

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2627

Chapter 2627

In most of his life, what kind of troubles had he never seen? But there was nothing to do with Siena.

Too active and aggressive, afraid of scaring Siena.

But staying at home like this, there was no progress.

“Dad, haven’t you slept all day? Look at the red blood in your eyes.” Layla took out a small makeup mirror from her bag and looked at her father, “After dinner, you go and have a good sleep with my mother. The little girl’s mind needs to be handled by a caring big sister like me. You leave this matter to me, and I promise to do it for you.”

Elliot glanced at Layla: “What are you going to do?” How to tell her?”

“I didn’t think about it, I’ll talk about it when I see her! She doesn’t want to recognize us, nothing more than one thing, that is, she thinks we are not good. As long as she knows that we are not what she thinks, she will change her mind.” Layla sat down beside her father, and said her thoughts, “Dad, am I right?”

Elliot nodded, “You’re right. Are you going to find her later?”

Layla: “Wait until the results come out and then look for it! Let me talk to her first. I don’t think you two are very calm. If you two meet her, you may be led by the nose.”

Elliot Pursing his lips, he felt that what her daughter said made sense.

So he looked at Avery for her opinion.

“Okay! Then you go to see her first. But you must not quarrel with her. Even if she doesn’t want to recognize us, don’t speak too fiercely or loudly, and don’t scare her...We can take our time.” Avery confessed.

“I know, I know. Don’t worry about my work.” Layla felt a strong sense of responsibility in her heart.

The important task of touching Haze and letting her return to the family falls on Layla’s shoulders!

She had the responsibility and obligation to help mom and dad share their worries!

The next day, in the morning, the results of the genetic test between Layla and Siena came out.

The identification results showed that the two of them were sisters of the same father and mother.

Layla went to Wesley's house immediately after receiving the notice.

Wesley's house.

Wesley showed the result to Siena.

"Siena, I'm really sorry. I pulled out a piece of your hair the day before yesterday, not for any research, but just for you to have an appraisal with Layla. Layla is your sister."

Wesley apologized to Siena, "The first time I saw you, I realized that you looked a little like Elliot, so I was a little skeptical."

Siena was shocked by the words 'same father, same mother'.

Siena: "Her mother and I are..."

"Your mother is Avery." Wesley answered, "I know you must have a lot of doubts. Your parents have experienced many things in Yonroeville back then. Specifically they will tell you about the situation. Your sister will come soon, she wants to chat with you."

"Layla?" Siena was very strange to Layla, but not to Layla's name strangeness.

Layla's public proposal for marriage last year caused a worldwide sensation.

"Yes. If you don't believe that Avery is your mother, you can do another paternity test." Wesley continued, "Rebecca Jobin is not your mother, and Rebecca Jobin is a very bad woman."

Siena thoughts were completely subverted, her head seemed to have been hit, and it became very heavy.

"Uncle Wesley, my mother-in-law won't lie to me...she won't lie to me." After struggling for a while in pain, Siena felt that the appraisal might be fake.

"Siena, I believe your mother-in-law will not deceive you on purpose. Is it possible that the information she knows is false?" Wesley said softly, "The source of your mother-in-law's information may be from others. Is there a scientific basis for this to be accurate?"
