Chapter 3577

On the next day, early in the morning, the truck in front of the Martial Hall was finally towed away.

Dillon Lee found a few renovation companies to immediately clean up the mess, hoping the Martial Hall would be up for business again.

Harvey York had been standing sleepless inside the Martial Hall for an entire day.

He did not like killing, but he knew full well that he could not hold back any longer when someone kept pushing his limits.

If this continued, Mandy Zimmer and Xynthia Zimmer would probably be the ones in trouble, maybe even Yvonne Xavier, Kait Walker, Queenie York, or the others around him...

"I heard that you got into an accident last night, Brother-In-Law! Are you alright?" Xynthia got word from somewhere as soon as she got out of the hospital. She immediately came to the Martial Hall afterward.

She did not ask how Harvey acquired the Martial Hall nor about anything else besides for his own safety.

"Don't worry. I'm fine.

"I'll get you and your sister to stay here once the place is done renovating."

Harvey's gloomy look dissipated the moment he saw Xynthia show up.

Vroom!

Five Toyota Alphards slowly drove over at this moment.

The doors of the cars slid open as soon as they were parked in front of the entrance.

A dozen young men in black suits quickly walked out before pulling out a red carpet from the back of the cars and placing it on the ground.

Then, the men stood on both sides of the carpet with black umbrellas, ensuring that no single ray of sunlight was passing through.

Dillon, Kayden Balmer, and the others instinctively looked over out of curiosity.

Then, a Toyota Alphard parked in the shade slowly drove over before stopping at the end of the red carpet.

Soon after, the doors slid open.

The men were all showing stern looks on their faces while they were holding the umbrellas.

Xynthia showed an odd expression.

"What kind of royalty is this?"

"This is a little insane..."

Dillon instantly changed his expression upon realization.

A pair of white leather shoes could be seen coming out of the car. The movements were slow, but an unspeakable aura of dominance could be felt just from that.

Harvey calmly glanced over.

A young man in his twenties walked toward the Martial Hall at that moment. He did not seem that handsome, and a hint of gloom could be seen on his face.

At the same time, his eyes were slightly closed, as if he was a little sleepy.

A sense of laziness could also be felt in him.

He disdainfully looked around him before stepping on the carpet.

A few ordinary-looking elderly people followed behind him. Many people also appeared from far away.

Dillon's legs started to wobble, as if he was ready to kneel.

Though, Xynthia was not scared by the sight.

"Whose young master is this, Brother-In-Law?" asked Xynthia with a curious look.

"Is he here to learn or something?"

Naturally, Xynthia already knew that the Martial Hall was where Harvey taught others martial arts.

Harvey shook his head before gesturing to Dillon, Kayden, and the others to stand back.

"We're already full for this semester. If he wants to enroll, he'll have to wait until next semester."

Chapter 3578

"Next semester?"

The young man crossed his arms while walking inside the Martial Hall before he looked around the place.

"Were you the one who got the bald driver killed?"

"Did you do that just to force me out?"

"I'm here now. What are you going to do? Take your revenge?"

"Or are you here to beg for mercy?"

The young man kept looking around him in disdain...

But his eyes lit up as soon as he saw Xynthia Zimmer, as if he was wide awake.

"You're finally here..."

Harvey York calmly raised his head to look at the young man.

"So, you're the person behind Wilbur Lee, Boden Osborne, and the bald driver, aren't you?"

"I have a lot of enemies here in Flutwell. I know young masters from the Bauer family, the John family, and the mighty Indians trying to kill me..."

"I know all these people, yet I don't know you."

"Judging from that, you must be the legendary Clyde Osborne, Prince Osborne himself. Am I right?"

Harvey had never met Clyde before, but he knew someone would show up after what happened the day before.

And judging from the sight in front of him, he quickly recognized who was the person before him.

"Not bad. Not bad at all. No wonder Ai Kamino and Commissioner Thompson got taken down by you. Even useless filth, like Wilbur, tried to teach you a little lesson, but he was the one who suffered instead."

"I even gave you a small warning last night, yet you still paid it all back to me."

"I have to say. You earned the right for me to do things myself."

Clyde walked around Harvey twice with a cold expression.

Before long, he glanced back at Xynthia with a burning passion showing in his eyes.

Xynthia trembled before she instinctively took a step back.

"So, you're saying you're here to pay me back for what happened?"

Harvey showed a cold expression on his face.

"You came here just in time. I was planning to find the person who caused yesterday's incident.

