. They wanted to trample on the man in front of them with their high heels so badly.

'A poor fool like him doesn't know how to respect someone more powerful!'

'How dare he not obediently stay put and get trampled on?! How dare he fight back?!'

'This is preposterous!'

'People like him should be dead!'

"Right, Mr. Kamino..."

Harvey ignored Senior Miller, who was still flaunting his authority like an idiot.

"You came here to ask me to explain myself, yes?" he asked calmly, his narrowed eyes looking straight at Ai.

"It's a shame i won't give you one."

Chapter 3496

"Don't be too stubborn, Harvey York!"

"You're still young! There are things that you still can't handle!"

Ai Kamino blew out a puff of smoke before he sat up straight.

"I admit that I have underestimated you.

"But even if you have the Torres family with you, you have no right to do as you please!

"For instance, you should be respecting me right now.

"After all, you have no right to go against the person behind me."

Then, Ai snapped his fingers before his secretary walked over with a case.

Ai opened the case and took out a business card before setting it right on Harvey's coffee table.

Clyde Osborne!

There was nothing else on the card besides wild scribbles of the name!

The
calligraphy felt powerful yet elegant. An aura of invincibility and dominance could be felt just by merely looking at the card!

"Clyde Osborne?"

Harvey frowned. He was not familiar with the name.

Ai showed a profound look on his face.

"That's right. Prince Osborne himself.

"I visited his place before coming here.

"He told me...

"The Capital Gang represents his reputation.

"And since the Capital Gang is being disrespected, it also means he's being disrespected.

"That said, Prince Osborne is still a rational man.

"He wants you to reimburse everything Mrs. Lee gave you tenfold, then kneel in front of the Capital Gang's headquarters for three whole days! He'll only let you off the hook after that!

"Oh. Right. Your sister-in-law still has to treat my subordinate here. This is totally a different matter altogether.

Ai showed a determined look on his face.

"Of course, you can reject the offer, but I don't know if you'll be able to bear the consequences of doing that."

Senior Miller showed a cold smile while covering his face.

"You better give Ansel Torres a call if you haven't heard of Prince Osborne, you b* stard!

"Ask him who Prince Osborne is!

"He'll tell you that out of Flutwell, out of the entire southwest region of Country H, even the Golden Palace and the Bauer family would have to pay their respects to him!

"Even the Torres family has no right to go against Prince Osborne!

Senior Miller became so conceited that he had completely lost himself.

"Simply put, you're finished if you go against Prince Osborne!

"Even God himself won't be able to save you!

"I said so!"

The beautiful women were trembling out of excitement after hearing those words. They were shamelessly showing smitten looks at that moment.

It was as if they were experiencing the peak of joy as soon as they heard the name.

Harvey frowned.

"Clyde Osborne?"

"He must be from one of the five hidden families if you're really that impressed by him.

"If not, you wouldn't be this confident in the first place."

Out of the five hidden families, other than the Yorks of Hong Kong, the four other families held terrifying power even though they were all hidden from the world.

And in the northwest region, only the Osborne family could make the second top family of Country H, the Bauer family, and the Golden Palace pay their respects.

Chapter 3497

"Seems like you're no ordinary person either. At least you have some experience.

"You wouldn't be able to guess that Prince Osborne is from one of the five hidden families if that weren't the case.

Ai Kamino nodded with pride and confidence, blatantly showing on his face.

"Since you know what sort of person Prince Osborne is, I'm sure we'll have a great talk."

Ai then took out a list before throwing it right before Harvey York.

Other than Mrs. Lee's compensation, Film City's losses for the past few days were also written on the list, along with Senior Miller's medical fees among other things. Every single thing was written in detail.

"You'll have to compensate for the amount listed here tenfold. Do you understand me?" said Ai while squinting at Harvey.

Harvey merely shrugged before showing a smile on his face.

"If I wasn't looking closely, I really thought you were the one compensating my sister-in-law's losses.

"Heh!"

Ai disdained Harvey's sharp tongue. At this moment, he looked calm while looking down at Harvey.

"Enough talk.

"There's no use having a sharp tongue.

"Admit to your mistakes and pay up already.

"I have calculated everything for you here. You owe a hundred and fifty million dollars.

"Pay up and hand over your sister-in-law for an entire month, and we'll let you off the hook.

"Will there be a problem?"

Harvey gave out a light chuckle.

"A hundred and fifty million dollars and an entire month with my sister-in-law?

