

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2632

Chapter 2632

Siena blushed embarrassingly.

“Little sister, my parents have been looking for you for more than ten years. Now that the DNA test results are out, you are part of our family. You won’t think about leaving us again, will you?” Robert asked with doubts in his heart.

Robert forced Siena to express her opinion.

“Robert, are you looking for something to talk to? She is already a member of our family, where will she go?” Hayden answered the question.

Those words made Siena’s heartstrings tighten.

This was an opportunity not to give her any other thoughts!

Hayden was worthy of being a big brother; not only was his aura invincible, but every word he said made Siena feel invincible and powerful.

“That’s good! I really don’t want to see my mother sad anymore.” Robert laughed and continued to talk to Siena, “Siena, when you go to our house, you will know that we all love her very much.”

Half an hour later, the car slowly drove into the Foster’s villa.

Siena was there a few days ago.

At that time, Elliot and Avery were on vacation in Bridgedale, and there was no one at home.

At that time, she thought this was Lilly’s home, and she still sighed in her heart that Wesley’s home was so luxurious.

Unexpectedly, Siena came here again so soon. And here, became her home.

Elliot and Avery immediately walked out of the room when they heard the sound.

Today was a beautiful day, sunny and cloudless.

When Siena got out of the car, she saw Elliot and Avery.

The two of them were no longer empty photos on the Internet, but standing in front of her vividly.

Elliot was tall and had an outstanding temperament, his real age could not be seen from his face at all.

And Avery nestled beside him, with a slender and petite figure, a gentle temperament and picturesque features.

The two of them were like a pair made in heaven, they were very well matched, and it could be seen that their relationship was stronger than gold, and no one could separate them.

Because their hands were always holding each other.

“Siena, I’m Avery, and I’m your mother. He’s Elliot, and he’s your father. We’ve been looking for you, but we haven’t been able to find you. I don’t know where you went, and we can’t find you anyway. It’s a good thing you’re back this time, if you don’t come back, we might never find you.”

Avery let go of Elliot’s hand, and held Siena’s hand with both hands, “Let’s go into the house. It’s too hot outside.”

Avery led Siena into the house.

“You change these shoes.” Walking to the door, Avery took Siena’s shoes.

All Siena’s daily necessities had been prepared by Avery’s Security Department.

All were brand new.
