

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2738

Chapter 2738

After Avery heard Elliot's words, her throat seemed to be blocked.

She wanted to say something, but couldn't say it.

Elliot thought that Layla was more ominous than good—was that what he meant?

"But there may be miracles." Elliot felt that he had said something wrong, so he immediately added, "Avery, we have to believe in miracles."

"You really think we can encounter miracles over and over again, is it?" Avery felt that being able to find Hazel was already the luckiest thing, it was already a gift from God to them, now, could there be such a miracle again?

Of course she hoped to have it, but she felt that it was hanging again and again.

Just as the two of them were silent, Elliot's cell phone received a message.

A staff member sent him the specific time when Layla and Eric entered the scenic spot.

According to this specific time, it could be inferred that Layla and Eric happened to be on the snow mountain when the avalanche happened.

It was almost certain that the two of them lost contact because of danger.

Nobody knew for certain if they were still alive.

Avery leaned in front of Elliot, read the messages on his phone, and closed her eyes.

"I guessed it... If they're okay, they should have called us to report their safety." Elliot put his arms around her body, resting his chin on her head, with a gloomy and desolate expression on his face.

Before Hazel came back, Layla was his most beloved baby.

From the moment he knew Layla was his daughter a long time ago, his heart was touched by Layla's every move. He devoted a lot of energy to this precious daughter, hoping that she will be safe, healthy and happy. He couldn't accept such bad news now.

Elliot was not the only one who loved Layla so much.

After Mike and Chad came to join Hayden, and learned of the difficult and dangerous situation, they immediately contacted a professional outdoor expedition team to come to the snow mountain to search and rescue.

As more and more people came to participate in the rescue, people in distress in the snow mountain were found one after another and carried down.

At the foot of the snow-capped mountain, there were already cold corpses lying side by side.

They were neatly dressed, and their clothes were not damaged, but there were varying degrees of panic and fear on their faces.

By four o'clock in the afternoon, the electric circuit was successfully repaired, and the electricity was finally connected.

By this time the sky had begun to darken.

Today's snow was not heavy, but intermittent, almost non-stop.

By five o'clock in the evening, the network system was restored.

Elliot and Avery were notified and immediately set off for the hotel closest to the snow mountain.

After arriving at the hotel, Elliot couldn't stay any longer.

"Avery, I'll go and see the scene. You wait for Hazel and Robert at the hotel." Elliot held Avery's hand tightly, pleading.

Both Mike and Chad had already gone to battle in person, looking for someone on the snow mountain.

He couldn't sit in the hotel and wait for the results.

If it wasn't for Hazel and Robert to wait, Avery and Elliot would go to the scene to see it together.

"Be careful." Avery confessed, "You'd better be with Hayden. Don't wander around by yourself."

"Okay." Elliot held Avery's face and pressed a kiss on her forehead, "wife, I Love you."

Listening to his confession, Avery knew that his heart was very fragile now, so she responded: "Husband, I love you too. No matter what the outcome is, we will face it together as a family."

Avery kept swiping her phone after Elliot left, afraid of missing any important news.

The network had been restored, and Hayden would soon be able to locate Layla's cell phone.

He could pinpoint Layla's exact location if he found her mobile phone.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2739

Chapter 2739

...

When Robert and Hazel arrived in the Northland, it had already become dark.

Robert took a taxi to the hotel according to the hotel location sent to him by his mother.

The closer they got to their mother, the more nervous and frightened Robert and Hazel became.

"It's been almost two days, why is there still no whereabouts of my sister?" Robert was gripping tightly in his heart.

Robert really wanted to call Hayden to ask about the latest situation, but considering that his brother must be very busy right now, Robert held back.

There was silence in the family group, and no one spoke.

When Avery called, Robert answered the phone immediately.

"Mom, my sister and I have already got off the plane. We are on our way to your side now." After Robert answered the phone, he immediately told Avery about the situation on his side.

"Okay, be careful on the road." Avery's voice sounded less sad than during the day because Hayden has discovered the location of Layla's phone. He just found out.

Hayden knew that her mother was worried, so after discovering the location of Layla's cell phone, he immediately told her the news.

Layla's mobile phone appeared at a height of 700 meters in the snow mountain.

This was actually not very good news.

The slightly flat area was an open scenic spot only 1000 metres away from the snow mountain. If tourists climbed to other locations on their own and something went wrong, the scenic spot was negligent.