"How are you planning to give me a statement first?!"

"How dare you, you b*stard?!"

"A country bumpkin like you wants a statement from Prince Osborne himself?!"

"Who do you think you are?!"

The men in black suits screamed in unison while glaring fiercely at Harvey.

Naturally, Clyde was quite a domineering leader.

"Hey! Hey!

"Did you forget what I told you?!"

"I told you to be civilized! Have some manners! Have you forgotten about this already?!"

Clyde turned around and patted the face of the young man standing near him.

"Remember what I told you! Don't you dare get Sir York angry!

"He'll get someone to run you over if he's in a bad mood!

"You'll die without your own burial spot!

"Do you understand me?!"

Clyde was showing a faint smile as he said those words casually. An unspeakable sense of coldness and arrogance could be felt in his tone.

Xynthia and the others shuddered as soon as they saw the smile on his face.

After teaching his subordinates a lesson, Clyde shifted his gaze back at Harvey.

"Let's talk business, Sir York.

"I didn't come here to give you a statement.

"Instead, it's the other way around.

"I kept going after you, but there have been no casualties whatsoever.

"You, on the other hand, killed off one of my subordinates. This is pretty troublesome for me. Don't you know that?

"At least give me a statement about this, right?"

Chapter 3579

"You kept disrespecting me over and over again too. Have you ever thought about how angry I am?

"You'll have dire consequences if you anger me...

"I know that Joseph Bauer suffered huge losses against you. I also know what happened to Elliot John and Frankie Garcia...

"But that doesn't mean an outsider like you is allowed to show off here!

"There are people saying that your strength is terrifying and that you're probably a God of War...

Clyde Osborne calmly spoke in a low whisper.

"But don't forget. You're in Flutwell right now.

"You might be able to scare off other people, but you really can't do much here in Flutwell.

"You see, I'm a God of War myself..."

"That's why you can't scare me even if you're one too!"

Harvey York slightly squinted after hearing Clyde's confident speech. He had no choice but to size up the prince once again.

He was pretty surprised when he heard those words.

'This young man with a lavish lifestyle is a God of War?

'Did he also take drugs to get this far?'

"I know what you're thinking.

Clyde

patted Harvey's shoulder with a faint smile, as if he knew exactly what was going through Harvey's mind.

"That's right. I did take drugs to get this far.

"But this is normal anyway. Us princes and young masters have so many resources to the point where everything's just collecting dust.

"Why should we even train so hard if that were the case?

"We'll just get more drugs to help. When others use only one, we'll use a hundred to turn ourselves into Gods of War..."

"What? Do you envy me? Are you jealous? Are you mad?

"You think you're so strong, but your strength has no meaning before me!"

"You know what this means?

"This means that if I want to, I can also slap you to death.

"In the end, your strength will be used to bolster my reputation..."

Clyde showed a faint smile.

"I'm really looking forward to it now..."

"Is that so? Are you going to kill me?"

Clyde's words did not faze Harvey at all.

"What? Do you think you can beat me because you know a few moves?"

"Are you really that confident you can take me down?"

Harvey showed a calm look on his face, but his heart skipped a beat.

Vince York managed to turn himself into a God of War by taking drugs back in Hong Kong...

And Clyde also got this far the same way...

Country H would not supply such unethical things here, though.

'Vince's drugs were from the Island Nations.

'Then, where would Clyde's drugs come from?

'India?

'If that were the case, then it makes sense that Clyde keeps coming after me now.

'Ai Kamino's incident was just an excuse.'

"Heh heh! Are you still not scared at this point?"

"Interesting.

Clyde chuckled with a curious and disdainful look on his face.

"I don't know if you're actually this calm or just pretending..."

"But, I showed up here to tell you one thing."

Chapter 3580

"In the northwest region..."

"No matter how impressive or powerful you are..."

"You'll have to follow the Osborne family's rules!"

"Admit to your faults and be punished accordingly!"

"Since you killed one of my men, you'll have to pay for that!"

"I'll give you three hours to bring me the culprit!"

Clyde Osborne then glanced at Xynthia Zimmer behind the crowd before lightly chuckling.

"Wash her up and bring her to me as well. I'll have to play with her for a while..."

"Also, bring your wife tomorrow night."

"Remember. Wash them up..."

Xynthia trembled while her face completely lost all color.

Boom!

Harvey York showed an icy cold expression before he stepped forward and swung his palm toward Clyde's face.

