Chapter 2646

“Uncle Mike! Uncle Chad!”

Robert saw the two of them getting out of the car, and immediately ran out to greet them.

Mike and Chad knew that Hazel had been found half a month ago.

Originally, they wanted to come and see Hazel as soon as possible, but Avery said that Hazel was not ready yet, so they would not see them first.

So the two of them played outside for a while, and they just came here today.

“I thought we came early enough!” Mike looked at the luxury cars parked in the yard, and sighed, “Did they come here without breakfast?”

Robert laughed: “Did they eat breakfast? I don’t know about breakfast, we haven’t had it yet!”

“I knew, these guys are the most active every time they have something to do!” Mike complained and strode into the living room.

The servant brought out slippers for them.

“Little sister Lilly, this man, He’s Uncle Mike. He brought up my brother and I when we were young. Next to him is Uncle Chad. Uncle Chad used to be Dad’s assistant.” Layla introduced to her sister in a low voice, “Uncle Mike is working in my elder brother’s company, and Uncle Chad works in the branch of Bridgedale of the Tate Industries, they are very, very good people, as close as our family.”

After Hazel knew it in her mind, a smile immediately filled her face.

Mike and Chad changed their shoes, walked up to Hazel, and looked Hazel over.

“Ouch! The little girl looks very similar to Elliot!” Mike almost pinched Hazel’s face, “I thought the little girl would look like Avery! She looked like her mother when she was just born, why? Will you grow up to look like your father?”

“This is the charm of heredity.” Chad answered from the side, “You can tell it’s my boss’s daughter at a glance, it’s so similar!”

Chad was so familiar with Elliot that he almost engraved Elliot’s facial features in his heart. So after seeing Hazel, he could quickly tell which part of Hazel resembled Elliot.

“Especially those eyes...it’s like copy and paste!” Mike commented.

“Not only the eyes, but also the mouth.” Chad said.

"The nose is a bit like Avery's!" Mike continued.

"Hmm..."

"Have you done DNA?" Mike asked Avery.

"Hazel and Layla did it. You don't need to do anything else with us." Avery replied, "Where did you two go to play? I called you yesterday, but you didn't answer."

"We were diving yesterday! When I saw your phone call, I went to catch a plane." Mike touched his nose, "Your daughter has been found, is it consummated now?"

Avery: "It is indeed consummated. When you come back this time, stay for a few more days!"

"Yes! I can take care of the children for you, hehe!" Mike said, and glanced at Hazel.

Avery: "Do you think any of my children need you to take care of them? Hazel is over 18 years old."

Mike: "I'll take her to play! You and Elliot don't like to run around."

Avery: "Okay If Hazel is willing to play with you, then you can take her to play."

At this time, Chad took out the gift prepared for Hazel.

A red book.

"This is the house we carefully selected for you. You can live there when you go to Bridgedale in the future." Chad explained, "The house has not been decorated yet. When it is finished, I will take photos for you to see."

Chapter 2647

Mike added: "Your Uncle Chad personally designed it!"

"Little girl, just accept it! When the decoration is finished, let's go visit together!" Layla helped Hazel take the red book.

"Thank you, Uncle Mike, and thank you, Uncle Chad." Hazel's cheeks were burning hot, and she thanked her.

"Family, thank you!" Mike patted Hazel's head and teased, "Isn't he just waking up and getting woken up before dressing up? Hahaha! Let's go and have breakfast first! I-I'm hungry."

Everyone walked towards the dining room in a mighty manner.

Fortunately, there were a lot of ingredients at home, and the servants made a lot of breakfast while they were chatting.

“Hazel, I heard that you have a very good relationship with Lilly. It just so happens that your uncle Ben gave you a diamond. You can ask Lilly to design it for you and make it into a style.” Gwen whispered to Hazel, “The crown I gave you is a prize I got when I participated in a modeling competition, I have treasured it for many years, and now I give it to you, I hope you can go smoothly on the road of your dreams in the future.”

Hazel’s eyes were red with emotion: “Thank you, auntie, I will treasure it well.”