And Layla would never attempt to climb from the mountain's base to the 700-meter summit without the assistance of a professional guide.

Not to mention going down to 700 meters after taking the cable car to 1,000 meters.

There was only one possibility.

That's when the avalanche happened, Layla's cell phone fell from 1,000 meters to 700 meters.

If this was the case, then there were two possibilities.

The first possibility was that Layla and the phone fell 700 metres to the snow-capped mountain.

The second possibility was that the mobile phone fell 700 meters away from the snow mountain alone.

Either way, it's not a good outcome.

Layla's current situation...was not good, no matter what Hayden speculated.

The avalanche had happened more than a day before. It was starting to get dark.

There were lights at the foot of the mountain, so it was still very bright, but the mountain was completely dark, which brought great difficulties to the rescue work.

And Hayden's goal was to find Layla and Eric before 12 o'clock tonight.

Their chances of survival were even slimmer if they were not rescued as soon as possible.

"Mom, sister..." Robert held the phone, hesitated for a few seconds, and asked the question.

"Hayden has located Layla's cell phone. Now the rescuers have concentrated on looking for your sister's cell phone." Avery said, "Are you and Hazel hungry? I ordered dinner at the hotel. We'll eat together when we arrive."

Hazel wanted to talk to her mother, so she asked Robert for a cell phone.

Robert immediately handed the phone to Hazel.

“Mom, don’t worry too much, I will be fine.” Hazel wanted to comfort her mother.

“Well. Your elder brother said that you will definitely find your sister tonight. When you arrive, I want to go and see the scene.” Avery expressed her thoughts.

Hazel: “Mom, my second brother and I will go with you.”

Avery: “We’ll talk about it when you come over. Your father hasn’t eaten yet, so bring them food later.”

Hazel: “Okay.”

After talking on the phone, she felt a little relaxed after a day of fear.

Now that her sister’s mobile phone had been located, her brother would definitely be able to find her soon.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2740

Chapter 2740

When Hazel and Robert arrived at the hotel, there was no new news from the snow mountain.

When Avery saw them, she immediately greeted them for dinner.

“Mom, have you been up all this time?” Hazel saw her mother’s bloodshot eyes. Although she tried to calm down, she could see that she was in a bad mood. “Don’t get tired.”

Avery said but she had no choice but to tell the truth: “I really can’t sleep.”

“But you can’t do without sleep.” Hazel wanted to ask if she should take some medicine to soothe the nerves and help sleep, but she didn’t say it. This drug definitely had side effects on the body.

“Mom, you can sleep in your room after dinner! My sister and I will go to see the snow mountain.” Robert actually didn’t fall asleep for more than a day. But he was still young, and he didn’t look so haggard even if he didn’t sleep for a day.

“I’ll go and have a look with you. If there’s no news, I’ll come back.” Avery said, “I’ll call your father back when the time comes. He hasn’t slept either.”

Robert and Hazel heard this, they couldn’t eat anymore.

Avery took the chopsticks and picked up food for them.

“Eat more. Don’t waste so many dishes.” Avery actually couldn’t eat it, but she had to cheer up in front of her children.

“Mom, it’s quite cold outside.” Robert took a bite of the meal and said, “Why don’t you let my sister accompany you to rest in the hotel! Even if we go to the scene, we can’t help. I’ll deliver the meal to Dad, and I-I will watch my father finish the food.”

Hazel understood what his brother meant, and immediately echoed: “Mom, why don’t I sleep with you! It’s really cold outside right now. If there is a result, they will immediately inform us.”

Avery glanced out the window.

The street lights outside the window were dim, and she could see snowflakes fluttering if she looked closely.

“It’s so cold outside, how cold Layla must be!” Avery sighed in a low voice.

Robert and Hazel fell into grief again.

The three of them had enough to eat, and Avery packed the rest of the food.

“In fact, Hayden also has food. I was afraid that your father would not eat well, so I wanted to send it to him. He drank two mouthfuls of soup at noon.” Avery packed the packed lunch box, “I’d better go and see. Let’s go together.”

After Avery said that, the two children couldn’t object anymore.

So the three of them took the car together and headed to the foot of the snow mountain.

The rescue team built simple tin houses and tents at the foot of the mountain, and the conditions were particularly difficult.