Harvey did not want to fight in a place like this, but he would not forgive himself if he remained still after Clyde's constant provocation.

Harvey's slap was as quick as lightning...

Clyde coldly chuckled before he dodged the attack and swung his palm for a counterattack.

The two palms collided with each other before a resounding slap could be heard.

Harvey stood still without moving a single inch, but Clyde's face lost a bit of color as he retreated a few steps back.

Apparent footprints could be seen on the ground every time he took a step.

"Tch! Is this all you got?!"

"That's no good!"

Clyde was a bit shocked but still disdainfully glared at Harvey.

"You're disappointing!"

"I thought you had the right to fight me, but I didn't expect you were this weak."

"What else can you do other than make me back up a few steps?"

"Did you know? Since I'm taking drugs, there'll be a period where I'm at my weakest every month!"

"I only have fifty percent of my full strength when that happens!"

"Today's that day!"

"You can't even scratch me during my weakest point!"

"You probably can't take a hit from me at this point!"

Clyde shook his head before clawing his way right at Harvey with a fierce look on him.

Fwoom!

Harvey frowned after hearing Clyde's insults. He also wasted no time striking in hopes of landing the first hit.

Slap!

Clyde took a few steps back. A palm print was clearly showing on his face then.

"Wow!"

Dillon Lee, Xynthia, and the others were cheering loudly. After boasting for so long, Clyde still took a slap to his face...

Though, Clyde's subordinates were coldly chuckling.

'Harvey can only do this much when our master's this weak...'

'He'll definitely be beaten up like a dead dog once he recovers!'

"You got me?"

"You're pretty decent.

Clyde covered his face while squinting at Harvey.

"But that's all you can do at this point!

"In my eyes, you're still weak!

"If you can't even take me down at my weakest point, what can you even do once I recover?"

Harvey showed a calm expression on his face without saying a word.

He could tell that Clyde was not just for show. If he really wanted to take him down, he would have to use all his might.

Chapter 3581

That said, there was no way that Harvey York could just slap Clyde Osborne to death in front of everyone.

Without a second thought, he had no choice but to control his temper.

'Why is it so hard to be the good guy nowadays?'

If he did not consider the consequences of the situation along with his bottom line, he would have slapped Clyde to death by then.

Xynthia rushed up instantly after thinking that Harvey was somehow internally injured.

"Are you okay, Brother-In-Law?" she asked while propping Harvey up.

Harvey shook his head.

"I'm fine.

Then, he calmly walked forward while squinting at Clyde with a cold expression.

"Enough talk, Clyde!

"You won't get anything here!

"You'll have to give me a statement, though!

"If not, then don't blame me for what happens next!"

"Interesting."

At this point, Clyde could not help but chuckle after seeing Harvey talk this big.

He was only here to test the waters. He wanted to make Harvey kneel. He did not come here to kill anyone.

More importantly, Clyde was in his weakest state at this moment. Other than getting slapped, there was nothing Harvey could even do.

That was why Clyde was filled with disdain when he looked at Harvey.

Based on the fight alone, he could fight three Harveys at once if he wanted to.

He thought he was looking at a clown in front of him, trying to make empty threats.

"What happens next?"

Clyde was filled with disdain.

"An ant dares to challenge me? Are you really that oblivious?!"

"It did seem like you had the upper hand during the fight, but you're probably internally injured, aren't you?"

"You're just lying to yourself, pretending to be fine like that!"

"Come! Spit the blood out of your mouth already!"

"It's not embarrassing to lose against me anyway."

"Don't you worry. I won't kill you today anyway."

"It's rare for someone in the younger generation to have the courage to go against me."

"I'll have no rivals to go against if I kill you now. After all, absolute power is a lonely curse."

"I'll have to keep you around a few more days to keep me from getting bored."

"Right. I forgot to mention something to you. Besides the drugs I take, I also trained in Shaolin's Golden Body!"

"Simply put, attacks of the same level do nothing to me."

"If you want to hurt me, you'll have to be at least two levels higher."

"What a shame. With your abilities, you wouldn't be able to hurt me even after a decade!"

"Even if you do have a chance to hurt me, I'll kill you before you even break through to the next level!"

"Let's end it here for now. When I'm done with my business, I'll look for you and take the women with me!"

Clyde coldly chuckled and walked on the carpet back to his car.

"That b*stard!"

Kayden Balmer and the others tried to step up after seeing Clyde's arrogant look, but Harvey raised his hand, gesturing them to stop.

