Chapter 251 Slander

Olivia secretly took a deep breath. He really scared me to death.

Meanwhile, George scanned Eugene with his eyes. Although he hadn't noticed the affection Eugene had for, he still had the instinct of a man. Therefore, he could feel that the man didn't behave in an ordinary manner, especially toward Olivia!

“Eugene, I'm begging you. Please let my daughter go. She is already seriously injured. If you don't give her any anesthesia, the pain will kill her!”

Before Eugene could open his mouth, Olivia quickly refuted, “Stop accusing us for nothing. You're only saying what you want to say. Comrade, does this count as slandering?!”

The policeman nodded his head and answered, “Yes, it does. If she can't provide any relevant proof, it counts as slandering.”

Then, Eugene turned his attention toward a reporter and spoke in a threatening tone, “Which paper do you belong to?”

All of the reporters panicked. Olivia Maxwell Studio is being backed by Eugene Nolan? If that's the case, not only will we lose our jobs, but even our newspaper won't be able to operate for long!

Therefore, they immediately kept their cameras away and explained, “We weren’t able to understand the truth behind the matter. Looks like it’s just a misunderstanding. We’ll leave now.”

Upon looking at the group of reporters, Eugene said calmly, “I don’t hope to see any articles about Olivia Maxwell tomorrow!”

“President Nolan, you can be rest assured!”

After that, the reporters left the studio in a hurry.

At that moment, the policeman turned toward Amy. “If you want to settle this, you can choose to report or make a case. Not only are you unable to resolve the issue by shouting here, but you are also affecting other people’s business! If she feels upset about this and decides to sue you for slander, it’ll be bad for you, right?”

Amy replied aggrievedly, “Don’t you think you have to be fair toward us taxpayers? How can you be so partial?”

The policeman’s face darkened. “Who are we being partial toward? Why are you still talking nonsense? Didn’t I tell you to report or make a case if you want to settle this? What’s the point of causing trouble at the entrance of someone’s shop? Or do you want me to bring all of you to the police station for further questioning?”

Instantly, Amy was rendered speechless. How can I make a case? Should I say that Olivia beat my daughter up because Anna kidnapped her son?

Then, Henry went up to her. “Comrades, we understand. We’ll leave now.” He then spoke to Amy, “Let’s go. Don’t you think this is embarrassing enough?”

Finally, the commotion ended after she was reluctantly dragged away from the studio by Henry.

After that, Eugene's eyes landed on Olivia again. He didn't want to express his affection for her in an obsessive manner, but after a while, he couldn't move his eyes.

At the same time, she was left speechless. If he looks at me any longer, my senior will learn of our relationship. Therefore, she said in a hurry, "Thank you for your help earlier, Mr. Nolan."

He finally reverted his eyes and spoke faintly, "It's fine; I didn't do much either. I came here to ask you for some clothing design for my old man to wear. It's for his birthday, which will be in a few days' time. I hope that you can find some time to personally head to the house and measure his size because he is at a senior age."

Olivia secretly glanced at him. He probably thought of this excuse from the start, right? "I'm alright with that. I'll find the time that suits your grandpa to head over and take his measurements."

Eugene nodded in agreement. "Alright, you can wait for my call. I'll call you once I have sorted out the time!"

She replied, "Okay!"

He remained silent. There really is nothing else to say. Hence, he said, "You can continue with your work. If you have any trouble, please call me for help."

"I will. Thank you, Mr. Nolan."

She is calling me Mr. Nolan again. He gritted his teeth angrily before silently squinting his eyes at the little woman. "I'll leave now."

"Alright, I'll send you off," she responded..

Eugene actually left in the end. Although he was reluctant to leave, he promised the little woman that he would remain hidden for ten days, so he couldn't break his promise. If he wasn't informed in secret that someone was causing trouble in her studio, he wouldn't have showed up. Before arriving, he even thought of an excuse to justify his arrival.

Chapter 252 Does He Like You?

However, I'm not the one whom Amy accused of preventing Anna from receiving painkillers. Could it be Bring

Just when Olivia returned, she immediately received a WhatsApp message from Eugene. 'Girlfriend, how is my performance?'

She couldn't resist the smile on her face, but she was afraid that her senior would have noticed it, so she suppressed it. Then, she replied with one word. 'Great!'

Instantly, he wrote his reply. 'Are there any rewards?'

She couldn't help but twitch the corners of her lips. I just can't deal with this man.

Then, she placed her phone in her pocket and casually returned.