When Avery arrived at the foot of the snow mountain with her two children, the scene was brightly lit and countless rescuers were busy at the scene.

Some were carrying corpses on the ground, and some were treating wounds of injured rescuers in tents.

There were also people squatting on the side eating box lunch.

On the snow-capped mountains, numerous rescuers could be seen working.

After Avery took a general look at the situation at the scene, she couldn’t find Elliot’s person.

She handed the lunch box to Robert, then took out her cell phone to call Elliot.

Hazel suddenly saw a lot of people standing under a snow mountain, so she pointed over there: "Mom, look over there. Are Dad and the others over there?"

At this time, Avery just called Elliot.

Elliot answered the phone after hearing the ringtone.

Avery saw Elliot's figure from a distance, and immediately stepped forward, stepping on the snow and walking towards that side.

Robert and Hazel followed behind their mother.

After Elliot answered the phone, he turned around and saw Avery, Robert and Hazel.

Rescuers were trying their best to find Layla's cell phone and Layla.

Rescuers were now almost 700 meters above the snow-capped mountain.

It was the most tense moment, so even though Elliot answered the phone and saw his wife and children, he didn't walk towards them.

After Avery hung up the phone, she took the food from Robert.

When she walked in front of Elliot, Avery gave him a steamed bun.

"Eat something! It's cold outside, and something will warm you up." Avery didn't force him to go back to the tent to eat, because she knew that the rescue was quite tense now.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2741

Chapter 2741

Elliot took the steamed bun, took a bite, and looked at Robert and Hazel's faces.

Elliot: "It's cold outside, you go to the tent."

"Dad, we're not cold. Is my sister on this snow mountain?" Robert looked at the rescuers halfway up the mountain.

"Yes. She's right here." It was Hayden who answered, "Robert, take Hazel back to the tent."

After hearing what Hayden said, Robert obediently responded immediately, and then held Hazel's hand.

"Brother, Dad, I'm not cold." Hazel wanted to see Layla as soon as she was rescued.

Although Hazel said so, Robert took Hazel back to the tent to avoid the cold.

"Little sister, have you noticed that Dad's hair seems to be much grayer?" Robert was standing next to Dad just now, so he could see it clearly, "Dad didn't have so much gray hair before. It was after my sister had an accident that it suddenly turned gray. "

Hazel didn't pay attention to her father's hair just now.

"I saw my parents getting old all of a sudden." When Hazel said this, tears welled up in her eyes, "I thought my parents were so young before, and I always felt that they would not grow old..."

Robert: "This blow is too great."

This was also the biggest blow Robert had ever encountered in his life.

But this was actually the second huge blow to Elliot and Avery.

The first blow was knowing Hazel's real life experience, but Hazel could not be found in the whole world.

It's just that Hazel couldn't be found, and They could also do psychological construction to comfort themselves that Hazel might have a good life somewhere in the world.

But this time, Layla couldn't be comforted at all.

Layla was here, and had been hit by an avalanche.

"found it!" In the distance, there was a loud cry suddenly!

Robert and Hazel immediately walked out of the tent.

"Found the phone!" Another loud cry came.

Found Layla's cell phone.

Layla's phone fell into the thick snow.

Rescuers managed to find Layla's cell phone so smoothly under such a dim environment with great care.

“Is there anyone nearby?!” Hayden asked in a voice.

“I didn’t see anyone near the phone!” The person above was wearing a loudspeaker, and the voice came loudly, “Let’s continue to look up, there should be someone up there!”

Hayden: “Be careful!”

Hayden also wore an amplifier, sound equipment.

His voice was clearly diffused—

Layla seemed to hear Hayden’s voice. She wanted to call Hayden, but she couldn’t open her mouth, let alone make a sound. She was so cold, so tired... her body couldn’t move at all. She felt that she was probably dead.

But why did she continue to hear Hayden’s voice in her dreams?

Thinking of her loved ones, she was in great pain.

She was just out on a business trip, and she didn’t want to be separated from her family.

How could she die if she hadn’t properly repaid her parents and said goodbye to her family?

Regardless of how unwilling she was, she was going to die.

Ever since she yelled no to Eric and couldn’t feel Eric’s vital signs, she knew that she would die soon.

...

“I found it! I found Eric!” After climbing more than 200 meters, the rescuers finally found Eric buried in the snow. “This man, he seems not to be breathing!”