“Don’t cry! You have to be happy. We are happy when you are happy. Did you know how long we waited for this day? The first few years of your father and your mother were looking for you was almost crazy. Although they couldn’t find you, they always believed that you were still alive. Fortunately, you have returned safely. From now on, you must spend more time with your parents.”

Hazel nodded: “I-I will.”

“Alright, let’s have breakfast!” Avery took a bowl of noodles and handed it to Hazel.

Because Hazel had lived in Thopiavelle for a long time, she preferred to eat pasta.

Avery already knew her daughter’s dietary preferences, so she asked her servants to make pasta for Hazel every day.

“Auntie Gwen, you can put on makeup for my sister later! My skills are not as good as yours.” Layla spoke to Gwen while eating a sandwich.

“Okay! I’ll take care of your makeup.” Gwen began to retreat behind the scenes in the past two years, and started to run her own beauty brand and clothing brand. She was much more sensitive to fashion than ordinary people.

“Auntie Gwen, and me!” Kara pouted, showing her presence angrily.

“Hahaha! I’ll take care of you guys!” Gwen said boldly.

Tammy sighed: “Kara, you spent two hours putting on makeup in the morning, are you willing to take it off?”

“Of course, Auntie Gwen is amazing! If I had known she would do it for me, I wouldn’t have done it in the morning.” Kara especially praised Gwen’s field.

After breakfast, Gwen took a group of girls to the room and put on makeup for them.

Others sipped tea and chatted in the living room.

“Hazel is going to N University? Why don’t she go with Robert? Brother and sister are together, at least there is a care. Don’t you worry about letting Hazel go to a university alone?” After Mike learned that Hazel was going to study in N University, he expressed his concerns to Avery.

"She doesn't want others to know her identity. She has a relatively low-key personality." Avery especially respects Hazel's thoughts, "As long as others don't know that she is our daughter, there shouldn't be any trouble."

Mike: "What does she want to learn?"

Avery: "Broadcasting. She wants to be a host in the future."

"You children really have different interests and hobbies!" Mike said, looking at Elliot, "I will set up a TV station for your little daughter in the future?"

"Wait for her and let's talk about it after graduation. Maybe after she graduates, she will think differently." Elliot was not in a hurry.

If Hazel really wanted to be a host in the future, Elliot would definitely spare no effort to help her become a well-known host.

"If you want to train your youngest daughter to be your heir, you have to tell her as soon as possible!" Mike joked, "Like Layla knew she was going to be the boss of the Tate Industries when she was a teenager. A sense of mission, a sense of responsibility, Cultivate it first."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2648

Chapter 2648

Avery: "I hope she will relax and not have any pressure. What if I put too much pressure on her and scare her away? She is already 18 years old, and she already has the ability to survive in society. She doesn't have to be wronged by anyone at all, and she can leave whenever she wants."

"Hahaha! You are not so careful with other children." Mike teased, "You have not been so careful with your wife, have you?"

Seeing that Elliot was deflated, Avery immediately chimed in: "My daughter has just come back, so she has to be treated with care. Don't try to provoke my relationship with Elliot. We are doing well!"

Mike tutted out: "You two are old husband and wife, What am I doing to provoke you? At the age you two are now, can you still file for divorce as easily as you did when you were young? Can you make a fuss?"

Elliot: "Why do you sound like we have already half-stepped into the coffin? You Find out, you're not much younger than me."

Mike: "..."

Elliot: "I'm just going to remind you that you two are not young anymore, and your bodies are not as tough as young people, so stop playing those exciting things. Extreme projects...what field adventures, wingsuit flying...don't even think about taking my daughter to do those things, I won't let my daughter play that kind of project."

Because Mike just said that he would take Hazel played, so Elliot put the ugly words first.

As with any extreme sport, there were risks.

Although walking on the main road might lead to disaster, Elliot still couldn't stand extreme sports.

"Look at you. Although you are not much older than us, you are old-fashioned. Proper exercise can make you full of vitality..." Mike said.

"My husband exercises three times a week. He is very energetic." Avery retorted, "Not everyone likes extreme sports, and neither do I."