"Is that it?"

The beautiful women were showing disdainful smiles. Their gazes were filled with disdain and ridicule as they stared at Harvey.

Harvey was talking big, as if he was the king of the world.

People who did not know might have thought that he had the upper hand judging from his tone.

"We were about to demand more, but we're pretty reasonable people.

Ai chuckled.

"Even if it's a goddess, we'll get tired of her after a month anyway...

"Right. I forgot to warn you about something...

"Mrs. Lee is the wife of Flutwell's Longmen branch leader.

"Their relationship is far from well...

"But Bowen Lee is a proud man.

"Since you provoked his wife and made her kneel, you're basically disrespecting him!

"Soon enough, he'll bring thousands of men just to crush you!"

Then, Ai leaned closer toward Harvey before blowing a puff of smoke directly at his face.

"Tell me, young man. Do you think you'll die a horrible death soon?

"You provoked me before going for Bowen himself...

"You'll end up horribly if you don't pay up soon..."

Harvey let out a chuckle before shrugging.

"The branch leader of Longmen's Flutwell branch?

"Bowen?

"I'm so scared!"

"What? Now you're scared?

Ai leaned back on the couch before blowing out another puff of smoke.

"Kneel and beg for mercy then!

"If you do, I might just plead for your stead."

Senior Miller and the others scoffed after hearing Ai's words.

They were coldly glaring at Harvey at this moment.

'Serves you right!'

'Now you know just how weak you are!'

'All you can do is show off! Now, you'll die a horrible death!'

Right as everyone was waiting for Harvey to kneel...

Creak!

The door of the hospital was lightly pushed open.

Bowen and his men hurried inside with miserable looks.

Chapter 3498

At that moment, a dozen Longmen disciples were following Bowen Lee. It was a truly dominant and spectacular sight.

Ai Kamino instinctively stood up as soon as he saw Bowen.

He respectfully nodded before smiling coldly at Harvey York.

"Speak of the devil.

"You're finished, kid.

"Looks like Branch Leader Lee's in a bad mood...

"I don't think I can help you at this point.

"You're on your own."

After hearing Ai's words and Bowen's gloomy expression, Senior Miller and the beautiful women were all looking at Harvey gleefully.

'All this guy does is show off!'

'Who knew that karma would bite back this quick?!'

'Not only is he going against Mr. Kamino, even Branch Leader Lee is here to trample all over him!'

Under Ai's exhilarated gaze, Bowen walked briskly toward Harvey before slamming his knees on the ground.

The people behind him kneeled in unison with horrified expressions on their faces.

Ai froze before instinctively gasping.

"What are you doing, Branch Leader Lee?"

Bowen completely ignored Ai and respectfully brought out a few contracts.

"These are transfer agreements for my Budokans, Sir York!"

"The procedures are all set. They're all yours as soon as you sign the contracts."

"I'm deeply sorry about what happened today! Please be the bigger person and let me off the hook!"

After looking at Bowen's terrified look...

Senior Miller and the beautiful women were utterly shocked.

They did not expect that a powerful man like Bowen was not here to look for trouble...

He was actually here to beg for mercy.

'Bowen's most valuable assets were the Budokans under his name! Why did he bestow them all to Harvey? What happened?'

'What did he do to make someone like Bowen fear him?'

'Even Joseph Bauer is supporting his entire family!'

Ai changed his expression frantically.

"What happened, Branch Leader Lee?!"

"Why would you kneel for someone like that?!"

Bowen would not dare mutter a single word as he trembled uncontrollably.

He could never say that he was about to bring reinforcements after going back home before hearing about his wife's birthday banquet.

He wanted to exact his revenge earlier but instantly gave up on that thought.

After all, a person with the Longmen's Law Enforcement Badge who could make Joseph steer away from that person was not someone Bowen could ever go against.

Harvey calmly glanced at Ai before showing a faint smile.

"Right. There's something I forgot to tell you.

"While I was trampling on Mrs. Lee, even Joseph didn't dare to protect her.

"He left her on her own!

"Then, what makes you think I'm scared of Bowen?"

'What?!'

"Even Joseph can't hold Harvey down?!'

'How is this even possible?!

Senior and the beautiful women were shocked. Their faces were sluggish when they stared at Harvey.

They did not want to believe what Harvey said, but everything was clarified after Bowen knelt on the spot.

Even Ai was frantically twitching his eyes at this moment.
