

Chapter 121 His Girl Was the Best

Lu Heting grabbed her clothes. He also grabbed a bathrobe and walked towards Su Bei.

“Are...are you here?” A flush of embarrassment appeared on Su Bei’s fair face. She acted so free and easy just now, but who would have thought that her clothes would hit him after that?

“Yes, I’m here.” Lu Heting unfolded the bathrobe to cover her. With a doting smile, he put her clothes into the washing machine.

With a red face, Su Bei ran into the bathroom and closed the door. When she remembered that he was holding her clothes with his long and elegant fingers, her mind was still full of a bewildering array of emotions.

After taking a shower, she got changed and put on her pajamas.

Lu Heting was helping her tidy up the clothes that had been washed and dried.

He was dealing with her underwear naturally. He rolled up his white sleeves, showing his strong wrists.

His action made Su Bei blush again. “Well, I prefer to do it myself.”

“How was the shooting today?” He asked casually, indicating that he had finished tidying up.

Su Bei came back to her senses from her nervous state. “Very good. Today I finished the print advertisement, and tomorrow I will shoot the advertising video. It will take several days to shoot.”

“I know you can do it.” Lu Heting’s eyes sparkled with affirmation, praise and confidence.

His girl was the best!

The next day, Su Bei appeared at the scene early in the morning to prepare.

Su Huixian looked good. After Su Bei left yesterday, Baizen left her alone to shoot for two more hours, which greatly increased her confidence.

As long as her publicity photos and videos were online, they would surely attract a lot of people and be popular.

There would be a sharp contrast between her and Su Bei.

She changed her clothes confidently and prepared to shoot with Su Bei.

According to Baizen, they needed to wear Jin Xiu’s clothes today, and they needed to hold the embroidered umbrellas in the rain. They needed to walk briskly and dance while walking. They needed to show the classical dance of S Country. Besides, they should also show the classical beauty blended with the modern beauty.

Most of the Jin Xiu’s clothes were embroidered. Jin Xiu made changes to its clothes, so that people could wear them to attend parties, to walk down the red carpets. Even common people could wear them in their daily lives.

Shooting print advertisements was very easy for most models, but dancing was a much greater test for them.

This was also a shooting plan proposed by Baizen after he talked with Su Bei and Su Huixian yesterday and knew that they had learned dancing before.

“Is there any problem?” Baizen asked.

Both Su Bei and Su Huixian signaled that everything was okay.

Su Bei had been learning dancing since she was a child and had a solid foundation of the basic skills.

On the other hand, Su Huixian had always insisted on competing with Su Bei in everything, so she had been very strict with herself and dared not get slack at her work all these years.

However, although she was a self-critical person, her ability was no match for Su Bei’s talent. So she was very wary of Su Bei.

In the past five years, she didn’t know much about what had happened to Su Bei. But she had trained very hard. So she guessed that Su Bei must have been no match for her.

So when Baizen proposed to dance yesterday, she agreed without hesitation.

“If there is no problem, just get ready to shoot.”

After changing their clothes, Su Huixian and Su Bei held up the embroidered classical umbrellas.

With the drizzle, they slowly walked over from afar.

They were dressed in classical clothes and walked at a brisk pace with the calm expressions. The scene looked like an ink wash painting.

Chapter 122 Can You Help Me

Then, with the sound of the music, Su Huixian began to dance with the music.

Su Huixian danced well. Other people could see that she had some basic skills.

Her dance attracted many people’s attention, and Baizen also hurried to capture the nice moment.

But that was just because Su Bei hadn’t started to dance yet.

She was waiting for a better opportunity. She didn’t start dancing until the music entered a more touching rhythm.

At the beginning, they all danced classical dance. The graceful dance was elegant and touching. They looked like the stamens that fell from trees after the rain.

When Su Bei walked into the rain in the rhythm of music, she and the whole rhythm became one.

