

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2651

Chapter 2651

Mike has an opinion: "I'm good at taking pictures!"

"You forget it! Wesley is a professional!" Chad felt that for such an important occasion, of course the most professional people should be allowed to take pictures.

Wesley waved his hand in embarrassment: "I'm also an amateur. Let Mike take pictures! I saw photos of you two traveling, and many of them are very good."

Mike said proudly: "Did you hear, Wesley said that I took pictures Good."

Chad glared at him: "Your three-legged cat's martial arts are not as good as mine!"

"Uncles, stop arguing! Why don't you let me take pictures!" Kara came over and held Chad snatched the camera from Chad's hand, "Since everyone is amateur, there is nothing to argue about! I'm still the leader of our school's photography club!"

After Kara finished speaking, she took the camera and pointed at the already The posed family clicked twice and pressed the shutter.

After the photo was taken, everyone immediately gathered to see the photo taken.

"It's ok, Kara! It's not bad!" Mike boasted.

Wesley also praised after seeing the photo.

Kara said with a smile: "Uncle Foster's family's good looks are there. I can take pictures of them with my eyes closed. I don't need any skills at all."

"Baby, why is your mouth so open today?" Tammy couldn't help laughing.

"Because I'm telling the truth!" Kara said again, "Would you like to take a group photo? If so, I'll find a tripod to set up a delayed shot."

Everyone immediately turned to Elliot's family and joined them.

The servant brought the tripod, and Kara set the camera to delay shooting.

After the group photo was taken, Kara took the camera and planned to export the photo for repair.

"Tammy, your daughter is really amazing!" Avery boasted, "What does she want to do in the future?"

Tammy: "I haven't asked. I always feel that she is still young, so I haven't talked to her about this issue."

Avery: "Isn't Kara going to college too? Didn't you ask her what major she wants to study?"

Tammy: "She told us to leave her alone. So we left her alone... But I think Looking at her admission notice, she seems to have applied for some ancient architecture... I asked her what this major is for, and she said that she chose it randomly, and thought it might be more fun, so she chose it."

Avery : "..."

It's really casual!

"Jun and I don't care about her. It doesn't matter what major she studies, as long as she is interested. Anyway, I don't expect her to rely on her major for a living." Tammy said calmly, "She has to go home and inherit the family business."

After laughing for a while, Avery said, "Layla is planning to move out."

Tammy: "What does she think?"

Avery: "She wants to be independent."

"Are you a little sentimental?" Tammy asked.

Avery shook her head: "She always has to be on her own, and it is impossible to stay by my side for the rest of her life. I just hope that she can meet the right person. Because she is very yearning for marriage."

"Normal. She is 25 years old. If there is no such...That's the problem."

"Are you saying that Hayden has to see a psychiatrist?" Avery sighed, "I'd better not interfere about his marriage and career, it's good to be able to focus on one side."

Chapter 2652

Avery thought about this and had a headache.

It's impossible for children to follow the beautiful life plan they imagined.

Elliot also got married very late back then, so there was no need to demand that Hayden get married and have children now.

She was very clear that her children were definitely not people who would make do with it.

Why marry if Hayden couldn't meet someone he really liked?

"I didn't say that Hayden needs to see a psychiatrist. I think Hayden is quite normal. Wasn't Elliot like this back then? He only had career in his eyes. Because he hasn't met the woman he likes yet! Wait until he meets the woman he likes. You can't become an infatuated dog like Elliot..."

Avery's lunch was almost spat out by the word 'infatuated dog'.

"Avery, do you think you will be a good mother-in-law?" Tammy asked.

Avery hadn't thought about this question.

After all, Hayden had never been in love before, so he never gave Avery a chance to think about this issue.

Whenever Hayden brought a girl to her, she would probably think about it.

"I don't think I will interfere in the life of my son and his partner." Avery replied, "After all, he is young and I know what young people think."

"What if your son's partner is unreliable? For example, hers character is not good..." Tammy asked, "Hayden has never been in a relationship, what if he lost his eye when choosing a girlfriend? Don't you care?"

Avery: "If that woman can make Hayden like it, it means that the girl has special charm. I don't think it is possible for Hayden to be taken by a woman to do murder and arson with the education he has received! As long as he is not taken to I don't care about doing illegal things."

Tammy gave Avery a thumbs up: "Can your husband think so?"

Avery couldn't help laughing: "Do you think my husband can take care of Hayden's affairs? My husband takes care of Hayden's affairs." Regardless of other children, other children will listen to him for the time being. Hayden has long been independent and does not live with us. My husband knows it well and will not make fun of himself."

