

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2642

Chapter 2642

Didn't Elliot give Hazel a card? She bound the card to her phone, and now she could pay with her phone, but she never had the chance to pay.

When she went out with her parents and elder brother Hayden, Hayden was always the one who paid the bill.

Basically, when Avery took a fancy to something, she picked it up and showed it to Hazel, and Hayden paid for it. If Hayden wasn't with them, Elliot would pay the bill.

Often before Hazel could react, Elliot had already paid the bill. So she didn't know much about the prices of many things.

Now that she was caught off guard when she saw that this dress cost $400,000, she felt like she was going to pass out.

It's just a skirt, how dare the Owner sell it for $400,000?

Although this skirt was inlaid with some shiny jewels, Hazel felt that these jewels were definitely not worth such a high price.

The eldest brother gave her a lot of jewels, and those jewels were all very valuable.

So she could tell what kind of jewelry was worth a little bit.

For example, those with large grams and pure colors would be more valuable.

Many of the jewelry on this skirt were relatively small.

Hazel pulled Layla aside and said in a low voice: "Sister, the dress I saw just now has a price tag of $400,000."

"Well, the new styles in this store are almost at this price." Layla looked calm, "This is a high-end customization, it will be gone after it is sold, and it will not compete with others. So the price is more expensive."

"Oh, so that's it." Hazel probably understood why it was so expensive, but still couldn't accept the price, "Sister, let's go to another store to see! I can accept competing with other people's shirts, there's no need to buy such expensive skirt, just to avoid them."

Layla laughed softly: "The price of this store is not too expensive, and the high-end customization starts from hundreds of thousands. This kind of skirt is mass-produced on the assembly line, and the feeling of wearing it is still different. You will know when you try it on. This kind of high-end custom-made clothes look better.”

“Sister, I really think it’s too expensive.” Hazel was unwilling to try it.

“You just need to get used to it.” Layla showed Hazel her bag, “My bag costs hundreds of thousands. This watch is also... the money is for spending. I’ll buy it for you, you don’t worry about the price.”

Hazel: “Sister, is it so easy for you to make money?”

“It’s not easy to make money. But the experience and contacts accumulated over the years will make it easy. For example, the Tate Industries is very easy for me. When I was young, the company actually went bankrupt. I also experienced many difficulties. After those difficulties have been overcome, it will be much easier now.” Layla explained, “In addition to the Tate Industries, our family also has my father’s company and my brother’s company. The company is more profitable...so it’s trivial to buy you a dress worth hundreds of thousands.”

Layla asked the shop owner to take down the dress for Hazel to try on.

After Hazel put on her skirt, she walked out.

Layla’s eyes lit up immediately.

“I’ll take a photo for my mother.” Layla took out her mobile phone, took two photos of Hazel, and sent them to Avery.

Avery saw the photo and immediately replied: [My daughter is so beautiful!]

“Little sister, what do you think? I think you look very good in this color, and you look very fairy, you look good without makeup... Mom also said that you look beautiful in this dress!” Layla said.

Could a skirt worth $400,000 look good?

Looking at herself in the mirror, Hazel didn’t feel that she was immortal, but felt that she seemed to have matured a lot.

She used to wear school uniforms and cheap goods from roadside stalls, and she had never worn such beautiful clothes.

“If you don’t like it, let’s go to another store tomorrow. There are still many stores to look at!” Layla leaned into her ear and said.

Hazel immediately said: “I think this dress is pretty.”