When the rhythm was relaxed, the people on the scene also found their peace. Everyone held their breath and appreciated the mysterious and elegant dance from the East.

When the music quickened, she merged the eastern style and western style into one. Everyone's eyes followed her figure.

When Su Bei started to dance, the camera and most people's eyes fell on her.

Standing together, Qiu Minxuan and Du Luo looked at the dancing floor. They were wearing cheongsam like clothes, and danced in the rain. It was a hard work. But both of them had a good performance.

Of course, Qiu Minxuan and Du Luo thought that Su Huixian performed better.

Obviously their comments were the purely subjective comments.

Because they were more familiar with Su Huixian and liked Su Huixian, so they naturally felt that her performance was far better than that of Su Bei.

Lv Shan also nodded in secret. It was indeed a very correct thing to choose to cooperate with Su Bei. Only when the entertainers were strong could the agent make the most of the resources.

In a twinkling of an eye, she found Lu Heting, who just came in and stood in an inconspicuous corner of the crowd.

His height was not inferior to that of European and American people. Besides, his innate outstanding aura was easy to be found.

Lv Shan could tell that Lu Heting was not an ordinary person and would make some achievements in the future. So she was more careful and didn't want to offend Su Bei.

Standing in the crowd, Lu Heting looked at the dancing Su Bei in the rain and followed her every move.

She was a treasure, giving him countless surprises every time. She did everything so well, making him feel proud.

"Are you Mr. Lu?" A staff walked towards Lu Heting and said, "Manager Fan wants to see you."

Following the staff, Lu Heting walked into an office nearby.

When he entered the door, he saw Fan Yingfang in Jin Xiu's dress sitting in an office chair.

"Mr. Lu, please have a seat." Fan Yingfang gave an implicit smile.

Lu Heting didn't sit down, but said calmly, "Manager Fan, what can I do for you?"

He didn't have any friendship with Fan Yingfang, let alone any cooperation.

Fan Yingfang looked at Lu Heting with an arrogant and charming smile and said, "Mr. Lu, I need a driver in the company. Can you help me?"

When she met with Su Bei that day, she fell in love with Lu Heting. This man was tall and handsome. He was an exceptional young man. It would be a great pity if he stayed with Su Bei.

Chapter 123 It's Hard to Refuse Her Invitation

Hearing that Lu Heting was a driver, Fan Yingfang came up with this idea.

Over the years, she had worked in Jin Xiu. She had been promoted to the position of manager step by step. She was more responsible for Asia's business. She came in contact with many men in Europe and America and realized that those people were not suitable for her.

But Lu Heting, the person who was standing in front of her, was very suitable for her. He had a temperament that could make people feel that as long as he was given a chance, he would be able to accomplish something great.

To be a driver and to be with Su Bei was a waste of talent for him.

A mocking smile appeared on the corner of Lu Heting's mouth. Fan Yingfang's proposal made him feel so ridiculous.

Fan Yingfang said, "Mr. Lu, if you stay here, I can definitely give you a good job and a promising future. If you stay with Su Bei, are you sure you will have a better future?"

She was confident that it was hard for Lu Heting to refuse her invitation. This man would never be willing to be a common driver.

"I'm sorry. I think everything is fine now." A hint of coldness flashed across Lu Heting's eyes.

Fan Yingfang was a little embarrassed and angry when she was refused directly by Lu Heting. "Lu Heting, I have the final say on the chosen representative of Jin Xiu. My actions will determine Su Huixian's and Su Bei's fate. You don't have to promise me, but you have to think about whether Su Bei can keep her job."

Lu Heting looked at Fan Yingfang and asked, "Is this your working attitude? This really makes me confused. With a manager like you, Jin Xiu can still get where it is."

Fan Yingfang's heart skipped a beat.

Lu Heting's words reminded her that her professional life was built on her own efforts.

She had worked so hard in a foreign country until today.

But this time, she had gone too far step by step since she had agreed on Su Huixian in advance.