"I didn't say that I would take you to play! I will take Hazel there Camping, okay? Camping is not the limit, right?" Mike planned.

Avery frowned: "Don't you think camping is too bitter? Our Hazel has suffered for eighteen years, can you take her to enjoy life?"

Chad felt that what Avery said made sense: "Let's go to...It's time to ask Hazel to see where she wants to go. There is still half a month left, and there is enough time to go to any place in the world."

"Okay! Let's see where Hazel wants to go." Mike compromised.

When it was almost noon, several girls finished dressing up and came down from upstairs.

Everyone took Hazel to take pictures.

Layla sneaked up to Avery and confessed to her.

"Mom, when I was shopping with my sister yesterday, I bought a house."

Avery looked at her daughter in surprise: "Where did you buy it? What are you buying the house for? Do you want to move out?"

Layla pulled her arms around her mother's arm, whispered: "I want to move out, I can't live with the habit. I bought a real estate near the company. From now on, I can just walk to and from work. Ten minutes away, very close."

"Why do you want to move out all of a sudden? You think my sister is back, and our energy is all on her, so we ignore you, don't you?" Avery was afraid that Layla had something in her mind.

"Mom, what do you think of me? It's too late for me to be happy when my sister comes back! No matter how kind you are to my sister, I won't be jealous. She has suffered so many years outside, and my heart aches! I-I moved out because I felt that I was not independent enough in life. I wanted to exercise myself."

Chapter 2649

“Do you think you can't find a boyfriend because you haven't moved out?” Avery changed her thought.

Layla: “Mom, don't tell me if you see through, save some face for me, please? I will live outside on weekdays and come back to live on weekends. Is that okay? If you don't agree, I will ask my sister to help.”

Avery : “Do you think mom is the kind of stubborn person? If you insist on moving out, how can mom stop? Mom is just worried about your life... Bring a nanny there? Bring also bodyguard there?”

“No... If I bring someone over there, my father will secretly ask me about my daily life every day. I bought the kitchen utensils myself, so I can cook by myself. If I don't want to Meal, I can order takeaway.”

“What about safety?” Avery was most worried about this.

“I'll let the bodyguards pick me up every day, okay?”

“Okay. Why didn't you tell me in advance when you bought a house? Did you already have this idea?” After Avery promised Layla to move out, she began to worry again, “You still play with me, do you think I won't agree to you? Is your mother like this in your heart?”

Layla put her arms around her mother's neck, coquettishly: “It's not about cutting first and then playing. My heart is actually very Shaken. I want to be independent, but I also want to rely on you. I only dare to tell you if I force myself to buy the house!”

This explanation made Avery look better.

“Why didn't you tell your father? You wouldn't let me tell him, would you?”

“I'm afraid he won't agree! He will definitely say that it's not safe for me to live outside.”

“Your dad is worried about you because he loves you. You have to understand dad's feelings.” Avery said, “Tell your dad about it later. If he disagrees, I'll talk to him again. If you don't tell him, He must be very upset.”

Layla nodded: “Then I'll tell him after lunch. My sister accompanied me to buy a house yesterday and bought a lot of household items with me. Let me show you .”

Layla turned on her phone, clicked on the photo, and showed Avery her house and the household items she bought.

After looking the photos, Avery asked, “Does Hazel have any plans to move out?”

Layla shook her head: "I asked, Hazel said she wanted to live with you! You are so kind to her. Mom, don't worry, She loves you too."

Avery breathed a sigh of relief: "Layla, you can move out, but don't mess around! Don't associate with messy people."

Layla: Mom, I'm not a child anymore, and you're still worried that I'll be taken away!"

Avery: "Why don't you worry! Your mother will be worried."

"Don't worry! I don't like making new friends... If I make new friends, I will definitely tell you as soon as possible." Layla promised.

Only then did Avery feel relieved.

"Mom, why didn't you invite Eric to play?" Layla pretended to be indifferent, and asked, "Didn't we always notify him of any important events in our family?"

Avery: "The main reason is that you are afraid of embarrassment! Don't you feel embarrassed?"