It was not that he was scared. There were just too many innocent bystanders around the area.

The others would have gotten involved if the fight had kept going. Harvey could not accept that fact.

There were also a lot of things he needed to deal with at this moment. It would not be worth it at all.

It seemed like Harvey needed to move up his schedule because of this trivial matter.

Without a second thought, Harvey walked to the coffee table before pouring himself a cup of tea.

Then, he glanced at Kayden.

"We'll start doing business tomorrow."

Chapter 3582

While Clyde Osborne was waiting to have a rematch against Harvey York during his peak, Jeff Bauer was quietly watching Harvey's every single move...

On the next day, early in the morning, Harvey immediately got Kayden Balmer to work right after waking 1.

Harvey did get the upper hand during his fight against Joseph Bauer, but this was not nearly enough.

All the signs showed that Joseph did not give up at all. He was clearly planning for something big behind the scenes.

Everything that had transpired recently seemed to be connected to him as well.

Harvey decided to break Joseph's backbone first to prevent Joseph, Clyde, and the others from joining forces out of desperation.

On the one hand, he would be able to deal with his worries ahead of time. On the other hand, he would clarify the situation between the Bauer family and Longmen.

Before Kayden even went out for long, Joseph was woken up by frantic footsteps while resting in his manor.

"This is bad, Young Master Bauer! This is really bad!"

Ruby Murray was completely panicking at the moment.

"Calm down.

"How many times do I have to tell you that we need to stay calm to achieve great things?"

After knowing that Harvey had a conflict with Clyde, he seemed naturally calmer.

He would be able to relieve himself from the situation he got himself into as long as he could hold out until the end of the month when he would get his capital back.

As for Flutwell's new district, even though Harvey had converted the entire place into a graveyard, with enough funds, Joseph believed that he would be able to make the place a hit again after a few years.

"It's awful, Young Master Bauer!"

Ruby took a deep breath to remain calm, but her worried look was still clearly showing.

"All thirty of the Budokans under Flutwell's business alliance are all in trouble!

"The thousands of students we took in for a high price all passed out during training early in the morning!

"Many were twitching while white foam came out of their mouths!

"The students' families all called the cops! Some of them even showed up and took control of the Budokans!

"Someone even set one of them on fire!

"We had security guards on sight, but there were just too many people causing an uproar...

"All of our Budokans cannot function properly as of right now.

"Part of the crowd even went for the shopping malls and office buildings under our name...

"If we don't deal with this right now, everything we've worked for the past few years will be all for nothing

Ruby frantically wiped the sweat off her face after explaining everything in one go.

She was not a businesswoman, but she knew just how dire the situation was.

Joseph was already having headaches about Flutwell's new district...

He was on the verge of snapping as soon as he heard those words.

"What?!"

Joseph stood up in anger. He could not afford to stay calm any longer.

"How did this even happen?!"

Flutwell was a special place.

The entire city was filled with Budokans since everyone here was passionate about martial arts.

Opening up Budokans was naturally the best way to do business here.

Safe to say that every family other than the Torres family was involved in this line of business.

Flutwell's business alliance even made Budokan chains and invited a few young female martial art celebrities to be the faces of the business. With thousands of students under their belts, money was rolling into the alliance's pocket every year.

And to keep the students coming, Joseph did put down some easy-to-teach martial arts in the teaching manual so everyone would have good things to say about the Budokans.

Safe to say that half of Joseph's wealth for the past six years was because of this business.

Chapter 3583

The chain Budokans were Joseph Bauer's biggest trump card.

According to his calculations, he would be swimming in money yearly as long as the Budokans were still open.

This was why he was able to remain calm after suffering such a significant loss in Flutwell's new district.

As long as the people of Flutwell were still around and everyone was still passionate about martial arts, the chain Budokans would still remain.

Joseph would still be able to remain at his peak.

Simply put, the business would be up for the rest of his life.

But he did not expect that every single chain Budokan was in trouble at that moment. How did all the students pass out inside?

Joseph knew full well that his fees were not cheap.

The people who came to train in the Budokans were no ordinary people. All the people came from middle- class families, at least.

Those people were not a threat alone, but it would be extremely terrifying if thousands banded together.

Not just him, even the entire Bauer family would stress out about this.

Joseph took a deep breath.

"What happened? Why did this happen in the morning?"

"Nobody called the cops immediately after someone caused trouble?"

"We can't just let them do whatever they want!"