But then she smiled and said, "I can make decisions on Asian business. I don't like Su Bei at all. If I change her, many people can replace her. I can verify it now."

She had followed the rules all these years, but if she couldn't even control a common staff like Su Bei and a common driver, her position of power would be in name only.

Perhaps she was facing people from S Country, so she lost her usual vigilance and deliberately wanted to use her power to seek private interests for herself.

And once the door of greed was opened, it could never be closed again.

"It turns out that Manager Fan thinks that we don't need so much respect since we came from Asia. You think you don't even need to abide by the spirit of contract, right? Manager Fan, you're also from S Country. Why do you look down upon your fellow citizens?"

There was a sneer in Lu Heting's voice.

This made Fan Yingfang even more embarrassed. She needed to be careful in front of noble people, but she didn't need to be discreet in front of Lu Heting.

She suddenly stood up, and walked out of the office and walked towards the filming site.

After she talked with Baizen for a while, she called several beautiful female models from S Country to replace Su Bei.

As soon as Su Bei finished the dance, her face was covered with a thin layer of sweat. Before she could react, her position was replaced. The other model put on Jin Xiu's clothes and appeared at the position where she had stood just now.

Chapter 124 Su Bei, You Are Fired

At the same time, Fan Yingfang stood in front of her and said loudly in English, "Su Bei, you are fired."

"Manager Fan, what has Su Bei done? Why did you make this decision all of a sudden?" Lv Shan strode forward.

Fan Yingfang said coldly, "We have given her a chance, but she is not suitable and doesn't perform well, right?"

Lv Shan argued with her, but Fan Yingfang ignored Lv Shan.

Fan Yingfang's evaluation of Su Bei's performance was biased.

Seeing all this, Su Huixian couldn't help feeling happy. Fan Yingfang had been helping her all the time, but it seemed that it was also because of the performance of Su Bei. Su Bei really didn't meet the requirements of Jin Xiu, so Su Bei was unlucky.

She had just heard the praises from the staff around her. They must compliment her on her performance!

Su Huixian got ready and went to shoot with other models.

The staff came forward and asked Lv Shan and Su Bei to leave together.

"Su Bei." Lu Heting strode to Su Bei. He protected her and took her away from the scene.

Lv Shan was furious. "What's wrong with Fan Yingfang? I can't see any problem with the contract and everything is fine. How could she make such a decision?"

She had seen with her own eyes that there was nothing wrong with Su Bei's performance. Baizen and the staff had been constantly praising Su Bei. It was obvious that most of the praises were for Su Bei.

Lv Shan couldn't find the reason, so she had to go back to the hotel with Su Bei and Lu Heting.

"I'm going to talk to her." Lv Shan picked up her phone and went back to her room.

Su Bei was also very frustrated. She didn't do anything wrong, and she believed that her performance was not bad. But Fan Yingfang suddenly made such a decision.

“Lu Heting, do you know what happened?” Su Bei asked. She had been shooting all the time and didn’t care much about Fan Yingfang.

“Fan Yingfang asked me to drive the car for her. Otherwise, you will be disqualified from being the chosen representative,” said Lu Heting, raising his eyebrows slightly.

Su Bei was frowning slightly. “She has gone too far! How could she do this! Although you are handsome and capable, she can’t threaten you to stay with her in this way. Besides, you are married. You are my husband. She knows that.”

Su Bei was angry. Her head was full of the fact that Lu Heting was her husband, and Fan Yingfang couldn’t meddle in her love life to destroy her marriage!

Seeing that she was a little jealous, Lu Heting was in a good mood. He asked in a low voice, “You don’t want me to leave?”

“Of course! You are a human, not an item. She can’t do anything she wants with you!”

“I won’t go. I refused her. I’m yours, right?” Lu Heting looked down at her seriously.

Su Bei heaved a great sigh of relief. As soon as she looked up, she saw the deep and dark vortex in the eyes of Lu Heting.

His tone was low, and unhurried, with an irresistible affection.