Layla blushed slightly: "Why am I embarrassed! I'm not embarrassed. I'm not a fairy, and I can't be loved by everyone, how normal it is to be rejected!"

Avery sighed: "Baby, you are very strong. However, your father doesn't like him, so for the sake of family harmony, I still don't invite him."

"Mom, I don't want you to become enemies with him because of me. Then I will feel like a sinner." Layla felt the current situation was weird, "I don't hate Uncle Eric at all."

Chapter 2650

"Baby, of course we are not enemies with Eric. Last time I met your father and he met him! The relationship between people may become weaker. This is a normal phenomenon. Don't think too much about it." Avery patted Layla on the shoulder, "Before you confessed your love to him, we didn't have as much contact with him as before."

"Isn't it because he was too busy at work before, so he didn't see much? But now he has retired, he is not busy." Layla didn't want her relationship with Eric to become weaker.

After all, Eric filled her entire childhood.

"He didn't take the initiative to contact us either! Layla, you have to understand that he didn't take the initiative to contact us, maybe because he felt too tired to contact us. Then we don't need to bother him. We will never be enemies with him. If he has any difficulties and asks us for help, we will definitely help. Similarly, if we have difficulties, he should also help us. But if there is nothing else, there is no need to contact us."

Layla probably understood the relationship her mother was talking about, but still felt a little uncomfortable.

It may be because there were not many people who really cared about Layla.

After lunch, Layla dragged Elliot outside. It was the hottest time of the day.

As soon as Elliot went out, he was sweating from the heat.

“Baby, why do you have to come outside to talk?” Elliot was very puzzled when he saw Layla’s face flushed with heat.

“The house is full of people...Let’s talk about it outside! I bought a house yesterday, near the company. I want to move out to live alone and come back to live on weekends. Dad, what do you think? How is it?” Layla raised her eyebrows slightly and looked at Elliot.

The expression on Elliot’s face suddenly became serious: “Why?”

“I want to try the feeling of living alone. I have already made an agreement with my mother.” Layla was afraid that Elliot would object, so she moved out of Avery immediately.

“Why did you tell mom first? In your heart, mom loves you more than dad, right?” Elliot said sadly.

“Of course not. I told my mother first because the chances of my mother agreeing are higher. Because my mother has always been more relaxed with us. But I know in my heart that you love us as much as my mother. Dad, you just agree? I’ll go out and try it out, and if I’m not used to it, I’ll come back right away.” Layla shook Elliot’s arm like she did when she was a child, and acted like a baby to Elliot.

“You think it’s convenient for you to fall in love because you live alone?” Elliot tried to analyze Layla’s heart.

Layla: “I also want to fall in love, but how can I talk about it if I don’t have a partner? Dad, at my age, it’s okay to fall in love, right?”

Elliot pondered for a while with a sullen face.

He felt very hot just now, but now his heart was cold.

“How did you negotiate with your mother?” Elliot asked.

“Bodyguards take me to and from get off work every day.” Layla replied, “I solve the problem of eating by myself, without a nanny.”

“How do you solve it yourself? You don’t know how to cook.” Elliot frowned.

“I can learn! I’ll buy a cookbook and follow the recipe. If I can learn how to cook, how about I go home and cook for you and mom on weekends?” Layla said confidently, “Dad, I really want to see if I can live on my own. I’m 25 and I haven’t lived on my own.”

“Since your mother agreed, what else can father say.” Elliot said helplessly, “You can move out to live, but if you are not used to living there, come back. Don’t hold on, it’s unnecessary.”

“Of course, I’m not stupid.” After talking with her Dad, Layla happily took Dad back to the house, “Dad, let’s take a family portrait! After my sister came back, we haven’t taken a family portrait yet! “

Elliot thought this was a good idea, so he went to get the camera.

After the camera was taken out, Layla invited her father to sit in a chair, and then invited her mother to sit in a chair.

Then the four brothers and sisters stood beside their parents.

“Wesley, I heard that you take good pictures, come and take them!” Chad gave the camera to Wesley.
