

My Baby's Daddy Chapter 1764

"Yeah. Louie's at that age. He should be raising a family by now." Julian smiled. He wanted Louie to get married soon. "I'll try to hold the wedding before Christmas," Louie said swiftly. None of them talked about the Constantines as it would just ruin the mood.

Julian and Jessie took Gilmore Corporation's private jet the next day and flew to their film set. They didn't have time to fool around at work as they had to shoot some crucial scenes. Only about a month was left until the shoot was supposed to wrap up. All the crew members realized that Julian and Jessie's chemistry got a lot better, especially during the romantic scenes. The look in their eyes told a thousand stories. That was how everyone knew that Julian and Jessie were dating in real life.

Jessie messed up a few takes of a scene where she needed to cry while hugging Julian. She thought that it was impossible because every time she hugged him, all she wanted to do was smile. Only delight filled her heart when she was with him, so how could she cry?

just imagine something really bad. Like maybe Julian was stolen by another woman?" Vincent suggested. Jessie shot Julian a look. What? So, you're going work. You're going to ruin my relationship at this rate. Oh, whoops. Vincent quickly smiled. "That got her an onion, even after the scene. No matter how hard she rubbed her eyes, they still felt tingly. Well, guess I have to take her to the waiting room and give fun, especially the couple. One week went by before anyone realized it. Jessie was particularly sore after the shooting rubbing the salve all over her, but she wasn't about to use a stunt double. When Julian was done rubbing the salve on her, Jessie turned around and was met with a gaze of desire. "You've