Su Bei was slightly surprised, and her heart skipped a beat because of his eyes.

Didn’t he say that it was the same for him to decide whom to marry? There was no essential difference between her and other women.

Only then did Su Bei feel relieved to let him and Gun Gun move in with her. But the affection in his eyes now made Su Bei a little uncomfortable.

Chapter 125 Are You Short of Money

‘Lu Heting, stop showing off your charm!’

Su Bei calmed herself down and said, “So she revoked my qualification as Jin Xiu’s brand ambassador because you rejected her?”

“I’m sorry for causing trouble to your work,” Lu Heting said in a low voice.

“It’s okay. I’ve signed a contract with Jin Xiu. Fan Yingfang can’t break it. She can’t possibly control things as she wishes. If she does, she is liable for breach of contract,” Su Bei said while looking for her copy of the contract.

Lu Heting helped her take out the contract, and they read it together.

The contract was in English, and the contents were full of various technical terms. Although Su Bei had stayed in the United States for a few years, it was still a little difficult for her to fully understand it.

On the other hand, Lu Heting read it smoothly and naturally.

When he raised his head and looked at her, he saw the surprised look on her face. He smiled and said, "I often go to Europe and the United States with Mr. Weijian. Sometimes I have to help him deal with things, so I am familiar with the language and some technical terms."

"Lu Heting, you're amazing!" Su Bei stood up to make coffee for Lu Heting. But she would glance at him sideways from time to time. She found that he was focused and earnest while reading the document.

No wonder she always felt that he wasn't just a driver. Before, she thought that his temperament was only cultivated by Lu Group.

But now, it seemed that it was entirely because of his own ability to deal with a lot of things.

Hearing Su Bei's praise, the corners of Lu Heting's mouth slightly curved up, and his eyes brightened.

Su Bei brought the cup of coffee to him and said, "Heting, here's your coffee."

Holding the thick contract in his hands, Lu Heting didn't take the cup of coffee. If he did, she would sit across from him to read the other contract after giving him coffee.

However, now she sat next to him, leaned over, and read the contract in his hand. Her hair would occasionally fall down and gently brush his face.

Lu Heting could feel that Su Bei had always been avoiding him. Perhaps five years ago, he was too arbitrary to get the marriage certificate. So she had to accept the role of his wife at the age of eighteen.

Maybe it was because of Gun Gun's existence that she always had some misgivings about their marriage.

So he tried his best to protect her. He didn't want her to feel insecure and leave him without thinking twice.

Since Lu Heting didn't take the cup of coffee, Su Bei had to hold it.

"Su Bei..." He motioned to her that he wanted to drink the coffee.

Su Bei hurried forward and brought the cup to his mouth.

Lu Heting took a sip. It was just the instant coffee in the hotel, but he felt like it was the best coffee he had ever tasted. He smiled satisfyingly.

Seeing that he was busy, Su Bei had to hold the cup of coffee and let him take a sip from time to time.

After drinking up the coffee, Lu Heting also finished reading the contract. He then said, "As the contract states, you are one of Jin Xiu's brand ambassadors this year. Now that Fan Yingfang has replaced you for no reason, the company needs to pay you twice your talent fee as liquidated damages."

"That's great then! Twice! Then I'd rather have her revoke my job and get the money than continue with the endorsement." Su Bei calculated it. If she was fine and healthy, of course, she would choose to be one of Jin Xiu's brand ambassadors. After all, it was a good chance for her to have a promising future.

But because of her illness, money was more important to her now.

Lu Heting looked at her slowly. "Are you short of money?"

Chapter 126 It Can Make a Woman Fall for Him

Lu Heting noticed that Su Bei cared about money so much and even spent it very carefully. She had a car and a house. And her personal expenses were not that high. She wasn't short of money.

But she seemed to be very persistent in making more money.

"Ha-ha! It's because I have to earn more to raise my little bun," Su Bei said casually. Da Bao was still a small boy. She thought that she should at least leave him a sum of money enough for his college education.