Tammy: "Hey! The child is too capable It's not good if you have too many children. If one of you doesn't listen to you, at least there are other children who listen to you. If my daughter doesn't listen to me at all, I will be very sad. I can't accept Kara leaving me and settle down in another country. Then I will feel as if I didn't have this child."

Avery understood Tammy's feelings, so she comforted her: "If Kara wants to settle abroad in the future, you can go with Chad!"

"Kara probably won't go abroad to settle down. How could she have Hayden's ability! If she is really as good as Hayden, Jun and I will definitely follow her."

"Don't think so much, if the children leave us in the future, we can play together!" Avery began to think about the days after retirement.

"That's right! Let's go play cards! My mother said that playing cards can prevent Alzheimer's disease." Tammy pulled Avery to the recreation room.

The next day, Layla packed a box of luggage and moved to her new home where she lived alone.

Everyone in the Foster family went to visit Layla's new home together.

Regarding Layla's new home, Elliot and Hayden did not express any opinions.

The two of them sat down on the sofa after looking at Layla's new home in all directions.

"Sister, don't you think your house is a bit boring?" Robert expressed his thoughts, "It's too small!"

"Why do I have to be so big living alone." Layla glared at Robert.

"But I can live here too! You should buy a bigger one." Robert continued to express his thoughts, "It's not safe for you to live alone! How about I stay and live with you tonight?"

Layla: "Please let me be clean! I beg you."

Robert sat down next to Elliot: "Dad, what do you think of my sister's house?"

Elliot: "Not good."

The villa where Elliot had been living was a detached villa, so he was naturally not used to living in crowded high-rise commercial buildings.

Looking out from the balcony, there were tall buildings all around, and he get goosebumps just looking at it.

Chapter 2653

"Okay! Brother, what do you think?" Robert turned to ask Hayden.

Hayden: "I think your sister bought this kind of house because of her insanity."

Robert: "..."

Layla: "..."

Hazel: "I think this house is pretty good! Why do you think it's not good?"

Hazel was very puzzled and asked a question.

"This house is transparent from north to south, and the lighting is good. The floor is neither high nor low, and you can see the scenery, but it is not too high. What's more, you can see your sister's company from the balcony." Hazel felt that The pros of this house speak for themselves.

Elliot looked at his daughter tenderly, and Hayden also shut up.

Avery smiled and said: “Your father and your brother have never lived in such a small house, so they think this house is not good. The two of them have never suffered, so they pick and choose.”

“But this house is lived by my sister, my sister Just feel good!” Hazel muttered.

“Little sister is right! I’m here to experience life, not for pleasure.” Layla walked to her sister, put one hand on her shoulder, and looked at her father and brother on the sofa, “Dad, brother, you don’t have to feel sorry for me. How can I grow without suffering?”

Hazel sighed.

Living in such a nice house, was this called suffering?

Avery coughed lightly, and brought the topic aside, “Layla, you can find a housekeeping company to clean the house! I just touched the window, and there is dust.”

“Oh, I’ll just wipe it myself later.” Layla took out her phone and showed everyone, “I’ve placed an order for a cookbook, and it will be delivered later. You just wait for my big change Let’s go!”

Elliot, Avery, Hayden, Robert: “...”

Hazel: “Sister, I believe in you!”

Layla: “Yes! When sister’s cooking skills are mastered, I will cook for you at that time. You eat! By the way, didn’t Uncle Mike say he wants to take you out to play? Do you want to go out with them?”

Hazel: “I don’t want to bother them, but they seem to really want to take me out to play, so I’d better hang out with them!”

Layla: “Don’t worry about going out with them! Just treat Uncle Mike as your second father, don’t be polite to him.”

Hazel nodded obediently.

Layla: “Where do you want to go?”

Hazel thought for a while: “I want to go to Eozambiulle to see. I heard that there is a very beautiful aurora over there.”

Layla: “Seeing the aurora is a matter of luck, not necessarily I can see it.”

Hazel: “Well, I’ll try my luck. If I see the aurora, I’ll take a picture of it for you.”

Hazel’s desire to go to Eozambiulle was naturally not just to see the aurora. She wanted to see what the country where Lucas went to school was like.

It's a pity that she didn't know Lucas's current number, and her previous number in Thopiavelle had also been suspended, so there was no way to tell Lucas about her new number.

She would not tell anyone about these little thoughts hidden in her heart.

Because Lucas appeared in her life, like a meteor, flashing by.

Sometimes she even doubted whether those fragments of memories were her own fantasies.

In this world, there might not be Lucas at all.