For Joseph, the Budokans were his money trees. He would suffer tremendous losses if people were to smash the Budokans up or lose interest.

He would lose his chance of survival!

"The police were on the move. The Bauer family and Longmen also received the message..."

"But they were being extremely slow. They didn't get a lot of people to help either..."

"They wouldn't be able to do anything against the raging crowd!"

Ruby showed a gloomy look.

"We can't just do whatever we want either. Some b*stard decided to call on the reporters..."

"If we do anything to the crowd, our reputation will plummet if things escalate!"

"The best way is to get the police's help to investigate the entire situation."

"To be more specific, the students were completely fine this morning, but all of them immediately passed out during their exercise...

"Either the breakfast was bad...

"Or the teaching manual's finally causing us problems...

"If that weren't the case, this wouldn't have happened.

Again, Ruby wiped the sweat off her head.

"Young Master Bauer, it'd be easy to fix if it was just the food...

"But I'm afraid that someone might've found out about the secret of our teaching manual...

"If the media knows about this, the chain Budokans will be done for! Flutwell's business alliance will be finished!"

If their reputation were tarnished, the chain Budokans would be closed down forever.

After all, there were a lot of Budokans around Fluwtell. Losing the chain Budokans would not even matter to anybody besides the alliance.

"You think I don't know that?!"

"Our teaching manual has big problems, but ordinary people wouldn't have noticed that..." said Joseph with a horrible look.

When he first made the teaching manual, he asked a few experts to put martial arts that were easy to master.

Simply put, anyone who trained in the chain Budokans would be able to fight like a true expert in just a short amount of time.

This was no doubt the reason why the Budokans' name echoed throughout the entire city and the very reason why this was such a lucrative business.

But the problem was that there was never a shortcut regarding martial arts. Things like this would surely cause problems sooner or later.

Chapter 3584

That said, Joseph Bauer estimated that it would take at least a few decades before something like this would happen.

When that happens, students foaming and crippling would absolutely have nothing to do with him.

He would already have the money anyway.

But if something terrible like this were to happen ahead of time, there would be dire consequences...

His reputation would not be the only thing to worry about!

If the government and the Martial Arts Alliance were to get involved and dig up the secrets of the teaching manual, he would be finished!

Without a second thought, the calm and collected Joseph trembled before showing a gloomy look on his face.

"Call the police for me.

"No. That's useless. Call Elder Lee through his dedicated phone..."

Joseph wanted to handle the situation as soon as possible, but he was still too late.

Every big media had already buzzed about the incident.

The chain Budokans were in big trouble! All the students of the current semester were unconscious! There was a chance that they would not live long!

The entire southwest region was in an uproar after hearing such news!

After all, Joseph only recently got onto the news because of Flutwell's new district...

Nobody thought that there would be more trouble coming from him! People's very lives were at stake here!

The worse sin of a Budokan is to cripple or cause the death of one of its students.

After all, people spent heaps of money just to train in those places. Even if they could not learn anything worthwhile, at least they could get to strengthen their bodies, right?

The goal of that was naturally to add a few more years to their lifespan!

That said, dying for that purpose was something that nobody could ever accept.

Soon, countless families were uploading clips to their friends' circle, blatantly insulting the Flutwell's business alliance's Budokans.

Someone even blamed the teacher manual for having problems after getting word about it somewhere.

Everyone was talking about it as soon as word got out!

In just half an hour, the government of Flutwell, the police, the sports department, Longmen, and the entirety of the Martial Arts Alliance were on the move.

To prevent things from escalating further, those forces had already sealed off all of the chain Budokans as soon as they could.

To protect the name of Flutwell's business alliance, every single business under their name was closed down for the time being.

Thousands of workers had absolutely nothing to do because of this.

Simply put, Flutwell's business alliance had unimaginable losses that day.

Joseph, usually calm and collected, was so mad that he was on the verge of coughing up blood...

Harvey sat inside the Martial Hall, watching the workers renovate the place from afar while sipping his tea.

And right beside him was Jeff Bauer's fifth mistress, Elanor Stanton herself.

She occasionally brought out her phone and scrolled through the news with an odd look on her face.

Harvey gave her a call, telling her and Jeff to cooperate with him the next day.

Elanor could not figure out Harvey's plans. She only knew he was planning to go against Joseph.

She felt a little disdainful at first. After all, Jeff thought Harvey was just putting up a front since he had done absolutely nothing for the past few days...

But nobody thought that Joseph would be on the verge of losing everything in just a single afternoon...