Otherwise, when she died, he wouldn't be able to go to school. She could imagine how hard it would be for him.

Thinking that she was referring to Gun Gun, Lu Heting felt guilty. Gun Gun had nothing to do with her, but she was working hard to raise him.

She herself was just a child who had just grown up. But she had to shoulder the burden of raising a child for himself.

He reached out his hand and stroked Su Bei's hair gently. "Don't worry. I will work hard to earn money. I won't let my son suffer with me, and I won't let you suffer either."

Tempted by his gesture, Su Bei couldn't help saying, "Lu Heting, don't be too nice to me. Don't you know that it can make people fall for you? No wonder Gun Gun's mother liked you so much that she wanted to get pregnant with your child."

Her words made Lu Heting's hand freeze. He then whispered in an aggrieved tone, "I've never touched even a single strand of other women's hair."

Su Bei smiled brightly. "Even if you don't touch other women's hair, they still fall for you. How much more if you touch it?"

"Well, that makes sense," Lu Heting agreed with a nod. It turned out that touching a woman's hair could make a woman fall for him.

So, would Su Bei also fall for him?

While Lu Heting was still thinking about this question, Su Bei had already turned her attention back to the contract just now. "Fan Yingfang has total control of the business in Asia. So even if she fires me for no reason, we can't fight against her. If we file a lawsuit and ask her to compensate, I'm afraid that we may not be able to win in the case even if we stay here for half a year."

It had to be said that Fan Yingfang also thought this way. A small-time model like Su Bei and a mere driver like Lu Heting were not enough to shake or affect her position.

She knew this, so she thought she had more control over the situation.

"No. Directly send a copy of the contract and the lawyer's letter to the legal department of their company and let them deal with it by themselves. We will stay out of this. I believe that Jin Xiu won't ignore any employees who abuse their power.” Lu Heting didn’t even need to act against Fan Yingfang by himself.

He asked Lv Shan to come over and handed her the copy of the contract and the printed lawyer’s letter. “Send these directly to the legal department of Jin Xiu. Also, go and see what Director Baizen has said about this.”

His tone was calm and authoritative. It was as if he was a boss giving orders to his subordinates.

Lv Shan didn’t refute at all. She took the documents and said, “Okay.”

She only came to her senses when she walked out of the room. She realized that as a professional agent, she was ordered by Lu Heting, who was an outsider.

Just now, he spoke so naturally that she didn’t even notice that something seemed wrong.

After sending the documents to Jin Xiu, Lv Shan came back and told Lu Heting and Su Bei, “Director Baizen is very dissatisfied with Su Bei’s replacement. He has been suppressing his dissatisfaction to the extreme. So he has used his own means to report the situation to the senior executives of Jin Xiu.”

“The lawyer’s letter from us and Baizen’s objection will work together to alert them. Su Bei and I will hang out in the city these two days. Lv Shan, let us know if anything happens.”

Chapter 127 Ask Su Bei to Come back

“I will,” Lv Shan replied.

Being commanded by Lu Heting again, she could only sigh helplessly. He was not her boss, but she didn’t know why she couldn’t resist him.

But it wasn’t really a big deal. Anyway, she just wanted to make money and live a happy life. If he could deal with most of the work for Su Bei, it actually lessened her burden. Why bother to think too much?

Before the matter was settled, Lu Heting and Su Bei wandered around the city.

“Have you lived here before?” Lu Heting asked.

“Yes. When I came to the United States the first time, I basically lived here most of the time.” Su Bei was very familiar with this place, and she was so happy to be back. “I have many friends who live here. But I don’t have time to meet them this time, so I’ll come to see them next time.”

“Then you can be my tour guide. I want to go to the places you’ve been to.”

For five years, Lu Heting had been trying to forget Su Bei all the time. But at the same time, he had engraved her figure deeply in his mind.

