

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 262I

Chapter 262I

At 4:30 in the morning, Lilly came out of the room with Siena.

They were going to the beach to watch the sunrise. Before the two of them fell asleep last night, they decided not to wake up others. After all, it was too early at this point!

The two came out of the room, Lilly turned on the flashlight function of the mobile phone — after the flashlight was turned on, there was a ‘pop’ sound in the living room, and the light in the living room was turned on.

Wesley was fully dressed and stood there.

“I was afraid that you two would oversleep, so I was hesitant to wake you up!” Wesley said, carrying a bag, and went out with them.

“Dad, we can go by ourselves. Go back to your room and rest!” Lilly felt sorry for her father. After all, Dad still had to work.

“Haha, I’m resting today. I’ll accompany you to watch the sunrise and then come back to sleep.” Wesley laughed, “Besides, I haven't seen the sunrise for a long, long time. I really want to go and see the sunrise with you and take some beautiful photos for your mother."

Siena saw that Wesley had heavy bags under his eyes, and he looked much more haggard than yesterday, so he knew that he was seriously deprived of sleep.

Siena: "Uncle Wesley, I'm really sorry for disturbing your rest..."

"Siena, you didn't disturb my rest. I often have to work night shifts at work. Actually, I don't need to work night shifts because the current level can actually be very easy, but do you know why I have to work the night shift?" Wesley was not good at lying, but in order to convince Siena that he was really happy to watch the sunrise with them, he could only find ways to make it up.

Siena really believed Wesley's words, and asked very curiously: "Why?"

Lilly also wanted to know the reason: "Dad, you haven't told me this!"

Wesley: "Because this is a small matter. In fact, it's because Dad doesn't sleep well. He's more energetic at night, and it's easier to fall asleep during the day."

Lilly: “Dad, are you sick? Do you want to take medicine?”

”Sleep disorder is not important. I just want to say that I stay up late at night and it really doesn’t affect anything. I can just sleep back in the daytime.” Wesley smiled kindly at Siena, “There’s breakfast inside.”

Lilly brought the bag from her father’s hand, heavy. “Dad, what time did you get up? You even prepared breakfast for us.”

“It was prepared last night. I just heated it up now. Try it later and see how it tastes So.” Wesley took the car keys, changed his shoes at the door, and gently closed the door when he went out.

Siena listened to Wesley’s every move and every word he said.

Siena had never seen such a good father... It should be said that she had never seen such a gentle and good man.

Wesley’s kindness made them feel warm inside; even in the dark, they felt like they could see the light.

“Uncle Wesley, you and Auntie are very good.” Siena said in a low voice, “I now believe that Lilly is really doing well.”

“Siena, in fact, we didn’t do anything for you. You, don’t think too much, just be happy.” After Wesley finished speaking, he drove the car towards the beach.

Now that it was summer, it would be a little cooler at this point.

If they went out during the day, the temperature would be at least ten degrees higher.

Half an hour later, the car stopped at the beach.

Wesley asked the two of them to play without worrying about himself.

Wesley was also young, and he knew that if he followed them, they would definitely feel uncomfortable.

When the sun rose later, he would take a few more pictures of them.

In a few hours, Elliot and Avery walked out of the airport anxiously.

“I really want to go directly to Wesley’s house.” Elliot pondered for a few seconds, then a gleam of light flashed in his deep eyes, and said, “Let’s buy some gifts and take them there, and say we’re going to see Lilly and Maria. Not only does it make sense, but we get to see our daughter!”