The moment she returned to the lobby, George asked, "Who is Eugene? Does he like you?"

She was immediately surprised as she spoke in shock, "S-Stop talking nonsense. Why would he like me?"

He glanced at her. "Why are you so nervous if he doesn't like you?"

By that moment, Olivia had already calmed herself down. "Why can't I be nervous? He just left, so I'm worried that he might hear you. I'm afraid that he may think that I have some feelings for him."

George seemed to lower his guard as he mocked her. "What's wrong with having feelings for him? Isn't Olivia worthy of him?"

She replied to him in a hurry, “He is the richest man in Summer City as well as the leader of a huge family, so how could he like me, especially when I have a child?”

“That’s because he can’t see the good in you,” he commented.

She was left speechless.

Then, he looked at her and asked, “You are the one who prevented Anna from receiving painkillers, right?”

Immediately, her face darkened. “At that time, I couldn’t bear to look at the wounds on my child, so I wanted her to have a taste of her own medicine. I will only feel better if she feels the same pain as he did!”

He casually smiled. “I can understand. The genius Doctor Bailey didn’t earn her name from nothing. Sadly, it was your Mr. Nolan who became your scapegoat!”

Olivia sighed. “I think I’ll call Director Russell tomorrow and ask him to give her the painkillers!”

“You can’t bear with it?” George asked.

After a moment of silence, her voice was so soft that it felt like a thin paper that could be torn into pieces with a mere gust of wind! “I want to... save the hassle.”

He shook his head helplessly. Olivia has always spoken harshly, but she has a soft heart!

The next day, when the doctors were about to conduct the surgery on Anna, she actually thought that they would do it immediately without giving her anesthesia. After a struggle, she even scratched the anesthesiologist.

Surprisingly, the doctors gave her anesthesia and even provided her with some painkillers after the surgery.

Meanwhile, Amy was very pleased with herself. How about it? The trouble that I caused worked rather well! Olivia is also afraid of being attacked by the public. Even though she doesn't want to admit it, she is actually scared on the inside. In the end, we receive the medicine.

After bragging to Henry, she went to show off to Anna.

Anna suddenly became more sensible and well-behaved. "Mom, luckily I have you this time; otherwise, I can't imagine how painful it will be to endure the surgery without any anesthetics!"

"You are my daughter. Who else should I care for? As for your dad, he is still useless as ever. Yesterday, he even tried to help Olivia and leave the place immediately. It was me who called the reporters to pressure her; otherwise, do you think she would be kind to let you go?"

Just when the mother and daughter were pleased with themselves, the door to the ward was pushed open before two doctors dressed in white coats entered. Without any explanation, the

Amy hurriedly chased after the doctors. "Hey! What's wrong with my daughter's mental state?"

However, the two doctors completely ignored her and pushed Anna into a room. Then, they slammed the door to the ward shut.

Amy had no other choice but to wait outside the door.

After an hour, the doctor pushed Anna out, but this time, she was much quieter as she lay on the hospital bed.

Amy was confused. “Doctor, what’s wrong with her?”

The doctor answered her indifferently, “Your daughter has a serious case of persecutory delusion and mania. Both of these are a kind of mental illness.”

Upon listening to him, she was shocked. “You are talking nonsense. My daughter is fine.”

The doctor refuted her coldly, “Today, she injured two of our doctors during surgery. Earlier, I gave her a mental test and I can confirm that she is suffering from mental illness, so we’ll be transferring her to Trinity Hospital.”

After that, he handed Anna over to two different doctors immediately.

Amy quickly chased after them. “Doctor, where are you bringing my daughter to? It’s impossible for her to suffer from any mental illness. She was still fine earlier. Doctor...”

For the current trip, George came for a visit in a hurry and he didn’t bring much with him, so Olivia brought him to a mall.

Today, North was on holiday, so the three of them went to the mall together.

The two adults looked dashing whereas the little boy was adorable. Inexplicably, they gave others the sense that they were a family of three.

However, as the host, she tried her best to help George to choose his clothes.

“George, let me choose a slightly thicker coat for you. The weather in Summer City has been a bit cold lately and what you’re wearing isn’t enough.”

In the meantime, he held the little boy’s hand as he casually said, “Fine. You can choose yourself. Besides, most of my clothes were bought by you. I can’t even be sure what size I wear anymore.”

Olivia talked to him while walking, “You should have told me sooner that you are arriving. I could have used my spare time to design some clothes for you.”

