

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2629

Chapter 2629

"After you were removed, Rebecca Jobin killed my mother's classmate. I didn't know you were their daughter." Layla added, "After they found out the truth, they have been looking for you all over the world. Your real name is Haze."

After Siena heard Layla tell the ins and outs about herself, her heart suddenly became clearer.

"Then what about the case of killing the Jobin family? Who did it?" Siena's only doubt now is this.

"Headed by Kyrie Jobin, there were seven members in their brotherhood. A few died later, and a few remained. After Kyrie Jobin passed away, the remaining few coveted the property of the Jobin family, so the partnership wiped out the Jobin family." Layla said lightly, "Man dies for money and birds die for food. Many people commit crimes for profit."

After Siena knew the reason, she fell silent.

Layla picked up the menu and began to order.

After ordering a few signature dishes, Layla handed her the menu.

"I'm not hungry." Siena pushed the menu back.

"Then do you want something to drink? There is juice. Do you want orange juice, watermelon juice, or sugar cane juice?" Layla glanced at the drink area.

Siena: "Orange juice!"

"Yes." Layla ordered two glasses of orange juice, and then gave the menu to the waiter.

"Let me briefly introduce our father and mother to you!" Layla looked at Siena calmly. "My father is a very successful businessman. He loves work and family very much. My mother used to be a doctor, later in order to take care of the family, so she also went into business. My father is only a woman in this life, and my mother is only a man in this life. The two of them often quarreled in the early days. Because they have very different personalities, they got along well afterward. Let's stop arguing. I haven't seen them quarreling for a long time. Our family is basically warm and harmonious..."

"Let's talk about our elder brother Hayden! He is a genius. He founded Dream Maker Group at the age of 18. He has been living in Bridgedale. So our family has always been parents, and Robert and I live together. Let's talk about Robert again! He is your second brother, a little older than you, now he's going to college, and he's in the same school as Lilly."

After listening to Layla's words, Siena felt that she should say something.

"I know it's a little difficult for you to accept so much information at once. The summer vacation is still long, you can stay in Wesley's house all the time, think carefully. Shea is our aunt, they are not outsiders." Layla said and Siena wanted to say something but before she could say it, Layla continued. "Tomorrow at the latest, my parents should meet with you. I hope you don't refuse at that time. The two of them have been looking for you for more than ten years, and they have spent countless energy... They are the best parents I have ever seen, if you accept them, all of us will make it up to you."

At night, Siena was lying on the bed, and Layla's face and the words she said to Layla kept appearing in her mind.

If what Layla said was true, then she really shouldn't continue to blame Elliot or Avery.

But if she was asked to recognize them now, it would be difficult for her to nod. It would be nice if her mother-in-law was still there.

Foster family.

Hayden and Robert had returned home.

The family sat together and began to discuss how to get Siena home.

"It will be a matter of time before Siena comes back. I met her today and I think she is quite obedient." Layla expressed her opinion.

"Didn't you say she didn't talk much?" Avery asked.

"Although she didn't speak much, I could see it from the expression on her face. I told her the facts and reasoned. She has read the book, so it's impossible to be inseparable?" Layla took a small fork, forked a small piece of watermelon into her mouth.

"I'll go to Wesley's house to pick her up tomorrow morning." Hayden spoke after a moment of silence.

Elliot and Avery: "..."

Siena didn't even agree to recognize them, so Hayden intended to take them by force.