And now, he wanted to go to all the places she had been to. He wanted to make up for the lost times in the past five years.

Su Bei was very happy with his suggestion. “Okay, let’s go. It’s my treat!”

Two days later.

Su Bei received a message from Lv Shan saying that Jin Xiu asked her to go back to the shooting location. That day, an executive from the company even came to the hotel to personally invite her.

Indeed, the lawyer's letter from Lu Heting and Baizen's strong opposition had worked.

Jin Xiu had even arranged for the senior executives to come to the shooting location and watch the commercial shoot.

Although the models who were supposed to replace Su Bei were also Asians, they grew up in the United States and had a modern temperament and style. It was not bad. But when they put on Jin Xiu's clothes, they couldn't effectively show the style and profound connotation.

Especially in the dancing part. Their modern dance was good. But when they did the classical dance and the combination of classical and modern dances, their performance was considerably inferior to Su Bei's.

At the shooting location, Baizen kept shouting, "Cut!" The models repeated their performance over and over again. They felt that it was too embarrassing.

The senior executives were very much disappointed when they saw the scene.

Baizen took the opportunity to show the video of Su Bei's dance performance to the senior executives. After watching it, they immediately made a decision. "Ask Su Bei to come back!"

On the day that Su Bei and Lv Shan reappeared at the shooting location, Fan Yingfang had driven to the hotel to personally pick them up.

The pressure from the senior executives and the scenes she saw on the shooting site these two days made her feel uncomfortable.

Actually, even if the senior executives didn't put pressure on her, she still couldn't withstand the pressure from all of the staff. During the shooting, they kept on shaking their heads and sighing. So she had to ask Su Bei to come back.

She had thought that the brand ambassador's job was so easy that any models could do it. That was why she replaced Su Bei without thinking twice.

But she didn't expect that everything would go wrong after she changed a brand ambassador.

"Su Bei," Fan Yingfang greeted Su Bei with a bitter smile on her face.

Su Bei smiled. "Manager Fan, I will finish my work well. I hope you can also do the same," she said before getting into her car.

"Of course!" Fan Yingfang responded.

She sent Su Bei to the shooting site and walked in with her personally.

In the next few days, everything went on smoothly. Su Bei successfully finished filming the commercial video.

Su Bei and Lv Shan still boarded Lu Heting's chartered plane to go back home.

But before boarding, Lv Shan came to Su Bei and said, "Fan Yingfang has resigned from Jin Xiu."

Chapter 128 A Serious Dilution

Lu Heting and Su Bei were not surprised to hear the news at all.

In such a big company like Jin Xiu, a fierce competition was inevitable.

This time, Fan Yingfang had preordained someone to be a brand ambassador and replaced the other one for no reason. Her competitors in the company would definitely seize the opportunity to make an issue and put pressure on her, so she would be forced to quit her job.

In the eyes of the outsiders, she resigned. But actually, the senior executives might have dismissed her internally.

Fan Yingfang thought that Lu Heting and Su Bei were easy to deal with. However, she had underestimated them.

Lv Shan was now convinced that Lu Heting and Su Bei were really capable. She said with a smile, "The commercial video was released this morning. And the statistics have also come out. The clothes that Su Bei wore have become very popular. I heard that they had already presold around thirty thousand sets."

Those clothes were extremely expensive. If Jin Xiu could sell thirty thousand sets, its sales volume would hit an arresting figure.

Su Bei took out her laptop and watched the commercial video that was shot by Baizen.

The print ads were published in magazines, and the commercial video was broadcasted on the Internet and all TV stations.

Su Bei was very eye-catching in the video. No matter what she wore, she showed more of the culture of the brand than Su Huixian.

Her eyes were full of stories to tell. Her dance moves had emotions that affected people's moods. Baizen was very good at catching her eyes and movements in close-up shots.

In the thirty-second commercial video, both Su Bei and Su Huixian had around fifteen seconds to express themselves. Su Bei's part was full-frontal. In such a short time, she was able to tell a vivid story from ancient to modern times.