“Don’t waste your time. All of your designs are expensive. I will feel bad if it gets dirty after wearing it!” he said.

She pouted her lips. “Yet it didn’t stop you from wearing it. You’ve been wearing that suit I designed for you each time.”

George chuckled. “I’m helping you to promote your designs. Didn’t you notice that I only wear it on important occasions? When they ask me where I bought the suit from, I will say…” At that point, he paused on purpose and looked at her before smiling. “I’ll say that I won’t tell them!”

She suddenly laughed. “Do you call that helping me to promote my designs?”

He explained, “It’s pointless to tell a man. It’s always the woman who comes to buy clothes—like you, so if a woman asks, I will still tell her!”

She was rendered speechless. “Enough!”

Then, North raised his eyes and glanced at George before asking him sincerely, “Then, who bought your clothes before you met Mommy?”

For a moment, George was startled before answering, “My mommy!”

North was disgusted, saying, “Even as an adult, you still need your mommy to buy clothes for you?”

George defended himself. “What’s wrong with that? No matter how old I am, I will always be my mommy’s son!”

The three of them talked and laughed, but two women were staring at them closely not too far away.

“Nicole, look over there. Isn’t that Olivia?”

Actually, Nicole had already noticed Olivia from the start, but she knew that a situation like that was more suitable for the hot-tempered Aleena.

Therefore, she remained silent and deliberately guided Aleena to look toward Olivia’s direction.

She had also fancied Eugene, but somehow was unable to be with him. That was why she felt upset when he chose an unpredictable woman like Olivia over her. Then, she spoke calmly, “I think it is. Who is that man beside her? They seem to be pretty close with each other.”y transferred Anna to a hospital bed and pushed her away.

Amy quickly halted them. “Hey, what are you doing?”

The two doctors replied, “We are bringing her for a check!”

However, she felt that something was wrong. “Didn’t she just have an operation? What do you need to check on?”

The two doctors answered her, “We need to check on her mental state. As a family member, you should just wait here!” After that, they pushed Anna away.

Chapter 254 A Married Woman

Aleena furrowed her brows as she was unable to resist the rage growing inside her. “Olivia is really a dishonest person. On one hand, she has Eugene, but flirting with another man on the other hand. Isn't she obviously treating Eugene as a fool?”

“Maybe they are merely friends. Don't be too agitated,” Nicole ‘kindly’ advised her. “Eugene now looks at her very highly, so no matter what you say, he won't believe you.”

As the two of them talked, on the other side, George had tapped Olivia's forehead with his fingers for some reason. Then, she became furious, so he smiled and rubbed her head. The two of them seemed like they were extremely close with each other.

Aleena thought, Isn't this tangible evidence?

Therefore, she walked toward them in anger.

After putting away her phone, Nicole helplessly followed her. She only knows how to lose her temper. Isn't this a good opportunity to leave a piece of evidence behind?

“Olivia Maxwell!”

When Olivia heard the familiar voice, she furrowed her brows and turned in confusion. “Aleena?”

Initially, Aleena gave George a thorough scan as she tried to find any flaws with him, but she realized that the man was quite capable himself. Not only was his handsomeness comparable to Eugene, but even his aura was almost as intimidating as the latter..

However, it did not seem to comfort the imbalance in her heart. Why is Olivia always surrounded by brilliant men?

“Miss Maxwell, is he your child’s father? Are you actually a married woman?”

Olivia frowned her brows impatiently while retorting with a question. “Why are you here?”

Aleena glanced at him before turning her attention toward Olivia. Then, she smiled profoundly. “I came here to meet your husband.”

While others remained silent, North opened his mouth. “Uncle George is not my mommy’s husband!”

She landed her eyes naturally on him and smiled. “So, you are not a family? Then, tell me who your father is.”

At the same time, Olivia’s face darkened as she pushed North behind her to protect him. “Miss Jones, I think you should mind your own business. Don’t you think so?”

Aleena spoke innocently, “I’m just curious. You always have a child alongside you, but the man beside you always changes. After many men, do you think that your kid even knows who his father is?” After that, her eyes glanced casually at George. “I guess that whoever is richer will be the kid’s father, right?”

The moment she finished speaking, she was immediately pulled aside before George asked a question that he held back. “What are you saying?”

She hadn’t expected to be pulled back completely, so she took a long time to stand firm.

After adjusting her clothes, she took two steps forward and glared at Olivia before speaking profoundly, “I’m only reminding you in kindness. Miss Maxwell has a way with men, so don’t be foolish and become her backup man!”

