

My Baby's Daddy Chapter 1753

However, she wouldn't agree to it. Lucy couldn't care less about that plot of land, not when her marriage was at stake. She would never let her father agree to the deal, and Louie was someone who cared for nothing but profit, or so she thought. I know him. Everything he does, he does for profit. He only likes Eva for her looks. If she loses that, he won't stay with her anymore.

When it comes to that, he'll never let go of his shares for a woman who has lost the only trait he likes. Maybe he'll agree to the marriage then, and I can finally be his wife, staying with him forever. I might get to enjoy all the perks of marrying him. She looked at his photo once more, the sight of it stoking the flames of desire within her. Just a look at his photo was enough to make her shiver. "I won't let anyone else take you," she muttered.

Most of the guests were already leaving the day after the wedding. The Presgraves were among them. It had been four days since they came to the island, and Jared had school to attend.

Nigel and Queenie sent them off after breakfast. Before they parted ways, Anastasia told Queenie to call if she needed anything. Anastasia was a mother of two. She knew how to handle most problems that would arise during pregnancy.

"Of course, Anastasia," Queenie said gently. "We're a family now. You and Nigel should come and visit us when you have time."

girl even kissed him, much to his delight. "Oh, we'll visit you a lot," he said. He then looked at Jared. "Woah, Jared's tall now. Bet Nigel's hand and looked at him with anticipation in his yes, huh? Fine, you can take it." Nigel's focus was on his wife play games, but was confident his boy had enough discipline to control hours on days.

to leave as well. They, too, had work to do. After saying their goodbyes, they hopped onto the helicopter and enjoyed and Jessie went with him. Her parents were still on the island, so she had the freedom