Su Huixian's part was a bit underwhelming. Indeed, it was beautiful. But she looked like a beautiful body without a soul.

"Have a rest first. It's still a long way." Lu Heting took the laptop from Su Bei's hand and put it away.

In the past few days of shooting, she worked very hard. Besides, Fan Yingfang had made waves, so it was inevitable for her to feel exhausted.

"Okay." Su Bei put on the sleep mask and lay on the spacious bed of the private plane.

Seeing the scene, Lv Shan wisely chose to lie down far away from them.

Lu Heting did not sleep. Instead, he sat next to Su Bei and dealt with some company matters.

He raised his eyes from time to time to look at her. Seeing her and feeling her presence made him feel relaxed.

She fell asleep quickly. Her long hair covered her face, revealing only her full red lips.

Lu Heting stared at her face in a daze. When he came to his senses, he was already standing very close to her.

Su Bei was so attractive, attracting him like a whirlpool.

He lowered his eyes and looked at her lips, unable to restrain himself from getting closer to her.

In her sleep, Su Bei dreamed that she was going home to Da Bao. When she felt that someone was approaching, she got so excited and whispered, "Da Bao..."

Before Lu Heting could react, her slender arms clung to his neck. Then she hugged him, and gave him a big kiss.

Then she turned to the other side with her back to him.

Being kissed by Su Bei, Lu Heting should have been very happy. After all, this was something he had been looking forward to for a long time.

However, the name she had called out just now was a serious dilution to his excitement.

Da Bao? It sounded like a boy's name or a nickname.

Had she fallen in love with someone else?

Chapter 129 Morose

Gloom was written all over Lu Heting's face. Thinking of how Su Bei's red lips approached him just now, a thick layer of coldness shrouded his eyes.

Who was Da Bao?

He returned to his seat, turned on his laptop, and looked up Su Bei's personal information.

In the past five years, he had restrained himself from looking for her because he was deeply hurt by the divorce agreement. The wound in his heart only slowly healed after she came back.

Thus, he knew nothing about what happened to her in the past five years.

He traced her history in the past five years. But just like the last time, he could only find some public information about her, such as her working experiences as a model. He couldn't find any personal information about her.

Lu Heting turned off his laptop and rubbed his glabella.

Thinking that she liked someone else made his heart want to explode. His emotion shattered, and this time, he felt like his wound couldn't be healed.

Su Bei slept soundly all throughout the flight. She only opened her eyes slowly when the plane landed in Jingdu City.

Finally, she was back. It felt so good. She yawned and stretched her body.

After saying goodbye to Lv Shan, she happily got into the car with Lu Heting.

She was so excited to see Gun Gun and Da Bao.

But Lu Heting's aura was a bit morose and reticent. It seemed that his whole being was wrapped with dark clouds, shrouded by a layer of mist.

Su Bei was too excited to notice that something was wrong with him. She was just fiddling with the gifts in her hands.

When they arrived at home, and she opened the door, Gun Gun rushed out directly. He hugged her thighs and said, "My lovely Bei Bei, you're finally back! I miss you so much!"

"I miss you too! So I've bought a lot of gifts for you." She hugged him and kissed him on the cheek.

Lu Heting just stood aside. And Gun Gun didn't seem to notice him at all. Gun Gun jumped on Su Bei and wanted to hug her.

"I've bought a super invincible RC car for you," Su Bei said as she handed a box to Gun Gun.

Gun Gun's eyes lit up at once. Although he already had all kinds of RC cars, the one from Su Bei was totally different. It was the best!

"My lovely Bei Bei, you are so nice. You are the best cutie in the world!"

Su Bei turned to Aunt Chen and handed her a gift. "Aunt Chen, this is for you. Thank you for taking care of Gun Gun."

"I'm only doing my job. How can I accept your gift?" Aunt Chen was terrified. She didn't dare to accept the gift that Su Bei gave her.