At the same time, Olivia squinted her eyes at her. After taking a few steps forward, she stretched her long arms and immediately strangled Aleena's neck while staring at her with fierce eyes. "What's wrong with you? Why do you need to be hysterical like you are an insane person on a daily basis? Who says that you can criticize me? Aren't you living a happy life now? Have you successfully nailed the man of your dreams? Don't think that you can bully me all you want just because I don't give a damn about it!"

Aleena used all of her strength to struggle in Olivia's hands. "Let me go. If you can do it, why can't I say it? You are not even ashamed of yourself after hooking up with every man you meet!"

Olivia exerted more force through her hands. "Do you wish to die?"

Then, Nicole rushed toward them before hurriedly 'saving' Aleena from her hands.

After being saved, Aleena couldn't stop coughing, so she gently continued to pat her back while explaining to Olivia, "Olivia, don't be mad. She had a drink, so all of those are merely her drunk talk. Please don't take it to heart."

Super Wife's Three Babies chapter 255

Chapter 255 A Fickle Woman

Olivia smiled coldly. "What do you mean that she is drunk? Who else can get her drunk? I've been shopping and having a good time without bothering her, so why is she shouting at me like a mad dog?"

Nicole explained in a hurry, "I can understand. Aleena is in a bad mood today and she might not know what she had just said. Please don't take this to heart. I'll bring her away right now!"

"Crazy!" Olivia fiercely stared at Aleena and also ignored Nicole because in her eyes, they were both the same! She then left with George and North.

While holding Aleena, Nicole scolded her, "What's wrong with you? Are you stupid? Even if Olivia doesn't know martial arts, there is still that man beside her. Aren't you afraid of him hitting you?"

Aleena replied to her in anger, "I just can't stand her flirtatious looks. Why are the two men always surrounding like they are blind? I've already warned that man, but he still stubbornly follows her."

"You really have to give her credit for that. Just look at Eugene. Didn't they just break up a few days ago?" Nicole uttered.

Before she could finish her words, Aleena followed up. "So, she immediately found a substitute? All of them are so f*cking blind," she sneered.

Nicole grumbled, "What are you talking about? I heard that the two of them are back together. Yesterday, someone caused trouble in Olivia's studio and it was Eugene who helped her to take care of it!"

Upon listening to her, Aleena was getting furious. “What? Are you saying that they are back together?”

Nicole was uncertain. “I think so. Even if they are not back together for the moment, I bet that Eugene still plans to reconcile with her; otherwise, why would he help her?”

Aleena was in disbelief. “Do you think Eugene is blind? What good does he see in that fickle woman? Why does he need to reconcile with her?”

Nicole whispered, “Be quiet. We know what kind of a person she is, but Eugene doesn’t.”

Then, Aleena started to be filled with regrets. “We should have taken a picture of them earlier, so that we can send it to Eugene and let him see with his own eyes how his beloved woman has hooked up with other men outside.”

“I’ve taken it for you. I wonder if this picture works,” Nicole said.

Upon listening to her, Aleena’s eyes brightened. “You have it? Let me see the picture.”

After that, Nicole took out her phone and sent the picture to Aleena. “I’ve sent it to you, but I think you shouldn’t send it to Eugene. I feel that he won’t believe you because Olivia already has his heart.”

Aleena responded vaguely, “Let me see it first.” Nicole’s photography skills are quite nice. In the picture, the two of them look so sweet that it’s impossible for anyone not to notice the affection between them.

She continued to flip through the pictures. “If he still won’t believe us after looking at these pictures, then he is really an idiot. A complete idiot.”

However, Nicole sighed. “The player always doesn’t see things clearly like the bystanders. If we can convince him, he may thank us in the future, but if we are not careful, he may not be our friend anymore. Who dares to tell him?”

Meanwhile, Aleena’s eyes were filled with rage. “I dare!”

After that, she instantly sent the pictures to Eugene.

“You—” Nicole said resignedly. “Why did you do it so fast? I’m taking a risk of offending Eugene just to help you, so don’t tell anyone that I was the one who gave you the pictures. I don’t want him to hate me in the end. By then, nothing happens between Eugene and Olivia. Instead, we become the bad guys.”

“Don’t worry, I know that you are just trying to help me,” Aleena assured her. “By then, I will say that I took the pictures myself. I don’t believe Eugene won’t feel anything after looking at