But when she saw that Lu Heting nodded his head slowly, she took it.

"Thank you so much, Miss Su."

It was only then that Gun Gun realized that Lu Heting had been standing there, and his aura seemed strange.

Although Lu Heting was always serious, he looked a bit different today.

"Daddy!" A soft and cute smile appeared on Gun Gun's round face.

Infected by this smile, Lu Heting also smiled.

But since he was still thinking of the man in Su Bei's heart, his smile was forced, and his aura was gloomy.

"Bei Bei, what's wrong with Dad?" Gun Gun asked Su Bei in confusion.

Su Bei glanced at Lu Heting and found that he was indeed particularly dull today. He didn't speak at all, but an invisible pressure coming from him had made people uncomfortable.

So she asked anxiously, "Heting, is something wrong? Are you very tired these past few days?"

Chapter 130 Everyone Had a Sad Face

"I'm fine," Lu Heting said in a low voice. But obviously, he didn't look well.

Of course, he was not okay!

His heart was crashing and churning like a giant wave was surging inside.

Su Bei knew that something was wrong, so she asked softly, "Do you want to eat something first and have a rest?"

"No, thanks. I have something to deal with in the company, so I'll leave now." Lu Heting rejected her kindness. He then turned around and went out.

There was a deep solitude over his tall back.

Su Bei didn't understand what was going on. He was fine when they boarded the plane.

She slept during the entire flight. Did something happen in such a short time?

If something happened, it must have something to do with the company.

Maybe he was in a bad mood because Lu Weijian asked him to work as soon as he came back from the United States.

Su Bei understood him. No one would feel happy to work overtime after a long trip.

"Your daddy has to work overtime, so he must be very tired. Let's cook something delicious for him, okay?" Su Bei said softly, gently stroking Gun Gun's head.

"Okay," Gun Gun replied happily, blinking his big eyes. Anything he did with Su Bei made him happy and brightened up his mood.

Su Bei then called Da Bao. The little boy's voice was cold as ever. "I'm doing what I like to do, Xiao Bei. Don't worry about me."

"I'll see you tomorrow then. I've bought the latest computer software for you. The one you've always wanted."

"Okay. Thank you, Xiao Bei," Da Bao replied while killing one of his opponents in the computer game.

KO!

The sound of victory was heard from the computer.

On the other side, Lu Weijian wailed. What bad luck was in him during this period? First, the financial system of the company had been attacked by a master hacker. And now, he only wanted to play games, but he always met a strong opponent and lost in the games.

While he was whining, his assistant trotted over and said, "Mr. Weijian, your brother is back!"

"He's back?" Lu Weijian abruptly stood up and turned off his computer.

“Yes, he is back. But he looks very glum. As soon as he came back, he checked everything. And now, everyone in the company is trembling in fear. They’re all scared that Mr. Lu would find something wrong in their work and get angry.”

Lu Weijian coughed lightly and walked out of his office.

Sure enough, the whole company was already filled with grief. Everyone had a sad face.

Lu Heting was checking their work. Indeed, it was a big deal.

Everyone knew that he was always focused on details. He had high standards because he strived for perfection. His eyes were so sharp that he could easily point out mistakes. Every time he wanted to check their work, they all rattled.

Besides, his gloomy face brought terror to their hearts.

Seeing Lu Weijian come out, everyone looked at him as if they were asking for help. “Mr. Weijian...”

But Lu Weijian also looked helpless. Of course, he was afraid of his brother too. He wouldn’t dare to go to Lu Heting and make trouble unless he was fully aware of what had really happened.

He looked through the crowd. Then he saw that Lu Heting was sitting in his office. The people in front of him were all the company’s middle and high-level employees.

Someone handed a project plan to Lu Heting. He just glanced at it and said coldly, “Based on your plan, this building will be demolished three years after it is built. Are you sure there are no safety hazards in your plan? Give me a new plan in an hour!”
